In the Matter of the Estate of Christian F. Eickemeyer Deceased.	No. 5085. Journal Entry. On Exceptions to Inventory &c.	March 29th 1898

This day came Anna Mary Eickemeyer and presented to the Court her written exceptions to the Inventory of the estate of said decedent heretofore filed in the premises. Thereupon the Court ordered said

Exceptions filed and that notice thereof pursuant to law, issue to the Administrator of said Estate.

Thereupon came John Rausch as the Administrator of the Estate of the said decedent and voluntarily entered his appearance to said Exceptions, waived further notice thereof, and consented to the immediate hearing thereof by the Court. And thereupon the hearing of said Exceptions proceeded and the same were submitted to the Court upon the testimony introduced in support thereof. Whereupon the Court, being fully advised, finds that the said decedent, in his lifetime, delivered to the said Exceptor, as and for her property absolutely, the note in said Exceptions specified, and being the first note mentioned and described in Schedule "I" of said Inventory, to-wit: The note of Geo. Schneider, Dated Feby 23rd 1898, and given for the sum of $65.00; The Court further finds that said note was drawn payable to the order of the said decedent, but that said note was delivered, as aforesaid, without the indorsement of the payee thereof. The Court further finds from the testimony that said note was erroneously, and by mistake of said Administrator, submitted to the Appraisers of said Estate for valuation, and was so entered in said Schedule of said Inventory.

Wherefore, it is considered, ordered and adjudged by the Court that the said Exceptions be, and they are hereby sustained, and the said Administrator is accordingly ordered to re-deliver the note aforesaid to the said Exceptor.

It is further ordered and adjudged by the Court that the said Administrator pay the costs in this behalf taxed at $, and that a record in the premises be made.

(S. S.) James McCampbell, Probate Judge.

Afterward, to-wit: On the 21st day of February A.D. 1898, Exceptions to said Inventory were filed in this Court which read in the words and figures following, to-wit:

To the Probate Court of Union County, Ohio —

John E McCune as Administrator with the Will annexed of David McCune deceased now comes and says, That on or about the 26th day of January 1898 he was by the Probate Court of Union County, Ohio duly appointed Administrator with the Will annexed of the Estate of David McCune deceased and on the same day qualified as such and is still said administrator and Rose Michael who is one of the legatees of the said Will of David McCune deceased — named in said Will as Rose Greene wife of John Mischael — Enters the following objections to the Inventory filed herein by Lorenzo Kent the administrator of the estate Harriett McClure deceased —

They say that Harriett McClure deceased was the wife of David McClure deceased
That by the terms of the said David McClure's last Will and Testament, the said Harriett McClure was to have possession and control of the Estate of David McClure deceased during her life time for her use and support and one Thousand Dollars in lieu of her dower —
That on the death of said David McClure the said Harriett McClure took the possession of and controled all the said Estate of David McClure deceased, consisting of notes certificates of Deposit and a large amount of personal property and real estate and continued in the possession and control of the same until her death about the 18th day of January 1898.

These objectors say that the property described in the Inventory and consisting of Household goods commencing in said Inventory with the item of "Bedstead" and ending with the item "69 shocks of corn" is the property of the Estate of the said David McClure deceased & was owned by him at the time of his death, and should be inventoried as assets of the estate of David McClure deceased

Said objectors object to items 1-2-3 & 4 — in said Inventory and consisting of Certificates of Deposit on the Farmers Bank of Plain City Ohio because they say the same was the property of David McClure deceased at the time of his death and since his said death have been changed into the name of said Harriett McClure by her during her life time and are now in fact the property of the Estate of David McClure deceased —

Said objectors object to item 5 — Schedule G of said Inventory and say that the same is not of the property of the estate of Harriett McClure deceased but is of the property of David McClure deceased —

Said objectors object to Item No. 7 Schedule G of said Inventory consisting of $542.04 interest due on Bank Stock and say that the same is not of the Estate of Harriett McClure deceased, but is the property of the estate of David McClure deceased, and should be placed among the assets of the last named Estate

The said objectors object to items 1-2-3 and 4 of Schedule F of said Inventory because they say the said sums of money and notes therein enumerated were the property of the said David McClure deceased at the time of his death —

The said objectors say that the sums of $30.00 and $400. were under the full control of the said Harriet McClure during her life time and that she permitted the same to become doubtful by neglect and delay — and said objectors claim said sums with their interest as an offset against the One Thousand Dollars legacy provided for said widow in the Will of David McCune deceased.

In the Probate Court of Union County, Ohio, April 15th 1898.

This day this matter coming on to be heard, pursuant to adjournment, on the exceptions to the Inventory of the Estate of Harriet McClure, deceased, heretofore filed herein,

Record of Inventories and Sale Bills,

the Court finds from the testimony that the exception relating to Schedule "D" of said Inventory is well taken in this - that all the chattels mentioned and appraised in said Schedule are the property of the estate of David McLaine, deceased, except the following items which the Court finds are assets of the estate of said Harriett McLaine, deceased, to-wit: 3 tons timothy hay appraised at $12.00; one lot clover hay appraised at $12.00; 150 bushels corn at 24¢ amount estimated at $120.00; 100 bushels white cap corn at 22¢, amount estimated at $22.00; and 69 shocks corn at 30¢ amount $20.70. Therefore, the said Exception, as to said property of the estate of said David McLaine, deceased, is, by the Court, sustained; but all other objections and exceptions to the said Inventory are hereby over-ruled.

It is further considered, ordered, and adjudged by the Court that the costs in this behalf taxed at $19.85, be apportioned between, and paid by, the said Estates respectively, as follows, to-wit: The estate of David McLaine, deceased, the sum of $11.40; and the estate of Harriet McLaine, deceased, the sum of $8.45. And it is further ordered by the Court that a complete record in the premises be made.

Thereupon came the Administrator of the estate of said David McLaine, deceased, by his Attorney, L.W. Myers, and excepted to the orders of the Court over-ruling said Exceptions and taxing costs as aforesaid.

And thereupon, also, came the Administrator of the estate of said Harriet McLaine, deceased, by E. Piper, his Attorney, and excepted to the orders of the Court sustaining said Exceptions as to Schedule "D" of said Inventory and taxing costs, as aforesaid.

mentioned in the inventory of said estate, filed in said Court.

Said authority is asked for the following reasons:

The wheat and oats can be hauled directly from machine to market and sold to better advantage and at less expense; in some of the machinery the estate owns only an undivided interest which will not sell to good advantage at public auction; nearly all of said stock is covered by chattel mortgage and is covered by execution.

For these and other reasons it would be for the best interest of said Estate to sell said property at Private sale—all of which are depreciating in value and that said administrator has been unable to sell the same at the appraised value thereof. In the Matter of the Estate of Christian A. H. Eickemeyer, Deceased. } No. 5085. April 15, 1898. Entry - On Application to Reduce Appraisement &c.

the following articles of personal property belonging to said Estate, towit: 2 Bbl. Early Ohio potatoes, 2 5/3 bu. Rose potatoes, 4 bu. onion sets, 6 lbs. bologna, 22 lbs. cheese and 27 lbs. dried beef. Whereupon the Court ordered said Application and affidavit filed.

And thereupon this cause came on to be heard upon said Application and Affidavits; and, being fully advised in the premises, the Court finds that the affidavits aforesaid are made by three disinterested persons and that said personal property, above specified, cannot be sold at its appraised value and that it will be for the best interest of said estate to sell said property at a less price, towit: 50 bu. Early Ohio potatoes, at 70¢ per bu. 2 5/3 bu. And the Court further finds that it will be more to the advantage of said estate to sell said property at Private Sale than at Public Vendue. Record of Inventories and Sale Bills,

Estate of Christian A. H. Eickemeyer, Deceased.

Be it remembered, that heretofore, towit: On the 25th day of April A.D. 1898 an Application to reduce Appraisement and sell at Private Sale personal property of said Estate was filed in this Court which reads in the words and figures following, towit:

In the Matter of the Estate of Christian Eickemeyer, Deceased. } Application to reduce appraisement and to sell at Private Sale

No 5085. And now comes John Rausch Administrator of the Estate of Christian Eickemeyer, deceased, and represents to the Court that the appraisement of the personal property heretofore made is more than said property can be sold for. That said Administrator has used due diligence to sell the same at its appraised value, but has been unable to do so. That said stock can not be sold at two-thirds the appraised value thereof.

Said Administrator says that all he can sell said property for is the sum of Nine Hundred Dollars, which with the personal property already sold amounting to $148.25 will amount to $1148.25 and that it would be best for the interests of said Estate and to creditors that said property be sold at private sale. That said personal property consists of groceries, and will depreciate in value, by being closed up, and the good will of the business will greatly depreciate by having said business remain idle, while the rent of the room in which said stock is contained will add to the expense of keeping the same.

Said Administrator therefore asks that he be permitted to sell the same at private sale for said sum above named also the horse at $25.00

John Rausch Administrator of the Estate of Christian Eickemeyer, deceased.

Afterward, towit: On the 25th day of April A.D. 1898, an entry was made upon the Journal of this Court which reads as follows, towit:

In the Probate Court of Union County, Ohio, April 25th 1898.
In the Matter of the Estate of Christian A. H. Eickemeyer, Deceased. } No. 5085. Entry - On Application to Reduce Appraisement &c.

This day came John Rausch, Administrator of the estate of Christian A. H. Eickemeyer, deceased, and presented to the Court his Application, and the affidavit of three persons in support thereof, to reduce the appraisement and for an order to sell at Private Sale the remainder of the stock of groceries and furniture, fixtures and appurtenances connected therewith, including one horse, and belonging to said estate. Thereupon the Court ordered said Application and affidavits filed.

And thereupon this cause came on to be heard upon said application and affidavits; and, being fully advised in the premises, the Court finds that the affidavits aforesaid are made by three disinterested persons and that said personal property, above specified, cannot be sold at its appraised value and that it will be for the best interest of said Estate to sell said property at a less price, towit: the sum of Nine Hundred and fifteen Dollars.

And the Court further finds that it will be more to the advantage of said Estate to sell said property at private sale than at public vendue.

It is, therefore, ordered by the Court that said Administrator proceed to sell said personal property at private sale at not less than the above re-appraised value thereof, for cash.

It is further ordered that said Administrator report his proceedings under this order within one month from the date hereof and matter continued.

James McCampbell, Probate Judge.

Said Order of Sale reads in the words and figures following, towit:

Petition To Sell Personal Property.

Probate Court, Union County, Ohio.

In the Matter of the Assignment of M. L Doty } No. 5172. Petition To Sell Personal Property. Petition.

To the Judge of said Court:

The undersigned respectfully represents that he is the duly appointed and qualified Assignee of M. L Doty of said County; that the personal property of said estate has been duly appraised, and the inventory and appraisement thereof filed in said Court. Your Petitioner Makes application for authority To sell at Private Sale, as provided by law, and upon such terms as the Court may order, the following personal property of said Estate, as described in said inventory and appraisement, towit:

Descriptions of Articles Appraised.	Appraised Value.
The Stock of boots, shoes and rubber goods, together with Store, lamps, button fastens, settees &c and fixtures; as returned by the appraisers heretofore appointed herein. Said Stock &c. was appraised at	$2135 34

Said authority is asked for the following reasons:

That in Said Stock of Boots Shoes &c. there are about $700.00 worth of "rubber & combination felt goods, - which must be disposed immediately, before the season for such goods closes, Also that by private sale the expense of disposing of said stock will be greatly lessened and more money can be made by private than public sale; - as by Public sale the season for sale of much of said stock will be passed making said stock a drug on the Market.

T. J. Dodge Clerk of Sale.

The State of Ohio, } ss.
Union County, } I, Robert McCrory, Executor of the estate of John Crotinger deceased, do make solumn oath that the foregoing Sale Bill is in all respects correct, to the best of my knowledge and belief
Robert McCrory Executor.
Sworn to before me and signed in my presence, this 10th day of May A.D. 1899.
(L.S.) James McCampbell Probate Judge.

Estate of John Crotinger, Deceased.

Be it remembered, that heretofore, towit: On the 11th day of March A.D. 1899, an Application to sell personal property at private sale was filed in this Court which reads in the words and figures following, towit:

Petition to Sell Personal Property.

Probate Court, Union County, Ohio.
In the Matter of the Estate of } Petition to Sell Personal Property.
John Crotinger } No. 5-191 Petition.
To the Judge of said Court:
The undersigned respectfully represents that he is the duly appointed and qualified Executor of the Estate of John Crotinger late of said County; that the personal property of said Estate has been duly appraised, and the inventory and appraisement thereof filed in said Court. Your petitioner makes application for authority to sell at private sale, as provided by law, and upon such terms as the Court may order, the following personal property of said estate, as described in said inventory and appraisement, towit:

No. of Item.	Weight, Measure or No. of Articles	Description of Articles Appraised.	Appraised Value.
4	19	Fat hogs	115 00

Said hogs are fat, and ready for sale and will not increase in value by being left for public sale - but there is danger of loss by deferring the sale of said hogs, by reason of the want of sufficient feed and attention - It would be to the interest of the estate to sell said hogs at once.
Robert McCrory Executor

The State of Ohio, } ss.
Union County, } Robert McGrory Executor being duly sworn, says, that the facts stated in the foregoing petition are true, as he verily believes.

Robert McGrory Executor

Sworn to before me and signed in my presence, this 11th day of March 1899.

James McCampbell, Probate Judge.

Afterward, towit: On the 11th day of March A.D. 1899, an entry was made upon the Journal of this Court which reads as follows, towit:

In Probate Court, Union County, Ohio, March 11th 1899.
In the Matter of the Estate of } No. 5191. Journal Entry.
John Crotinger, Deceased. } Order for Private Sale.

This day came Robert McGrory, Executor of the last Will and Testament of John Crotinger, deceased, and presented to the Court his written application for an order to sell at private sale the personal property specified in said application. And thereupon this matter came on to be heard upon said application and the evidence and the same was submitted to the Court. Whereupon the Court, being fully advised in the premises, finds that it will be more to the advantage of said estate to sell the property in said application specified at private, than at public, sale.

It is, therefore, considered, ordered and adjudged by the Court that said Executor proceed to sell said property, for not less than the appraised value thereof, at private sale for cash. It is further ordered by the Court that said Executor report his proceedings under this order in one month from the date hereof and forthwith upon execution of the same and this matter is continued.

James McCampbell Probate Judge.

Afterward, towit: On the 18th day of March A.D. 1899, an entry was made upon the Journal of this Court which reads as follows, towit:

In Probate Court, Union County, Ohio, March 18, 1899.
In the Matter of the Estate of } No. 5191. Journal Entry.
John Crotinger, Deceased. } Confirmation of Sale.

This day came Robert McGrory, Executor of the last Will and Testament of John Crotinger, deceased, and presented his return upon the order for private sale of personal property, heretofore issued by the Court.

Whereupon the Court, having carefully examined said return and being fully advised in the premises, do find the same in all respects regular and in conformity to law and the same is therefore approved and confirmed; and the said Executor is ordered to transfer the property so sold to the purchaser thereof. It is further ordered by the Court that said Executor pay the costs in this behalf, taxed at $, and that a record in the premises be made.

James McCampbell Probate Judge

Said Order of Sale reads in the words and figures following, to-wit:

Order of Sale, Personal Property.

Probate Court, Union County, Ohio.

In the Matter of the Estate of John Crotinger, Deceased. } No. 5191. Petition To Sell Personal Property. Order of Sale.

No. of Item.	Weight or No. Articles in Item.	Description of Articles Appraised.	Appraised Value.
4	19	Fat Hogs	$ 115 00

Said sale to be upon the following terms: Cash in hand at time of sale. You will return this order within one month from this date, and forthwith upon the execution of the same, together with your report thereon endorsed.

Witness my hand and the seal of said Court, this 11th day of March A.D. 1899.

Petition To Sell Personal Property.

In the Matter of the Estate of } Petition To Sell Personal Property.
Lovanchia Fuller, Deceased. } No. 175 Petition.

To the Judge of said Court:

The undersigned respectfully represents that he is the duly appointed and qualified administrator of the estate of Lovanchia Fuller, deed, late of said County; that the personal property of said estate has been duly appraised, and the inventory and appraisement thereof filed in said Court. Your petitioner makes application for authority to sell at private sale, as provided by law, and upon such terms as the Court may order, the following personal property of said estate, as described in said inventory and appraisement, towit:

Description of Articles Appraised.	Appraised Value.

Said authority is asked for the following reasons:

Said property consists mostly of live stocks for which there is a current demand, and on account of the nature and quality of said property said administrator believes he can secure more therefor at private than at public sale, and that it would be to the best interest of said estate to dispose of it in that way.

Petition to Sell Personal Property.

Probate Court, Union County, Ohio.

In the Matter of the Estate of Samuel D. Butler. | No. 5180. Petition to Sell Personal Property. Petition.

To the Judge of said Court:

The undersigned respectfully represents that he is the duly appointed and qualified Administrator of Samuel D. Butler of said County; that the personal property of said estate has been duly appraised, and the inventory and appraisement thereof filed in said Court. Your petitioner makes application for authority to sell at private sale, as provided by law, and upon such terms as the Court may order, the following personal property of said estate, as described in said inventory and appraisement, towit:

No. of Item.	Description of Articles Appraised.	Appraised Value.
1	One top buggy	20 00
2	One horse	16 00
3	One set single harness	2 00

Said authority is asked for the following reasons:

I have been offered $35.00 for said buggy and can obtain $31.00 for said horse and can sell the robe and harness for their appraised value. That a sale of said property at private sale will be for the best interest of said estate in this towit, more money can thereby be obtained for said property than at a public sale thereof.

Petition to Sell Personal Property.

Probate Court, Union County, Ohio.

In the Matter of the Assignment of Garrard & Son } Petition to Sell Personal Property. Petition. No. 5237.

To the Judge of said Court:

The undersigned respectfully represents that he is the duly appointed and qualified Assignee of Garrard & Son of said County; that the personal property of said estate has been duly appraised, and the inventory and appraisement thereof filed in said Court. Your petitioner makes application for authority to sell at private sale, as provided by law, and upon such terms as the Court may order, the following personal property of said estate, as described in said Inventory and appraisement, tourt:

Description of Articles Appraised.	Appraised Value.
The stock of groceries and other article of personal property contained in the stock of goods assigned to the said assignee by said assignors consisting of Sugars, Coffees, teas, Spices, Candies, cigars, tobacco canned goods, crackers, salt, Crockery ware, Woodenware, Hardware razors, Knives, Shears harps, Spectacles, fixtures and all other goods as contained in said stock including one delivery wagon, as shown by the inventory on file in said Probate Court,

Assignment of Dorster H. Dean.

Be it remembered, that heretofore, towit: On the 19th day of July A.D. 1899, a Motion in the above entitled cause was filed in this Court which reads in the words and figures following, towit:

No. 4415 And now comes the said Assignee John L. by John W. Brodrick Attorney.

Afterward, towit: On the 19th Day of July A.D. 1899, an entry was made upon the Journal of this Court which reads as follows, towit:

In the Probate Court of Union County, Ohio, July 19th 1899.

In the Matter of the Assignment of Dorster H. Dean to John L. Boylan. } No. 4415 Journal Entry Ordering deposit of Desperate Claims &c.

This day came John L. Boylan, as Assignee in trust for the benefit of the creditors of Dorster H. Dean, Assignor, and presented to the Court his written motion for an order directing him to deposit in this Court certain desperate and uncollectable claims belonging to the said Assignment for the reason that the said claims cannot be sold for enough to pay the costs of a sale thereof.—

And thereupon this matter came on to be heard upon the said motion, and the evidence, and the same were submitted to the Court. Whereupon, the Court, being fully advised in the premises, finds that the claims set forth in the list of claims presented to the Court with the said Motion are desperate and difficult of collection and that the cost and expense of either a public or private sale thereof would not be justified in the premises. Wherefore, it is considered, ordered and adjudged by the Court that the said Motion be and the same hereby is, sustained. And the said Assignee is hereby ordered to deposit in this Court the claims aforesaid for the inspection of all parties interested therein until the further order of this Court. It is further ordered and adjudged by the Court that the said Assignee pay the costs in this behalf taxed at $, and that complete record in the premises be made. James McCampbell, Probate Judge.
