RECORD OF ACCOUNTS

To the Court; The administratix herein respectfully represents. that she was erroneously charged in the Inventory and Appraisement with three Edgy notes: to wit: $47.84; $156.75 and $97.27. for the reason that said notes and the interest thereon were included in a new note for the aggregate amount of $288.69. with the intention of deceased. to surrender said three notes, but which he failed to do.

The Bank of Marysville did the figuring, and Bowen Bros. of Marysville, Ohio. drafted the real estate mortgage given to secure the new note, and R. F. Edgy. made his affidavit thereto, which is hereto attached, and. made a part hereof. hence. said three notes have been surrendered by this admx., with the knowledge and consent of the heirs herein.

That wheat. growing was erroneously appraised, because it belonged to the estate of a former wife of deceased, amounting to $38.50. That 110 fleeces of wool were charged to her. whereas. it proved to be but 79 fleeces. Administratix accounts for the difference. at $2.00 per fleece. That the funds. on hands on the 8. day of April. 1923. on which the taxes attached. were divided between the widow and heirs in their proper distributive shares. and added to their respective tax returns, hence. this Administratix has not paid, or kept back, as such, anything for the payment of said taxes. as they will be paid, as. indicated above.

That the J. W. and C. L. Jones. note was appraised at $300.80, whereas. it should have been $191.19 instead, because. of the indorsements on the back thereof. which the appraisers overlooked.
