Herd for interest on the note set forth in the petition, with interest thereon to the first day of this term (to-wit: February 22nd 1886) the sum of Forty-one and 25/100 Dollars. The Court further find that in order to secure the payment of said notes and interest thereon, the defendants Cassius M. Herd and Ella Herd, his wife, executed and delivered to said W. L. Curry (who duly assigned the same to this plaintiff) their mortgage as in the petition described that said mortgage was duly recorded in Book 17, Page 281 of the Records of Mortgages of Union County and is a good and valid lien on the premises described in the petition, and that the conditions in said mortgage have been broken.

Mandate from the Circuit Court.

State of Ohio } Circuit Court, Union County, Ohio
Union County, ss } At a term of the Circuit Court, within and for the County of Union, in the State of Ohio begun and held before, Hon. John J. Moore Hon Henry W. Seney and Hon. Thomas Beer, Presiding Judges at Marysville O. on the 5th day of October A.D. 1887, among other proceedings then and there had by and before said Court, as appears by its Journal, were the following, viz:-

Perry Douglass et al
No. 58 vs.
James B. Whelpley et al

This day this cause came on to be heard upon the demurrer of the defendants to the supplemental petition of plaintiff and was argued by counsel, on consideration whereof and the Court being fully advised in the premises finds that said demurrer is not well taken, and therefore overrules the same, to which ruling of the Court the defendant at the time excepted and thereupon said defendants asked leave to file an answer instanter, which leave was granted by the Court and said answer was filed. Thereupon came said plaintiff and filed a demurrer to the second defense in said answer stated, which demurrer was argued by counsel and submitted to the Court; on consideration whereof and the Court being fully advised in the premises finds that said demurrer is well taken and therefore sustains the same to which ruling of the Court the defendants at the time excepted

Said defendants not desiring to further amend their answer this cause came on further to be heard upon the issues made by the pleadings and the agreed statement of facts. Whereupon the Court being fully advised in the premises finds all the facts stated in the supplemental petition to be true, and that the facts therein stated entitle the plaintiff to an injunction as prayed for in the amended petition filed Dec. 30th 1882. The Court further find all the issues made by said amended petition and the answer thereto in favor of the defendants, except the issue as to whether a majority of the resident land owners reported by the viewers as benefited and who ought to be assessed to build said road, had signed the petition to the Commissioners asking for said improvement; as to this issue the Court find on said agreed statement of facts that there are 121 resident land owners whose lands are reported by the viewers as benefited and who ought to be assessed to build said road, and that of these 121 resident land owners 64 had signed the petition for said road improvement.

The Court further find that one Margaret Mc Cullough was the owner of a dower estate which had been set off to her by metes and bounds and which she owned at the time of all the proceedings had herein before the Commissioners and was a resident of Union County Ohio and did not sign the petition for the improvement. that said land in which she had her dower estate assigned was reported in the name of John T. Mc Cullough who owned the fee in this dower estate, and who also owned other lands in the territory reported for assessment and of which this dower estate formes a part; that no estate or interest of Margaret Mc Cullough in said land was reported as against her for assessment by the viewers and no assessment was made as against her for the improvement but the only assessment against said tract was against the fee simple owned by John T. Mc Cullough: that said John T. Mc Cullough signed the petition for the improvement: that said dower estate was not counted by the Commissioners

The Court find that said Margaret Mc Cullough gave no written consent to the same. It is the opinion of the Court that said dower estate should be counted as a tract of land owned by a resident land owner, making the number of resident land owners 122. The Court further find that Levi and Matilda Taylor were the owners jointly of a tract of land reported by the viewers as benefited and which ought to be assessed: That said Levi and Matilda Taylor were both residents of the County at the time of all the proceedings had before the Commissioners herein; That Levi Taylor signed the petition and was properly counted as a petitioner, and that Matilda Taylor did not sign the petition; That Levi Taylor owned another tract of land reported by the viewers as benefited and which ought to be assessed: the Court find that the tract owned by Levi Taylor and Matilda Taylor jointly was not counted by the Commissioners as a tract of land owned by resident lands owners.

It is the opinion of the Court that said tract of land owned by said Levi Taylor and Matilda Taylor should be counted as a tract of land owned by resident land owners and be added to the 122 making the total no of resident land owners 123.

The Court further find that Bruce Robinson and Susannah Robinson owned a tract of land jointly, that O. C. McClure and J. P. McClure owned a tract of land jointly; and that S. B. Linville and David Linville owned a tract of land jointly, and that each of the above named parties were residents of the County at the time of all the proceedings had herein before the said Commissioners and the said tracts of land were reported by the viewers as benefited and ought to be assessed. that Bruce Robinson, O. C. McClure and S. B. Linville signed the petition asking for said improvement, but that Susannah Robinson, J. P. McClure and David Linville did not sign the petition. The Court find that Susannah Robinson, J. P. McClure and David Linville gave no written consent to said improvement. It is the opinion of the Court that said Bruce Robinson, O. C. McClure and S. B. Linville ought not to be counted as petitioners, and that these being counted by the Commissioners as petitioners should be taken from the 64 thus reducing the number of petitioners to 61. And the Court is of the opinion and decides that the fact that said Susannah Robinson and J. P. McClure were in favor of said improvement and the fact that Matilda Taylor and David Linville entered no protest or objection to the same is of no legal effect and would be incompetent as evidence to change or vary said Court, no consent being given in writing. To which decision defendants at the time excepted.

It is therefore considered and adjudged by the Court that a majority of the resident land owners reported by the viewers as benefited and who ought to be assessed did not sign the petition asking for said improvement and that for that reason as well as for the reason of the facts stated in said supplemental petition, said defendants be perpetually enjoined from placing any assessment against the lands of either of the said plaintiffs for the making of said improvement. To all of which rulings, decisions and judgment the defendants at the time excepted. And thereupon came the defendants and filed a motion for a new trial for the reason therein stated, which was argued by counsel; on consideration whereof and the Court being fully advised in the premises finds that said motion is not well taken and therefore over rule the same, to which ruling of the Court the defendants at the time excepted. It is further ordered, considered and adjudged by the Court that the defendants pay the costs of these proceedings taxed at $

And it is further ordered by the Court that a special mandate issue to the Court of Common Pleas of Union County Ohio to carry said judgment for costs into execution, and that a copy of this entry be certified to the Clerk of Common Pleas Court of said County for entry &c I, John Q. Burgner, Clerk of the Circuit Court of Ohio, within and for Union County do hereby certify that the foregoing entry is truly taken and correctly copied from the Journal of said Court.

at Marysville Ohio, on the 5th day of October A.D. 1887, among other proceedings then and there had by and before said Court, as appears by its Journal, were the following, viz:-

James Hoover, Plaintiff vs.
Obediah Holmes and Mary A. Holmes, Defendants } No.

This day came the parties and this cause being called and it appearing to the Court that the answer of the defendant contained among other things the defense of "Res adjudicate" which was set up in the 2nd defense in defendants answer and the Court on the suggestion of the defendant directed the evidence first to that issue. Thereupon this cause was heard upon the petition, the 2nd defense set up in defendants answer and reply thereto together with the evidence. On consideration whereof the Court being fully advised in the premises on application of plaintiff for finding of facts, find as a conclusion of fact; "that after the note and mortgage in the petition mentioned was executed, to-wit: on the 11th day of January 1883, the plaintiff James Hoover for a good and valid consideration sold and delivered the same to one James W. Robinson at the same time guaranteeing the payment of a part of said note. That afterward said James W. Robinson being the owner and holder of said note and mortgage brought suit thereon in the Common Pleas Court of said County to foreclose said mortgage making as parties defendant thereto, the defendant herein and said Hoover but asking no relief against said Hoover. That said Hoover filed his answer alleging among other things that he sold said note and mortgage to said Robinson at the request of the defendant herein. The defendants herein filed their Answer in that case and set up several defenses, and among others, same defense as is contained in the first count of the answer in this case, Also alleging that they did not know whether the said Robinson was the owner of the note and mortgage and demanding proof thereof: that at the April Term 1883, of said Court said case was tried and the equities found against the said James W. Robinson and the following entry was made on the Journal of said Court to wit:- "No. 4041- " James W. Robinson vs O. Holmes et al This day this cause came on to be heard upon the petition and answer of the defendants and the reply of the plaintiff and the Court find from the testimony for the defendant Obediah Holmes and wife Mary J. Holmes and it appearing that James Hoover is not a proper party hereto and that Charles Holmes who was interested in said claim is not a party hereto: It is ordered by the Court that said James Hoover be dismissed without prejudice to any right he may have under said mortgage and it is ordered by the Court that this petition be dismissed at plaintiffs Cost without prejudice to the right of James of James Hoover to bring his action on said note and mortgage and the Court order plaintiff to pay the costs herein within thirty days and in default of payment execution issue therefor as upon judgment at law. The Court further find that at the time of said suit said Robinson was the owner of said note and mortgage and that subsequently thereto the said Robinson sold said note and mortgage back to the said James Hoover who brings and prosecutes this action thereon. That the judgment and decree of said Court of Common Pleas in the suit brought by said Robinson has never been appealed from and is still in full force and effect. From these facts the Court find that this action of James Hoover on the same note and mortgage is barred by the former trial and decree and find for the defendant. It is therefore considered and decreed by the Court that defendants go hence without day and recover their costs herein expended taxed to $

This day came on this cause to be heard by the Court both parties waiving a trial by jury. Whereupon the Court being fully advised in the premises find that only such of the items charged in the petition should be allowed as are sustained by the original entries of the books kept by plaintiff and made thereon at the time of the professional services, and further find that payments were made on the account from time to time so as to prevent the statute of limitation becoming a bar to any part of the account therefor. The Court find that the whole account due plaintiff from the defendants estate as claimed in his petition to be $1463.66 including interest from the time of the death of said Stewart and after deducting the payments made on said account as credited thereon and further that the notes set up in defendants answer as offsets to said account amount to $516.20 leaving a balance of $947.46 with interest from the 9th day of January 1888

This cause being heard on the demurer of plaintiff to the answer of defendants John C. Gamble and Elmer Gamble, George Gamble & Catherine Wingfield the court on consideration thereof sustains the same and the defendants not asking to plead further, thereupon this cause coming on to be heard upon the petition of plaintiff the answer of the Guardian ad Litum for the Minor defendants Frankie Gamble & Lotora Gamble and the proofs and the cause being submitted to the court, the court find that all the defendants have been duly served with Summons and that the defendant A. Johnson Bird is in default for answer or demurer; and the court find that the allegations of the petition are true, and that the plaintiff is the widow of Samuel Gamble who died on the 28th day of October 1887, and who ceased to be the owner of the 50 acre tract (the 3d tract) described in the petition on the 31st day of July 1884, and the court further find that the defendant A. Johnson Bird is in possession of the 3d described 50 acre tract in the petition described, claiming to own the same in fee Simple and has so been in possession since the 31st day of July 1884. The court further find that the plaintiff was married to the said Samuel Gamble as in her petition set forth and that the said Samuel Gamble is now deceased; that during said Coverture the said Samuel Gamble from whom the title of said A. Johnson Bird is derived was seized of the said real estate, viz; the 50 acres third tract described in the petition as an estate of inheritance, and that on the 31st day of July 1884, said Samuel Gamble, bargained and sold by a written agreement said land to the said A. Johnson Bird and that plaintiff was no party to said Sale nor her right of dower in said land effected thereby and that said Sale did not bar her right of dower in said premises, and that She is Entitled to have the same set off and assigned to her as prayed for in her said petition. And the court find that as such widow plaintiff is entitled to dower in all the other real estate described in her said petition,

It is therefore considered and adjudged and decreed by the court that the said plaintiff be endowed of one full Equal third part of the premises described in the petition, and that a writ issue to the Sheriff of Union County Commanding him that by the oaths of Jas A. Henderson, John T. Moore and Jas B. Norris three judicious disinterested men of the vicinity in said county who are not of kin to either of the parties and who are hereby appointed commissioners for that purpose, he cause to be set off and assigned to the plaintiff her dower in manner as above ordered, and that of such proceedings, together with said commissioners appraisement of the yearly net value of said real estate Estimated from the 28th day of April 1888 to the day of such assignment of Dower. The said commissioners and the said Sheriff make return without unnecessary delay, And thereupon said defendants gave notice of appeal and the court fixed the bond for appeal at $150.00
