The Union Central Life Insurance Company, Plaintiff

vs

Alfred Scott. Lydia Scott James H Roney. Rebecca Roney et al.- Defendants

Court of Common Pleas
Union County. Ohio.

Entry

This cause coming on for hearing on the petition of plaintiff. and the Answer of A.B. Robinson and the Evidence, the Court find that the defendants herein have waived the Service by Summons and time for answering and that (Except A.B. Robinson) they are in default for answer and demurer. and that the allegations of the petition are thereby confessed by them to be true - and that there is due the plaintiff from the defendants Alf. Scott and J H. Roney on the promissory Notes set forth in the petition the Sum of $3511 89 with interest at 7 per cent from July 1st 1899, and $92 87 with interest at 8. per cent from July 1st 1899.

The Court further find that in order to Secure the payment of said Notes the Alf Scott and J.H. Roney, and Lydia Scott, and Rebecca Roney their Wives. Executed and delivered to the said, The Union Central Life Insurance Company The plaintiff. their Certain Mortgage as in the petition described, and on the premises therein described: That the said Mortgage was duly recorded in Book 24. page 327 of the records of Mortgages of Union County, and is a good and Valid lien on the premises described in the petition, and that the Conditions in said Mortgage have been broken.

It is therefore Considered by the Court that the plaintiff recover from the defendants the Sums of $3511 89 with interest at 7. per cent from July 1st 1899. and $92 87 With interest at 8 per cent from July 1st 1899, and its Cost herein Expended.

And it is further adjudged and decreed that Unless the defendants, Alf Scott, and J. H. 7641 Frankie E. Kintner
vs
J. Ed Robinson Defendant.
The Bimel Carriage Company substituted defendant

Union County, Ohio.

This day came the plaintiff by her attorneys, and The Bimel Carriage Company having been substituted as defendant herein, came by its attorneys, all parties being upon Court, waived a jury and by agreement submitted this cause to the Court upon the pleadings, Exhibits and evidence and was argued by Counsel. On consideration whereof the Court being fully advised in the premises find that at the commencement of this action the right of property in and the right to the possession of the property named in the petition was in the plaintiff.

And the Court find from the evidence that the appraised value of the property to-wit the sum of Four hundred and fifty nine & 75/100 Dollars is and at the commencement of this action was the true value thereof.

The Court further finds that before this action was commenced said property had been taken by the said J. Ed Robinson as Sheriff of said County upon an Execution issued from this Court upon a judgment in favor of the said The Bimel Carriage Company and against one J. C. Kintner, and not against the plaintiff and that said Sheriff then held said property and refused upon demand to deliver it to the plaintiff and that said property wrongfully detained from the plaintiff by said Sheriff.

The Court further finds that upon process issued in this action said property was taken by the Coroner, he being the officer to whome said Writ of replevin was directed and that after it had been so taken it was by said Coroner delivered to the said The Bimel Carriage Company upon its agreeing and giving an undertaking to return said property to plaintiff or pay her the appraised value thereof, as she should elect, should the Court upon trial find her entitled to the same.

And the plaintiff now electing to take the value of said property as fixed by the appraisers thereof to-wit. the sum of Four hundred and fifty nine & 75/100 Dollars which the Court finds from the evidence to be the true value thereof. It is therefore considered and adjudged by the Court that the said plaintiff recover from the said defendant The Bimel Carriage Company the said sum of Four hundred and fifty nine & 75/100 Dollars and her costs herein expended and taxed at $

The defendant The Bimel Carriage Company thereupon filed its Motion for a new trial herein which motion is overruled by the Court, & exception by said defendant and the Bimel Carriage Company has the Statutory Time in which to prepare and file a Bill of Exceptions and the records are ordered kept open for that purpose.

Court adjourned until 10 O'clock Monday Morning, Sept. 25th 1899.

And now comes the said plaintiff, The Farmers Bank by its Attorney, John M. Brodrick, and thereupon this cause came on to be heard upon the Supplemental petition, and the said defendant Willis Y. Roots still failing to demur or answer to the said petition, the said petition is taken to be true. It is therefore considered that the plaintiff ought to recover the amount heretofore found due him by reason of the premises; On consideration whereof the Court find that said judgment heretofore rendered herein is a lien upon said premises set forth in said Supplemental petition herein.

It is therefore considered by the Court here, that in case the said defendant Willis Y. Roots fail for 10 days from this date, to pay to the said plaintiff the said judgment and costs heretofore found due and costs of this proceeding that an execution issue out of said Court to the Sheriff of this County, commanding him to cause the said premises so described in said Supplemental petition to be appraised, advertised and sold, according to law, and apply the proceeds of the sale, first in payment of cost; second, in payment of the judgment so as aforesaid rendered; and the residue, if any, he bring into Court, to abide the further order of said Court.
Sept. 25th 1899.

7654 | Ellen Douglass Kincaid vs Levi L. Longbrake et al | Court of Common Pleas Union County Ohio.

This day this cause came on for hearing on motion of the plaintiff to confirm the sale heretofore made herein, and the Court having carefully examined the return of the Sheriff and finding the same in all respects in compliance to law and the former order of this Court, the same is hereby approved and confirmed, and said Sheriff is ordered to convey said premises to the purchaser Robert W. Thompson.

And the Court coming now to distribute the proceeds of the said sale, order that said Sheriff, out of the money in his hands, to-wit; Two Hundred and Fifty and 50/100 Dollars, pay:

1st To the Treasurer of said County the taxes amounting to $9.00
2nd " To the Clerk of this Court the costs herein amounting to $97.45-Ex 3rd " To the plaintiff the balance of said proceeds viz: 14.40-to apply on her judgment against said defendant heretofore rendered herein.
$250.50

Walter F. Cranston = Plaintiff
vs
Ida M. Cranston = Defendant.

This day this cause came on to be heard, and the defendant was permited to withdraw her pleadings from the files= And this cause was submitted to the Court Upon the petition and the evidence.

On consideration whereof the Court find that due legal Notice of the filing and pendancy of the petition has been given to the defendant. The Court further finds that the plaintiff was a resident of the State of Ohio for One year next preceeding the filing of his petition, and at that time was a bona-fide resident of this County of Union. and that the parties were duly Married as Stated in the petition.

The Court finds that the defendant has been guilty of gross neglect of duty toward plaintiff as in the petition set forth. by reason of Which he is entitled to a divorce as prayed for.

It is therefore adjudged, and decreed that the Mariage Contract heretofore existing between the parties hereto be, and the same is hereby dissolved, and both parties released therefrom

The Court find that the said parties have entered into a Joint Nuptual agreement in regard to the Custody of the Children and alimony, a Copy of. Which is filed in this Case. and the Court having Examined the said agreement and heard the Evidence find said agreement is fair and reasonable and Makes a just and proper provision for the defendant. and therefore approves and confirms the same deems to be reasonable as a part of this decree.

It is further ordered that the plaintiff pay the Costs herein.

7640 Hezekiah W. Wood vs Wm Guy et als } Court of Common Pleas Union County Ohio.

This day the return of the writ of execution issued in this case was produced to the Court by the plaintiff and the proceedings and sale of the Sheriff under the Commands and requirements of such execution being carefully examined by the Court and found by the Court in all respects in conformity to law, and the Court being satisfied of the legality of such said sale which is hereby approved and confirmed by the Court, it is ordered by the Court that the Sheriff J. Ed Robinson make the purchaser Luthell W. Wood, Jr. deed for said lands and tenements so sold to said purchaser, and out of the money arising from said sale it is further ordered by the Court that said Sheriff pay first all the costs and expenses of this cause, second the amount to the defendant N. Z. Overing, Guardian of Elmer C. and Blanche G. Miller.

7704 The Union Banking Co. vs Garard & Son } Court of Common Pleas Union County Ohio.

This day this cause came on for hearing on motion of the plaintiff to confirm the sale herein and the Court having examined the proceedings and return of the Sheriff and finding the same strictly in conformity to law and the former order of the Court herein, it is considered and ordered that said sale be confirmed and said Sheriff is ordered to convey said premises to the purchaser thereof by a good and sufficient deed, and the Court coming now to distribute the proceeds of said sale in the hands of the Sheriff to-wit: $300.00, it is ordered that said Sheriff pay:

1st, To the Clerk the costs of this case $35.98 2nd, said plaintiff the remainder of said proceeds $264.02, and a writ of possession is awarded to put said purchaser in possession of said premises.

7274 — W. A. Radabaugh vs Charles R. Cornell et al — Court of Common Pleas, Union County, Ohio.

This day came the parties by their attorneys and settled this cause as follows:

The plaintiff releases all his claims against the defendants and in consideration thereof the defendants release all claims against the plaintiff - and by agreement each party is to pay one half the costs hereof.

It is therefore adjudged by the Court that the plaintiff pay one half the costs hereof and that the other half of said costs be paid by the defendants, and it is agreed that no record be made.

7403 — Ann Hammond vs Jane Gordon et al — Court of Common Pleas, Union County, Ohio.

This day this cause came on for hearing on motion to dismiss said case for want of prosecution.

Thereupon came the plaintiff by her attorney and voluntarily dismissed said case without prejudice to a new action herein.

It is therefore considered and adjudged by the Court that the plaintiff pay the costs herein taxed at $ and execution is awarded therefor.

7705 — Adelia Rud vs Joseph R. Martin et al — Court of Common Pleas, Union County, Ohio.

This day leave was granted the defendants Mary A. Snodgrass and Joseph R. Martin to answer in 20 days from Dec. 2d 1899.

7716 — The Union Banking Co. vs Wilber Temple et al — Court of Common Pleas, Union County, Ohio.

This cause came on to be heard on the pleadings filed and the evidence, the defendants Wilber Temple, Ella Temple and Leland Temple being in default of answer and demurrer, although duly served with process.

On consideration whereof the Court finds that upon the 17th day of September, 1897, the defendant Wilber Temple and his brother Spurdan Temple and his mother Amilda Temple executed and delivered to the plaintiff the promissory note in the petition set forth, a true copy of which is to the petition attached, and thereby promised to pay to the plaintiff the sum of One hundred and fifty five dollars in twelve months thereafter with 8% after maturity.

The Court find that the interest on said note has been paid to the 17th day of September, 1899 but that no part of the principal of said note has been paid and no part of the interest since the 17th day of September 1899, and that there is now justly due plaintiff upon said note the sum of $155.00 with 8% interest from September 17th 1899, making the amount now due and owing the plaintiff upon said note the sum principal and interest to this date of $157.57.

The Court further finds that on the said 17th day of September 1897, the said Wilbur Temple, Sheridan Temple and Arpeleda Temple executed and delivered to the plaintiff the mortgage deed in the petition set forth and upon the lands therein described, and that the defendant Clara Temple wife of said Wilbur Temple and the defendant Ella Temple wife of said Sheridan Temple joined in the execution of said mortgage deed, and each of them released their dower in said premises.

The Court further finds that at the date of the execution of said mortgage deed the said Sheridan Temple had an inchoate dower interest in said lands but that she has since died and her estate has terminated and that she left no estate and no administrator has been appointed for her.

The Court further finds that since the execution of said note and mortgage the said Sheridan Temple has died intestate and that no administrator has been appointed for his estate.

The Court further finds that said Sheridan Temple left the defendant Ella Temple his widow and the defendant Avery Temple his only heir and legal representative to whom the interest of said Sheridan Temple to said lands described subject however to the lien thereon created by said mortgage. The Court finds that the said mortgage contained the condition set forth in the petition and that it was recorded as in the petition set forth, and that it is the first lien on the premises in the petition described.

The Court finds that all the allegations of the petition are true, and that by reason of the non payment of said note the said mortgage has become absolute and the plaintiff is entitled to an order of foreclosure thereof. It is therefore considered, ordered and decreed by the Court that unless the costs of this suit and the amount found due the plaintiff, with interest shall be paid within three days from the date of this decree, the defendants equity of redemption shall be foreclosed, and an order shall be issued to the Sheriff of said County directing him to appraise, advertise and sell said premises according to law free of the dower of said Ella Temple and Clara Temple and of his proceedings he make due return.

Joshua Richardson as Guardian of Clark Richardson an imbecile
vs
B.F. Parson Ed Vene Parson, his wife
7738

Miami County, Ohio.

This day came the plaintiff by Porter & Porter his attorneys and filed his petition against said defendants, and thereupon came J.P. Kinkade an attorney at law of this Court, by virtue of a Warrant of Attorney for that purpose duly executed by said defendants now produced in open Court, proven, shown to the Court, and filed with the Clerk thereof, appeared in open Court in behalf of the said defendants, waived the issuing and service of process, entered the appearance of said defendants herein, and acknowledging that said defendants did owe and were indebted unto the plaintiff as he has in his petition alleged by virtue of said warrant of attorney comprised that was due from said defendants to said plaintiff, in said indebtedness, the sum of Two hundred and fifty nine & 67/100 ($259.67) Dollars, bearing interest at 8 per cent per annum, and that said plaintiff ought to recover of said defendants a judgment for that sum.

It is therefore considered by the Court that the said Joshua Richardson as guardian of Clark Richardson an imbecile plaintiff do recover of the said B.F. Parson and Vene Parson defendants the sum of Two hundred and fifty nine & 67/100 ($259.67) Dollars, confessed as aforesaid, with interest from Dec. 1st, 1899 at 8 per cent per annum, and also costs in this behalf expended, taxed to $ and by virtue of said warrant of attorney all errors in this action, judgment and proceeding, and all proceedings, petitions and writs of error thereon, are by said defendants waived and released.

7737 McCormick Harvesting Machine Company vs A. E. Mitchell — Court of Common Pleas, Miami County, Ohio.

This day came the plaintiff by Porter & Porter his attorneys, and filed its petition against said defendant, and thereupon came J. H. Kinkaid an Attorney-at-Law of this Court, by virtue of a warrant of attorney for that purpose duly executed by said defendant now produced in open Court, proven shown to the Court and filed with the Clerk thereof, appeared in open Court in behalf of said defendant, waived the issuing and service of process, entered the appearance of said defendant herein, and acknowledging that said defendant did owe and was indebted unto the plaintiff as it has in its petition alleged by virtue of said warrant of attorney, confessed that there was due from said defendant to said plaintiff, on said indebtedness the sum (including interest) of One hundred and thirty two ($132.98) 98/100 Dollars, bearing interest at 8 per cent. per annum, and that said plaintiff ought to recover of said defendant a judgment for that sum. It is therefore considered by the Court here that the said McCormick Harvesting Machine Company plaintiff, do recover of the said A. E. Mitchell defendant the sum of One hundred and thirty two ($132.98-) 98/100 Dollars, confessed as aforesaid, with interest from Dec. 1st, 1899 at 8 per cent per annum, and also costs in this behalf expended, taxed at $ and by virtue of said warrant of attorney all errors in this action, judgment and proceeding, and all proceedings, petition and writs of error thereon, are by said defendant, waived and released.

7703 The Union Banking Company vs Daniel W. Stroak et al — Court of Common Pleas, Miami County, Ohio.

This day this cause came on to be heard by the Court upon the petition of the plaintiff, the Answer and Cross-petition of the defendant David Davis, Virginia McKnight and H. P. McKnight.

The defendants Daniel W. Stock, Ada Stock and Lake E. Jones being in default for answer or demurrer to the petition and said Cross-petition, and the Court having heard the proofs and evidence adduced by the plaintiff and the arguments of counsel, and being fully advised in the premises, doth find: 1- All and singular the statements contained in said petition to be true; 2- That there is now due to the plaintiff from the said defendant, David W. Stock, upon said promissory note in the said first cause of action set forth in plaintiff's petition, the sum of $1085.10 and that except what may hereafter be found due to the State for taxes etc. on said mortgaged property, if anything, the priority of liens of the parties hereto, upon said mortgaged premises is as follows:

That the plaintiff herein has the first and best lien on said premises that the rights and order of the priority &c. of the other defendants in this case is reserved to the future order of this Court.

Wherefore it is adjudged by the Court that the plaintiff herein recover against the said David W. Stock the said sum of $1085.10, together other with 6 per cent interest thereon from this date, and also the costs herein taxed at-$ for which execution is awarded.

And it is further ordered by the Court, that unless the said defendant Daniel W. Stivek pay or cause to be paid the said above adjudged sum of money to the plaintiff within one day from the date of the entry hereof, an order of sale be issued to the Sheriff for the time being of said County, commanding him as such Sheriff to cause said premises to be appraised, advertised and sold as upon execution and that he bring the proceeds of said sale into Court to be distributed according to its further order.

The Court also finds that said defendant Lake T. Jones is liable upon said note to said plaintiff as indorser thereof.

Carrie Burgner
Emery Burgner
7713

Union County, Ohio.

And now comes the said Plaintiff by Jas E. Robinson, Attorney and the defendant having been legally summoned by publication, the Court find that the allegations thereof are confessed by him to be true.

The Court also find that the plaintiff, at the time of filing her petition, had been a resident of the State of Ohio, for one year next preceding the same, and was at that time a bona fide resident of this County of Union and that the offenses for which this divorce is granted were committed within this said County of Union, and that the parties hereto were married as in said petition set forth.

The Court further find upon the evidence adduced, that the defendant has been guilty of desertion and gross neglect of duty toward the plaintiff for more than three years prior to the filing of her petition, and by reason thereof she is entitled to a divorce as prayed for.

It is further ordered and adjudged by the Court, that the marriage contract heretofore existing between the said Carrie Burgner and Emery Burgner be, and the same is hereby dissolved, and both parties are released from the obligations of the same, and it is ordered that the said plaintiff be restored to her maiden name of Carrie Taylor, and it is ordered that the said plaintiff pay the costs of this prosecution.

No 7707 | The Michigan Mutual Life Insurance Company. Plaintiff vs Aly Scott et. al. Defendants | Court of Common Pleas Union County. Ohio. Decree

This day this Cause came on to be heard on the petition of the plaintiff. the answer and Cross petitions of defendants A.B. Robinson. the answer and Cross petition of defendant. A.B. Robinson. Executor of James W. Robinson. deceased. The answer and Cross petition of R.T. Arthur as administrater of Samuel Johnson deceased. and the answer and Cross petition of The Toledo & Ohio Central Railway Company. and the evidence. and was Submitted to the Court. On Consideration whereof. the Court finds that defendant John H. Wood. has entered his Voluntary appearance to this action. and that defendants Aly Scott. Leydia Scott his wife. James H. Roney. Rebecca Roney. his wife A Cameron. The First National Bank of Delaware. Delaware. Ohio. Davies McIntire. S.N. McClelland. and the Bank of Marysville. Ohio. have each and all been duly and legally Served with Summons in this action. and that with the exceptions of the said defendants. A.B. Robinson. and A.B. Robinson as Executor of James W. Robinson. deceased. R.T. Arthur as administrator of Samuel Johnson. deceased. and The Toledo & Ohio Central Railway Company. each and all of the defendants named in said petition are in default for answer. demurrer or other pleading to the petition of Plaintiff. That neither the answers of said defendant. A.B. Robinson. or said A.B. Robinson as Executor of the Estate of James W. Robinson. deceased. or R.T. Arthur as administrater of Samuel Johnson. deceased. raises or makes any issue as to any of the Matters set forth in the petition. and that the allegations and averments set forth in said petition are by each and all of the defendants to this action except said Toledo & Ohio Central Railway Company. confessed to be true

"And the Court further finds that there is due plaintiff The Michigan Mutual Life Insurance Company. from the defendants James H. Roney and Aly Scott, on the premissory note set forth and described in the petition including interest to the Second day of January, 1900. the Sum of Four Thousand Three Hundred and Ninety-one and 71/100 ($4391.71) Dollars.

"The Court further find that in order to Secure payment of Said Note for $4460.00 referred to in the petition. Said defendants Aly Scott and Leydia Scott his wife, and James H. Roney and Rebecca Roney, his wife, executed and delivered to plaintiff their Certain Mortgage deed in the petition described and on the premises therein described, that Said Mortgage was duly filed for record in the office of the County Recorder in and for Union County, Ohio, On the 9th day of April, 1888, and was afterwards recorded in Leiber 27, Page 17 et Seq. of the Mortgage Records in Said office, and the Court finds that Said Sum of $4391.71 hereinbefore found to be due plaintiff, together with interest to accrue thereon, is by reason of the execution, delivery and filing of Said Mortgage a valid, Subsisting, and Exciting Lien, the first and best lien on all the real estate in the petition described.

"The Court further finds that the Condition of defeasance Contained in Said Mortgage has been broken, and that plaintiff is thereby entitled to have the Equity of redemption of Each and all the defendants in Said real estate foreclosed

"the Court further finds that after the execution, delivery and filing of Said Mortgage as aforesaid, Said defendants, James H. Roney and wife, and Aly Scott and wife, Executed and delivered to the Toledo & Ohio Central Railway Company their Certain deed of Conveyance, thereby Conveying to it for the purpose of a railroad right of Way through Said lands described in the petition, a Strip of ground Sixty-Six (66) feet wide, Containing 2.06 acres; That Said deed of Conveyance Covenants of general warrantee, and the Court finds that the premises described in the petition, Excepting Said 2.06 acres used for right of way purposes aforesaid, Should be first Sold to Satisfy the Mortgage indebtedness found to be due plaintiff herein, and the Court further finds that Should Said premises, with Said right of Way, Excepted as aforesaid, Sell for an amount insufficient to Satisfy all Taxes that are a lien on the premises in the petition described, all Court Costs Made or to Made in this action, and Said Mortgage indebtedness of $4391.71 including interest to accrue as hereinbefore found to be due plaintiff, then the Court Shall proceed to determine and ascertain and find the amount of Money Said Railway Company Should pay to plaintiff as damage Sustained by plaintiff by reason of Said Railway Company having taken possession of and used as a right of Way through Said lands in the petition described Said Strip of ground Containing 2.06 acres and described in the answer and Cross petition of Said Railway Company herein, and upon the failure and Neglect of Said Railway Company to pay to plaintiff within thirty days from the time Said Court finds and determines the Sum of Money to be paid plaintiff as aforesaid, an Order of Sale Shall issue to the Sheriff of Union County Ohio directing him to appraise, advertise and Sell Said Strip of ground used for right of Way purposes as aforesaid, the proceeds thereof to be applied on the unpaid Mortgage indebtedness then due plaintiff

"It is therefore Considered, adjudged and decreed that unless the Said defendants, James H. Roney, Rebecca Roney, his wife, and Aly Scott and Leydia Scott, his wife, or Some other of the defendants Named in the petition Shall within five (5) days from the filing of this decree pay

And it appearing to the Court that Nettie Althey one of defendants has Elected to take the said Estate at its appraised Value and has paid to the Sheriff the whole appraised Value of said Estate To wit (175.00) One Hundred and Seventy five Dollars. the same being the amount of said aforesaid Value free of the dower of said David M. Loar. Said David M. Loar. by his assignee J. M. Kennedy waiving the assignment of dower and Elect to take in Money, and the appraisers heretofore appointed find by actual view the appraised value of said dower to be $58.00 Dollars. The Court finding said Mortgage of said J. M. Kennedy to be a lien thereon.

"The Court Now Comes to the distribution of said Estate finds that the Costs of said action including Attorneys fee to J. M. Kennedy. per Services herein amount to (56.38) Fifty Six and 38/100 Dollars.

"It is therefore ordered by the Court that the Sheriff pay to the Treasurer of Union County the Tax upon said property. Taxed at $8.57

Secondly. To the Clerk of this Court the Costs of this action including Counsel fees the Sum of. $ 56.38

"Third out of the respective Shares of David M. Loar. D. S. Loar and Harvey Althey the amount found due on the Mortgage of J. M. Kennedy amounting. to.. $ 76.00

"Then to Nettie Althey the Sum of. $ 11.51

"Then to Percy Althey the Sum of. $ 11.51

Then to John Althey the Sum of. $ 11.51

"The same being their distributive Shares. The above will leave to David M. Loar. a Balance of $ 5.52

"The Court further coming to the Mortgage of said J. M. Kennedy against said D. S. Loar. Harvey Althey and David M. Loar. do find the same to be the first and best lien on their respective interests in said premises and orders the same paid out of the Money arising from their respective Shares. as above ordered in distribution.

Report of Grand Jury.

To the Honorable Duncan Dow. Judge of the Court of Common Pleas Union County Ohio.-

The Grand Jury of the Court of Common Pleas of said County, of the April Term 1900 beg leave to report that they have been in session four days, and herewith return to the court the indictments presented by said Jury: We have carefully examined into all such matters as have legitimately come to our notice, having examined over Fifty five witnesses Covering Fourteen Cases, and presented Eight bills, and ignored Six Cases considered by us: The busines has been transacted in as Expeditious a Manner as possible

During our sessions we have visited the County Jail and made a Complete examination thereof, and find that the rules prescribed by the Court for the care thereof and for the government of its inmates, have been carried out and properly enforced so far as they can be in said Jail - However, we find the hygeine conditions in said Jail to be bad because of faulty construction. We also find said Jail to be an insecure place in which to confine Criminals We therefore recommend that said Jail be re-Modeled and re-fitted with a view to remedying these evils.

We Also recommend that a barn be constructed for the use of the Sheriff.

Respectfully Submitted,

vs. Samuel Sherwood, et al } No 7753 No 1019

This day this cause the parties, and this cause came on to be heard upon the petition of in Error of the said H M Ballinger, and the court being fully advised in the premises finds that there is error in said record and proceedings, of the probate court of this county in this, that said probate Court erred in overruling the demurrer of said H M Ballinger, to the answer of said Margaret D Haines, and also erred in overruling the demurrer of said H M Ballinger to the answer of Samuel Sherwood assignee, It is therefore considered and adjudged by the court that the finding and Judgment of said Probate Court be, and the same is reversed. And it appearing to the court that since this case was commenced, John M Brodrick, one of the attorneys in this case, has been elected and qualified and is now acting as probate Judge of this county, and having an interest in this case. he is disqualified from hearing the same, It is ordered that this cause be retained in this court for further proceedings.

And the court now proceeding to render such Judgment as the probate court should have rendered Sustains the demurrer of the said H M Ballinger to the answer of said Margaret D Haines, and No 7666 Sustains the demurrer of the said H M Ballinger to the amended answer of said Samuel Sherwood And thereupon said Margaret D Haines asked and had leave of the court, against the objection of plaintiff to prepare and file an amendment to her answer, which amendment when filed shall be and form a part of said answer of said Margaret D Haines the same as if originally inserted therein, and this cause is passed for further proceeding

To which ruling of the court in permitting the amendment to the answer of Margaret D Haines, the said H M Ballinger by his counsel at the time excepted, and said plaintiff also then and there excepted to that part of the order of the court which allows and orders said amendment when filed to be a part of said answer, the same as if originally inserted therein. 77 44

Alice A Gamble
Samuel E Gamble

This cause came on to be heard upon the petition, and the evidence, and was submitted to the court, on consideration whereof, the court finds that due notice of the filing and pendency of the petition was given to the defendant according to law — but he has failed to answer or demur to said petition; and that said parties were married as set forth in the petition and that the plaintiff has been a bonafide resident of Union county in the State of Ohio for one year before the filing of the petition herein, and that the defendant has greatly neglected the plaintiff without just cause for about three years prior to the filing of the petition.

It is therefore on this 9th day of April 1900, considered by the court that the marriage relation heretofore existing between said parties be, and the same hereby is set aside and wholly annulled, and the parties released from the obligations of the same, and that the plaintiff pay the costs of this action; And it is further ordered that the care, custody, nurture and education of the child, Alta Mabel, be, until the further order of the court confided exclusively to the plaintiff, and defendant is hereby enjoined from Meddling with, or in anywise interfering with the said child —

George Beecher
Joseph C Rogers et al

This Cause coming on for hearing was submitted to the Court on the petition, answer, cross-petition of Margaretta Geer and the reply to the answer of Joseph C Rogers and on consideration thereof, the court find on the issues joined for the plaintiff, and that there is due the plaintiff from the defendant, Joseph C Rogers, on the promisory note set forth in the petition, with interest to the 19th day of April 1900, the Sum of Five Hundred and thirty three and 47/100 Dollars

The Court further find that in order to secure payment of said note, and another note which has been fully satisfied, the said defendants Joseph C Rogers and Mary Rogers his wife executed and delivered to the said George Beecher, plaintiff their certain Mortgage deed in the petition discribed, and on the premises therein discribed; and that said Mortgage was duly recorded in Vol 16 Page 49. of the records of Mortgages of Union County, and is a good and valid first lien on the premises discribed in the petition, and that the condition of said Mortgage have been broken.

The Court further find that there is due the defendant, Margaretta Geer on her answer and cross petition, and note set up therein the Sum of $68.00 and that the Mortgage therein set forth in her said answer and cross-petition was given to secure it.

It is therefore adjudged and decreed that, unless said defendant Joseph C Rogers, shall within five days from the entry of this decree pay, or cause to be paid, to the clerk of this Court the costs in this case, and to the plaintiff, and to the defendant Margaretta Geer, the Sum so found due them as aforesaid, with interest at the rate of Seven per cent from the 19th day of of April 1900, the said defendants Equity of Redemption be foreclosed, and that said premises be Sold and that an order of Sale issue therefor to the Sheriff of Union County, Ohio, directing him to appraise, advertise, and sell said premises as upon execution, and report his proceedings to this Court for further order.

Mandate from the Circuit Court.

State of Ohio, Union County ss

Circuit Court, Union County, Ohio.

At a term of the Circuit Court, within and for the County of Union in the State of Ohio, began and held at Marysville on the 6th day of February, A.D. 1900, among other proceedings then and there had by and before said Court as appears by its Journal, were the following viz:- No. 160, John D. Mather, Plaintiff, Vs. William A. Wright, James H. Wright and Margaret B. Wright, Defendants;-

This day this cause came on for hearing, and the same was submitted to the Court upon the pleadings and evidence and was argued by counsel; on consideration whereof the Court, being fully advised in the premises find upon the issues joined in favor of the plaintiff, and that the plaintiff is entitled to the relief prayed for in his petition. It is therefore ordered and decreed by the Court that said defendants, William A. Wright, James H. Wright and Margaret B. Wright, be and each of them are hereby forever and perpetually enjoined from erecting or maintaining a dam across said Bokes Creek, touching the plaintiff's land or any part thereof, from interfering with the free and unobstructed flow of the water in said Creek along and adjoining the lands of the plaintiff as prayed for in the plaintiff's petition.

It is further adjudged and decreed that the plaintiff recover from the defendant his costs in this action taxed at $—.

It is further ordered that a special Mandate be sent to the Court of Common Pleas of this County for execution upon this judgment.

Thereupon the defendants filed their motion for a new trial in this cause which was overruled by the Court, and to which ruling and decisions of the Court the defendants then and there excepted, and fifty days is allowed for preparing and filing bill of exceptions, to all which decisions and judgment the defendants then and there excepted,

Morris H. Hill
Vs.
Bessie S. Prop et. al.

7828

In Court of Common Pleas.
Sept. 10, 1900 Union County Ohio.

This cause came on for hearing this 10th day of September, 1900 upon the application of plaintiff, by his attorneys, for the appointment of a guardian, ad litem for infant defendants herein, and the Court upon due consideration finds that said defendants have each and all been duly served with summons, that twenty days have elapsed since the return day of said summons, and that each and all of said defendants have failed and neglected to apply for the appointment of a guardian ad litem to defend for them herein: and therefor the Court appoints Jas. McCampbell of the bar of said County of Union, as such guardian ad litem hereibe, and directs him to answer and defend for them herein.

Approved:
Charles M. Melhorn,
Acting Judge of said Court.

Morris H. Hill
Vs.
Bessie S. Prop et. al.

Sept. 10th 1900 In Court of Common Pleas, Union County, Ohio. 7809

The plaintiff by his attorneys, and the minor defendants by their duly appointed guardian ad litem appearing in Court and signifying their readiness for a hearing upon the merits of the case, thereupon the same came on to be heard upon the petition, the answer of said minor defendants, by their said guardian ad litem, and the evidence on consideration whereof, the Court finds that said plaintiff, Morris H. Hill, is seized of and has a legal right to an undivided one-fourth part of the real estate described in the petition and is entitled to have partition made of said premises, and that the defendants, Bessie S. Prop, Minda B. Prop and Celia S. Prop, are tenants in common with plaintiff, and that each owns and is seized in fee simple of an undivided one-fourth part of said premises. And no reason appearing why partition should not be made: It is therefor ordered, adjudged and decreed that partition of said estate be made; and that an order issue to the Sheriff of Union County, commanding him by the oaths of George Smith, John H. Crawford, and John Ogan, three judicious and disinterested freeholders of the vicinity, who are hereby appointed commissioners for that purpose, he cause to be set off and divided to plaintiff and to each of said defendants the part and portion of said estate to which they are hereinbefore severally found entitled. And of his proceedings herein the said sheriff is ordered to make due return without unnecessary delay.

Charles M. Melhorn,
Acting Judge of said Court.

September Term 1900.

William R. McDermott
Vs.
Rachel Carter and others.

Sept. 10th, 1900 Union County, Ohio.

Now comes the plaintiff by his attorney, and the defendants bring in default for answer and demurrer, the Court finds that the allegations of the petition are confessed by them to be true. The Court further finds that at the time of bringing this action the said plaintiff was in possession of the real property described in the petition, and that he had the legal estate in, and was entitled to the possession of the same. That neither of the defendants, nor any one of them have any estate in, or are entitled to the possession of said real estate or any part thereof. and that the plaintiff ought to have his title and possession quieted as against each and every one of said defendants. as prayed for in his petition.

It is therefor ordered, adyudgd, and decreed that the title and possession of the said William R. McDermott to all and singular the premises in the petition described towit:- Situate in the County of Union, in the State of Ohio and in the township of Liberty and bounded and described as follows:- Part of Virginia Military survey Nos. 6563 and 6776,- Beginning at a stone witnessed by three beeches North east corner to said survey Nos. 6563 and 6776, thence with the east line of said survey S. 12° W. 141 poles to a stone in the center of the Stewart road; thence with the center of said road N. 78° 30' W. 71 80/100 poles to a stone in the east line of Simon Hall's land; thence with said line N. 11° 54' E. 141 40/100 poles to a stone a corner of said land in the North line of said survey, Nos 6563 and 6776; thence with said line S. 78° 6' E. 72 poles to the beginning, containing 63 25/100 acres more or less, Deed record No. 74 Page 579. —

Or and the same hereby are quieted as against the defendants and each and every one of them, and all persons claiming under them or any of them; And they are hereby forever enjoined from setting up any claim to said premises, or any part thereof adverse to the title and possession of said William R. McDermott, his heirs or assigns thereto; and that the defendant Rachel Carter pay the cost in ten days, and in default of payment of costs that execution issue therefor.

Stewart Boynton, a minor by his guardian Ella Boynton
Vs.
Charles H Boynton et. al.

In Court of Common Pleas,
Union County Ohio.

Sept. 10th, 1900.

Now comes the plaintiff herein, by his attorneys and his petition thereupon coming on to be heard, the Court finds that all the defendants have had due legal notice of the pendency and demand of said petition, and that they are in default for answer and demurrer; and that said petition is thereby confessed by them to be true. Thereupon the Court finds that the said plaintiff, Stuart Boynton, is seized of and has a legal right to an undivided one-eighth part of the real estate described in the petition, and is entitled to have partition made of said premises; and that the defendants, Charles H. Boynton, William H. Boynton, Oliver Boynton, Ella Boynton, Anna Boynton, Lillian Boynton, and Jane Boynton, are tenants in common with plaintiff, and that each owns and is seized in fee simple of an undivided one-eighth part of said premises. And no reason appearing why partition should not be made; It is therefore ordered, adjudged and decreed that partition of said estate be made; and that an order issue to the Sheriff of Union County, commanding him by the oaths of George Smith, John H Crawford, and John Egan, three judicious and disinterested freeholders of the vicinity, who are hereby appointed commissioners for that purpose he cause to be set off and divided to plaintiff and to each of said defendants the part and portion of said estate to which they are severally found entitled. And of his proceedings herein the said Sheriff is ordered to make due return without unnecessary delay.

Sept. 11th, 1900.

7822. It is ordered by the Court that F. T. Arthur, be and he is hereby appointed by the Court guardian for the suit for Kirby Y. Roots the (infant.) defendant named in the petition herein; and the said F. T. Arthur appeared in open Court and accepted said appointment.

John S. Boylan
Vs.
Kirby Y. Roots et al.

Sept. 11th, 1900

7822. This cause came on to be heard upon the petition, the answer of the guardian for the suit for said minor defendant, the other defendants Dorcas B. Roots and D. H. Ayers, Administrator etc. came in default for answer and demurrer and the said cause be for hearing as aforesaid and also upon the pleadings and records the cause, and was argued by counsel; on the condition whereof, and it appearing to the satisfaction of the Court that all and every of said defendants have been duly notified of the bringing, pendency, and demand of said action against them, as required by law and that said plaintiff hath a legal right and estate in the premises described in the petition and as therein set forth and no sufficient reason appearing why partition should not be made as prayed for in said petition, it is ordered by the Court on the motion of J. H. Kuckade attorney for said plaintiff, that by the oaths of Wm Davis, and Mike Connor Jr. and J. C. Kennedy judicious, disinterested freeholders of the vicinity, upon actual view of the premises, partition be made of said lands, in the following proportion to.wit: To the said John S. Boylan, the plaintiff, one equal one-half part thereof and to the said Kirby Y. Roots, subject to the dower estate of the said Dorcas B. Roots, therein, the other equal one half part thereof. and if not that said premises be appraised at the true value thereof in money. And it is further ordered that a writ and order of partition issue to the Sheriff of Union County, commanding him to cause said dower to be assigned, and said partition to be made accordingly.

September Term 1900.

Jessie F. Sowr
Vs.
Alexander G. Sowr

Sept. 10th, 1900.

Now came the plaintiff herein and the defendant being in default for answer and demurrer the Court finds that the allegations of the petition are confessed by him to be true and finds from the evidence that the plaintiff at the time of filing her petition had been a resident of the State of Ohio. For one year next preceding the same and was at that time a bona fide resident of this County of Union and that the parties herein were married as in said petition set forth. The Court further finds upon the evidence adduced that the defendant has been guilty of gross neglect of duty for three years last past and that by reason thereof the plaintiff is entitled to a divorce as prayed for. It is therefor ordered and adjudged by the Court that the marriage contract heretofore existing between the said Jessie F. Sowr and Alexander G. Sowr be and the same hereby is dissolved and both parties are released from the obligation of the same. It is further ordered that the petitioner be and she hereby is restored to her maiden name of Jessie F. Cole. It is further considered by the Court that the plaintiff recover the costs of ~~said defendant~~, herein expended and execution is awarded.

W. W. Merchant
Vs.
Leander Culver. et al

Sept 12th. 1900.

And now comes the said plaintiff by W. W. Merchant his Attorney, and whereupon his cause came on to be heard upon the petition and the said Leander Culver, & Hanah. May. still failing to demur or answer to the said petition, the said petition is taken to be true. It is therefore considered that the plaintiff ought to recover the amount due him by reason of the premises: on consideration whereof, the Court find that there is due to the plaintiff from the said Leander Culver. on the note and mortgage. in the petition mentioned and set forth. the sum of Five Hundred & Thirty eight Dollars and Seventy Cts: and that it is a lien upon said premises. The Court further find that in order to secure the payment of said note, the defendant's, Leander Culver and Hannah Culver. now Hannah May, his wife, executed and delivered to said W. W. Merchant. the plaintiff, their certain mortgage as in the petition set forth.

and on the premises therein described: that it is recorded in vol. page of the record of mortgages and is a first lien on said premises, and that the conditions have been broken. It is therefore considered by the said Court here, that the said plaintiff recover of the said defendant the said sum of $ 538 Dollars and 70 cents. the same due as aforesaid. and also his costs taxed at $ and it is further ordered and adjudged. that in case the said defendant Saunder Culver & Hannah May. fail for Three day's from this date, to pay to the said plaintiff the said sum of $538, Dollars and 70 cents so as aforesaid found due. the said defendants equity of redemption. be foreclosed. and that said premises be sold and that an order of sale issue therefor to the Sheriff of Union County of Ohio directing him. To appraise advertise and sell. said premises. according to law. and apply the proceeds of the sale. first. in payment of cost: second in payment of the judgment so as aforesaid rendered: and the residue. if any. he bring into Court. to abide the further order of said Court. 7817

Elias Reynolds
Vs.
Doratha Pfarr and Konrad Pfarr.

Sept. 11th, 1900.

Now came the plaintiff herein by his attorney F.A. Thompson and the defendants being in default for answer and demurrer, the Court finds that the allegations of the petition are confessed by him to be true, and find that defendant is indebted to him in the sum of $2278,89 and interest from date of judgment at 7%.
It is therefore considered by the Court that the said plaintiff recover from the said defendant the said sum of $2278.89 and his costs herein expended, and taxed at $, that the defendant Doratha Pfarr and Konrad Pfarr, her husband, executed and delivered to the plaintiff Elias Reynolds, the mortgage deed in the petition described and on the premises therein described; that said mortgage was duly recorded in Book No. 20 Page 594, of the Records of mortgages of Union County, and is the first and best lien on the premises described in the petition. The Court further find that the condition of defeasance in said mortgage has been broken, and that the said plaintiff is thereby entitled to the defendants equity of redemption foreclosed. It is therefore considered and decreed that unless the said defendants shall within days from the entry of this decree pay, or cause to be paid to the Clerk of this Court the costs in this case, and to said plaintiff the sum of $2278.89 with interest from the 11th day of September 1900. according to the terms of said mortgage deed, the defendants equity of redemption be foreclosed and said premises shall be sold, and an order of sale shall issue therefor to the Sheriff of Union County directing him to sell said premises as upon execution, and bring the proceeds into Court for further order

Sept 14th 1900.

These two causes came on to be heard upon the petition in error jointly (the cases being heard together before the Justice of the Peace) and by consent of the parties are heard here together, on the transcripts and records and the original papers sent up by said Justice in each case and was argued by the counsel; on consideration whereof the Court find that there is error apparent upon said transcripts and records in each of said causes to the prejudicing of the plaintiffs in error in each cause.

It is therefor considered by the Court that both of said judgments before said Justice of the Peace on his refusal to dismiss said attachments aforesaid be reversed and held for nought. It is therefor further considered and adjudged by the Court that the Plaintiffs in error recover of the said Amos H. Lyon their costs made on said attachment against them taxed at $, and that plaintiffs in error recover of the said Joseph H. Herd their costs made on said attachment against them taxed at $, and an execution is awarded against each of said defendants in error for the amount of costs so rendered against each respectively. To all of which judgments and orders in both of said causes the defendants in error in both cases except.

Final Report of Grand Jury

Saturday Sept. 15th, 1900, 8:30 A.M. Court met pursuant to adjournment.

Court of Common Pleas. Present Hon. Charles M. Melhorn, Judge.

Union County Ohio. Sept. 15th, 1900.

This day appeared at the bar of this Court the Grand Jury heretofore impaneled and sworn, in and for the body of the County aforesaid viz:- 1. G.A. Converse, 2. Victor Beard, 3. Clark Reed, 4. O.G. Bolenbaugh, 5. Geo. Fox, 6. W.H. Fabrue, 7. J.D. Chapman, 8. E. Bault, 9. Wesley S. James, 10. Lester Clark, 11 S.D. Kilgore, 12 E.E. Sanborn, 13, G.H. Moore, 14, M.F. Stamates, 15, Andrew Gill, and presented their 15 certain bills of indictment as follows:- to-wit:- against Clifton Alden for burglary and larceny, 2 bills, against John H. Scott, Charles Mevis and Charles McClain for larceny one bill, against William Sumner for larceny one bill, against Hugh Devore for larceny four bills, against John Jones for cutting with intent to wound one bill, against Edward M. Hoodcock for forgery three bills, against Frederick Delsavre and Edward Clark for assault and battery one bill, against Sylvia Reed and John Holycross for larceny one bill, against Orrin Robbins for rape one bill, each indorsed "a true bill, O.G. Bolenbaugh foreman of the Grand Jury." And there being no further business for the Grand Jury they were discharged finally.

(Report in Full.)

To the Honorable Charles M. Melhorn:

Judge of the Court of Common Pleas,
Union County, Ohio.

The Grand Jury of the Court of Common Pleas of said County of the September Term, 1900, beg leave to report that they have been in session six days, and herewith return to the Court the Indictments presented by said jury: We have carefully examined into all such matters as have legitimately come to our notice, having examined over one hundred and forty three witnesses, covering twenty-six cases and presented sixteen bills and ignored ten cases considered by us. The business has been transacted in as expeditious a manner as possible. During our Session we have visited the County Jail and made a complete examination thereof, and find that the rules prescribed by the Court for the care thereof and for the government of its inmates have been carried out and properly enforced so far as is possible in the present jail; but recommend, that, in view of the present bad sanitary condition of the jail, owing to construction, and its insecurity as a place of detention for criminals and its inconvenient and unsafe arraugnment for the jailor, it be so reconstructed as to remedy these evils and so as to conform to the Statutes, providing for the separation of prisoners.

Respectfully Submitted,

Marysville, O. Sept. 15th, 1900. O. G. Bolenbaugh, Foreman.

Kellie M. Fox.
Vs.
Ida L. Fox et al.

Sept 20th. 1900.

This cause came on to be heard upon the petition of Kellie M. Fox. the answer of Ida L Fox widow and the exhibits on consideration whereof, and it appearing to the satisfaction of the Court that all the parties have had due notice of the pendency and demand of the said petition as required by law. and that the petitioner has a legal right. and estate in the premises described in the petition.

7831 And as therein set forth. and no sufficient reason appearing why partition should not be made, it is ordered that by the oaths of P. J. Wyeth. George N. More. and J. C. Kennedy. three judicious. disinterested free holders of the vicinity. one full and equal third part of the lands in said partition described be assigned and set off to the said Ida L. Fox. as her dower estate; and that by the like oaths of the same persons. partition be made of said lands. subject to said dower estate. in the following proportions to wit. To Kellie M. Fox one equal sixth part. To Idella B Ford. wife of Karl. B. Ford. Delbert. C. Fox. Clarence L. Fox. Harley. M. Fox and Zilla E. Fox. one equal sixth part each. if the same can be done without manifest injury to the premises, and if in their opinion the dower cannot be assigned and a division so made without manifest injury to the premises, then and in that case that they return the true value in money of said premises to this Court without assignments of dower, and it is further ordered that a writ of partition issue to the Sheriff of this County commanding him to cause said dower to be assigned and said partition to be made in accordance with this order.

7812 Sadie Bidwell
Vs.
William H. Bidwell

Sept. 20th, 1900.

This day this cause came on to be heard by the Court upon the plaintiffs petition and the evidence and the same was submitted to the Court. Whereupon, the Court, being fully advised in the premises, finds that the said defendant, William H. Bidwell, has been served with notice of the pendency and prayer of the petition herein by publication, and that said publication and proof of same are in all respects regular and according to law and are hereby approved by the Court. The Court also finds that the defendant, Samuel B. Holyeross, has voluntarily entered his appearance herein by written waiver of summons upon the said petition endorsed: The Court further finds that both of the said defendants have failed to appear; that they are each in default for answer and demurrer to the said petition, and that the allegations of the petion are by such default, confessed by each of the said defendants to be true. The Court also finds that the plaintiff at the time of filing her said petition, had been a resident of the State of Ohio for one year next preceding the same, and was at that time a bona fide resident of the County of Union, and that the parties hereto were married as in the said petition set forth.

Sept. Term, 1900.

The Court further finds, upon the evidence adduced that the said defendant William H. Bidwell, has been guilty of gross neglect of his marital duty in that he has failed and wilfully neglected to support the said plaintiff and her said children, or either of them, for five years last past, and that by reason of such failure and neglect, the said plaintiff is entitled to a divorce as prayed for.

Wherefore, it is considered, ordered, and adjudged by the Court that the marriage contract heretofore existing between the said Sadie Bidwell and William H. Bidwell, be, and the same hereby is, dissolved and both parties are released from the obligations of the same. It is further ordered and adjudged by the Court that the custody, education, care and control of the said children of the said parties, last aforesaid, be, until further order confided to the said Sadie Bidwell exclusively. And the said William H. Bidwell is hereby enjoined from interfering in any manner with either of the said children, or with the said Sadie Bidwell in her custody and care of them. 7806

It is further ordered and adjudged by the Court that the defendant, William H. Bidwell pay to the plaintiff as her reasonable alimony in money, the sum of five hundred dollars, payable in gross, and the same is hereby made a lien upon any and all the real estate of the said William H. Bidwell. And it is further ordered and adjudged by the Court that the said Samuel B. Holycross, whom the Court finds to be the Administrator of the estate of Nancy A. Bidwell, deceased, be, and he is hereby, enjoined from paying to the said William H Bidwell, on distribution of the said estate any of the proceeds of the sale of the real estate of the said decedent until he, the said Administrator, or the said William H. Bidwell, shall have satisfied the judgment for alimony aforesaid, And in default of payment of the same aforesaid for three days, by the said William H. Bidwell, execution is awarded therefor. It is further ordered and adjudged by the Court that the said Sadie Bidwell plaintiff, pay the costs in this behalf expended taxed at $——

Sept. 20th, 1900.

This day came the parties and this cause came on to be heard on the motion of the said defendants to modify the injunction heretofore ordered in this case, and it was agreed by the parties in open Court that the said injunction be so modified as to permit the auditor to pay, and the Board of Education of said special school district to receive the money levied by it for the purpose of maintaining a school in the said original 7806 sub-district No. Two. in Jerome Township Union County, Ohio, until the further order of the Court herein, Said money is to be used and expended by the said Board of Education of said special school district for the purpose of maintaining and conducting a school in the said original sub-district No. Two. so that the scholars in the same may not be deprived of a school pending proceedings herein. But nothing in this modification of said injunction is to prejudice the rights of either party in this case, in the further hearing hereof, or in any way to effect the merits of the same. It is therefore considered by the Court that the said injunction be and the same is so modified as to permit the auditor to pay, and the said, The Board of Education of said Special School District to receive the money heretofore levied for the purpose of maintaining a school in the said original school district No. Two until the further order of the Court, and that said money be expended by said defendant board in maintaining and conducting a school in said original sub-district No. Two, and that nothing in this decree shall prejudice the rights of either party in the further hearing hereof, and cause continued.

Anna Nichols
Vs
William Nichols

Sept. 21st, 1900.

Now came the plaintiff and the defendant herein having been duly served with summons and a copy of the petition and having failed to appear, the Court find him in default for answer and demurrer to said petition, and find that the allegations thereof are confessed by him to be true.
The Court also find that the plaintiff at the time of filing her petition had been a resident of the State of Ohio for one year next preceding the same, and was at that time a bona fide resident of this County of Union, and that the parties hereto were married as in said petition set forth. The Court further find upon the evidence adduced that the defendant has been guilty of gross neglect of duty, and that by reason thereof the plaintiff is entitled to a divorce as prayed for.
It is therefore ordered and adjudged by the Court that the marriage contract heretofore existing between the said Anna Nichols and William Nichols be and the same hereby is dissolved, and both parties are released from the obligations of the same.
It is further ordered that the custody, care, education and control of the said minor child be, until further order confided to the said plaintiff exclusively.
It is further ordered, adjudged and decreed that the defendant pay to the plaintiff as her reasonable alimony in money the sum of one thousand dollars, and further that he pay the costs of this action taxed at $—. and that in default of payment of the above alimony or costs execution is awarded therefor.

7846 S. H. Hutchinson

This day came the plaintiff by her attorneys and it appearing to said Court that said plaintiff had filed her petition in this Court against said defendant asking for a dissolution of the partnership existing between plaintiff and defendant and for the appointment of a receiver to take charge of and dispose of the partnership property; and thereupon the plaintiff submitted her motion for a restraining order against said defendant forbidding him from selling disposing of removing or otherwise interfering with the said partnership property and the Court being fully advised in the premises grants said restraining pending the application for the appointment of a receiver. It is therefore considered ordered and adjudged and decreed by the Court that said defendant S. H. Hutchinson be restrained and forbidden from selling removing disposing of or interfering with said partnership property in any manner pending the application of plaintiff for the appointment of a receiver in this case & that said defendant show cause why said receiver should not be appointed.

This day came the Prosecuting Attorney, on behalf of the State of Ohio, the defendant being brought into Court in custody of the Sheriff, and his attorneys also coming. And thereupon the further call of the venire and first alias venire proceeded, whereupon, for cause shown, the Court excused Asbury Chaney for physical disabilities, and Gomer Pritchard. And the defendant, by his counsel, challenged Thomas Cody and C. G. Jones for cause, and the said challenges were, respectively, sustained. And the said defendant, by his counsel, also challenged Howard Grey, John Longbrake, William Easton, A. Seig, and John Piersol, each peremptorily. And the State, by the Prosecuting Attorney, peremptorily challenged John Drake. And, thereupon, it appearing to the Court that the said venire and said alias venire have been exhausted and that twelve qualified jurors have not been empaneled, on motion of the defendant, by his counsel, it is considered and ordered by the Court that a special venire immediately issue for twenty-four persons having the qualifications of jurors, whom the Court selects, and the said venire be made returnable forthwith; and the same is accordingly done.

And afterward, this day, the special venire, last aforesaid, returnable as aforesaid, was duly returned by the Sheriff, with his indorsement thereon as follows, to-wit: Marysville, Ohio, October 16th, 1900.

This cause came on to be heard on the pleadings and evidence (the plaintiff having asked and had leave of the Court to withdraw his reply). On consideration whereof the Court finds that the plaintiff is not entitled to a divorce on the grounds set forth in his petition. The Court further finds that the allegations in the defendants cross petition are true; that the parties were married as stated therein, and that the plaintiff has been guilty of gross neglect of duty as in the cross-petition set forth, and that by reason thereof the defendant is entitled to a divorce as prayed for by her. It is therefore adjudged and decreed that the marriage contract heretofore existing between the parties be, and the same is hereby dissolved, and both parties released from the obligations of the same. It is further ordered that the defendant be and she is restored to her maiden name of Eltha M Graham. and that the plaintiff pay the costs of this proceeding taxed to h.

This day again came the Prosecuting Attorney, on behalf of the State of Ohio, the defendant being brought into Court in charge of the Sheriff, his attorneys also coming, Also came the jury heretofore impaneled and sworn in this case, And the trial proceeded. And the said jury having heard the arguments of counsel for both the State and the defendant, and the charge of the Court, the said jury retired to their room, in charge of the Sheriff, for deliberation, And afterward the said jury, after deliberation upon the testimony, the argument of counsel, and the charge of the Court, in this case, returned the following verdict, to-wit:-

"The State of Ohio
Vs.
Roselyn H. Ferrell, alias
Roscoe H. Ferrell, alias
Charles R. H. Ferrell, Defendant,

—Verdict in Criminal Case—
Court of Common Pleas, Union County, Ohio.
September Term, A. D. 1
Indictment for Murder in the first degree.

"We, the jury, in this case, find the said defendant guilty of murder in the first degree in the manner and form as he stands charged in the said indictment.

October 30, 1900

(Signed) Emanuel Jarvis, Foreman."

Whereupon at the request of counsel for the defendant, the Court ordered that the jury be polled, And upon each juror being called by name, and inquired of if the verdict just read was his verdict, each for himself separately answered, "It is". And, thereupon, the said defendant is ordered into the custody of the Sheriff to await sentence. Thereupon, at twenty-five minutes past eleven o'clock P.M. the Court adjourned until tomorrow, Wednesday, morning at half past eight o'clock.

7837 Lizzie H. Morey
Vs.
Albert H. Morey — Oct. 31st, 1900

Now comes the plaintiff and the defendant having been legally summoned by publication and also by summons and having failed to appear, the Court find he is in default for answer and demurrer to said petition, and find that the allegations thereof are confessed by him to be true. The Court further finds that the plaintiff at the time of filing her petition has been a resident of the State of Ohio for one year next preceding the same, and was at the time of filing her petition a bona fide resident of this County of Union, and that the parties hereto were married as in said petition set forth. The Court further finds, upon the evidence adduced that the defendant has been guilty of willful absence for more than three years last past, and that by reason thereof the plaintiff is entitled to a divorce as prayed for. It is therefore ordered and adjudged by the Court that the marriage contract heretofore existing between the said Lizzie H. Morey and Albert H. Morey be, and the same hereby is dissolved, and both parties are released from the obligations of the same.
It is further ordered and adjudged that the defendant pay to the plaintiff as her reasonable alimony in money the sum of Two hundred and fifty dollars. It is further ordered that the said plaintiff pay the costs herein taxed at $9.23.

7753 In re Assignment of Caleb Haines to Samuel Sherwood, Assignee, H. M. Ballinger, Plaintiff Vs. Samuel Sherwood, assignee and Margaret D. Haines, Defendants. Sept. 21st. 1900. Entry. Filed Nov. 9th, 1900.

This day this cause came on to be heard upon the demurrer of H. M. Ballinger, plaintiff herein, to the answer as amended of Margaret D. Haines, defendant herein, and was argued by counsel and submitted to the Court; whereupon the Court being fully advised in the premises, and upon consideration of the same, do sustain said demurrer.

And this cause came on to be further heard upon the demurrer of said H. M. Ballinger, to the second amended answer of said Samuel Sherwood, as assignee of said Caleb F. Haines, and was argued by counsel and submitted to the Court; whereupon the Court being fully advised in the premises do sustain said demurrer. And neither the said Margaret D. Haines, or the said Samuel Sherwood desiring to plead further, the Court now proceed to render judgment upon the pleadings; and from the pleadings the Court find that on final settlement of said assignee in the Probate Court, that there remains a balance in his hands not distributed, to wit:- the sum of $783.65 and that the same is a balance of the proceeds of the sale of the land by the assignee, and that the claim of said Ballinger is the first and best lien on said proceeds realized from the sale of said tract of land, and superior to the claim of said Margaret D. Haines. It is therefore considered, ordered, adjudged and decreed that the said Samuel Sherwood, as such assignee, pay to said Ballinger of said balance still remaining in his hands, the claim of said Ballinger free and clear of all costs and expenses made in this cause, and that the said Samuel Sherwood pay personally all the costs made in this cause, except that made by said Margaret D. Haines, and that said Margaret D. Haines pay the costs in this case, except 7845 In re Estate of Marcella R. Johnson, deceased. In the Common Pleas Court of Union County, Ohio. Fourth & Final Account, Nov. 10th, 1900.

This day this matter came on to be heard on motion to confirm account of John E. Griffith, executor of the estate of Marcella R. Johnson, late of Union County, Ohio, deceased, having heretofore, to-wit: On the 15th day of October, 1900, filed in this Court his fourth and final account, and notice of the time of hearing thereof having been given as required by law, by publication in the Marysville Tribune, a newspaper published, and of general circulation in the County aforesaid, for not less than three consecutive weeks from and after the 17th day of October 1900, and no exceptions having been filed thereto, the said account, together with the vouchers accompanying the same, are now here examined by the Court. And said account on such examination, being found correct, is allowed and confirmed; and the Court do find the said Executor chargeable with assets of said estate in the sum of $178.00, and that he is entitled to credits in the sum of $178.00, as shown by said vouchers.

This day this matter came on to be further heard on motion of the said Executor for the allowance of $10.68 as his legal compensation, on consideration whereof, the Court being fully advised in the premises, the said Executor is allowed said sum of $10.68 as his legal compensation.

It is therefor ordered by the Court that the said Executor retain out of the money of said estate the sum of the item last aforesaid, to-wit:- $10.68.

And the Court do further find that there is a balance of nothing in the hands of the said Executor due said estate, and said account is settled accordingly; and the said John E. Griffith, having resigned, in the Probate Court of said Union County, Ohio, as such Executor, this account is hereby allowed, as the final discharge of said Executor, and his sureties are hereby discharged.

It is further ordered by the Court that said John E. Griffith Executor, as aforesaid, pay the costs of the proceedings aforesaid, taxed at $, within ten days, and that said account and proof of publication, together with a transcript of the findings and orders of this Court in the premises be returned to the Probate Court of this County for record as prescribed by law.

7856. James H. Trent
Vs
Sheriden Viney, et.al.

Court of Common Pleas, Union County Ohio.

This cause now coming on for hearing on the petition of the plaintiff and the evidence, the Court find that the defendants, Sheriden Viney, Elza Viney, Chloe Viney, Augustus Viney, Eliza James, George James Emma Howelland Wyatt Howell have been duly served with summons, and the defendants, Sophronia Harris, Earnest Harris Thurman Viney and Eliza Viney have voluntarily waived the issuing and service of summons and entered their appearance in this case; and that all the above defendants are in default for answer and demurrer, and that the allegations of the petition are hereby confessed by them to be true; that said defendants are all the children and heirs at law of Sidney Viney, deceased, as in said petition set forth, and that said Sidney Viney died intestate on the 31st day of May, 1900, as described in said petition: and that there is due the plaintiff from the defendants, as children and heirs of the said Sidney Viney, deceased, on the promissory note set forth in the petition with interest to the 14th day of January, 1901, the sum of $444.07.

The Court further find that in order to secure the payment of said note the said Sidney Viney, during her life time, being then a widow executed and delivered to the plaintiff, James H. Trent, her certain mortgage as in the said petition described; that said mortgage was duly left with the Recorder of Union County, Ohio on the 1st day of September, 1899, and was dully recorded in book 36 page 453, of the record of mortgages of said County and State, and is a good and valid lien on the premises described in the petition and that the conditions in said mortgage have been broken.

It is therefore adjudged and decreed by the Court, that unless the said defendants shall within three days from the entry of this decree pay or cause to be paid to the Clerk of the Court, the costs of this case, and to the plaintiff herein the sum so found due him as aforesaid, with interest from the first day of this term, the said defendants equity of redemption be foreclosed, and said premises be sold and that an order of sale issue therefor to the Sheriff of Union County, Ohio, directing him to appraise, advertise and sell said premises as upon execution, and report his proceedings to this Court for further order.

7848. Vs. Jan 14th, 1901.
Theodore B. Linvill et al.

This cause came on to be heard upon the petition of Kemp L Linvill, the answer of Theodore B. Linvill, widower, and the answer of the Guardian ad litem of Benjamin Linvill an infant defendant and the exhibits, on consideration whereof, and it appearing to the satisfaction of the Court, that all the parties have had due notice of the pendency and demand of the said petition, as required by law, and that the petitioner has a legal right and estate in the premises described in the petition and as therein set forth, and no sufficient reason appearing why partition should not be made, it is ordered by the Court, that by the oaths of Shepherd Clark, Walter Bales and Samuel Waddle, three judicious disinterested freeholders of the vicinity, one full and equal third part of the lands in said petition described be assigned and set off to the said Theodore B. Linvill as his dower estate, and that by the like oaths of the same persons partition be made of said lands subject to said dower estate in the following proportions to-wit:-
To Kemp L. Linvill one equal third (1/3) part.
To Mary C. Bay, wife of Harry E Bay, one equal third (1/3) part.
To Benjamin Linvill one equal third (1/3) part. if the same can be done without manifest injury to the premises, and if in their opinion the dower cannot be assigned, and a division so made without manifest injury to the premises, then and in that case, that they return the true value in money of said premises to this Court, without assignment of dower, and that a writ of partition issue to the Sheriff of this County, commanding him to cause said dower to be assigned and said partition to be made in accordance with this order.

Minia Patrick

7850 Vs. January 15th, 1901.

Eugene G. Patrick

This day this cause came on to be heard, upon the petition and evidence, the Court being fully advised in the premises finds that the plaintiff has been a resident of the State of Ohio, for more than ten years last past and during the last seven years she has been a bona fide resident of the County of Huron, The Court further finds that the defendant has been duly and legally notified of the filing and pendency of the petition in this case, The Court further finds that the defendant has been guilty of willful absence from plaintiff for more than three years prior to the filing of the petition in this case and that the facts stated in the petition are true and that by reason of the premises the plaintiff is entitled to a divorce from the defendant.

It is therefore considered, adjudged and decreed, by the Court that the marriage relation heretofore existing between the parties be, and the same is set aside and the marriage contract wholly annulled, both parties being released from the same. It is further ordered and decreed that the care, custody, nurture and education of the minor children named in the petition be and hereby is given to the plaintiff. And the plaintiff is ordered to pay the cost hereof.

Report of Grand Jury. — To the Honorable Duncan Dow, Judge of the Court of Common Pleas of Union County, Ohio.:

The Grand Jury of the Court of Common Pleas of said County, of the January Term, 1901, beg leave to report that they have been in session three days, and herewith return to the Court the Indictments presented by said Jury. We have carefully examined into all such matters as have legitimately come to our notice, having examined over seventy-two witnesses, covering twelve cases, and presented two bills and ignored ten, cases considered by us. The business has been transacted in as expeditious a manner as possible.

During our session we have visited the County Jail and made a complete examination thereof, and find that the rules prescribed by the Court for the care thereof and the government of its inmates have been carried out and properly enforced.

We commend the County Commissioners in their action in the matter of providing for a new Jail, which in our opinion is very much needed.

Jan. 16th, 1901.

Respectfully Submitted.

7840 The Varuna Water Company

Court of Common Pleas.
Jan. 17th, 1901.

And now this cause coming on for hearing on the report of James F. Woods, referee, which together with all matters and findings therein, is hereby approved, and confirmed as the finding of this Court, and it thereby appearing to the Court that said corporation is probably insolvent and that it will be beneficial to the interests of the stockholders to have said corporation dissolved and no cause to the contrary being shown, It is therefore ordered and adjudged that said corporation, The Varuna Water Company, be dissolved, and D. H. Wagers is hereby appointed receiver of all the estate and effects of said dissolved corporation, And upon his giving an undertaking to the acceptance of the Clerk of this Court, in the sum of $5000.00 he shall be vested with all the estate both real and personal, of said dissolved corporation, and shall be trustee of said estate for the benefit of the creditors of the corporation and its stockholders; and shall have all the power and authority conferred by law upon trustees to whom assignments are made for the benefit of creditors. And he is hereby ordered to proceed in the manner provided by law for such trustees to dispose of said property and to wind up the business of said corporation.

Samuel McElroy

Jacob M. Holden et.al.

This cause came on to be heard on the plaintiffs petition and evidence, and the Court upon due consideration thereof finds that the defendant Charles McElroy and Ida F McElroy waived the issue of summons and duly entered their appearance herein, and that the defendants, Jacob M. Holden, Nancy C. Holden, David H. Chenoweth, and Ruth Chenoweth, are non-residents of the State of Ohio, and have been duly served by publication, as provided by law, and all of said defendants being in default of answer and demurrer, the court finds upon due consideration that the facts stated in said petition are thereby confessed by them to be true, and further finds that there has been an omission inadvertently made in a deed for the conveyance of real estate described in the petition, dated July 23rd, 1886, and recorded, in volume 61 at page 130, Union County Record of Deeds, wherein the said Jacob M. Holden and Nancy C. Holden, were grantors and David H. Chenoweth, grantee, in that the Justice before whom the said Jacob M. Holden acknowledged having signed said deed failed to certify that he had so acknowledged; and good cause being shown why an order correcting said error should be made, the same is hereby allowed and the said deed is corrected so that the certificate of the Justice before whom the said Jacob M. Holden acknowledged having signed said deed shall be in due form and according to law which the Court finds to have been the true and mutual intention of the parties. It is therefore ordered and adjudged that the certificate of the said Justice of the Peace to said deed be corrected so as to show that the signature of said Jacob M. Holden thereto was duly acknowledged by said Jacob M. Holden before him, and that, upon the filing of this order as required by law the said deed have full force and effect as if no such omission had ever existed. Duncan Dodd, Judge of said Court.

Harmon H Bayley guardian of John A + Lewis C Bayley &c.

7828 &s Jan 17th 1901

Georgianna Maria Snider. et.al.

This day this cause coming on to be heard on the petition of the plaintiff, and the cross-petition of the defendant, Abbie A. Bayley and the evidence, and the Court being fully informed in the premises, do find that the defendants have all been duly summoned, or have waived the issue and service of the same, except the defendant Abbie A Bayley, who has filed her answer and cross-petition, herein by leave of Court, and that all parties interested, are in Court. The Court further find that the defendants John A Lewis C. and Charles A Bayley each hold an equal one third (1-3) interest in the rents and profits of said lands, set forth in the petition herein, with a survivor over in favor of the living. That the said Charles A is much younger, than the said John A. and Lewis C Bayley. to wit:-

about 33 years of age. The Court further find, from the evidence, that said estate is in such condition that it yealds no rents and profits, and that it will take a great amount of money to repair, and fix up said lands, so that it will yield an annual rental, and that conditions have arisen not contemplated by the testator, at the time of making said bequest, as set forth in his last will and testament, and that it will be for the best interest of all parties interested therein, that said lands be sold and monies, derived from the sale of said lands, be held for the benefit of said persons mentioned in said last will of the said George W. Bayley, deceased. The Court further find that the defendant, Charles A Bayley, has sold all his right, title and interest in and to said land to the defendant, Abbie A Bayley, for a good and valuable consideration and that she is now the owner thereof, with a survivorship over in her favor during the life of the said Charles A Bayley, and that the prayer in her cross petition ought to be allowed.

It is, therefor ordered and adjudged by the Court, that the lands set forth in the plaintiff petition, herein be appraised by the oaths of D.H. Henderson, French Sparke and C.Y. Coads, freeholders of the County, not of kin to the petitioner, whom the Court hereby appoint for that purpose, and that they appraise said lands in two tracts, and that they return their appraisement to this Court to the said Harmon W Bayley, guardian &c. ordering that he have the same done.

Anna Howard & J.D. Howard, her husband, Jan. 23rd, 1901.

This day this cause came on to be heard upon the petition of plaintiff, the defendants both being in default for answer or demurrer, and the Court being fully advised in the premises, do find the statements and allegations in said petition to be true. The Court further find that the defendant Anna Howard, is indebted to the plaintiff as the plaintiff has alleged in its petition, in the sum of Three Hundred and Thirty-three and 39/100 Dollars ($333.39), with interest thereon from the 14th day of January, 1901, as alleged and claimed in plaintiff's petition, and in the constitution and by-laws of said company. And the Court further find that in order to secure the payment of said indebtedness with the interest, the said defendants executed and delivered to the plaintiff their mortgage deed to the plaintiff as alleged, and upon the real estate described in said petition, and that the said mortgage is the first and best lien upon the premises so described. And the Court further find that said claim is now overdue and payable. It is therefore considered, adjudged, and decreed, that unless the said Anna Howard shall within three days from the entry of this decree, pay, or cause to be paid, the said sum of money so found plaintiff's due as aforesaid, together with interest from said 14th day of Jan. 1901, and according to the terms of said mortgage deed that said mortgage be foreclosed, said premises ordered to be sold, and that for that purpose an order shall issue to the Sheriff of this County, commanding him to appraise, advertise, and sell said premises according to law and bring the proceeds into Court, subject to the further order thereof.

William W Gibson Jan 30th 1901.
Decree for Divorse

This day came the Plaintiff, and the defendant having been duly served with summons and a copy of the petition herein, and having failed to appear, the Court finds him in default for answer and demurrer to the said petition, and finds that the allegations thereof are confessed by him to be true. The Court also finds, from the evidence addueed that the plaintiff, at the time of filing her said petition, had been a resident of the State of Ohio, for one year next proceeding the same, and was at that time a bonafide resident of this County of Union, and that the parties hereto were married as in said petition set forth.

The Court further finds upon the evidence addueed, that the defendant has been guilty, of extreme cruelty, toward plaintiff, of gross neglect of duty in failing to provide plaintiff with the common necessaries of life; and that the said defendant has been guilty of habitual drunkeness for more than three years, as alleged. The Court finds that by reason of the causes aforsaid the plaintiff is entitled to a divorce as prayed for.

It is therefa considered, ordered, and adjudged by the Court that the marrage contract heretofore existing between the said Sarah E Gibson and William W Gibson, be, and the same hereby is, dissolved, and both of the said parties are hereby released from the obligations of the same.

It is further considered and adjudged by the Court that the Sarah E Gibson, plaintiff as aforesaid, pay the cost of this proceeding, and execution is awarded.

Conrad Dellinger, deceased Feb. 1st. 1901.

Be it remembered that heretofore, towit, on the 26th day of January, A.D. 1901 an instrument of writing purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Conrad Dellinger late of Darby township, in this County, deceased, was produced in open Court, in the Probate Court of Union County, Ohio, and offered for Probate, and was then filed. And it now being shown to the satisfaction of the Court that due notice of the filing of said Will and of the application to admit the same to Probate and Record in said Probate Court, has been given to the next of kin of the testator, resident of the State of Ohio, pursuant to a former order of said Probate Court, and that the Probate Judge of this County, being one of the subscribing witnesses to said Will, and having duly certified the hearing thereof into this Court as provided by Statute; thereupon, on this day came A. C. Longbrake, and John M. Brodrick, the subscribing witnesses to said Will, who being duly sworn testified to the due execution and attestation of said Will, which testimony was reduced to writing, by them respectively subscribed, and filed with said Will. Thereupon the Court finds that the aforsaid instrument of writing is the last Will and Testament of said Conrad Dellinger deceased; that the same was duly executed and attested; and that the said Testator at the time of making, signing and sealing the same was of full age, of sound mind and memory, and not under any restraint, It is therefore, by the Court ordered, that the said Will be admitted to Probate, and that the same together with the testimony of the witnesses above named, be entered for record in the Probate Court of Union County Ohio, and that a transcript of the finding and judgment of this Court, together with the original testimony of the witnesses and the original Will, and all other original papers pertaining thereto be certified to the said Probate Court of Union County, Ohio.

This cause now bring heard on the return of Harmon K. Baxley, Guardian of John A. Baxley and Lewis C. Baxley, idiots, of his proceedings and sale under the order of this Court, and on the motion to confirm the same, the Court, after carefully examining the said return, and bing satisfied that such sale was fairly and legally made, does hereby approve, and confirm the same, and order that, upon the purchase money bring paid in cash, in full, as per the order of this Court, the said Harmon K. Baxley, Guardian, make to the purchaser, H.O. O'Brien, a good and sufficient deed for the premises so sold. And the said Abbie A. Baxley having by her answer and cross-petition in this case elected to receive in lieu of her one third (1/3) interest, with survivorship over in her favor, during the life of Charles A. Baxley, her grantor, its value in money, the Court find the just and reasonable value thereof to be $

It is therefor ordered that after payment of the costs herein taxed at $ the said Guardian pay to the said Abbie A. Baxley the said sum of $ in full of her interest, leaving in the hands of the said Guardian a balance of $ — to be applied by him as the law requires.

Vs.
Bina B. Davis et al.

Court Common Pleas Union County, Ohio.
Feb. 5th, 1901.

Now comes the parties herein by their attorneys, and thereupon this cause came on to be heard upon the petition, the answer of W. C. Pullington, one of the two defendants, and the evidence, And it appearing from the said answer that the said defendant admits the truth of the petition, the Court further find that said defendant Bina B. Cavis has had due legal notice of the pendency and demand of said petition, and that she is in default for answer and demurrer, and that the said petition is thereby confessed by her to be true, Thereupon the Court find that the plaintiff, J. H. Beck is seized of and has a legal right to the undivided one half part of the estate described in the petition, and is entitled to have partition made of said premises; that the defendant, Bina B. Cavis, is a tenant in common with the said plaintiff in the said premises in the following proportions, to-wit: The said Bina B. Cavis is seized of and has a legal right to the undivided one half part thereof, and the said W. C. Billington has a mortgage lien on said premises as alleged in his answer filed herein, And no reason appearing why partition should not be made; It is therefore ordered, adjudged and decreed that partition of said estate be made, and that an order issue to the Sheriff of the said County of Union, commanding him that by the oaths of D. N. McCloud, A. E. Hale and J. B. Norris, three judicious and disinterested freeholders of the vicinity, who are not of kin to either party, and who are hereby appointed Commissioners for that purpose, and that by the oaths of the said named Commissioners, he cause to be set off and divided to the said plaintiff, and the said defendant Bina B. Cavis, the part and proportion of the said estate to which they are hereinbefore severally found entitled,

And it is ordered that if in the opinion of the said Commissioners, said premises cannot be divided by metes and bounds without injury to the value thereof, they appraise the same as a whole,

Now came the parties herein, by their attorneys, and thereupon this case came on for hearing on the pleadings and the agreement heretofore entered into between the plaintiff and the defendant herein; and was submitted to the Court:- Which agreement is in the words and figures following, to wit:-

It is hereby agreed by the plaintiff and defendant in this case, that the issue between them shall be settled upon the following terms and conditions, to wit:- "That the title of said plaintiff to all the real estate described in the petition, lying out side of a line parallel with, and 90 feet from the center line of said defendants main track, as now located and constructed, shall be quieted in said plaintiff." That the title of said defendant to all of said real estate lying between its said line of main track, and a line parallel with and 30 feet from said center line, shall be quieted in said defendant; and that judgment shall be entered against said defendant for the costs of this case; That the Court be asked to enter a decree in accordance with the foregoing. Dated February. 11th. 1901. Robt. McCrory. attorney for plaintiff. The Cleveland, Cincinnati, Chicago & St Louis Railway Company. by. Chas. H. Short. Real-estate agent.

On Consideration whereof. the Court find, on the issue joined for the plaintiff. and that the plaintiff is entitled to the relief prayed for. and according to the terms of said agreement.

It is therefore ordered. adjudged and decreed. that the title and possession of the said George Beecher. to all the premises in the petition described. lying outside of a line parallel with and 90 feet from the center line of said defendants main track, as now located and constructed be, and the same hereby are quieted as against this defendant, its successors or predecessors, and all persons claiming under them, or either of them. And the Cleveland. Cincinnati, Chicago & St Louis Railway Company. is hereby forever enjoined from setting up any claim to said premises, or any part thereof adverse to the title of said George Beecher. his heirs or assigns thereto.

And it is by the Court further ordered. adjudged and decreed that the title and possession of the said. The Cleveland. Cincinnati. Chicago. & St Louis Railway Company. to all of the said real-estate lying between its said line of main track and a line parallel with and 90 feet from said center line be. and the same hereby are quieted as against this plaintiff. his heirs administrators, or assigns. and each and every one of them, and all persons claiming under them, or any of them.

And it is further ordered that the defendant pay the costs of this action, taxed at $.

The defendant protest & excepts to that part of the entry above which are in the words, as follows and the Cleveland, Cincinnati, Chicago, & St Louis, Railway Company. hereby forever enjoined from setting up any claim to said premises, or any part thereof, adverse to the title of said George Beecher. his heirs or assigns thereto. the same not being according to the contract or order of injunction made or allowed in said case.

F.M. Gilcrist April. 17th. 1901.

This day this cause came on to be heard upon the motion of plaintiff to dismiss this cause, and the appeal of the same to this Court, for the reason that said Transcript of the appeal was not filed by the defendant within thirty days from the date of the judgment; and was argued by counsel, And the Court being fully advised in the premises, find that said Transcript was not filed within thirty days from the date of the judgment, and further find that the plaintiff duly filed his petition in said cause on the 15th day of Jan. 1901, making the issue on the merits of said cause, and the Court find that the defendant filed his answer to said petition making issue upon the facts in said petition stated, which answer was filed on the 6th day of April 1901. And that said cause was set down for trial at this term of Court, to wit, on the 24th day of April, 1901. And thereupon the Court sustained said motion, of plaintiff and dismissed said appeal on the ground that said Transcript was not filed within said thirty days, and judgment is rendered against defendant for the costs of this proceeding. to which ruling and judgment of the Court, the defendant then and there excepted, And thereupon the defendant moved the Court to open up said judgment and decision and grant the defendant a rehearing upon the same, and to set said cause down for trial upon the merits, which motion of the defendant the Court overruled to which ruling of the Court, the defendant then and there excepted, and said cause is remanded back to said Justice for execution.

Jane Gordon et. al.

Court Common Pleas, Union County, Ohio.
April, 15th, 1901,

The Sheriff having sold the property described in the order of sale, issued to him in this case, and the Court being satisfied of the legality of such sale, and that the same has been made in all respects in conformity to law, approves and confirms the same, and directs said Sheriff to execute and deliver to the purchaser of said property a good and sufficient deed for said premises so by him sold, And a writ of possession is awarded, to the purchaser thereof, and it is further ordered that said purchaser be and he is subrogated to all the rights of any lien-holder to the extent he may be satisfied herein In addition to the order of distribution heretofore made it is ordered that the said Sheriff pay for releasing said lands from tax sale and procuring deed of return therefor the sum of $5.[81] and also the sum of $2.90 cost of transferring and recording deed of quit claim taken to clear up the title. And the Court finds the amount of the dower interest of said Lucy A. Hammond in said land is $77.[76] which being added to the amount heretofore found due her, makes the total sum to be paid to said Lucy A. Hammond $282.[66] which sum or so much thereof as may remain after paying the preceding claims, costs, taxes, the Sheriff is ordered to pay to her.

Report of Grand Jury.

To the Honorable Duncan Dow, Judge of the Court of Common Pleas, Union County Ohio.

The Grand Jury of the Court of Common Pleas of said County, of the April Term, 1901, beg leave to report that they have been in session three days, and herewith return to the Court the Indictments presented by said jury; We have carefully examined into all such matters as have legitimately come to our notice, having examined over fifty four witnesses covering twelve cases and presented eight bills and ignored four cases considered by us. The business has been transacted in as expeditious a manner as possible. 7936

During our session we have visited the County Jail and made a complete examination thereof, and find that the rules prescribed by the Court for the care thereof and for the government of its inmates have been carried out and are properly enforced so far as may be done in the present Jail. 7710

We recommend that when the new Jail which is in process of construction is completed a covered passage way be constructed from the second story of the Jail to the Sheriff's Office in the Court House.

We recommend a glass door be placed in the front entrance to Residence part of Jail and that the cellar to the residence part of the Jail be cemented and better drainage afforded.

Respectfully Submitted.

Vs.
John Gibson

Court Common Pleas. Union County. Ohio.
Apr. 22nd, 1901.

Now came the plaintiff and the defendant having been duly served with summons and a copy of the petition herein, and having failed to appear, the Court find them in default for answer and demurrer to said petition, and find that the allegations thereof are confessed by him to be true. The Court also find that the plaintiff at the time of filing her petition had been a resident of the State of Ohio, for one year next preceding the same, and was at that time a bona fide resident of this County of Union, and that the parties hereto were married as in the petition set forth. The Court further find upon the evidence adduced, that the defendant has been guilty of willful absence for three years last past at the time of filing her petition, and that by reason thereof the plaintiff is entitled to a divorce as prayed for.
It is therefor ordered and adjudged by the Court that the marriage contract heretofore existing between the said Etta Gibson and John Gibson, be and the same hereby is dissolved, and both parties are released from the obligations of the same.
It is further ordered that the custody, care, education and control of the said minor child of the parties be until further order confided to said Etta Gibson exclusively. And the John Gibson is hereby enjoined from interfering in any manner with the said child or with Etta Gibson in her custody of them, and from visiting said child until further order of Court.
It is further ordered and adjudged that the defendant pay to the plaintiff as her reasonable alimony in money, the sum of One Hundred Dollars, payable at once, and in default of such payment for three days, execution is allowed to issue therefor.
It is further ordered that the plaintiff recover from the defendant her costs of this action.

William Elliott et. al. May, 6th, 1901.

And now this cause coming on to be heard on the petition and the evidence, the Court finds that all of the defendants have had due legal notice of the pendency and demand of the said petition and that they are in default for answer thereto.

Thereupon the Court further find that the plaintiff and defendants hereinafter named are tenants in common in the estate described in the petition; that the said Louisa Elliott, widow, is entitled to dower therein, and that subject thereto the plaintiff, Minerva Taylor, has a legal right to the two tenths (2/10) of said estate, the defendants, William Elliott, Elizabeth Morris, Martha Hild, Sabra Thornburg, Amanda Freshwater, John Elliott, Mary Swank, and John Evans, each have a legal right to the one tenth (1/10) part thereof and that the plaintiff is entitled to have partition made of said premises as prayed in her petition.

It is therefore ordered that partition of said estate be made, and that dower therein be assigned to the said Louisa Elliott, and J. F. Clevenger, Charles Jewett, and J. K. Langstaff, three judicious freeholders of the vicinity are hereby appointed Commissioners to make and set off the same. And it is ordered that if said estate is entire, and cannot be divided by metes and bounds, the dower of the said Louisa Elliott be assigned as of a third part of the rents, issues and profits thereof, and that said estate be appraised, subject to such dower interest.

And it is ordered that a writ issue to the Sheriff of Union County, commanding him that by the oaths of the Commissioners above named he cause to be set off and divided to each of the above named parties the part and proportion of said estate to which they are hereinbefore severally found entitled, and also cause to be set off and assigned in manner as above ordered, the dower of the said Louisa Elliott, and of his proceedings herein the said Sheriff is ordered to make due return.

Maggie Fuller.

Benjamin F. Fuller May, 6th, 1901.

This cause came on for hearing this sixth day of May, A.D. 1901, and the Court find that the defendant on the 30th day of March, 1901, was duly served with summons and a copy of the petition herein, and that he is in default for answer and demurrer thereto. The Court further find upon the evidence adduced that the facts stated in said petition are true, and that the defendant has been guilty of extreme cruelty and gross neglect of duty towards the plaintiff in the manner and form alleged in her said petition herein. It is therefore ordered and adjudged by the Court that the marriage contract heretofore existing between the said Maggie Fuller, and Benjamin F. Fuller be, and the same hereby is dissolved, and both of said parties are released from the obligations of the same. It is further ordered that the plaintiff be, and she hereby is restored to her former name of Maggie Fink, and that she pay the costs of this proceeding taxed at $— and recover the same of the defendant, and judgment is accordingly rendered against him in her favor therefor.

Lewis Kline
Vs.
Mary Northup et. al.

Court Common Pleas, Union County, Ohio.
July 1st. 1901.

Now came the plaintiff herein, by his attorney and his petition thereupon coming on to be heard, the Court find that all of the defendants have had due legal notice of the pendency and demand of the said petition and that they are in default for answer and demurrer; and that the said petition is thereby confessed by them to be true. Thereupon the Court find that said Lewis Kline is seized of, and has a legal right to the undivided six fortieths part thereof, the said Mary Northup to the undivided twelve fortieths part thereof, and the said Jacob Kline to the undivided eleven fortieths part thereof, Caroline Carnes to the undivided five fortieths, Katherine Kline to the undivided six fortieths; and no reason appearing why partition should not be made, It is therefore ordered, adjudged and decreed that partition of said estate be made, and that an order issue to the Sheriff of the said County of Union, commanding him that by the oaths of J. S. Welch, H. A. Westlake and John Lee, three judicious and disinterested freeholders of the county who are not of kin to either party, and who are hereby appointed Commissioners for that purpose, and he came to be sworn and divided to the said plaintiff and to each of the said defendants the part and proportion to which they are severally found entitled. And it is ordered that if in the opinion of the said Commissioners said premises cannot be divided by metes and bounds without injury to the value thereof, they appraise the same free from dower thereof. And of this proceedings herein the said Sheriff is ordered to make due return without unnecessary delay.

Vs.
E. S. Sheidmore

Court Common Pleas, Union County, Ohio.
July 1st. 1901.

This day this cause came on to be heard, on the motion of the defendant for an order of dismissal for want of security for costs, and it appearing to the Court that on April 15th. 1901, an order was made by this Court that the plaintiff, being a non-resident of Union County, be required to give security for the costs herein within the 30 days next following, and the plaintiff having wholly failed to give said security, now therefore it is ordered that said cause be dismissed and a judgment is awarded against the plaintiff for the costs herein made.

7921

7934 Martha J. Robinson
vs.
Robert L. Robinson

Court Common Pleas. Union County, Ohio.
July 1st. 1901.

Now come the plaintiff and the defendant having been legally summoned by publication and having failed to appear the Court find defendant in default for answer and demurrer to said petition and find that the allegations thereof are confessed by him to be true. The Court also find that the plaintiff at the time of filing her petition had been a resident of the State of Ohio, for one year next preceding the same and was at the time a bona fide resident of this County of Union, and that the parties hereto were married, as in said petition set forth. The Court further find upon the evidence adduced, that the defendant has been guilty of willful absence for more than three years last past from the filing of petition, as set forth in said petition, and that by reason thereof the plaintiff is entitled to a divorce as prayed for. It is therefor ordered and adjudged by the Court that the marriage contract heretofor existing between the said Martha J. Robinson and Robert L. Robinson Sr, and the same hereby is dissolved and both parties are released from the obligations of the same. It is further ordered that the custody, care, education and control of the said children of the parties be until further order confided to the said plaintiff exclusively, and the defendant is hereby enjoined from interfering in any manner with either of said children, or with the plaintiff in the custody of them, and from visiting said children until further order of Court. It is further ordered and adjudged that the defendant pay to the plaintiff as her reasonable alimony in money the sum of One Hundred Dollars, within 30 days from July 1st, 1901. and in default of any such payment for three days after the time ordered by Court for the payment of same, execution is allowed to issue therefor.

7921 Andrew Renner
vs.
George Stoll et al.

Court Common Pleas. Union County, Ohio.
July 1st. 1901.

This cause came on to be heard on the petition and the evidence, the defendants being in default of answer and demurrer, although duly served with process; on consideration whereof the Court finds that the allegations of the petition are true, that there is due from the defendant, George Stoll, to the plaintiff, on the note and mortgage set forth in his petition, the sum of $1152.34 One thousand and fifty-two Dollars and thirty four cents, which bears interest from the 8th day of April, 1901, and is a good and valid lien and the first lien on the premises in the petition described.

It is therefore considered, that said plaintiff recover of defendant George Stoll, said sum of $1152.34 and also his costs of this action. And it is ordered and decreed, that unless the costs of this suit, and the amount found due plaintiff, with interest shall be paid within five days from the date of this decree, the defendants equity of redemption shall be foreclosed and an order of sale shall be issued to the Sheriff of said County, directing him to appraise, advertise and sell said premises according to law, including advertisement in a German newspaper, and from the proceeds of such sale, he shall pay First:- the costs of this suit, and any taxes, penalties and interest and assessments due upon said premises.

Second:- To said plaintiff said sum of $1152 34/100 with interest as aforesaid, and bring the balance if any into Court.

And it is further ordered that a memo of this proceeding be entered on the margin of the record of said mortgage.

Said entry of May 6th, 1901, stands and remains in force as to the sustaining of said demurrer and exceptions by defendant thereto.

Minerva Taylor

7920 Vs. Court Common Pleas, Union County, Ohio.

William Elliott et. al. July, 1st. 1901.

This cause came on to be heard on the report of the Sheriff and Commissioners of their proceedings under the writ of partition and dower, herein; and upon due consideration the Court finds that said proceedings have been in all respects correct and lawful; that dower has been assigned to said Louisa Elliott widow of said John Elliott deceased. And it further appearing that partition of said estate cannot be made without manifest injury to the same and that said Commissioners have appraised the value at its true value in money subject to said dower estate as heretofore assigned at the sum of $45.00 per acre and neither party electing to take said premises at said valuation on motion of J. L. Jolliff attorney for plaintiff it is ordered that said estate be sold at public auction by the Sheriff of said County according to law, and of his proceedings said Sheriff shall make due return without unnecessary delay.

Margaret Barbara Kress

7943 Vs. Court Common Pleas, Union County

Henry Kress July, 1st. 1901.

On motion of plaintiff and good cause being shown it is ordered that the sum of Twenty five Dollars be allowed as alimony to plaintiff herein and the same is hereby allowed and ordered to be paid by Sept. 1st. 1901, to plaintiff or her attorney, J. B. Cole, and in default for three days execution is awarded.

7735 Lewis F. Orahood
Vs.
Rosa Orahood

Court Common Pleas Union County, Ohio.
July, 1st. 1901.

This day this cause came on for hearing on the petition of the plaintiff, and the answer and cross petition of the defendant and the evidence, and the Court being fully advised in the premises finds, that the parties were married as in the petition allegd. The Court further finds that the defendant has been guilty of willful absence for more than three years and that the plaintiff is not entitled to a decree of divorce therefor.

The Court further finds that the plaintiff has been guilty of willful absence from the defendant for more than three years last past, and of gross neglect of duty, and that defendant is entitled to a divorce therefor.

That the defendant has been a resident of the State of Ohio for more than a year last past, and is a bona fide resident of Union County, Ohio.

It is therefore ordered, and adjudged by the Court that the marriage contract heretofore existing between the said Rosa Orahood and the said Lewis F. Orahood, be and the same hereby is dissolved and both parties released from the same. It is further ordered that the custody, care, education and control of the said minor child born of said marriage be, until the further order of this Court, confided to the said Rosa Orahood exclusively and the plaintiff is hereby ordered to pay to the defendant the sum of $8 per month for the support of said child until the further order of the Court. It is ordered that the plaintiff pay the costs herein.

It is ordered that all causes, matters and motions now pending in this Court, not otherwise disposed of by, and the same are hereby continued to the next term thereof.

The Present Term of this Court was begun on the 15 th day of April, A.D, 1901, and continued from day to day and from time to time by regular adjournments until this 1st day of July, A.D. 1901 and is now adjourned without day.

Court Common Pleas. Union County, Ohio.
Sept. 16th, 1901

This cause coming on to be heard on the petition of the plaintiffs and the answer and cross petition of the defendant, and the plaintiffs being in default for reply and not desiring to plead further, and the defendant desiring her title to the real estate described in the petition quieted as prayed in her answer and cross petition, the Court upon due consideration of said pleadings, and after hearing evidence thereon find that the facts stated and allegations made by the defendant in her said answer and cross-petition are true, and that neither the plaintiffs nor any one of them have any estate in or title to the real estate described in their petition or in or to any part thereof, but that the defendant is seized in fee simple of the whole thereof and is rightfully in possession of the same, and that she is entitled to the equitable relief prayed for in her said answer and cross-petition, and to have her title and possession to the said premises quieted.. 7949

It is therefore ordered, adjudged and decreed that the title and possession of the defendant to the said premises be quieted as against the plaintiffs and each of them, and all persons claiming under them and that the plaintiffs, and each of them, and all persons claiming under them or any of them, Or, and they hereby are enjoined from setting up any claim to said premises, or any part thereof, or in any manner interfering with her use and enjoyment of the same, It is further ordered that the plaintiffs pay the costs of this action taxed at $17.96,

Fredrick S. Giddings et. al. Sept. 16th, 1901

This day this cause came on to be heard upon the petition of plaintiff, the defendants, Frederick S. Giddings, and Mary Giddings, Fannie S. Cummings, Robert S. Cummings, Jr. Isabelle Cummings, Harriett C. Osborn, George C. Osborn, Charles F. Osborn, and John M. Osborn, C. N. Gale, Theodore A. Phillipps, Dwight S. Phillipps, Charles R. Smith, Katherine Smith, Catherine Stockley, Esther G. Hatch, Alvin T. Hatch, having each waived, the issuing and service of summons in the above entitled action, entered their appearance thereto, and the said defendant, J. B. Robinson, having been duly and legally served with summons herein, and each having due and legal notice of the pending of this suit, and each and all of the defendants, being in default for answer, demurrer, or other pleading to the petition; and was submitted to the Court, on consideration whereof the Court do find that the allegations in the petition contained are by each of the defendants, including J. B. Robinson, confessed to be true, and that there is due the said plaintiff on the notes and mortgage set up in the petition with interest at the rate of eight per cent per annum from maturity payable annually to this 16th day of Sept. 1901, the sum of $ 24781.70.

The Court further find that in order to secure payment of said notes set up in the said petition said Frederick S. Giddings and Mary Giddings, his wife, Joseph H. Cummings (who has since deceased) and Fannie S. Cummings, his wife, executed and delivered to the plaintiff the mortgage deed in the petition described and on the undivided one half (½) of the premises therein described, that said mortgage was duly recorded in mortgage record No. 31, page 632, et. seq. in the office of the County Recorder in and for Union County, Ohio, and is a valid and subsisting, and (excepting the taxes) the first and best lien on the undivided one half (½) of said premises described in the petition. The Court further find that the condition of defeasance in said mortgage has been broken and that the plaintiff is hereby entitled to have said mortgage foreclosed and said premises (excepting that tract or parcel of land sold and conveyed by said Frederick S. Giddings, and Mary Giddings his wife, J. W. Cummings and Fannie S. Cummings, his wife, Charles R. Smith, Katherine Smith, Esther G. Haleh, and Alvin T. Haleh, her husband, and Leela Stockly, Theodore A Phillips and Delight S. Phillips, his wife to E. W. In Memoriam

Memorial by the Members of the Union County Bar, on the occasion of the Assassination of the President.

Marysville, O. Sept. 16th, 1901.

To the Hon. Duncan Dow, Judge of the Court of Common Pleas of Union County, Ohio:-

As the Court is about to convene this morning, William McKinley, late President of the United States, lies cold in death, his body draped for the grave is lying at the National Capital, and the grief stricken nation mourns. Sharing with all the people of this country the common sorrow, we feel depressed and unable to proceed with the business of the Court, and have come to ask your Honor to allow us to present to you, to be spread upon the Journal, a testimonial of our bereavement that it may be preserved upon our records. William McKinley was a native of Ohio, coming up under the fostering care of our laws and institutions, enjoying in his humble home all the safeguards that our humane laws throw around the homes of all, and drinking in that true spirit of patriotism and love for all that makes of us so great a nation. Devoted to his country, when yet a mere boy he was called upon to bear his share in preserving its life; and well and nobly he performed this service. He entered the army as a private soldier sharing with his comrades the privations and perils of war; and when the Nation triumphed he had earned and received promotion, and came back to private life with a stainless soldier record.

He became a member of the Ohio Bar, and as such showed marked ability as a lawyer, and when he left the bar to enter public life, he left with the good will and esteem of all his brother members and the Courts in which he practiced his profession.

Entering public life as member of Congress, he devoted himself to the interest of the people whom he served, and received their commendation and indorsement again and again. His views on matters of great public policy became to him convictions of truth, and he was unswerving in his duty as he saw it. He loved the people of Ohio, and was twice called to the office of Governor, and he left that high office as he had entered it, with the good will of the people of his native state, whose faith in him was so strong that they insisted upon higher honors for him. When nominated for the high office of President he had before him only matters of domestic public policy upon which he had the strongest convictions, but scarcely had he entered upon his office as President until the discontent of our people because of the oppression in Cuba became so great that war with Spain was seriously threatened. To this new duty he turned his attention and prepared the Nation for the serious task before it. Safely he guided us through all the trying ordeal of that struggle, and like the lamented Lincoln just when he was ready to enjoy the fruits of his success he was stricken.

William McKinley loved the people and believed in them. It was joy to him to grasp the hand of an honest man, no matter if that hand was grimy with toil. His heart was warm and generous, and he loved to mingle with the people as one of them. His great care was for their prosperity and happiness and it grieved him to see men willing to work, find no employment for he knew that a wife and little children were depending upon the arm that sought labor and found it not. In this spirit of devotion he mingled with the people at Buffalo. He had finished an address looking to the future greatness of his country, and breathing high hopes for the welfare of his people. He stood in line while they passed by and grasped each friendly hand as it was extended and bid the man God speed, With a smile upon his face and love in his heart he reached his hand in friendship, and met the serpents sting. With a cowards disguised hand, a monster struck down this kindly and defenseless man. Giving a look kindred to that the Master of Life gave the disloyal Peter, he fell back into the arms of his friends to be carried away to suffering and death. He had loved and served his people and his God, and death had no terrors for him. His last words were- "It is God's way, let His will be done-"

Such, your Honor was the noble life we mourn, and because of this great tragedy we feel impelled to ask your Honor that out of respect to his memory, the Court adjourn until after the body is laid in the quiet of his family lot, in Canton, after which we will resume and be prepared to go forward, as he would ask us to do.

We cannot close this testimonial, however, without in some way, trying to express our abhorrence, in temperate speech, of this awful crime against God and man. Order is Heaven's law and the Eternal God rules over all and he has so appointed us, that we, as a people, and a Nation must rule and govern ourselves; protecting the life he has given us from the cradle to the grave. The people must have the full measure of liberty consistent with the public good, and one measure upon which we insist is that of mingling with the people and among our fellows without danger from an assassin's hand. The weak and defenseless look to the Courts and the law for protection and it must be given at whatever cost. A citizen of this great Nation, be he President, or in humble life must have the right to move among his fellows with safety and without apprehension of the assassin's dagger.

Good and loving hearts must not be required to have a guard to protect them in this fair land. Whomsoever aids or abets, or counsels another to disregard law and social order and to commit deeds of violence, is an enemy and entitled to no place in Free America. Freedom is liberty to do right and observe the Golden Rule, and is not meant for an assassin's shield.

Anarchy, and anarchist must be destroyed or driven from the land. This good Nation of ours has been face to face with stern duties before, and the people have not faltered nor will they falter in this. Anarchy will be met with a stern hand and strong arm nor will we be ready to cease until this viperous breed have been annihilated. The miserable tool of the anarchistic creed has forfeited his worthless life, but it is not enough to repay the nation's loss nor heal the wounded hearts that are bleeding today. We ask for more than the life of the assassin, we demand the death of the poisonous creed that teaches assassination.

We grieve for the stricken wife of our President, and command her to the care of the merciful Father, it is all we can do.

Thanking your Honor, for the courtesy of hearing us, we put this testimonial in your hands in behalf of the Union County Bar.

Report of Grand Jury

Report of Grand Jury

To the Honorable Duncan Dow, Judge of the Court of Common Pleas, Union County, Ohio.

The Grand Jury of the Court of Common Pleas of said County, of the September Term, 1901, beg leave to report that they have been in session four days, and herewith return to the Court the Indictments presented by said Jury; We have carefully examined into all such matters as have legitimately come to our notice, having examined over sixty-three witnesses, covering fifteen cases, and presented seven bills and ignored eight cases considered by us. The business has been transacted in as expeditious a manner as possible. During our session we have visited the County Jail and made a complete examination thereof, and find that the rules prescribed by the Court for the care thereof has been carried out and properly enforced.

We recommend that while the County Commissioners are constructing a new Jail and remodeling the residence portion to same that they provide a better light for the hall to same by putting a new glass door in front to hall.

Respectfully Submitted,
George Moder, Foreman.

7955 Iola Tallman vs. S.S. McCrek et al, — Court Common Pleas, Union County, Ohio. Sept. 23rd, 1901.

This cause now coming on for hearing on the petition of the plaintiff, the cross-petition of the defendant, Samuel Robinson, the cross-petition of the defendant, The Globe Building and Loan Association Company, and the evidence, the Court find that the defendant, S.S. McCrek and Mary McCrek, have been duly served with summons in this case, and that they are in default for answer and demurrer, and that the allegations of the petition are thereby confessed by them to be true; and that there is due to the plaintiff from the defendants, S.S. McCrek and Mary E. McCrek, on the promissory note set forth in the petition, with interest to the first day of this term the sum of Seventy two and 16/100 dollars.

The Court further find that in order to secure the payment of said note the defendants, S.S. McCrek and Mary E. McCrek, his wife, executed and delivered to said plaintiff their certain mortgage, as in the petition described; that said mortgage was duly recorded, by the Union County Recorder of Mortgages, in the mortgage records of said County, on the 19th day of October 1898, and is a good and valid lien on the premises described in the petition, and that the conditions of said mortgage have been broken. And the Court further find that there is due to the defendant, Samuel Robinson, from the defendant, S.S. McCrek for taxes paid the Treasurer of Union County, at a tax sale of said premises, and for taxes paid on said premises subsequent to said sale, and for interest and penalty on the same the sum of Twenty and 17/100 Dollars.

The Court also find that after two years from the sale of said premises at tax sale, the said defendant, Samuel Robinson, made lasting and valuable improvements on said premises of the value of Twelve Dollars, and that the said Samuel Robinson has a lien on said premises to the amount of Thirty two and 17/100 Dollars, which said lien is the first and best lien on said premises.

And the Court further find that there is due to the defendant, The Globe Building and Loan Association Company, from the defendants, S.S. McCrek and Mary E. McCrek, on the contract so set up in the cross-petition of said Company, including interest to the first day of this term, the sum of $181 49/100, that to secure the payment of said contract, the defendants, S.S. McCreek and Mary E. McCreek, executed and delivered to said Company their certain mortgage, as in said cross-petition described, and on the premises in the plaintiffs petition described. That said mortgage was duly recorded, on the 14th day of July, 1898, at the office of the Union County Recorder of Mortgages, and next to the lien of the said defendant, Samuel Robinson, is the first lien on said premises, for the amount so found due to said Company from the said defendants, S.S. McCreek and Mary E. McCreek; and that the conditions of said mortgage have been broken.

It is therefore adjudged and decreed that unless said defendants, S.S. McCreek and Mary E. McCreek, shall within three days from the entry of this decree, pay, or cause to be paid to the plaintiff and to the defendants, Samuel Robinson, and The Globe Building and Loan Association Company, the sums so found due them as aforesaid, with interest from the 16th day of September, 1901, the defendants, S.S. McCreek and Mary E. McCreek's equity of redemption be foreclosed, and said premises be sold, and that an order of sale issue therefor to the Sheriff of Union County, directing him to appraise, advertise and sell said premises as upon execution, and report his proceedings to this Court for further order.

Vs.

H. H. Merchant, Admr.

Court Common Pleas, Union County, Ohio.

Sept. 23rd, 1901, entered Oct 9th, 1901

This cause being heard on demurrer to the third, fourth, and fifth grounds of defense set forth in the amended answer herein filed, it is considered and ordered by the Court that the said demurrer be, and the same hereby is sustained. And thereupon the said defendant not asking to plead further, and a jury having been waived, this cause was submitted to the Court upon the pleadings, and the evidence.

Thereupon on consideration thereof the Court finds, from the evidence that the Plaintiff ~~is the duly appointed and qualified Administrator,~~ ~~has not been paid,~~ and finds that there is due and owing to said plaintiff, as Administrator of Lydia Ann Perkins, deceased, from the said defendant, as Administrator of the estate of Abner Liggett, deceased, the sum of Three Hundred and Fifty Dollars ($350), with interest thereon at the rate of six per centum per annum from the 17th day of January, A. D. 1901, and there was no other or further evidence submitted by either party than above mentioned. It is therefore considered, ordered, and adjudged by the Court that the said plaintiff recover from the said defendant, as such Administrator, the said sum of $350.00 with interest thereon at the rate of six per centum per annum from the 17th day of January, A.D. 1901, so as aforesaid found due, together with his costs in this behalf expended taxed at $ —.

And to the findings, orders, and judgments of the Court, in the premises the said defendant, by his counsel excepts, and especially to the sustaining of said demurrer to said defendant's third, fourth and fifth grounds of defense in said amended answer.

G. H. Beck
Vs.
Buia B. Cavis et. al.

Court Common Pleas. Union County, Ohio.
Sept. 23rd, 1901.

This day this cause came on further to be heard upon the question of the distribution of the proceeds of the sale of said real estate in this case so made by the Sheriff in this cause, and the Court being further advised in the premises find that the entry heretofore made herein, and entered upon Journal 19 Page 350, and filed July 1st. 1901, of the records of this Court, that said entry and order should be modified in this particular, towit: that instead of the Sheriff being "ordered to make to each purchaser a deed for the property respectively bid off by each", the Court find that the entire property was bid off and sold to said Buia B. Cavis, and the said deed should be made by the Sheriff of the entire premises so sold, to her, and the Sheriff is now ordered to make to the said purchaser, Buia B. Cavis, the defendant, in this cause a good and sufficient deed for the property so bid off and sold to her. And for that purpose and to that effect the said Entry on Journal No. 19 of this Court Page 350, be and the same is hereby modified, and changed so far that the said Sheriff is now ordered to deed to the said Buia B. Cavis all of said property so sold,
And it is further found by the Court that the said Buia B. Cavis and G. H. Beck in order to save the expense of the appointment and the service of an administrator for the estate of said Caroline M. Beck, that the said G. H. Beck and Buia B. Cavis have agreed that the debts of the estate of Caroline M. Beck, who is now deceased and from whom said estate came shall be paid out of the proceeds of said sale of real estate, and the Court find from the agreement of the parties and from the evidence that the following are the debts of said estate of Caroline M. Beck, deceased, towit:- said estate is indebted to Joseph Cartmell in the sum of $110.00 to Plate & Dry $9.08; to E. F. Sawyer $7.50; to H. J. Castamire $100.00, to Mullen and Son, $8.00, to John Auer $9.86; to Jack Wright $7.00; Robert Patterson $2.00; to John Lowe $6.00; J. H. Ryan $4.00; to Dr. Buffington $30.00; to N. E. Liggett $2.71, which said debts of Caroline M. Beck the Sheriff is authorized and required to pay out of said proceeds of sale, and also the cost and fees of this proceeding including the Attorney fee of $ — to Porter & Porter for their services in this cause, and also the sum of $10.00 to Porter & Porter for extra professional services in this cause, And the Court further finds by said agreement that the mortgage claim of the Bank of Marysville, is to be paid from the share and interest of said Buia B. Cavis, and finds that the amount is $355.80, which amounts the Sheriff is ordered to pay out of said proceeds, all of which amounts to be paid by said Sheriff out of said proceeds is $511.76, and the Court finds that after all said sums of money are paid, that there is to be distributed to the Plaintiff G. H. Beck the sum of $ 618.57, and to the said Buia B. Cavis $ —.

Elmira Spain
Vs.
Marion Spain

Court Common Pleas, Union County, Ohio.
Sept. 30th, 1901,

This day this cause came on to be heard, upon the petition and evidence, and was argued by counsel; on consideration whereof the Court being fully advised in the premises finds the facts stated in the petition to be true, that the defendant has been, and is guilty of gross neglect of duty, and willful absence for more than three years, as in the petition set forth, and that the plaintiff has been a resident of the State of Ohio, for many years last past and at the time of filing the petition, a bona fide resident of said County of Union, and that her former name was Elmira Daugh,
The Court further find that the defendant has been duly and legally served with notice of the filing and pendency of the petition herein for more than six weeks prior to this hearing,
It is therefore adjudged and decreed by the Court that the marriage relations heretofore existing between the parties, be and the same is set aside and wholly annulled, and both parties released from the obligations of the same, It is further ordered and decreed that the plaintiff be restored to her former name of Elmira Daugh; and that the plaintiff recover of the defendant the costs hereof.

Sovina Carr — Court Common Pleas. Union County, Ohio.

7968 — Vs. — Sept. 30th, 1901.

Chas. C. Carr

This day this cause came on to be heard on the petition and the evidence on consideration thereof the Court find that the plaintiff at the time of filing her petition had been a resident of the State of Ohio, for one year next preceding that time, and was at that time a bona fide resident of this County of Union and that the parties thereto were married as in the petition set forth. The Court further find upon the evidence adduced that the defendant has been guilty of wilful absence for more than three years next before this action was commenced, and that he has been guilty of gross neglect of duty as in the petition set forth, and that by reason thereof the plaintiff is entitled to a divorce as prayed for. It is therefore ordered and adjudged by the Court that the marriage contract heretofore existing between the said Sovina A. Carr and Charles C. Carr, be and the same hereby is dissolved, and both parties released from the obligations of the same. It is further ordered that the custody, care, education and control of the said child of the parties hereto be until further order confided to the plaintiff exclusively. It is further ordered and adjudged, that the defendant pay to the plaintiff as her reasonable alimony in money the sum of Eight Dollars and thirty three and one third cents per month ($8 33⅓) payable on the first day of each and every month until the further order of the Court, The first installment of alimony to be paid on the first day of October A. D. 1901, and in default of any payment for three days execution is allowed to issue therefor. It is further considered by the Court that the said plaintiff recover from the said defendant her costs herein expended taxed to $—, and in default of payment of costs, execution is awarded against the defendant.

Lewis Kline
7844 Vs.
Mary Northup et. al.

Court Common Pleas, Union County, Ohio,
Oct. 1st. 1901.

This cause came on for hearing upon the return of the Sheriff and the report of the Commissioners heretofore apointed herein and on the motion to confirm the same, and it appearing that said estate cannot be divided by metes and bounds without manifest injury to the value thereof, and that said Commissioners have made and returned their appraisement of said premises, towit:- in the sum of $512.50, the Court find the said return and appraisement in all respects correct and in conformity to law, and do therefor approve and confirm the same.
And it appearing to the Court that the said Lewis Kline has elected to take the said premises at their appraised value, the same are upon payment by the said Lewis Kline of the said sum of $512.50 hereby adjudged to him, and the Sheriff is ordered to convey said premises to him accordingly by deed in fee simple; and it appearing to the satisfaction of the Court that on April 14th, 1897, the said Levi Kline convyed all his interest (which was five fortieths thereof) to Lewis Kline the plaintiff herein; and Mary Northup, Katherine Kline, James Kline and Margaret Fields, to each a one fortieth part, and it also appearing that James Kline convyed all his interest in said estate (which was five fortieths, and one fortieth by him purchased from Levi Kline) making in all six fortieths, to Mary Northup. It also appearing to the full satisfaction of the Court that Katherine Kline and Margaret Fields, two of the above named defendants, each have a right to, and it is therefore decreed and adjudged that the said Katherine Kline and Margaret Fields, first be paid One Hundred Dollars, each, out of the proceeds of said sale before the distribution of the proceeds be made, the question being raised as to a conveyance made by Margaret Fields to Jacob Kline, said conveyance having been made on Aug. 14th, 1899, and recorded in Vol. 80 Page, 344, Records of Union County, Ohio, that at that date the said Margaret Fields had not sufficient mind to make, the same, and is therefore set aside, and her interest herein convyed to the plaintiff by virtue of these proceedings, and that the proceeds thereof be paid to the Infirmary Directors of Henry Co. Ohio, in whose care and custody, the said Margaret Fields now is, and all the proceeds herein due to her, to be paid to said Infirmary Directors. The Court further find that Mary Northup is entitled to and shall receive $29.18 as taxes paid by her on said lands, above what her share of said taxes was; that the said plaintiff Lewis Kline, receive $14.60 as taxes against said estate paid by him, above what his share of said taxes was. That the Deering Harvesting Company be paid the sum of $61.80, the amount of its lien from the interest of said Jacob Kline in said estate, after the costs of $15.30 is deducted from the interest of said Jacob Kline, which was made by said Jacob Kline, individually in contesting the validity of a deed of convyance by Margaret Fields of her interest to said Jacob Kline. That H. H. Richards be paid so much of his claim from the remaining interest of said Jacob Kline, as the same will pay.
It is therefor further ordered that the Sheriff out of the proceeds of the said sale pay, first, to the Treasurer of Union County $3.18 the taxes past due, and any penalty on same on said premises.

Secondly, to the Clerk of this Court the costs of this action, including a counsel fee of $25.00 to T.A. Thompson for his services herein taxed at, $100.16.
Thirdly, and of the residue of the proceeds of said sale to the plaintiff 6/40 or $25.76; To Mary Northup 12/40 or $51.53; Katherine Kline 6/40 or $25.75; Jacob Kline 5/40 or $21.47; The Infirmary Directors of Henry County Ohio, 6/40 or $25.76; Caroline Carnes 5/40 or $21.47.

7920 Minerva Taylor vs. William Elliott et al. — Court Common Pleas, Union County, Ohio. Oct. 1st. 1901.

On motion of the plaintiff, and upon producing the return of the Sheriff of his proceedings and sale under the former order of this Court, and the Court being satisfied on examination that the same have been had in all respects according to law, the said proceedings and sale are hereby approved and confirmed, And the said Sheriff is ordered by deed duly executed to convey said premises to Minerva Taylor the purchaser, (subject to the dower estate of said Louisa Elliott) upon the following terms: 1/3 cash; 1/3 in one year; and 1/3 in two years, deferred payments to be secured by mortgage on the premises.
It is further ordered that the Sheriff, out of the proceeds of sale pay:
First, to the Treasurer of Union County, Ohio $ — Being the taxes and penalty due on said premises,
Secondly, to the Clerk of this Court, the costs of this action, including a counsel fee of $102.00 to J.S. Jolliff and O.B. Mather, for their services herein, taxed at $275.16,
Thirdly, to the plaintiff the 2/5 of the balance of the cash payment, towit, the sum of $ —, and also 2/5 of the proceeds of the notes given to said Sheriff of Union County, Ohio, by said purchaser; and to each of the said defendants the 1/5 part of the balance of the cash payment, towit: the sum of $ —, and also 1/5 of the proceeds of the notes given by the purchaser to said Sheriff.

Oct. 7th, 1901.

Be it remembered, that heretofore, towit; on the 3rd day of October, A. D. 1901, an instrument of writing purporting to be the last will and testament of Isaac J. Sanaft, late of Taylor Township, in this County, deceased, was produced in the Probate Court of Union County, Ohio, and offered for Probate, and was then filed, And it now being shown to the satisfaction of the Court that due notice of the filing of said will and of the application to admit the same to Probate and Record, in said Probate Court has been given to the next of kin of the testator resident of the State of Ohio, pursuant to a former order of said Probate Court; and that the Probate Judge of this County is one of the subscribing witnesses to said will, and has duly certified the hearing hereof into this Court as provided by Statute: thereupon on this day came the subscribing witnesses to said Will, who being duly sworn, testified to the due execution and attestation of said Will, which testimony was reduced to writing, by them respectively subscribed, and filed with said Will. Whereupon the Court finds that the aforesaid instrument of writing is the last Will and Testament of said Isaac J. Sanaft, deceased; that the same was duly executed and attested, and that the said testator, at the time of making, signing and sealing the same was of full age, of sound mind and memory, and not under any restraint,

It is therefore, by the Court ordered, that the said Will be admitted to Probate, and that the same, together with the testimony of the witnesses above named, be entered for record in said Probate Court of said Union County, Ohio, and that a transcript of the finding and judgment of this Court, together with the original testimony of the witnesses, and the original Will, and all other original papers pertaining thereto be certified to the said Probate Court of Union County Ohio.

Archibald R. Andrews. Vs. Amelia Andrews. 7966

Court Common Pleas. Union County. Ohio.
Oct. 7th, 1901.

This day this cause came on to be heard upon the petition of the plaintiff, the defendant being in default for answer or demurrer, and the Court having heard all the proofs and evidence adduced by the parties, and the arguments of counsel, and being fully advised in the premises, doth find that the defendant, Amelia Andrews, is guilty of willful absence for more than three years before the filing of the petition in this case, and that all and singular the facts alleged in the petition are true.

Whereupon by reason of said aggressions on the part of said Amelia Andrews, the said Archibald R. Andrews, is hereby granted an absolute divorce from his said wife, and the said marriage heretofore solemnized between them annulled.

And it is further adjudged that the said Archibald R. Andrews, pay the costs of this action, and in default thereof, that execution issue therefor.

Fleetwood Courtright
Vs.
S. J. Taylor et. al.

Court Common Pleas. Union County, Ohio.
Oct. 7th, 1901

This day came the parties by their Attorneys, and this cause was submitted to the Court upon the pleadings, and the evidence, On consideration whereof, the Court being fully advised in the premises, finds that there was no consideration for the deed from said S. J. Taylor, to said Oliver Hapgood, and no consideration for the said deed from said Oliver Hapgood, and wife to said Martha E Taylor, and that said deeds were executed subsequent to the date of the notes upon which the judgments mentioned in the petition were rendered, and that said deeds are of no effect, to pass the title of said lands to said Martha E. Taylor; but the title to the same is still in the said S. J. Taylor, and subject to the payment of the judgments in the petition set forth. It is therefore considered, adjudged and decreed, by the Court that the said deed from S. J. Taylor to said Oliver Hapgood, and from said Oliver Hapgood to said Martha E. Taylor, be and the same is set aside and held for naught; and the title to said lands, declared to be in said S. J. Taylor,
Thereupon said S. J. Taylor and said plaintiff in open Court agreed that upon the conveyance by said S. J. Taylor and wife to said Fleetwood Courtright of the 81½ acre tract lying in Survey 9898, and the payment of the further sum of $750.00, the plaintiff would accept the same in full of the judgment mentioned in the petition, except costs.
Thereupon said S. J. Taylor paid to plaintiff said sum of $750.00 and with his wife executed to said plaintiff a deed for said tract of 81½ acres in Survey No. 9898, which is accepted by plaintiff in full of said judgment except costs,
It is ordered that the defendant pay the costs of this action taxed to $ —,

Harmon N. Baxley, Guardian, Court Common Pleas. Union County, Ohio.
7946 Vs. Oct. 7th, 1901.
Martha E. Stansfield et. al.

This day this cause coming on to be heard on the petition of the plaintiff and the answer and cross-petition of F. S. Gibson, and the evidence the Court find that all parties have been duly summoned or brought in by publication, except the defendant F. S. Gibson, who has answered in this action, and that all parties interested are now before the Court. The Court further find that the defendants, the said John A. and Lewis C. Baxley, and one Charles A. Baxley, each hold a life estate in said land with a survivorship over in favor of the living, and that the said Charles, A. is much younger than the other two other life tenants. The Court further find that the said Charles A. Baxley has sold his entire interest in said lands to the defendant, the said F. S. Gibson and that he is entitled to all of the rights of the said Charles A. Baxley in the premises. The Court further find from the evidence that the premises mentioned in said petition is run down, until it affords no rents, and that it would take a great amount of money to repair the same, and that it would not be for the best interests of the estate to do the same, And the Court further find that conditions have arisen that was not contemplated by the testator at the time of making said will, and that it will be for the best interest of all concerned that said premises be sold, and that the proceeds be held by said Guardian for the benefit of all concerned, It is therefore, ordered and adjudged by the Court that the said Guardian cause said lands to be appraised, by the oaths of D. H. Henderson, W. P. O'Brien, and W. H. Jolliff, free-holders of the County, and not of kin to the parties herein whom the Court hereby appoint, and that he make his return to this Court without unnecessary delay, and that a writ of appraisement issue to said Guardian ordering that he have the same done,

vs. Court Common Pleas, Union County, Ohio.
The Varuna Water Co. November, 18th, 1901,

This cause coming on to be heard upon the report of the Referee, to whom was referred the account herein rendered by the Receiver, and upon the evidence relating thereto, the Court finds said account to be correct and satisfactory, and the same is allowed; and it is ordered and decreed that said account be final and conclusive upon all creditors and stockholders of said corporation, and upon all persons having claims against or engagements with it. And the said receiver is allowed for his services herein the sum of Ninety-Two Dollars, and Fifty Dollars is allowed to Millar & Hagerd as Counsel Fee for services rendered him herein, and the said Referee is allowed the sum of Four Dollars for his services; and said Receiver is ordered to pay the same and costs of this action now accrued, taxed to $40.00 out of the money in his hands belonging to said Corporation. It appearing from the account of said Receiver that there will then remain a balance in his hands of $568.61, and from his showing to the Court, that the gneral debts of said dissolved Corporation remaining unpaid amount to $1427.94 with interest thereon accruing since Sept. 26th, 1901, the date of verifying his said account, he is ordered to pay a cash dividend of thirty-nine per cent to the gneral creditors of said Corporation. It further appearing by the representations of the Attorney for said Receiver that there is a disposition on the part of the Stockholders of said Corporation to contribute and pay to the said Receiver according to their respective statutory liability sufficient money to pay all of said debts in full, and that there is a probability that this matter may be fully settled in that manner, this cause is therefore continued for said purpose.

7982 Dolly Curry Price
Vs
Durell S. Price

Court Common Pleas, Union County, Ohio.
November, 18th, 1901.

Now came the plaintiff and the defendant having been duly served with summons and a copy of the petition herein, and having failed to appear, the Court find defendant in default for answer and demurrer to said petition, and find that the defendant is guilty of gross neglect of duty as alleged, are confessed by him to be true. The Court also find that the plaintiff at the time of filing her petition had been a resident of the State of Ohio, for one year next preceding the same, and was at that time a bona fide resident of this County of Union, and that the parties hereto were married as in said petition set forth. The Court further finds upon the evidence adduced that the defendant has been guilty of gross neglect of duty, and that by reason thereof the plaintiff is entitled to a divorce as prayed for.
It is therefor ordered and adjudged by the Court that the marriage contract heretofore existing between the said Dolly Curry Price and Durell S. Price be, and the same hereby is, dissolved, and both parties are released from the obligations of the same. It is further ordered that the custody, care, education and control of the said Children of the parties namely, Orlena Curry Price, eight years old past, and June Llewellyn Price, six years old past hereto be until the further order, confided to the said Plaintiff exclusively. 7991
It is further ordered by the Court that the defendant have the privilege of visiting said children once a month in the day time, and further that said defendant shall notify the plaintiff at least one day before, when he expects to visit said children, and must not be intoxicated, nor in any manner to interfere with the home of the said children. 7972
And any violation of this privilege by either party may be reported to this Court. It is further ordered that the Plaintiff pay the costs of this proceeding

Lillian Lingrell et. al.

Court Common Pleas, Union County, Ohio.
November, 18th, 1901.

It appearing to the Court that Matthew Lingrell, one of the defendants to this suit is manifestly an insane person, and that he has no legal Guardian, Robert McCrory, is hereby appointed Trustee for said Matthew Lingrell in this suit, to appear and defend the same, Thereupon came said Robert McCrory and accepted said appointment and filed his answer on behalf of said Matthew Lingrell.

Joshua Richardson et. al.

7747 Vs. Court Common Pleas, Union County, Ohio.

B. F. Paxson et. al. November, 18th, 1901,

This day this cause came on to be heard upon the motion of Joshua Richardson and Lizzie Fry, the Plaintiffs in said consolidated actions, to carry into effect the mandate of the Circuit Court ordering partition herein, It is ordered by the Court that by the oaths of John Hendricks, Tracy Hicks and John Sullivan, three judicious, disinterested freeholders of the vicinity, upon actual view of the premises, partition thereof be made in the following proportions;- one eighth part thereof to Joshua Richardson, plaintiff, one eighth part to Jane Ward, one eighth part to Washington Richardson, one eighth part to Aaron Richardson, one eighth part to Mariah Hughs, one eighth part to Elizabeth Dillie, one twenty fourth part each to Henry Snell, William Snell and Carrie Fowler, and one forty-eighth part each to Plaintiff Lizzie Fry, Siddie Williams, B. F. Paxson, S. J. Paxson, Sallie Marmon and Minnie Bird, if the same can be done without manifest injury to the value thereof, and if not that the said premises be appraised at the true value thereof in money,

It is further ordered that writ and order of a partition issue to the Sheriff of Union County, commanding him to cause partition to be made accordingly.

Edward Leow

7972 Vs. Court Common Pleas, Union County, Ohio,

Hester Leow Nov, 18th, 1901,

This day this cause came on to be heard on the pleadings and the evidence, and on consideration thereof the Court finds that the defendant has not been guilty of extreme cruelty as charged by said plaintiff; and that plaintiff is not entitled to a divorce as prayed for, and petition for same is therefore dismissed, The Court further find that the defendant is entitled to alimony for the support of herself and children; and also find that the defendant is entitled to the custody of the minor children,

It is therefore ordered by the Court that the plaintiff pay the cost of this action taxed to $ —, and execution is awarded therefor.

It is further ordered that the plaintiff pay to the defendant as her reasonable alimony in money for the support of herself and minor children $50, on the 1st of December, 1901, and $40, on Jan. 1st. 1902, and $40, on the first of each month thereafter for support of herself and minor children until the further order of this Court, Said payments to be made to the Clerk of this Court, and in default of any such payment for three days, execution is allowed to issue therefor. It is further ordered that the custody of the said children of the parties hereto be, until the further order of this Court, confided to the defendant exclusively.

7747 Joshua Richardson et. al. Mandate from the Circuit Court.
Vs. Circuit Court, Union County, Ohio.
B. F. Paxson et. al.

At a term of the Circuit Court, within and for the County of Union, in the State of Ohio, began and held before Hon. Caleb H. Norris, Hon. James H. Day, Hon. William T. Mooney, Presiding Judges, at Marysville, on the 2nd day of October, 1901, among other proceedings then and there had by and before said Court as appears by its Journal were the following viz:-

"This day this cause came on for trial and hearing upon the issues made by the pleadings of the parties, and the evidence, and was argued by counsel; and the Court being fully advised in the premises find the equities of the case to be with the plaintiffs against the defendants, B. F. Paxson and wife: and the Court find that said deed of conveyance so made by Clark Richardson, to B. F. Paxson was fraudulent and void as claimed by plaintiffs in their petition and should be set aside and cancelled of record, The Court therefore order, adjudge and decree that said deed of conveyance so made be set aside vacated and held for naught, and order that the same be cancelled of record; and the Court adjudge the costs made herein against the said B. F. Paxson, It is therefore considered by the Court that the plaintiffs recover of the said B. F. Paxson, their costs herein taxed to $—, and execution is awarded, therefor, And the Court further find from the issues joined in the case that said land is subject to partition, and said cause is remanded to the Court of Common Pleas for execution for costs against the said B. F. Paxson, and for the partition of said real estate, and for such other proceedings in said cause as are required by law, Motion for new trial by said B. F. Paxson, is overruled, And the said B. F. Paxson to all the rulings and decisions and judgments herein made, excepts and fifty days is allowed for the bill of exceptions, And it is further ordered that the Clerk of this Court cause to be entered on the margin of the record of said deed cancellation of the same,"

8003 Vs.
Theodore S. Mullen et. al.

Court Common Pleas, Union County, Ohio.
Jan. 6th, 1902

Now comes the plaintiff by her attorneys herein, and the case coming on to be heard upon the petition of plaintiff, the Court find that all of the defendants have had due and legal notice by summons and due proof of the pendency and demand of said petition, and that they are all in default for answer or demurrer to the same, and that the facts set up in said petition are taken as true as alleged therein, And the Court find that the said plaintiff Mary A. Mullen, is entitled to dower in the undivided one fifth interest of the said Ella May Mullen, in said premises as alleged, and that subject to said dower interest, the said Ella May Mullen is seized of and has a legal right to the one undivided one fifth of said premises, the said Theodore S. Mullen, is seized and has a legal right to one undivided one fifth part of said premises, the said Lafayette S. Mullen is seized and has a legal right to one undivided one fifth part of said premises, the said William W. Mullen, of one undivided fifth part, and the said Joseph S. Mullen of one undivided fifth part of the same. It is therefore ordered, adjudged and decreed, that the said Mary A. Mullen be endowed of the full equal 1/3 of the said share of the said Ella May Mullen, and that partition of said estate be made as above set forth, And that an order issued to the Sheriff of said County of Union commanding him that by the oaths of C. S. Chapman, George Bracher, and B. F. Garmean, three judicious and disinterested freeholders of the vicinity, who are not of kin to either party, and who are hereby appointed Commissioners for that purpose, he assign and set off such dower to the said Mary A. Mullen, according to law, and that by the oaths of said Commissioners, he cause to be set off and divided to the said Ella May Mullen, subject to the said dower, one fifth part of said premises, and to each of the other four defendants a like part of one fifth part of said premises, to which each has been herein severally found entitled, And if said premises, in the opinion of said Commissioners, cannot be divided by metes and bounds without injury to the value thereof, that they appraise the same free from said dower interest, the said Mary A. Mullen in that event, thereby to take her said dower interest in money, And it is further ordered that the Sheriff make due return of his proceedings herein without unnecessary delay.

Harriett L. Patch et. al.

Court Common Pleas, Union County, Ohio,
Jan. 8th, 1902,

And now this cause came on to be heard on the petition of the plaintiff asking for the direction and judgment of the Court on construing certain parts of the will of John Crottinger of which will said plaintiff is the executor, and upon certain questions presented in the petition; all the defendants being in default for pleading. And thereupon the Court after careful consideration, find and adjudge the true intention and construction of said will to be as follows, towit:- That the intention of the testator, as gathered from the whole will, was the equal distribution of his estate among the devisees named therein: that the promissory note mentioned in item 6th of said will, is an asset of said estate in the hands of the executor, in all respects as if there had been no will,

It is therefore considered by the Court that the Executor collect the amount of said note and interest off the said Harriett L. Patch and D. B. Patch, and divide the proceeds of the same equally among all the devisees named in said will,

It is further ordered that Robert McCrory, be allowed $25.00 as Attorney fees out of the estate and costs, including said fee to be paid by the Executor,

Report of Grand Jury.

To the Honorable Duncan Dow, Judge of the Court of Common Pleas, Union County, Ohio,

The Grand Jury of the Court of Common Pleas of said County, of the January Term, 1902, beg leave to report that they have been in session 4 days and herewith return to the Court the Indictments presented by said Jury; We have carefully examined into all such matters as have legitimately come to our notice having examined over ninety three witnesses covering twenty four cases and presented seventeen bills and ignored seven cases considered by us, The business has been transacted in as expeditious a manner as possible,

During our session we have visited the County Jail and made a complete examination thereof, and find that the rules prescribed by the Court for the care thereof and for the government of its inmates have been carried out and properly enforced,

We recommend that a fine mesh screen should be placed over the ventilators of the Jail to prevent articles being handed in from the outside, We also recommend that a glass be placed in the front hall door,

Respectfully submitted,

7961 Vs. Court Common Pleas, Union County, Ohio,

Rose Hostetter et. al. Jan. 20th, 1902,

Now comes the plaintiff herein, and the defendant being in default for answer and demurrer, this cause was submitted to the Court upon the petition and evidence; and the Court find the allegations of the petition are true, and that the conveyance of the property described in the petition was made with intent to hinder, delay, and defraud, creditors, as the said plaintiff in his petition alleged,

It is therefore considered by the Court that the said deed of conveyance from Rose Hostetter to Luella Richman be, and the same is hereby set aside, vacated, and declared to be of no force or effect, in law to affect or convey the title of the said described premises to the said Luella Richman,

It is therefore further considered by the Court that the said property in the petition described be subjected to the payment of the debts of the said Rose Hostetter, according to the priorities here after to be determined,

It is further decreed that the said Rose Hostetter pay one hundred Dollars (100^{00}), which is to be in full payment, for the amount asked in plaintiffs petition, to be paid by defendant, Rose Hostetter, within ninety days from this decree, and to pay five dollars on the costs; and Graham Bros, the plaintiffs herein to pay the balance of the costs. And that for that purpose said property be sold by the Sheriff of this County, as upon execution, if the above amount of One Hundred Dollars, (100^{00}) and five dollars costs is not paid to the said plaintiffs herein within ninety days from date of this decree, and that the Sheriff return his proceedings to this Court for further order in the premises,

8014 Geo. H. Stevens
Vs.
J.D. Morse,

Court Common Pleas, Union County, Ohio.
Jan. 20th, 1902,

This cause now coming on for hearing on the petition and the evidence, the Court find that the defendant, J.D. Morse, has been duly served with summons in this case, and that he is in default for answer and demurrer, and that the allegations of the petition are thereby confessed by him to be true; and that there is due the plaintiff from the defendant, J.D. Morse, on the promissory note set forth in the petition, with interest to the 20th day of January, 1902, the sum of Six Hundred and Ninety-three Dollars and thirty-three cents, ($693 33/100). The Court further find that in order to secure the payment of said note set forth in the petition, the defendant Jason D. Morse, being the same person as J.D. Morse, and Orrilla A. Morse, his wife, executed and delivered to the said Geo. H. Stevens, the plaintiff, their certain mortgage deed as in the petition described; that said mortgage was duly recorded in Book No. 28, Page 283, of the Records of Mortgages of Union County, and is a good and valid lien on the premises in the petition described; and that the conditions in said mortgage have been broken,

It is therefor considered by the Court that the plaintiff recover from the defendant the said sum of $693 33/100 and his costs herein expended,

And it is further adjudged and decreed that unless the defendant J.D. Morse shall within five days from the entry of this decree pay or cause to be paid to the Clerk of this Court the costs of this case, and to the plaintiff herein the sum so found due, as aforesaid, with interest from the 20th day of January, 1902, the defendants equity of redemption be foreclosed and said premises be sold, and an order of sale issue therefor to the Sheriff of Union County, directing him to appraise, advertise and sell said premises, as upon execution, and report his proceedings to this Court for further order,

7999 Mary J. Davis
Vs.
Finley Davis

Court Common Pleas, Union County, Ohio.
Jan. 20th, 1902,

This cause came on to be heard on the petition and evidence, the defendant being in default for answer or demurrer, although duly served with process, together with a copy of the petition according to law, and upon due consideration thereof, the Court finds that the allegations of the petition are true, and that at the time of his marriage with the plaintiff, the defendant Finley Davis had a former wife living, and from whom he had not been divorced or legally separated, The Court further finds that the plaintiff was married to the defendant, as in her petition stated, and that she has been a resident of this State for more than one year prior to the filing of her petition herein, and that at the time of filing the same, she was and ever since has been a bona fide resident of this County of Union, and that by reason of the premises the plaintiff is entitled to be divorced from the defendant.

It is therefore adjudged and decreed by the Court that the marriage relation heretofore existing between the parties be and the same is, hereby set aside, and wholly annulled and both parties released from all obligations of the same. It is further ordered that the plaintiff pay the costs of this proceeding taxed to $—.

7978 The Newark Machine Company,
vs.
C. A. Forman et. al.

Court Common Pleas, Union County, Ohio.
Jan, 22nd, 1902,

Now comes the said plaintiff by his Attorney, and the defendants, C. A. Forman, and John Forman, being in default for answer and demurrer, the Court finds that the allegations in the petition are, as to said defendants, confessed by them to be true, and that the defendant, C. A. Forman, is indebted to the plaintiff in the sum of $438.04 on the first three causes of action in said petition set forth; and the Court further finds that the said note set out in the fourth cause of action is now due, and that the defendants, C. A. Forman, are indebted to the plaintiff on the same in the sum of $303.36.

And the Court further finds that in order to secure the payment of said promissory notes, described in the first and second causes of action in the petition, the defendant, C. A. Forman, executed and delivered to said plaintiff his chattel mortgage set out in the fifth cause of action, and upon the property described in the petition in said fifth cause of action; and that said chattel mortgage was by the plaintiff on the 5th day of March, 1897, duly filed with the Clerk of Washington Township of Union County, Ohio, where said C. A. Foreman resided at the time of the execution of said mortgage, and that said mortgage has been continuously refiled since its said execution and filing as required by law, and from that date became a lien upon said property, and is now a valid and subsisting lien on said property, and that said plaintiff is entitled, by reason of the non-payment of said notes, to have the said chattel mortgage foreclosed, and the said property sold.

And the Court further finds that in order to secure the payment of said promissory notes described in the third and fourth causes of action the said defendant, C. A. Forman, executed and delivered to said plaintiff his chattel mortgage upon the property, described in the sixth cause of action, of the petition, and the said chattel mortgage was by the plaintiff on the 26th day of March, A. D. 1898, duly filed with the Clerk of Washington Township, Union County, Ohio, where said C. A. Forman, resided at the time of the execution of said mortgage, and said mortgage has been continuously refiled since its filing as required by law, and from the date of said filing became a lien upon said property, and is now a valid and subsisting lien on said property, and that the plaintiff is entitled by reason of the non-payment of said notes to have the said chattel mortgage foreclosed and said property sold.

It is therefore considered by the Court that the said plaintiff recover from the said defendant, C. A. Forman, the said sum of $438.04 so as aforesaid found due, and it is further considered by the Court that said plaintiff recover from said defendants, C. A. Forman and John Forman, the said sum of $303.36 so as aforesaid found due; both said judgments to draw interest at 8 per cent from the first day of this Term of this Court.

And it is further ordered, adjudged and decreed that unless the defendant C. A. Forman, shall pay to said plaintiff the sum of $229.26 with interest from the first day of this term within ten days from the date of this entry that the said property described in the said fifth cause of action and upon which said mortgage set forth in said fifth cause of action is a lien, be sold according to law, by the Sheriff, and that the proceeds derived from such sale be applied to the payment of said sums; and it is further ordered that unless the defendant, C.A. Forman, shall pay to said plaintiff the sum of $208.72 with interest from the first day of this term within ten days from this date, and that unless the defendants, C.A. Forman and John Forman shall pay to said plaintiff the sum of $303.36 with interest from the first day of this term within ten days from this date that the said property described in said sixth cause of action upon which said mortgage set forth in said sixth cause of action is a lien, be sold according to law by the Sheriff, and that the proceeds derived from such sale be applied to the payment of the sums so as aforesaid found due, ——— And the Court further find that the defendant, the Huber Manufacturing Company, is a corporation, organized under the laws of Ohio, as alleged; That there is due to the said corporation from the defendants, C.A. Forman, and Mary J. Forman on the judgment set up in its Answer and Cross-Petition, called upon the promissory Note No. 16423, so called and described in said Cross-Petition, the sum of $154 39/100 with interest at eight per cent. per annum, from the 14th day of January A.D. 1899; and that there is due to the said corporation from said C.A. Forman and Mary J. Forman, on the promissory note No. 16424, so called and described in said Cross-Petition the sum of $265 53/100, including interest to maturity as stipulated therein, with interest on the sum last aforesaid at eight per cent. per annum, from the 1st day of November, A.D. 1899, The Court further find that to secure the payment of the two notes aforesaid, the said C.A. Forman and Mary J. Forman, executed and delivered to the said, The Huber Manufacturing Company, their certain Chattel Mortgage, as in said cross-petition alleged, and on the chattel property therein described, and that the same is a valid and subsisting first lien on the chattel property last aforesaid. And the Court find that the said, The Huber Manufacturing Company, is entitled to have the chattel property, in its said mortgage described, sold to pay the amounts so as aforesaid found due it.

It is therefore ordered, adjudged and decreed, by the Court, that said mortgage be foreclosed, and that, unless said C.A. Forman and Mary J. Forman shall within ten days from the entry of this decree pay or cause to be paid, to the Clerk of this Court the costs in this case, and to the said, The Huber Manufacturing Company the sums, with interest, found due it as aforesaid, in the order of priority aforesaid, the chattel property aforesaid, shall be sold by the Sheriff of this County as upon execution, and that an order issue for that purpose, and cause continued.

A certain mandate having been received from the Circuit Court of Union County, it is hereby ordered that due execution thereof be had, which said mandate is in the words and figures following, to-wit:-

"Mandate From the Circuit Court.

State of Ohio, Union County ss. Circuit Court, Union County, Ohio,

At a term of the Circuit Court, within and for the County of Union in the State of Ohio, began and held before Hon. Caleb H. Norris, Hon. S. M. Douglass and Hon. R. M. Voorhees, presiding Judges at Marysville, on the 13th day of February, 1902, among other proceedings then and there had by and before said Court, as appears by its Journal, were the following, viz:-

No. 168 { The National Masonic Provident Association Vs. Patrick C. Dra.

This cause came on for hearing on the petition in error, the transcript, and the original papers and pleadings from the Court of Common Pleas of Union County, and was argued by counsel and submitted to this Court, thereupon, on consideration thereof the Court find that there is apparent error upon the record of the proceedings of the said Court of Common Pleas, to the prejudice of the said plaintiff in error, in this to-wit:- Said Court of Common Pleas erred, in view of the statements of admitted facts in the Bill of Exceptions set forth, in sustaining the motion of the said defendant in error to dismiss the appeal theretofore taken to said Court of Common Pleas, by said Plaintiff in error, from the judgment of said Justice of the Peace, and in said Court's order dismissing said appeal. The Court further find, from the admitted facts aforesaid, that the undertaking of said plaintiff in error for said appeal was executed and presented in time under the Statutory limitation therefor.

It is, therefore considered, ordered and adjudged by this Court that the judgment and order, so as aforesaid rendered by said Court below, be, and the same is, hereby reversed and held for naught, and that the said plaintiff in error recover from the said defendant in error, its costs herein expended taxed to $ —.

And the Court further proceeding to render such judgment as the said Court of Common Pleas ought to have rendered, considers and overrules the said motion to dismiss the said appeal.

It is further considered and ordered by this Court that this cause be remanded to the said Court of Common Pleas for execution, and for further proceedings according to law; and that a special mandate therefor be sent to said Court below. To which orders and judgments of this Court, the said defendant in error excepts."

I, Chas Pinkerwood, Clerk of the Circuit Court of Ohio, within and for Union County, do hereby certify that the foregoing entry is truly taken and correctly copied from the Journal of said Court this 14th day of February, A.D. 1902. (Seal) Chas Pinkerwood,

William H. Merchant, Admr,
No. 169 Vs.
Edwin H. Perkins, Admr,

This day this cause came on to be heard upon the petition in error, of William H. Merchant, and upon the demurrer of the said Edwin H. Perkins to the amended answer of the said William H. Merchant, and the Court being fully advised in the premises, do find that the Court of Common Pleas erred in sustaining said demurrer, and said demurrer is hereby overruled, and the judgment rendered by said Court below is reversed, And the Court looking to the whole record, find that the petition of the said Perkins is insufficient and defective, and obnoxious to a demurrer: and the objection by said Merchant to the petition of the plaintiff that the same is insufficient and defective is sustained; and the costs are adjudged against the said Edwin H. Perkins, execution awarded therefor, and the cause remanded to the Court of Common Pleas for execution, and for further proceedings according to law. To all of which rulings and judgments the said Edwin H. Perkins at the time excepted."

8017 J. H. Shearer & Son.
Vs.
J. R. Hubbard.

Court Common Pleas, Union County, Ohio.
Feb. 17th, 1902.

This day this cause came on to be heard by the Court, and the Court, finding that said defendant has been duly served with a copy of the conditional order of Revivor heretofore issued herein, and have failed, and still fail to show sufficient cause why said judgment herein should not stand revived as prayed for by said plaintiff, it is ordered by the Court that the said judgment herein for the sum of Fifty-two and 26/100 Dollars, and Twelve and 07/100 Dollars, costs with interest at the rate of six per cent. per annum from the 16th day of June, 1897, and the same doth stand revived against the said J. R. Hubbard, and that the plaintiff recover against him his costs in and about this proceeding of revivor, incurred and expended taxed to $—.

8040 Dullington, Howard & Co.
Vs.
C. H. Cox and P. L. Cox.

Court Common Pleas, Union County, Ohio.
Feb. 17th, 1902.

This day came the plaintiff by Robinson & Woodburn, its Attorneys and filed this petition against said defendants, and thereupon J. I. Cameron an Attorney at Law of this Court, by virtue of a Warrant of Attorney for that purpose, duly executed by said defendants now produced in open Court, proven shown to the Court, and filed with the Clerk thereof, appeared in open Court, in behalf of the said defendants, waived the issuing and service of process, entered the appearance of said defendants herein, and acknowledging that said defendants did owe and are indebted unto the plaintiff as they have in their petition alleged by virtue of said Warrant of Attorney, confessed that there was due from said defendants to said plaintiffs on said indebtedness, the sum of One Hundred and Thirty three & 38/100 Dollars, bearing interest at 8 per cent per annum, and that said Plaintiffs ought to recover of said defendants a judgment for that. It is therefore considered by the Court here that the said Dullington, Howard & Co, plaintiffs do recover of the said C. H. Cox and P. L. Cox, defendants, the sum of One Hundred and Thirty-three and 38/100 Dollars so confessed, as aforesaid, with interest from Feb. 15th, 1902, at 8 per cent per annum, and also costs in this behalf expended taxed to $— and by virtue of said Warrant of Attorney all errors in this action, judgment and proceeding, and all proceedings, petitions and writs of error thereon, are by said defendants waived and released.

Joshua Richardson et. al.
Vs. Court Common Pleas, Union County, Ohio.
B. F. Tapson et. al. Feb. 17th, 1902,

This day this cause came on to be heard, upon the return of the Sheriff, and the report of the Commissioners heretofore appointed herein, and on motion to confirm the same; and it appearing that said estate cannot be divided by metes and bounds without manifest injury to the value thereof, the said Commissioners have made and returned their appraisement of said premises in the sum of $— per acre; and the Court finding the said return and proceedings to be in all respects correct and in conformity to law, do therefor approve and confirm the same. And thereupon more than one of the parties having elected to take said premises separately at the appraisement; It is ordered that said premises be sold at public auction, and that an order issue therefor to the Sheriff of this County, and that said Sheriff is ordered to proceed to sell the same according to law, and return his proceedings herein, to this Court, without unnecessary delay.

8003

Mary A. Mullen, Guardian,

8003 Vs. Court Common Pleas, Union County, Ohio,

Theodore L. Mullen et. al, Feb. 17th, 1902,

Now comes the plaintiff by her Attorneys herein, and the case coming on to be heard upon the petition of plaintiff, the Court find that all of the defendants have had due and legal notice by summons and legal process of the pendency and demand of said petition, and that they are all in default for answer or demurrer to the same; and that the facts set up in said petition are taken as allegd therein, And the Court find that the said plaintiff Mary A. Mullen, is entitled to dower in the undivided one fifth interest of said Ella May Mullen, in said premises as allegd; and that subject to said dower interest the said Ella May Mullen, is seizd of and has a legal right to the undivided one fifth of said premises; the said Theodore L. Mullen is seizd and has a legal right to the undivided fifth part of said premises; the said Layfayette L. Mullen, is seizd and has a legal right to the undivided one fifth part of said premises; the said William N. Mullen to the undivided one fifth part, and the said Joseph S. Mullen to the undivided one fifth part of the same.

It is therefore ordered, adjudgd and decreed that the said Mary A. Mullen be endowed of the full equal one third of the said share of the said Ella May Mullen, and that partition of said estate be made as above set forth. And that an order of partition issue to the Sheriff of said County, of Union, commanding him that by the oaths of C.S. Chapman, George Brecher, and B.F. Carmean, three judicious and disinterested freeholders of the vicinity who are not of kin to either of the parties, and who are hereby appointed Commissioners for that purpose, he assign and set off such dower to the said Mary A. Mullen, according to law; and that by the like oaths of said Commissioners, he cause to be set off and divided to the said Ella May Mullen, subject to said dower, one fifth part of said premises, and to each of the other four defendants, a like one fifth part of said premises, to which each has been herein severally found entitled, And if said premises, in the opinion of said Commissioners, cannot be divided by metes and bounds without injury to the value thereof, that they appraise the same free from the dower interest, the said Mary A. Mullen if that court electing to take her said dower interest in money.

And it is further ordered that the Sheriff make due return of his proceedings herein without unnecessary delay.

8023 Christopher Grubbs et.al.
Vs.
Jacob Leonard

Court Common Pleas, Union County, Ohio.
Feb. 17th, 1902.

This cause came on to be heard on the pleading and evidence the defendant entering appearance by answer interposing no objection to the allowance of prayer of the petition, and upon due consideration thereof the Court finds that the allegations of the plaintiffs are true; that at the commencement of this action the said plaintiffs were in possession of real property described in the petition, and that they had the legal estate therein and was entitled to the possession thereof that the defendant has no estate in nor is he entitled to the possession of said real estate or any part thereof and that the plaintiffs ought to have their title and possession quieted as against the said defendant as prayed in their petition. The Court further find that said plaintiffs and those under whom they hold have had undisputed possession and control of said premises for more than twenty-one years last past.

It is therefore adjudged and decreed that the title and possession of said plaintiffs to the premises in the petition described be, and the same is hereby quieted as against the defendant, and all persons claiming under him, and is hereby forever enjoined from setting up any claim to said premises or any part thereof adverse to the title and possession of said plaintiffs their heirs or assigns, thereto.

It is ordered that the plaintiffs pay costs in this suit for which judgment is rendered against him.

8003 Mary A. Mullen, Guardian,
vs.
Theodore S. Mullen et. al.

Court Common Pleas, Union County, Ohio.
Feb. 22nd. 1902,

This day this cause came on for hearing upon the return of the Sheriff and the report of the Commissioners heretofore appointed herein and on motion to confirm the same; and it appearing that said estate cannot be divided by metes and bounds without manifest injury to the value thereof, said Commissioners have made and returned their appraisement of said premises, and the Court finding that the said Mary A. Mullen, elects to take her said dower interest in said premises in money, the Court orders the premises sold free from said dower interest of said Mary A. Mullen, And the Court find that said return and proceedings have been in all respects correct and in conformity to law, and do approve and confirm the same.

And thereupon the said Theodore S. Mullen, Safayette G. Mullen, William Mullen, and Joseph Mullen, electing to take said estate at the valuation of said Commissioners, towit:- the sum of $390.00, and the said Theodore S. Mullen having paid to the said Mary A. Mullen as Guardian, her respective proportion of the appraised value thereof, the said estate is hereby adjudged to the said Theodore Mullen, the two fifths part thereof; and to Safayette Mullen, William Mullen, and Joseph Mullen, each, the equal one fifth part thereof; and the Sheriff is ordered by the Court to execute a deed in fee simple for the same to the said Theodore S. Mullen, Safayette Mullen, William Mullen, and Joseph Mullen, according to the Statute in such case made and provided, And it is further ordered by the Court that the costs and expenses of this suit taxed at $—, and also an Attorney fee of $25.00 allotted and to be paid to Porter & Porter, Attorneys for Plaintiff, be paid within five days, by the parties in the following proportions, towit:- the said Theodore S. Mullen, the one fifth, Safayette Mullen, the one fifth, William Mullen, the one fifth, Joseph Mullen, the one fifth, and Mary A. Mullen, Guardian, the one fifth of said costs, together with the December tax and penalty for 1901. And in default thereof that execution issue therefor.

George W. Stevens
Vs.
J. H. Morse.

Court Common Pleas, Union County, Ohio.
Mar 17th, 1902.

On Motion of the plaintiff, and on his proceedings the return of the Sheriff of the sale made under the former order of this Court, and the Court on careful examination of the proceedings of said Sheriff being satisfied that the same have been had in all respects in Conformity to law and the order of this Court, it is ordered that the said proceedings and sale be, and they are hereby, approved and confirmed.
And it is further ordered that the said Sheriff convey to the purchaser Minnie Murry, by deed, according to law the property so sold.
It is further ordered that the Clerk cause a Credit to be placed on the Mortgage herein sued on to be entered on the record thereof, in the office of the Recorder of Union County, Ohio, for the amount left after deducting costs which is the sum of Forty five and 63/100 dollars, and taxes $3,22 and the Court coming now to distribute the proceeds of said sale, amounting to six hundred and sixteen dollars, it is ordered that the Sheriff out of the money in his hands, Pay:
First, the costs of this action taxed at Forty five + 63/100 Dollars, and taxes at Three and 22/100 Dollars. Second, To the plaintiff George W. Stevens, the balance of the said money remaining in his hands, to-wit:- The sum of Five hundred and sixty nine + 15/100 dollars ($569,15) to be applied as a Credit upon his Judgment against the said defendant, And there is still remaining due to the said George W. Stevens the sum of $1.25, ——— dollars, it is considered that he recover the same from the defendant J. H. Morse; and execution is awarded therefor.

8028 Vs. Court Common Pleas, Union County, Ohio.

The Cleveland, Cincinnati, Chicago & St. Louis Railway Co. March, 17th, 1902.

This day this cause came on to be heard upon the motion of defendant for leave to file a motion to strike from the plaintiffs petition certain matter therein stated, described and designated in said motion; and also the motion of plaintiff to have said motion of defendant stricken from the files; and the Court being advised in the premises, do sustain said motion of defendant, and further sustains the motion of defendant on its merits, and order said matter stricken from said petition; and overrules the motion of plaintiff to order defendants motion stricken from the files, to which ruling plaintiff excepts,

And further the Court granted leave to defendant to file a general demurrer to plaintiffs petition, instanter, which demurrer the defendant filed and the Court overruled the same, to which ruling of the Court on said demurrer the defendant excepts, and thereupon the defendant asked and obtained leave to file an answer to plaintiff's petition by tomorrow morning, March, 18th, 1902.

Elbina Palmer

7967 Vs. Court Common Pleas, Union County, Ohio.

Ward Palmer March, 17th, 1902.

Now came the plaintiff and the defendant having been duly served with summons and a copy of the petition herein, and having failed to appear, the Court find upon the evidence, and in default for answer and demurrer to said petition find the allegations thereof are confessed by the defendant to be true, The Court also find that the plaintiff at the time of filing her petition, had been a resident of the State of Ohio for one year next preceding the same and was at that time a bona fide resident of this County of Union, and that the parties hereto were married as in said petition set forth The Court further find upon the evidence adduced that the defendant has been guilty of gross neglect of duty and willful absence for more than three years last past, and that by reason thereof, the plaintiff is entitled to a divorce as prayed for.

It is therefore ordered and adjudged by the Court, that the marriage contract heretofore existing between the said Elbina Palmer and Ward Palmer, be and the same hereby is, dissolved, and both parties are released from the obligations of the same, and the plaintiff restored to her maiden name of Elbina Shememan, and that the defendant pay the costs of this proceeding, or execution issue therefor.

8024 John A. Coleman, Executor &c.
Vs.
Martin Coleman et. al.

Court Common Pleas, Union County, Ohio,
March, 17th, 1902,

And now this cause came on to be heard on the petition of plaintiff, asking for the direction and judgment of the Court concerning certain parts of the will of George Coleman, of which said plaintiff is the Executor, and upon certain questions presented in said petition:- all the defendants being in default for pleading, And thereupon the Court after careful consideration, find and adjudge the true intention and construction of said will to be as follows, towit:-
That the gift of the legacy, and the time of payment of the same was contingent, depending on the majority of the youngest child, That the legacy of said Elizabeth Coleman Dawne, therefore remained contingent during the minority of Lewis Coleman, the youngest child, and that by reason of the death of said Elizabeth, before the said youngest child became of age, the legacy so bequeathed to her in said will, lapsed and became a part of the residuary estate of the said George Coleman, deceased.
It is therefore considered by the Court that John M. Dawne is entitled to no part of the fund, provided for in the sixth item of said will, as the heir at law of his late wife, the testator's daughter, who died before Lewis Coleman, his youngest child became of age, and that said bequest to said Elizabeth Coleman of $7500.00 lapses back into the estate of testator, to be equally distributed among all the said heirs of testator, And the Executor will be instructed accordingly, And it is further ordered and adjudged by the Court that the cost and expenses of this action, taxed at $- and also an Attorney fee of $200,00 allowed and to be paid to Robert McCrory, Attorney for said plaintiff, be paid by the Executor within thirty days, out of the funds of said estate, and in default thereof, that execution issue therefor.

Present Hon. Duncan Dow, Judge,

Report of Grand Jury.

To the Honorable Duncan Dow. Judge of the Court of Common Pleas, Union County. Ohio. The Grand Jury of the Court of Common Pleas of said County, of the March Term, 1902. beg leave to report that they have been in session two days, and herewith return to the Court the Indictments presented by said Jury: We have carefully examined in all such matters as have ligitimately come to our notice, having examined over forty-nine witnesses, covering seven cases, and presented five bills, and ignored two cases considered by us. The business has been transacted in as expeditious a manner as possible. During our session we visited the County Jail, examined its state and condition, and inquired into the discipline and treatment of the prisoners, and their habits diet and accommodations. We find, and respectfully report to the Court, that the rules prescribed by the Judge have been faithfully kept and observed, and we do find that no provision of law for the regulation of County Jails have ben violated.

Respectfully submitted.

7957. Charles H. Tway Vs. The American Express Company. — Court Common Pleas, Union County, Ohio. Mar, 25th, 1902.

This day came the parties and waived a jury and submitted this cause to the Court upon the pleadings and evidence.

On consideration whereof the Court find that this action was commenced before A. H. Kollgroth a justice of the peace in and for said County, on the 29th day of May 1901, and that on the 12th, day of June 1901, while said action was pending before said justice of the peace and before trial thereof, the defendant filed with said justice of the peace his offer in writing to allow judgment to be taken against it in favor of the plaintiff for the sum of Thirty one Dollars and costs of suit. That said offer was more than due the plaintiff at that time but it was then rejected by the plaintiff. Thereupon on this day the plaintiff with the consent of the defendant accepted said offer in open Court.

Whereupon it is ordered and adjudged by the Court that the plaintiff recover of the defendant the said sum of Thirty One Dollars, and that he be allowed interest thereon from the 12th day of June 1901, making the sum principal and interest for which the plaintiff is adjudged to recover from the defendant Thirty Two Dollars and Forty Seven Cents. And the said amount being no more than the defendant heretofore offered to allow Judgment to be entered for, with interest, it is considered that said plaintiff recover of said defendant his costs herein prior to the time of said offer. including the costs made June 12th, 1901, And it is ordered and adjudged that said plaintiff pay all costs made herein since said offer, to wit since June 12th, 1901. for which Judgment is rendered against him. Judgment is rendered against the defendant for its own costs prior to said offer.

The Marion Manufacturing Company,
Vs.
J. William Powell and Alice Powell.

Court Common Pleas, Union County, Ohio,
April, 1st. 1902,

This cause now coming on for hearing on the plaintiffs petition and the evidence, the Court find that the defendants have been duly served with summons in this case, and that they are in default for answer or demurrer, and that the allegations of the petition are thereby confessed by them to be true; and that there is due the plaintiff from the defendant, J. William Powell, on the promissory note set forth in the first cause of action of plaintiffs petition, with interest to this day, the sum of $343.07

The Court further find that in order to secure the payment of said note and three others of equal amount not yet due, the defendants, J. William Powell, and Alice Powell, his wife, executed and delivered to said plaintiff their certain mortgage deed as in the petition alleged, on the premises therein described that said mortgage was duly recorded in Volume 42, pages 517 and 518 of the records of Mortgages of Union County, and is a good and valid lien on the premises described in the petition, the first in priority, and that the conditions in said mortgage have been broken.

It is therefore considered by the Court that the plaintiff recover from the defendant, J. William Powell, the sum of $343.07 and its costs herein expended, And it is further adjudged and decreed that unless the defendant, J. William Powell, shall within three days from the entry of this decree pay, or cause to be paid to the Clerk of this Court the costs of this case, and to the plaintiff the sum due it as aforesaid, with interest from the 1st day of April, 1902, the defendants equity of redemption be foreclosed and said premises be sold, and that an order of sale therefor issue to the Sheriff of Union County, directing him to appraise, advertise and sell said premises as upon execution, and report his proceedings to this Court for further order.

8076. Vs. April 3rd. 1902.
S. Gilmore Young, Blanche McGee.
& Elliott Young. (Entry amending petition.)

This cause came on for hearing to the answer of the defendant S. Gilmore Young, to plaintiffs petition, demanding the correction of the names of the defendants therein. On consideration whereof, and it appearing to the Court that the said defendants Blanche McGee, has been sued in this action by the name of Blanche McGee" and that the answering defendant Sidney S. Young has been sued in this case in the name of S. Gilmore Young, through an advertance, and that the said defendants have been personally served with summons: and it further appearing that said S Gilmore Young, has in his answer plead to the merits of this case, and has thereby entered his appearance to this action: it is ordered and adjudged that said mistake be corrected, and that the petition be, and the same hereby is amended by substituting the name of Sidney G. Young. in the place of S. Gilmore Young. and by substituting the name of Blanche McKee. in the place of Blanche McGee: and that this entry operate as an amendment to the petition and summons: and that the true names of the defendants be used in all further proceedings herein.

Hadley Young. vs. Sidney G. Young. Blanche McKee. + Elliott Young.

Court Common Pleas. Union County. Ohio. April 3rd, 1902.

And now this cause came on to be heard on the petition, and the answer of Sidney G. Young. defendant, and the evidence: the Court find that all the defendants have had due legal notice of the pendancy and demand of the said petition. and that with the exception of the above named, are in default for answer hereto.

Thereupon the Court further find that the plaintiff and the defendants hereinafter named are tenants in common in the estate described in the petition: that the said Elliott Young, widower, is entitled to dower therein. and that subject thereto the plaintiff Hadley Young, has a legal right to the One fourth of the said estate. the defendant Sidney G. Young. a legal right to the One Three Eights part thereof. and the defendant Blanche McKee. a legal right to the One Three Eights part thereof: and that the plaintiff is entitled to have partition made of said premises, as prayed for in his petition.

It is therefore ordered, adjudged. and decreed that partition of the said estate be made, and that dower therein be assigned to said Elliott Young: and that by the oaths of B.L. Robinson. Frank Andrews. + J.B. Galloway. three judicious and disinterested freeholders of the vicinity who are hereby appointed commissioners to make and set off the same.

And it is ordered that if said estate is entire and cannot be divided by metes and bounds. the dower of said Elliott Young be assigned as of a third part of the rents issues and profits thereof, and that said estate be appraised, subject to such dower interest.

And it is ordered that a writ issue to the Sheriff. of Union County commanding him that by the oaths of the commissioners above named he cause to be set off and divided to each of the above named parties, the part and proportion of said estate to which they are hereinbefore, severally found entitled, and also cause to be set off and assigned, in manner as ordered, the dower of the said Elliott Young. And of his proceedings herein, the said Sheriff is ordered to make due return.

On this 3rd. day of April, 1902. the motion in the above entitled action to quash the service of summons and dismiss said action. came on to be heard, was argued by counsel and was submitted to the Court, on consideration where of the Court sustains said motion, to which ruling the plaintiff excepts, and 50 days are allowed plaintiff in which to prepare a bill of exception herein. It is further ordered that the plaintiff pay the costs herein, for which execution is allowed.

Lorena Graham, Court Common Pleas, Union County, Ohio.
Vs. April 3rd, 1902.
Lucinda Read.

And now this cause coming up for hearing upon the petition, answer and reply and the evidence, the Court find that the said William H. Graham was, in his life time, seized in fee simple of the real estate and premises described in the petition, and that the plaintiff is the widow of the said William H. Graham, deceased: and that she is entitled to have her dower in said premises assigned and set off to her as prayed in her petition. And the Court finding from satisfactory evidence that said estate is entire, and cannot be divided by metes and bounds. It is therefore ordered, adjudged and decreed that dower be assigned to said plaintiff as of one-third part of the rents, issues and profits of the premises described in the petition, and that a writ issue to the Sheriff of Union County commanding him that by the oaths of and three judicious and disinterested men of the vicinity in the said County, who are not of kin to either of the parties, and who are hereby appointed commissioners for that purpose, he cause the dower of said Lorena Graham to be set off and assigned in the manner above ordered: and that of his said proceedings, together with the said commissioners' appraisement of the yearly net value of said estate, estimated from the 21st day of December, 1901, to the day of such assignment of dower, he make due return to this Court. Thereupon the defendant, by her attorney, gave notice and hereby gives notice of her intentions to appeal this cause to the Circuit Court: and the Court fixes the amount of the bond to be given therefor at the Sum of One hundred dollars, and suspends the execution of this order and decree for thirty days therefor.

Williams, by deed according to law the property so sold, and the said purchaser is hereby subrogated to all the rights of the said lien-holders in said premises, so far as they may be paid herein, for the protection of his title, and a writ of possession is awarded to put said purchaser in possession of said premises. It is further ordered that the Clerk cause satisfaction of the mortgage herein sued on, and also the mortgage given by S.S. McCleck and Mary E. McCleck to The Globe Building and Loan Association Company on July, 14th, 1898, to be entered on the records thereof, in the office of the Recorder of Union County, Ohio. And the Court coming now to distribute the proceeds of said sale amounting to Three Hundred and Fifty-five Dollars, it is ordered that the Sheriff out of the money in his hands pay,

First: To the Treasurer of this County the taxes, penalty and interest against said property, towit, the sum of Two add 75/100 Dollars,

Secondly:- The costs of this action taxed at One Hundred and Twenty-eight and 50/100 Dollars,

Thirdly:- To the defendant Samuel Robinson the amount heretofore found due him with interest, towit, the sum of Thirty-three and 26/100 Dollars,

Fourthly: To the Globe Building and Loan Association Company, the amount of its claim towit, the sum of One Hundred and Eighty-seven and 87/100 Dollars,

Fifthly:- To the plaintiff the residue, being $2 34/100, to be credited to plaintiff on the amount found due him on his lien,

7995 vs. Court Common Pleas, Union County, Ohio.

Sarah P. Brodrick et. al. May, 20th, 1902.

This day this cause came on to be heard on the return of R. S. Woodburn, Administrator, as above named plaintiff herein of his proceedings and sale in this case under a former order of this Court. The Court after having carefully examined said return and being satisfied that such sale has in all respects been legally made, do hereby approve and confirm the same, and order that the said R. S. Woodburn as such Administrator, make to the purchaser a good and sufficient deed for the premises so sold. The Court find that there is due the said defendant, The Union Central Life Insurance Company on its mortgage lien on said premises the sum of Five Thousand and Sixteen and 67/100 Dollars. The Court further find that there is due the defendant, Sarah P. Brodrick as the reasonable value of her dower interest in said premises in money, the sum of One Thousand Three Hundred and Eighty-seven and 35/100 Dollars. The Court further find that there is due the said defendant John M. Brodrick on his judgment lien on said premises the sum of One Hundred and Ninety-seven and 37/100 Dollars. And the Court coming now to distribute the proceeds of said sale in the hands of said Administrator, amounting to $9275.00 order that the same be paid:- First:- The taxes and penalties and the interest thereon as due on said lands: to-wit $ —. Second:- The costs of this action, including $ — as the charge due the said Administrator herein taxed to $ —. Third:- To the said defendant, The Union Central Life Insurance Company, the amount above found due it, viz $5016.67. Fourth:- To the said defendant Sarah P. Brodrick, the amount above found due her viz $1387.35. Fifth:- To the said defendant, John M. Brodrick, the amount above found due him, viz. $197.37. Sixth:- The remainder of said proceeds to be accounted for by said plaintiff, as such Administrator, under the laws governing Administration of estates in Ohio. It is further ordered by the Court that the mortgage given by said Isaac Brodrick and wife to said defendant, the Union Central Life Insurance Company and recorded in Volume 47 Pages 107 of the records of mortgages of Union County, Ohio, and in Volume 49 Pages 448 of the records of Mortgages of Champaign County, Ohio, be cancelled on the margin of each of said records.

8050. William A. Phelps
Vs.
Keziah R. Moffitt et al.

Court of Common Pleas Union County Ohio
June 9th 1902,

This cause coming on to be heard on the petition, and answers of Derastus J. Phelps, Spencer Phelps, Dorothy Rickman and Margaret Phelps, widow, and the evidence, the Court find that the defendants, Keziah R. Moffitt, Sarah J. Cahill, Frank Quillen, and Loren Quillen, had legal notice of the pendency and prayer of the petition, and are in default for answer or demurrer, and that the petition is thereby confessed by them to be true. The Court find that Margaret Phelps, widow, is entitled to dower in premises in the petition described, and that subject thereto the plaintiff is seized of and has a legal right to the undivided one seventh part of said premises, and is entitled to hold the same in severalty; that the defendants are tenants in common with him in the following proportions, subject to said dower to wit:- That Derastus J. Phelps is seized of and has a legal right to the undivided one seventh part; that Spencer Phelps is seized of and has a legal right to the undivided one seventh part; that Dorothy Rickman is seized of and has a legal right to the undivided one seventh part; that Sarah J. Cahill is seized of and is entitled to the one seventh part undivided; that Keziah R. Moffett is seized of and has a legal right to the undivided one seventh part; that Frank Quillen is seized of and has a legal right to the undivided one fourteenth part; that Loren Quillen is seized of and has a legal right to the undivided one fourteenth part; It is therefore ordered adjudged, and decreed that said Margaret Phelps be endowed of one full third part, of said premises and that subject thereto partition of said estate be made in the proportions above described, and that an order issue to the Sheriff of this County commanding him that, by the oaths of David A. Kyle Morris M. Hill and C. A. Huffman, three Judicious disinterested freeholders of the vicinity, who are hereby appointed Commissioners for the purpose, he set off to said Margaret Phelps, her dower, and to the plaintiff, and said cotenants their proportions of said estate in severalty. If said commissioners find said premises cannot be divided without manifest injury to the value thereof, it is ordered they appraise the same both subject to and free from the dower of said Margaret Phelps. And if his proceedings make due returns.

The Varuna Water Company. June 9th 1902.

The receiver herein, having heretofore filed his account of his distribution of the remaining assets of the said dissolved corporation, The Varuna Mineral Water Company, under a previous order of this court, and now appearing by his attorney and presenting the same for allowance; and it appearing by due proof of publication that he has given due notice of his intention to present said account to this court for allowance at this time and place; and it further appearing that the same is brief and not complicated, and that each of the creditors has been paid his due percent as ordered by the court upon the amount of his claim as determined and reported to this court by the referee herein, as is shown by their respective vouchers therefor filed in this court with said account, except that the dividend due A. G. Jones remains unclaimed by him, but has been paid into court as provided by statute shall be done in such case, as evidenced by the Clerk of Court's receipt therefor; and it appearing that the costs herein have been paid in full, and that nothing remains in the hands of said receiver; It is therefore considered by the court unnecessary to refer said account to a referee; and it appearing in due form and in regular order and in full compliance with the order of the court and the requirements of law, and no one appearing in court to object thereto, the court, upon due consideration thereof and of the vouchers and other evidence in relation thereto, finds said account to be correct and satisfactory, and the same is allowed; and it is ordered and decreed by the court that said account be final and conclusive upon all the creditors and stockholders of said corporation, and upon all persons having claims against or engagements with it; and this matter being fully settled, the said receiver herein is hereby discharged.

8069. Sarah A. Aller
Vs Court of Common Pleas Union County Ohio
Ezekiel Aller June 9th 1902.

This cause coming on for hearing this 9th day of June 1902, on the petition and the evidence, on consideration thereof, the court find that the plaintiff at the time of filing her petition had been a resident of the State of Ohio for the year next preceding said date, and was at the time a bona fide resident of said County of Union; that the defendant was duly served with a summons and a certified copy of the petition on the 26th day of April 1902; that said parties were married as set forth in the petition; and that no children have been born of said marriage. The court further find upon the evidence adduced, that the defendant has been guilty of adultery and gross neglect of duty as alleged in the petition, and that by reason thereof the plaintiff is entitled to a divorce as prayed for in her petition. It is therefore adjudged and ordered by the court that the marriage contract heretofore existing between said Sarah A. Aller and Ezekiel Aller be, and the same hereby is dissolved, and both parties are hereby released from the obligations thereof, and that the defendant be barred of all right of dower in the plaintiff's real estate; and that the plaintiff be restored to her former name of Sarah A. Phinney. It is further ordered and adjudged that the plaintiff have, possess and enjoy, as and for alimony, the personal property of defendant mentioned in the petition and now in her possession, and the further sum of One hundred dollars in money, for which amount judgment is hereby rendered and execution awarded if not paid. It is further ordered that plaintiff pay the costs herein taxed at $.

8068 Laura Perry; vs. Charles Perry; Court of Common Pleas Union County Ohio. June 9th 1902.

This cause coming on for hearing this 9th day of June 1902, on the petition and the evidence, on consideration thereof the Court find that the plaintiff at the time of filing her petition had been a resident of the State of Ohio for the year next preceding said date, and was at that time a bona fide resident of said County of Union; that the defendant has been duly served by publication in the manner provided by law for constructive service in such cases, he being a non-resident of the State of Ohio, and that said service is complete, that said parties were married as set forth in the petition, and that no children have been born of said marriage. The Court further find upon the evidence adduced, that the defendant has been guilty of habitual drunkenness for more than three years last past and of gross neglect of duty towards the plaintiff, as alleged in the petition, and that by reason thereof the plaintiff is entitled to a divorce as prayed for in her petition. It is therefore adjudged and ordered by the Court that the marriage contract heretofore existing between said Laura Perry and Charles Perry be, and the same hereby is, dissolved, and both parties are hereby released from the obligations thereof; and that the plaintiff be restored to her maiden name of Laura Roush. It is further ordered that the plaintiff pay the costs herein taxed at $.

Alma Kennedy.
8072. Vs. Court of Common Pleas Union County Ohio
Alta E. Kennedy, et al June 9th. 1902.
This day this cause came on for hearing on the petition of the plaintiff, on the promissory notes set forth in her petition with interest to the first day of this date, the sum of $376.06/100. The Court further finds that in order to secure the payment of said note the defendants Alta E. Kennedy and J.M. Kennedy her husband executed and delivered to said Alma Kennedy their certain mortgage as in the petition described and on the premisis therein described; the said mortgage was duly recorded in Book 40 page 341 of records of mortgages of Union County Ohio, and is a good and valid lien on said premises described in the petition. and that the conditions of said mortgage have been broken, subject to the claim of the Citizens Home and Savings company, as set forth in their answer and cross petition herein filed. It is therefore ordered by the Court that the plaintiff recover from defendants Alta E. Kennedy and Joseph M. Kennedy the sum of $376.06 as heretofore found due, and it is further adjudged that unless the said defendants Alta E. Kennedy and Joseph M. Kennedy shall within 5 days from the entry of this decree pay or cause to be paid to the Clerk of this Court the costs in this case and to the plaintiff the said sum of $376.06 and subject to the claim of the Citizens Home and Savings company, the defendants equity of redemption be foreclosed, and said premises be sold. and that an order of sale issue therefor to the Sheriff of Union County Ohio, directing him to appraise, advertise and sell said premises as upon execution, and report his proceedings to this Court for further orders.

J. S Gregg et al

This day came the plaintiff by its attorney; also came James McCambell, an attorney at law of this court, on behalf of the defendants, and by virtue of a warrant of attorney duly executed by said defendants and now produced to the court, and a copy of which is filed with the Clerk of this court, entered the appearance of said defendants waived the issuance and service of process in this action, and, with the assent of the plaintiff confessed that the said defendants are justly indebted to the said plaintiff in the sum of Two hundred and seventy seven and 50/100 dollars; and also released and waived all exceptions, Errors, and right of appeal herein. It is therefore considered by the Court that the said plaintiff recover from said defendants the said sum of Two hundred and seventy seven 50/100 dollars, together with the costs herein expended, taxed, at $ 8059 8066

8058 The Trustes of Claibourn Township Union County Ohio
Vs. Court of Common Pleas Union County Ohio.
William C. Tanner June 10th. 1902.

The plaintiffs herein appearing by their attorney, John F. Millar, this cause came on and was heard upon the petition and the evidence, and the argument of said counsel; and the court, upon due consideration thereof, finds that the defendants William C. Tanner, Charles Tanner, and Rebecca J. Thompson, are non residents of this State, and that they have been duly served by publication in the manner provided by law, for Constructive service upon non residents; and that the other defendants are residents of this County, and have been duly served with summons herein; and that each and all of said defendants are in default for answer and demurrer to the petition herein. The court further finds from the evidence that the allegations of the plaintiffs petition are true; that at the time of the commencement of this action the plaintiffs were in possession of the real property described in the petition, and that they had and hold the legal estate therein, and were and are entitled to the possession thereof; and that neither the defendants nor any of them have any estate in, nor are they or any of them entitled to the possession of, said real estate or any part thereof; and, that the plaintiffs ought to have their title and possession quieted as against each and every one of said defendants, as prayed for in their petition herein; It is therefore ordered, adjudged and decreed by the court that the title of the plaintiffs to and their possession of the premises in the petition described be, and the same hereby are quieted as against the defendants, and each of them, and all persons claiming under them or any of them; and the said defendants, each and every one of them, and all persons claiming under them or any of them, are hereby forever enjoined from setting up any claim to said premises or to any part thereof adverse to the title 8048 and possession of the plaintiffs, or their successors or assigns, thereto, or in any manner interfering with their use, control and management thereof. It is ordered that plaintiffs pay the costs herein, taxed at $.

The Globe Building and Loan Association Company.

8048 vs. Court Common Pleas, Union County, Ohio,

Charles F. Roush et. al June 10th, 1902,

This cause now coming on for hearing on the petition of the plaintiff, the answer and cross-petition of the defendants, The Economy Supply Company, The Pure Petroleum Product Company, Merkle Brothers, and The Marion Supply and Oil Company, and the rendered, the Court find that the said defendants, Charles F. Roush and Barbara C. Roush have each been duly served with summons, in this case, and that they each are in default for answer and demurrer, and that the allegations of the petition are thereby confessed by them to be true, The Court further find that the defendants has failed to pay the plaintiff the installment of dues, premiums, interest and insurance, as in the petition set forth, and that there is due to said plaintiff to the date of this decree the sum of Eleven Dollars and Eighteen Cents ($11.18) for interest, the sum of Three Dollars and Seventy-two Cents ($3.72) for premiums, and the sum of Twenty-six Dollars and Twenty-five Cents ($26.25) for insurance, making in all, together with the amount of principal remaining due, the sum of $236.33. The Court further find that in order to secure the regular payment of said dues, interest, premium and other installments, as well as those hereafter to become due, the said Charles F. Roush and Barbara C. Roush, his wife, executed and delivered to this plaintiff their certain mortgage deed in the petition described and on the premises therein described; that said mortgage was on the 8th day of June, 1897, duly recorded in Volume 40, Pages 61 and 62 of the Records of Mortgages of Union County, Ohio, and that the same is a good, valid and first lien on the premises described in the petition.

It is therefor considered by the Court that unless the said defendants shall within three days from the entry hereof, pay, or cause to be paid, to the said plaintiff the said sum of $236.33 so found due, and to the Clerk of this Court the costs, taxed herein, at $—. the defendants equity of redemption be foreclosed, and said premises be sold, and that an order of sale issue therefor to the Sheriff of Union County, directing him to appraise, adver-tive and sell said premises as upon execution, and return his proceedings to this Court for further order.

For good cause shown German publication dispensed with.

Robert McCrory, Executor of John Crottinger, deceased — Plaintiff.
Harriett S. Patch and D. B. Patch — Defendants. June 10th, 1902.

Now comes the plaintiff by his Attorney and the defendants bring in default for answer and demurrer, the Court find that the allegations of the petition are confessed by them to be true, And the Court find that the defendants, Harriett S. Patch and D. B. Patch, are indebted to the plaintiff as such Executor of the estate of John Crottinger, deceased, in the sum of One Hundred Dollars, with interest thereon from the 8th day of March, 1890, at the rate of 8 per cent. per annum payable semiannually to the — day of June, 1902, It is therefore considered by the Court that the said plaintiff recover from the said defendants the sum of $227.88 with interest at the rate of 8 per cent. per annum from the 8th day of June, 1902, and his costs herein expended taxed at $—,

In the Matter of the estate of Isaac Brodrick

This day R. L. Woodburn Administrator of the estate of Isaac Brodrick deceased, appeared in open Court and presented an account of the payments made and of the delivery over to the persons entitled thereto, of the money and other property in his hands as required by the order of distribution heretofore made. Said account being proved to the satisfaction of the Court, and verified by the oath of said R. L. Woodburn: it is ordered that the same be and hereby is allowed as his final discharge. Said Administrator and his sureties are therefore forever exonorated from all liability under said order of distribution, unless his account be impeached for fraud or manifest error. It is further ordered that said account and this proceeding be recorded in the records of the Probate Court and that said R. L. Woodburn pay the costs herein taxed at $ within ten days. (Costs Paid.)

It is ordered that all cause, matters and motions now pending in this Court not otherwise disposed of, be, and the same hereby are continued to the next term thereof.
The present Term of this Court was begun on the 17th day of March, A.D. 1902, and continued from day to day and from time to time by regular adjournments, until this 10th day of June, A.D. 1902, and is now adjourned without day.

Now comes the defendants Allen Haines and H. E. Gray and for purpose of settlement of this cause offer to confess judgment for Fifteen Dollars and the costs in this case up to this time.

Report of Grand Jury.

To the Honorable Hunsaw Hon.
Judge of the Court of Common Pleas, Union County, Ohio.

Report of Grand Jury. The Grand Jury of the Court of Common Pleas of said County, of the Sept. Term, 1902. beg leave to report that they have been in session four days. and herewith return to the Court in Indictments presented by said Jury:
We have carefully examined in all such matters as have legitimately came to our notice, having examined over ninety-eight witnesses, covering seventeen cases, and presented eleven bills, and ignored six cases considered by us. The business has been transacted in as expeditious a manner as possible. During our session we visited the County Jail. examined its state and condition. and inquired into the discipline and treatment of the prisoners. and their habits. diets and accommodations. We find. and respectfully report to the Court, that the rules prescribed, and we do find that no provision of law for the regulation of County Jails has been violated. 8020.

Paulina W. Gabriel

8084. Vs. Court Common Pleas. Union County. Ohio.
Myron B. Gabriel Sept. 18th, 1902. 1186.

Now came the plaintiff, and the defendant having been duly served with summons and a copy of the petition herein. and having failed to appear, the Court find the defendant Myron B. Gabriel in default for answer and demurrer to said petition and find that the allegations thereof are confessed by said defendant to be true. The Court also find that the plaintiff at the time of filing her petition, had been a resident of the State of Ohio for one year next preceding the same. and was at that time a bona fide resident of this county of Union. and that the parties hereto were married, so in said petition set forth. The Court further find, upon the evidence adduced, that the defendant has been guilty of gross neglect of duty and extreme cruelty. and that by reason thereof the plaintiff is entitled to a divorce as prayed for. It is therefore ordered and adjudged by the Court that the marriage contract heretofore existing between the said Paulina W. Gabriel and Myron B. Gabriel be, and the same hereby is, dissolved and both parties are released from the obligations of the same. It is further ordered that the custody, care education, and control of the said child of the parties hereto be, until further order, confided to the said plaintiff, Pauline H. Gabriel exclusively - But it is hereby ordered that the defendant have the priviledge of visiting said child at all reasonable times.

It is further considered by the Court that the said plaintiff recover from the said defendant her costs herein expended, and execution is awarded.

John H. Lingrel et. al.
Vs.
Lily Lingrel et. al.

Court of Common Pleas, Union County, Ohio,
Sept. 22nd, 1902.

This day came the parties and their Attorneys and waived a Jury and submitted this cause to the Court upon the pleadings and evidence. On consideration whereof the Court being fully advised in the premises, finds that the deed bearing date on the 16th day of February, 1887, recorded in book 62 page 25, was never acknowledged by the said Martha Lingrel,
That the facts stated in the plaintiffs petition are true and that the plaintiffs are entitled to the relief by them demanded.
It is therefore, considered, ordered and adjudged by the Court, that the pretended deed bearing the date, February 16th, 1887, recorded in Volume 62, on page 25 of the records of deeds for Union County, be and the same is hereby set aside and held for naught. And the Court finds that at the time this action was commenced the plaintiffs had and still have a legal estate in, and were, and still are, entitled to the immediate possession of the real property described in the petition, and that the defendant Lily Lingrel has unlawfully kept plaintiffs out of possession as in the said petition alleged.
It is therefore, considered, adjudged and decreed by the Court that the plaintiffs recover from the said Lily Lingrel the possession of said real property, and that plaintiffs pay the costs of this action, execution is awarded against the said Lily Lingrel in favor of the plaintiffs for the possession of said premises, and execution is awarded against plaintiffs for costs.
The defendant, Lily Lingrel, excepted to the ruling and judgment of the Court against her and also gave notice of her intention to appeal this cause to the Circuit Court and the Court fix the bond for appeal at $100.00.

8064 Vs. Court of Common Pleas, Union County, Ohio,

William A. Wright, James H. Wright and Margaret B. Wright. Sept. 22 nd, 1902,

This day came the parties and their attorneys, and the said William A. Wright James H. Wright and Margaret B. Wright having filed answer denying the allegation of fact contained in the Information filed herein, a jury was waived and this cause was submitted to the Court upon the issues joined and the evidence, After hearing the evidence offered by both parties the Court found from the evidence that the defendants and each of them were and are guilty of contempt of the order of said Circuit Court in manner and form as they stand charged in the Information, that they and each of them have kept and maintained a dam across Bokes Creek touching the plaintiffs lands, impiding and interfering with the natural flow of water in said creek along and adjoining the lands of said John D. Mather, and that said dam and obstructions has been so kept and maintained obstructing the natural flow of water in said Creek at said point, from and ever since the said order and injunction of said Circuit Court, and the Court further finds that said dam is still so kept and maintained contrary to the order of said Circuit Court, The Court further find that for the purpose of execution and other process in the enforcement of said decree a mandate was duly sent from said Circuit Court to this Court, and that this Court is charged with the enforcement of said injunction and the decree of said Circuit Court, The Court having found that the defendants and each of them are in contempt by the maintenance of said dam, it is now ordered by the Court here that sentence and punishment for said contempt be suspended until the first day of the next term of this Court, this suspension is in order to give the said William A. Wright, James H. Wright and Margaret B. Wright an opportunity to purge themselves of such contempt so far as the same may be done by the removal of said dam and clearing said creek of obstructions, The defendant gave notice of appeal and the Court fixed the bond at $100.00/ and for that purpose this cause is continued

8075 Vs.
T. & O. C. Railway Company, Court of Common Pleas, Union County, Ohio.
Oct. 6th, 1902,

This day came the parties, plaintiff and defendant, by their counsel and thereupon this cause came on to be heard upon the motion of the plaintiff to make the defendants answer definite and certain and to require the defendant to separately state and number the defenses set forth in its answer; and was argued by counsel and submitted to the Court. On consideration thereof the Court doth find said motions, and each of them, to be well taken, and doth sustain the same, to which finding and order the defendant excepts. Upon application of the defendant and for good cause shown leave is granted said defendant to file an amended answer within 30 days from the rising of the Court. For good cause shown this cause is continued.

T. & O.C. Railway Company Oct. 6th 1902,

This day came the parties, plaintiff and defendant, by their counsel, and thereupon this cause came on to be heard upon the motions of the plaintiff to make the defendants answer definite and certain, and to require defendant to separately state and number the defenses set forth in its answer; and was argued by counsel and submitted to the Court. On consideration thereof the Court doth find said motions and each of them, to be well taken and doth sustain the same, to which finding and order the defendant excepts.

Upon application of the defendant and for good cause shown leave is granted said defendant to file an amended answer within 30 days from the rising of the Court. For good cause shown this cause is continued.

D. C. Bolenbaugh.

8098 Vs. Court of Common Pleas, Union County, Ohio.

Alvira Bolenbaugh et al. Oct. 6th, 1902,

This day came the parties herein by their Attorneys; also came the following named persons as jurors, towit:- Moses George, Thomas Elson, Samuel Hensley, Harley Rigor, H. G. Snodgrass, V. C. Crist, Silas Hedges, M. M. Connor, S. A. McNeil, David Austin, Burt A. Hayes and Milton Haines, who were duly impaneled and sworn according to law: and thereupon the case came on for hearing upon the pleadings and the evidence, And after hearing the evidence, and the charge of the Court; the said Jury returned in open Court their verdict in writing signed by their foreman, and say;- "We, the Jury, being duly impaneled, sworn and affirmed find on the issue joined that the paper writing here shown to us and admitted to Probate in the Probate Court of Union County, State of Ohio, on the 22nd day of March, 1902, purporting to be the last will and testament of Seorn N. Bolenbaugh, deceased, is the valid last will and testament of the said Seorn N. Bolenbaugh, deceased, Dated Oct. 6th, 1902, Jno. G. Snodgrass, Foreman."

It is therefore in accordance with said verdict adjudged by the Court that the paper writing produced in this case and offered in evidence, purporting to be the last will and testament of the said Seorn N. Bolenbaugh, deceased, is his last will and testament.

It is further ordered by the Court that the plaintiff pay the cost of this proceeding taxed at $- for which execution is awarded.

8111 The Farmers Bank
Vs.
C. S. Stout and D. H. Ayers

Court of Common Pleas, Union County, Ohio.
October, 10th, 1902,

This day this cause came on for hearing upon the petition of the plaintiff; the defendants, each, having waived the issuing of process and service of summons herein, and entered their appearance to this action, and consented that judgment may be entered herein at once and order of sale issued forthwith; whereupon the Court find that the defendant, C. S. Stout, as maker, and the defendant, D. H. Ayers, as endorser of the promissory note set up in the plaintiff's petition, are indebted to the plaintiff in the sum of Sixty and 60/100 Dollars, including interest to this day. The Court further find that in order to secure the payment of the promissory note set up in the plaintiff's petition, the defendant, C. S. Stout, executed and delivered to the defendant, D. H. Ayers, the mortgage upon the real estate described in the petition herein; and that the said D. H. Ayers, transferred and assigned said note and mortgage to the plaintiff herein, before said note became due; and that the plaintiff is now the legal owner and holder of the same.

The Court further find that said mortgage was duly recorded in Book 36 Page 421 of the Records of Mortgages of Union County, and is a good and valid lien on the premises described in the petition, and that the conditions in said mortgage have been broken.

It is therefore considered, adjudged and decreed that the plaintiff recover from the defendants herein, the sum of $60.60, and its costs herein expended; and it is further ordered by the Court that unless the defendants shall within three days from the entry of this decree pay or cause to be paid to the Clerk of this Court the costs of this case, and to the plaintiff herein the sum so found due as aforesaid, with interest from the 10th day of October, 1902, the defendant's equity of redemption be foreclosed, and said premises be sold, and that an order of sale issue to the Sheriff of Union County, directing him to appraise, advertise and sell said premises as upon execution, and report his proceedings to this Court for further order.

William Cassiday,
Vs.
8079 William A. Shelps.

Court of Common Pleas, Union County, Ohio.
Oct. 10th, 1902,

On the 6th day of October, A. D. 1902, this cause was heard upon the motion of the defendant to discharge the attachment issued herein; and was argued by counsel and submitted to the Court; and after due consideration, on this 10th day of October, 1902; it is ordered by the Court that the attachment in this action be, and the same hereby is, discharged, and the Sheriff ordered to restore to the defendant the property taken under said attachment; and the garnishee is released from all liability in this action; to all of which orders and judgments of the Court the plaintiff by his counsel then and there excepted,

8104 Vs. Court of Common Pleas, Union County, Ohio.

E.H. Moore, Oct. 10th 1902,

This day this cause came on to be heard upon the motion of defendant to require the plaintiff to separately state and number the causes of action in his petition filed herein; and was argued by counsel and submitted to the Court; whereupon the Court after due consideration sustains the said motion, to which plaintiff by his counsel then and there excepted; and on motion of the plaintiff 30 days leave is granted to file an amended petition herein, and cause continued.

Paris Abbott.

8087 Vs. Court of Common Pleas, Union County, Ohio.

Mary Abbott Oct. 10th, 1902,

This cause came on this day to be heard on the petition, and evidence, and on consideration thereof the Court find that the plaintiff, at the time of filing his petition, had been a resident of the State of Ohio, for one year next preceding the same, and was at that time a bona fide resident of this County of Union, and that the parties hereto were married as in said petition set forth. The Court further find upon the evidence adduced that the defendant has been guilty of wilful absence for over thirteen years, and that by reason thereof the plaintiff is entitled to a divorce as prayed for.

It is therfor ordered and adjudged by the Court that the marriage contract heretofore existing between the said Paris Abbott and Mary Abbott, be and the same hereby is, dissolved, and both parties are released from the obligations of the same, and that the plaintiff pay the costs of this proceeding, for which judgment is rendered.

Appointment of Committee to Examine Commissioners' Annual Report.

Court of Common Pleas, Union County, Ohio,

On motion to the Court for the appointment of a Committee to examine the Annual Report of the County Commissioners of Union County, Ohio, the Court hereby appoints Samuel Church, Wesley A. Garrard and James E. Robinson, Prosecuting Attorney of said County, as such Committee for said purpose, and authorizes them to make examination of said report and report their finding to this Court as provided by law

D. Dow, Judge of Court of Common Pleas, Union County, Ohio,

H. C. Hamilton

8086 Vs. Court of Common Pleas, Union County, Ohio

Emma V. Van Winkle et. al, Oct. 10th, 1903,

This cause now coming on for hearing, was submitted to the Court upon the petition of the plaintiff herein, the said defendants, excepting the Standard Paper Company, and such of them being in default for both answer and demurrer to said petition,

Said cause came on further to be heard upon the evidence herein, and on consideration thereof, the Court finds on the issue joined for the plaintiff, and that the allegations contained in the plaintiff's petition are true.

The Court further finds that there is due to plaintiff, H. C. Hamilton, from the defendant Emma Van Hinkle, on the promissory notes set forth in the petition with interest to the date of this decree, the sum of Five Hundred and Sixty-two Dollars and Twenty-three cents ($562.23).
The Court further finds that in order to secure the payment of said promissory notes set forth in plaintiff's first cause of action the defendants, Emma V. Van Hinkle, S. H. Van Hinkle and Manda Sowerlis, executed and delivered to the said H. C. Hamilton, the plaintiff herein, their certain mortgage as in the petition described, and on the premises therein described.
The said mortgage was duly recorded in Vol. 43 at Page 9 of the Record of Mortgages of Union County, Ohio, and is a good and valid lien on the premises described in the petition. The Court further finds that the conditions of said mortgage have been broken by the non-payment of the notes past due set out and described in the petition. The Court further finds that said mortgage was also given to secure the other promissory notes set forth in plaintiff's second cause of action, which notes have not yet matured. The Court further finds that the conditions of said mortgage have further been broken, in this, that there was due on the 26th day of April, A. D. 1892, the sum of $40.00 interest on said $500.00 note set out in plaintiff's second cause of action, which said sum is unpaid.
The Court further finds that in order to secure the payment of the note set forth in plaintiff's causes of action numbered from 3 to 17 thereof, the said defendant, Emma V. Van Hinkle and S. H. Van Hinkle her husband, and the said Manda Sowerlis, executed and delivered to the said H. C. Hamilton, the plaintiff herein, their certain mortgage as in the petition described and on the premises therein described; that said mortgage was duly recorded in Vol. 47 Page 167 of the Record of Mortgages of Union County, Ohio and is a good and valid lien on the premises described in plaintiff's petition. 8091
The Court further finds that the conditions of said mortgage have been broken. The Court further finds that in order to additionally secure the payment of said notes described in plaintiff's causes of action numbered from 5 to 17 inclusive, the said defendant, Emma V. Van Hinkle executed and delivered to the American Typo Foundry Company, her chattel mortgage for the sum of $283.55 as set out and described in plaintiff's petition, and that the said plaintiff is now the legal owner and holder of said chattel mortgage. The Court further finds that in order to additionally secure said mortgage described in plaintiff's causes of action numbered from 3 to 17 inclusive, the said defendant, Emma V. Van Hinkle, executed and delivered to the said H. C. Hamilton, her certain second chattel mortgage upon the chattel property set out and described in plaintiff's petition, and that the conditions of said chattel mortgage have been broken.
The Court further finds that both of said chattel mortgages above described have been properly filed in the office of the Clerk of Claibourne Township Union County, Ohio, the township in which said defendants reside, and said chattel property is located, and that said mortgages and both of them are now valid and subsisting liens upon all of the chattel property set out and described in plaintiff's petition.
It is further considered by the Court that the plaintiff recover from the defendant, Emma V. Van Hinkle, the said sum of $562.23, and his costs herein expended; said sum of $562.23 being the total amount due on all of said causes of action, up to the 15th day of September, 1902,

It is further adjudged and decreed that unless the defendants, Emma V. VanAtta, S. N. VanAtta and Manda Sowers, or one of them shall within five days from the entry of this decree, pay or cause to be paid to the Clerk of this Court, the costs of this case, and to the plaintiff herein the sum so found due as aforesaid, with interest thereon from the 15th day of September, 1902, at 8%, the defendants equity of redemption be foreclosed, and that said premises be sold, and that an order to sell issue therefor, directed to the Sheriff of Union County, Ohio, directing him to appraise, advertise and sell said premises, as upon execution, and report his proceedings to this Court for further order,
The Court further finds that the plaintiff is entitled to have said chattel mortgages and both of them foreclosed, and said chattel property sold to pay the amount due him, as aforesaid,
It is therefore further ordered that unless the defendants, or one of them, within five days from the entry hereof, pay to the said plaintiff said sum of $562.33 with interest and costs of suit herein, the chattel property described in the petition shall be sold by the Sheriff of Union County, as upon execution, and that an order issue to the Sheriff for that purpose, All questions arising upon the answer and cross-petition of the Standard Paper Co. are reserved,

Lewis C. Benn

8091 vs. Court of Common Pleas, Union County, Ohio.

A. G. Jones et. al. Oct. 10th, 1902,

This cause coming on for hearing on the petition and the pleadings of the Richwood Deposit Bank, The Liquid Carbonic Acid Gas Co., The Crown Cork and Seal Co., The Edward H. Everett Co., The Henderson Lithographing Co., Godman & Thornhill, Geo. A. Worden, Gill & Crawford, Asbury Cheney, Admr. and Jacob L. Horn, creditors of said Corporation, The Marion Water Company, setting forth their respective claims against said corporation; the Court finds that all the defendant stockholders of said corporation have been duly served with summons, except, A. G. Jones and Alma A. Hayes, who have been served by publication, and that each and all of said defendants are in default for answer and demurrer to said petition, and to said pleadings of the creditors hereinbefore mentioned, and that the facts in said pleadings stated and the allegations therein made are thereby by said defendants confessed to be true, and the Court upon the hearing of evidence so finds,
The Court finds that said Corporation is insolvent; that it has been dissolved and all its assets applied toward the payment of its debts as alleged in the petition; and that there yet remains unpaid debts of said corporation as set forth in the pleadings in this action and hereinafter specified, which together with the costs herein, including a fee of $50.00 to the plaintiff's Attorney, John F. Millar, hereby allowed by Court, amount in the aggregate to the sum of $1040.16
The Court further finds that each of said defendants hereinafter named was, at the time said several liabilities accrued, a stockholder of said corporation in the amount herein found and set opposite his name in the column of "Stock" in the schedule set out below; and, that to pay the liabilities aforesaid, it will require an assessment of $5.50 per each share of ten dollars on the amount of the stock held by each and all of the defendant stockholders, who are solvent and within the jurisdiction of the Court, and of the sums hereby found and set opposite their names, respectively, in the column of "Judgment" in the following schedule viz:-

Name	Stock	Judgment.
Adolph I Glick and William Glick	$155.00	$85.25
Isaac Miller	150.00	82.50

Stephen D. Evans	10.00	5.50
Alma K. Hayes	10.00	5.50
Charles Gillman	10.00	5.50
Robert F. Elliott	10.00	5.50

It is therefore ordered that each of the defendants, stockholders named in the above schedule, pay on or before the first day of November, 1902, into the hands of J. F. Millar, who is hereby appointed a receiver for purpose of receiving collecting and distributing the money to be paid in pursuance of this order, the sum above specified, set opposite his name in the judgment column of the schedule; and that, in default thereof, execution issue therefor with interest thereon from said date together with the extra costs thereby incurred.

The Court further finds that there remains due and unpaid on the capital stock of the defendant C. C. Sharp, the sum of ten dollars, for which amount judgment is hereby rendered against him; and upon the capital stock of the defendant, Sarah S. Penney the sum of Twenty Dollars, for which amount judgment is hereby rendered against her, in addition to the amounts hereinbefore adjudged against them, to which it is ordered they be respectively added and collected in like manner.

The Court also finds that a dividend of $14.06 due the defendant A. G. Jones from the sale of the assets of said Corporation was unclaimed by him and was by the Receiver thereof paid over to the Clerk of this Court as provided by law; and it is ordered that said dividend together with the further amount of $33.26 due him upon his claim against said Corporation, be applied as a credit upon the amount herein found due from him.

It is further ordered that out of the money so to be collected the receiver pay, first, the costs of this case, including said attorney fee, and that he pay the balance of said money to the several parties named below, pro rata, as collected, according to the sums set opposite their names respectively, and to which they are hereby found to be entitled towit:- The plaintiff, Louis C. Beem, $209.06; The Richwood Deposit Bank $369.43; The Liquid Carbonic Acid Gas Company, $49.64; The Crown Cork and Seal Company, $12.04; The Edward H. 8130 In the matter of the Will of Adam Rausch, deceased. In the Court of Common Pleas of Union County, Ohio, Oct. 30th, 1902,

Be it remembered that heretofore, towit, on the 29th day of October A.D, 1902, an instrument of writing purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Adam Rausch late of Paris Township, in this County, deceased was produced in the Probate Court of Union County, and offered for Probate and was then filed, And it now being shown to the satisfaction of the Court that due notice of the filing of said Will and of the application to admit the same to Probate and Record in said Probate Court, has been given to the widow and next of kin of the testator resident of the State of Ohio, pursuant to a former order of said Probate Court; that all of the next of kin and widow of said testator having waived all questions of time said Will is ordered for hearing on this day, and John M. Brodrick, the Probate Judge of this County, being one of the subscribing witnesses to said Will, and having duly certified the hearing hereof into this Court as provided by Statute, thereupon on this day came Henry Rock and John M. Brodrick the subscribing witnesses to said Will, who being duly sworn testified to the due execution and attestation of said Will, which testimony was reduced to writing, by them respectively subscribed, and filed with said Will, Whereupon the Court finds that the aforsaid instrument of writing is the last Will and Testament of said Adam Rausch, deceased; that the same was duly executed and attested; and that the said Testator at the time of making, signing and sealing the same was of full age, of sound mind and memory, and not under any restraint,

It is therefore, by the Court ordered, that the said Will be admitted to Probate that a complete record be made of all the proceedings herein, in the Probate Court of Union County, Ohio, and that the costs herein taxed to $—, be paid by the Executor to be hereafter appointed within ten days after his appointment, and that an execution is awarded therefor; and that a transcript of the findings and judgment of this Court together with the original testimony of the witnesses and the original Will and all other original papers pertaining thereto be certified to the said Probate Court of Union County, Ohio,

Duncan Dow, Judge of the Court of Common Pleas of Union County, Ohio.

Mary B. Rogers,
8124 Vs. Court of Common Pleas, Union County, Ohio,
Joseph N. Rogers.

For the purpose of this case and for the purpose of facilitating the defendant in settling a partnership business foreign to this case, it is agreed and admitted by the defendant that he has and owns personal property, other than money and the horse and buggy mentioned in plaintiff's petition, to the amount and value of $1400,00, And it is agreed by the plaintiff that the defendant may be released from the operation of the injunction issued by the Court of Common Pleas of Union County, Ohio, as to his personal property, Also that he may rent the dwelling house in Richwood, Ohio, described in said petition, until the first day of April, 1903, and that he shall account to the Court for the rent received therefor.

8041 In the matter of the estate of Samuel A. Cherry, deceased,

Court of Common Pleas, Union County, Ohio.
October, 18th, 1902.

This day this cause came on to be heard upon the first and final account of John M. Brodrick, Executor of said estate, the exceptions of Madeline Cherry to said account therein filed, the motion to strike out the first and second exceptions, the exhibits filed with said account and the testimony of witnesses adduced on the hearing; and the same was argued by counsel and submitted to the Court: On consideration whereof, the Court do overrule said motion to strike out said first and second exceptions aforesaid, and do overrule all of the exceptions of said Madeline Cherry to said account. The Court find from the evidence that the item of Three Hundred and Five and 55/100 Dollars, with which said Executor charges himself under date of September, 25th, 1897, in the following words and figures, viz:- "September, 25th, To cash from Clara Park, balance Life Insurance, $305,55," was the remainder of the proceeds of Certificate No. 1986, held by decedent in The Odd Fellows Benficial Association of Columbus, Ohio, and ought not to have been charged as part of the assets of said estate, but that the same should have been paid to said Madeline Cherry, as widow of decedent, under the laws, rules and regulations of said Association. The Court further find that there were no funds belonging to said estate out of which the year's allowance to said widow or her dower in the real estate could have been paid, except from said sum of $305,55, aforesaid, and that said Executor, is entitled to credit on said item of $305,55, aforesaid, the said sum of Two Hundred Dollars, paid said widow, to apply on her year's allowance and also said sum of Sixty Dollars paid said widow as dower in the real estate. This matter came on further to be heard on the motion of the said Executor for the allowance of $107 32/100 as his legal compensation and and $100.00 for extraordinary services rendered to said estate; on consideration whereof, the Court do allow said Executor said sum of $107.32 as his legal compensation, and the sum of $100.00 for extraordinary services. It is therfore ordered by the Court that said Executor retain out of the money of said estate the sum of the two items last aforesaid, towit $207.32,

And the Court do find the said Executor chargable with assets of said estate in the sum of $2182.89, and that he is entitled to credits in the sum of $2126.72, as shown by said vouchers and other evidence produced to the Court.

And the Court do further find that there is a balance of $56.17 in the hands of the said Executor due said estate, and said account is settled accordingly.

It is further ordered by the Court that said Executor out of the said balance of $56.17 in his hands pay:-

1st: The costs of this proceeding in this Court, taxed at $—,

2nd: The costs of the Probate Court in recording the proceedings herein, taxed at $—,

3rd: The remainder, thereof viz. $—. to said Madeline Cherry, widow as aforesaid,

It is further ordered By the Court that the Clerk of this Court certify a transcript of the proceedings herein, together with the original account, vouchers, and other original papers pertaining to said account to the Probate Court of Union County, Ohio, as provided by law. To all of which rulings, orders, and decrees of the Court the said Madeline Cherry excepts, and hereby gives notice of appeal, and the Court fixes the bond for appeal at $100.00,

Report of Grand Jury.

To the Honorable Duncan Kerr. Judge of the Court of Common Pleas, Union County, Ohio.

The Grand Jury of the Court of Common Pleas of said County, of the January Term, 1903, beg leave to report that they have been in session four days. and herewith return to the Court the Indictments presented by said Jury. We carefully examined in all such matters as have legitimately come to our notice, having examined over 51. witnesses, covering eight cases, and presented three bills, and ignored five cases considered by us. The business has been transacted in as expeditious a manner as possible. 8115

During our session we visited the County Jail. examined its state and condition. and inquired into the discipline and treatment of the prisoners, and their habits. diet and accommodations. We find and respectfully report to the Court that the rules prescribed by the Judge have been faithfully kept and observed. and we do find that no provision of law for the regulation of County Jails has been violated.

We find that the drive-way leading to the Sheriff's barn is in an almost impassable condition and therefore recommend that the building situated West of the Jail be moved, that the drive-way be straightened and that said drive-way from its intersection with Fifth Street to its intersection with Sixth Street be paved with paving blocks similar to those in use on the Public streets of Marysville: and should the County Commissioners decide not to make the improvement in the manner suggested. we recomend that the drive-way at least be furnished with a sufficient covering of crushed stone. Respectfully submitted Granville S. Robertson. 8124.

Louise L. Shields,

8142 Vs. Court of Common Pleas, Union County, Ohio.

Gamble Shields, Feb. 16th, 1903.

The defendant being in default, this day this cause came on to be heard on this Petition and the evidence and on consideration thereof, the Court find that the plaintiff, Louise L. Shields, at the time of filing her Petition had been a resident of the State of Ohio for one year next preceding the same, and was at that time a bona fide resident of this County of Union, and that the parties hereto were married as in said Petition set forth, and all and singular the facts allegd in the Petition to be true. 8120

The Court further find, upon the evidence adduced that the defendant has been guilty of gross neglect of duty in that he has failed to provide for the Complainant, and that he has abandoned and neglected her and left her to shift for herself without any provision whatever for her support, And that by reason thereof the plaintiff is entitled to a divorce as prayed for.

It is therefore ordered, adjudged and decreed by the Court that the marriage contract heretofore existing between the said Louie L. Shields and Gamble Shields be and the same is hereby dissolved, and both parties released from the obligations of the same, And the Court find that the plaintiff Louie L. Shields is the owner of the following described real estate not heretofore disposed of, Situated in the Village of Marysville, County of Union, and State of Ohio, Beginning at a stake North corner of a lot owned by Moses Thompson on Fourth Street; running West with said Street 84 feet to a stone center of an Osage Orange Hedge; thence with said hedge South 137 feet to a stake; thence East 84 feet to said Thompsons West line; thence North with said line to the place of beginning, Being a part of Out Lot Nos. 2 and 7, and the same is hereby restored to her divested of all and every claim, title and interest by dower or curtesy or otherwise of said Gamble Shields, Said premises are hereby decreed to the said Louie L. Shields, her heirs and assigns forever. 8064

It is further ordered and adjudged that the said Louie L. Shields shall have, hold and possess said above described real estate in fee simple, with the said Gamble Shields forever barred of any and all rights of dower or otherwise in said real estate, And it is further ordered and adjudged that the said plaintiff do also have and possess and enjoy as and for her own separate, personal property with the right to use, sell or dispose thereof, at her pleasure, towit:- all the wearing apparel and all household and kitchen furniture and all other personal property in her possession, free from any rights, claims or interests of the said Gamble Shields therein, and any dower or other rights he might have had therein are forever barred.

It Is further ordered that the plaintiff pay the costs of this action, 8163 In the matter of the Complaint against Thomas Reed, an Attorney and Counselor at law, and an officer of this Court.

Court of Common Pleas, Union County, Ohio, Feb. 16th, 1903.

This day came the Committee heretofore appointed in this case and presented to Duncan Dow, Judge of said Court, Complaint, Charges and Specifications against the said Thomas Reed, Whereupon said Court ordered the Clerk to file the same, and that a certified copy of said Complaint, Charges and Specifications, be served on said Thomas Reed, and that the Hearing of said Complaint, Charges and Specifications be set for the 13th day of April, 1903, and that said Thomas Reed be served with notice of said assignment.

8120 May Poling. Vs. Herbert Poling

Court of Common Pleas, Union County, Ohio. Feb. 16th, 1903.

Now came the plaintiff herein, and the defendant appearing by his Attorney, E.A. Porter, and asked leave to withdraw the answer of defendant, and the same was withdrawn, and the cause having been submitted to the Court on the petition of plaintiff and the evidence, the Court finds that the plaintiff at the time of filing her petition, had been a resident of the State of Ohio, and of Union County, for one year next preceding the same, and that the parties hereto were married, as in said petition set forth, The Court further finds upon the evidence adduced, that the defendant has been guilty of extreme cruelty towards the plaintiff and that by reason thereof the plaintiff is entitled to a divorce as prayed for. It is therefore ordered and adjudged by the Court that the marriage contract heretofore existing between the said May Poling and Herbert Poling be, and the same hereby is, dissolved, and that both parties are released from the obligations of the same, That the plaintiff settle all bills for goods purchased by her after the date of separation from defendant, and plaintiff releases any and all claims for alimony against defendant, and that plaintiff herein pay the costs of this action, 8064 The State of Ohio, Ex. Rel. John D. Mather, Vs. William A. Wright et. al.

Court of Common Pleas, Union County, Ohio. Feb. 16th, 1903.

This day came the parties, and their Attorneys, and on the application of the defendants, this cause is continued for sentence and further proceedings until the first day of the next term of this Court, towit, March, 30th, 1903, at which time it is ordered that the said defendants appear for such further proceedings as may be required and authorized by law, 8156 L. C. Burns.

Vs.
A. B. Montross et al.

Court of Common Pleas, Union County, Ohio.
Feb. 16th, 1903.

This cause came on to be heard upon the motion of John B. Burns to be made a party defendant, and the Court being fully advised in the premises orders that said John B. Burns be made a party defendant in this action and given the usual time to plead therein.

Harry H. Courter.

Lily A. Courter Feb. 16th, 1903.

This cause came on to be heard by the Court, and the testimony of John M. Courter and Thomas Brydon as witnesses for the plaintiff was heard by the Court, and further hearing of this case was continued upon the motion and showing of the defendant.

Charles A. Liggett.

8065 Vs. Court of Common Pleas, Union County, Ohio.

Ida M. McKitrick et. al. Feb, 16th, 1903.

This cause coming on to be heard on the petition, said Martha A. Liggett agrees and consents that said order for partition be made, but without waiving any claim to her equitable interest in said premises. But in case of the sale of the same, she consents to look to the proceeds of the sale for the adjustment of her alleged equitable rights as to her interest in said premises. And it is hereby agreed between all the parties hereto, that the proceeds of the sale of said premises shall be held by the Sheriff for that purpose until the further order of the Court, except that the Sheriff may pay the costs of this proceeding, any taxes that may be payable upon said land and the Attorney fees. And the same is hereby ordered to be so held also, for the payment of any remaining debts of the estate of said Gideon Liggett, deceased.

The Court find by consent of the parties that all the defendants have had due legal notice of the pendency and demand of said petition, and that with the exception of Martha E. Liggett, they are in default for answer thereto. Thereupon the Court further find that the plaintiff and the defendants, hereinafter named are tenants in common in the estate described in the petition; The said Martha E. Liggett is entitled to dower therein, and that subject thereto, the plaintiff, Charles A. Liggett, has a legal right to the one fifth of said estate; the defendants, Ida M. McKitrick, Frank L. Liggett, Myrta E. Liggett, and Dwight J. Liggett, each have a legal right to the one fifth part thereof, and that the plaintiff is entitled to have partition made of said premises as prayed for in his petition, but all subject to the equitable interest of said Martha E. Liggett, which she claims, and any unpaid debts of said estate.

It is therefore, ordered, adjudged, and decreed, that partition of said estate be made; and C. D. Chapman, John K. Dodge and J. P. Martin, three judicious, and disinterested freeholders of the vicinity are hereby appointed to make and set off the same.

But it is ordered that if in the opinion of the Commissioners said estate cannot be divided by metes and bounds without injury to the value thereof, that said premises be appraised to, and also free from said dower interest. And it is ordered that a writ issue to the Sheriff of Union County commanding him by the oaths of the Commissioners above named, he cause to be set off and divided to each of the above named parties the part and proportion of said estate to which they are heretofore severally found entitled, subject to the equitable interest claimed by said Martha E. Liggett, if any she has, and also to her said dower estate, if said estate cannot be divided in manner as above, then that the same be appraised and sold according to law, and of his proceedings herein the said Sheriff is ordered to make due return.

Charles A. Liggett.
Vs.
8065 Ida M. McKitrick et. al.

Court of Common Pleas. Union County. Ohio.
Feb. 16th, 1903.

This cause came on for hearing upon the return of the Sheriff, and the report of the Commissioners heretofore appointed herein, and on motion to confirm the same, And it appearing that said estate cannot be divided by metes and bounds, without injury to the value thereof, and that said Commissioners have made, and returned their appraisement thereof free from the dower of said Martha E. Liggett in the sum of $—. the Court find the return and proceedings in all respects correct, and in conformity to law, and do therefore approve and confirm the same, And thereupon neither of the said parties electing to take the said estate at the appraised value, and the said Martha E. Liggett, having by her answer waived her dower by metes and bounds, and asked that in lieu thereof its value be paid her in money. On motion of the plaintiff it is ordered that said premises be sold at public auction free of the dower of said Martha E. Liggett, and that an order issue therefor to the Sheriff of Union County.
It is further ordered that the Sheriff hold the entire proceeds of the sale of said estate until the further order of the Court, except costs, taxes, due and payable, and Attorney Fee, the balance subject however to any further order in the premises in favor of said Martha E. Liggett, for which purpose said funds are held till further orders in case of a sale of the premises, and leave is granted to said Martha E. Liggett to amend her answer in twenty days, so as to set forth her said rights more fully.

Mary B. Rodgers.
8124 Vs.
Joseph N. Rodgers.

Court of Common Pleas. Union County. Ohio.
Feb. 16th, 1903.

This cause came on this day and the Court having heard the evidence finds from the evidence and the pleadings that the plaintiff at the time of filing her petition had been a resident of the State of Ohio for the year next preceding the same, and was at that time a bona fide resident of the County of Union, and that the parties hereto were married on the 25th day of March, 1869.
And the Court further find that the defendant has been guilty of extreme cruelty toward the plaintiff, and that there is a separation in consequence of ill treatment on the part of the husband, defendant, and that by reason thereof the plaintiff is entitled to alimony out of the estate of her husband, the said defendant.
It is therefore ordered and adjudged that the said plaintiff have and possess as and for alimony the following described real estate, towit: situated in the County of Union, State of Ohio, and Village of Richwood, and bring Lu Lots, Numbers Eleven (11) and Twelve (12), bring the same premises formerly owned by Augeline Tuley; also the following Lu said Village, and in Duvbry No. 6293, bryinning at a stake North East corner of a four acre tract of land sold by H. H. Ferguson to E. Styles; thence N. 17° 40' W. 17 poles to a stake in the line of lands owned by J. J. Thompson; thence N. 89° 45' W. 47 poles to a stake; thence S. 17° 40' E. 14 poles to a stake; thence S. 89° 43' E. 47 poles to the bryinning, containing 5 acres of land, free from all incumbrance except the June, 1903, installment of tax and all tax coming due thereafter, and the dower interest of said defendant therein,

And the defendant is hereby ordered to convey said premises and the improvements thereon, and all the appurtenances thereto bringing to said plaintiff, her heirs and assigns forver, by a good and sufficient deed in fee simple free from any and all liens, except the June, 1903, tax above mentioned and the dower estate of said defendant therein, And it is further ordered that upon the failure of said defendant to execute said conveyance within five days from the entry hereof, that this decree shall operate as such conveyance, and in that case it is ordered that the Clerk cause so much of this decree to be recorded in the office of the Recorder of this County as will show such change of title,

And it is further ordered and adjudged that said plaintiff do also have possess and enjoy, as and for alimony, the following personal property, with the right to use, sell or dispose thereof at her pleasure, towit:—

All her wearing apparel, and all the household and kitchen furniture now in the possession of the plaintiff, including the piano; also all household, and kitchen furniture that was in the residence herein described at the time of the separation,

It is further ordered and adjudged that the defendant pay to the clerk of this court for plaintiff as her reasonable alimony in money the sum of Two Hundred Dollars within ten days, and Two Hundred Dollars per annum thereafter in equal quarterly installments, the first quarterly payment coming due May 15th, 1903; until the further order of this Court, And the same is hereby made a lien upon all the real estate of the said defendant, And in default of any such payment for three days, execution is allowed to issue therefor,

It is further ordered that the said defendant pay the costs herein taxed at $— within five days, or that execution be allowed to issue therefor,

Vs. Court of Common Pleas, Union County, Ohio.
Emma V. VanNuklert et al. Feb. 16th, 1903.

This day this cause came on to be heard upon the motion of the plaintiff herein, to set aside the sale of the premises made by the Sheriff in this cause, and was submitted to the Court.
Upon consideration thereof, the Court sustains said motion, and orders that said sale be set aside for reason stated in said motion, towit:- the purchaser having wholly failed to make payment of the purchase money on said sale.

Vs. Court of Common Pleas, Union County, Ohio.
A. G. Jones et. al.

This cause coming on to be heard this 28th day of February, A. D. 1903, upon the application of the receiver, John F. Millar, for leave to file his report and final account, and for confirmation of the same and his discharge, the Court upon due consideration finds said account to be correct and that the proceedings of said receiver have been regular and lawful and in compliance with the orders of the Court. The Court further finds that he has collected all the money that it is probably possible for him to collect, except whatever dividend may be paid on the balance of $42.40 owing from the estate of T. H. Biddle, deceased, which has been declared insolvent by the Probate Court of this County, and which cannot be collected until the final settlement of said estate; that he has fully paid all the debts owing by said dissolved corporation, The Varuna Water Company, as found by the Court in this proceeding; and that there remains in his hands a balance of Eighteen Dollars and Twenty-seven Cents.
The account of said Receiver is therefore allowed and ordered filed, and the same, together with his report and proceedings herein, is hereby approved and confirmed; and he is allowed as reasonable compensation for his services as such Receiver herein, the balance in his hands of Eighteen Dollars, and Twenty-seven Cents, together with whatever dividend may be paid on the remainder of the assessment due from the said estate of T. H. Biddle, deceased, which is hereby assigned to him; and he having now discharged all his duties as such Receiver and paid over all the monies coming into his hands, is accordingly discharged from said receivership.

Albert U. Martin et. al. Feb. 28th, 1903.

This cause came on to be heard upon the petition of Monroe Martin, and the answer of the guardian ad litem of Charles J. Carlewine and Ollie Carlewine, infant defendants, and the exhibits. On consideration whereof, and it appearing to the satisfaction of the Court that all the parties have had due notice of the pendency and demand of the said petition, as required by law, and that the petitioner has a legal right and estate in the premises described in the petition, and no sufficient reason appearing why partition should not be made; It is ordered that by the oaths of D. F. Sanderson, Milton Braithwaite and S. B. Harvey, three judicious disinterested freeholders of the vicinity, one full and equal third part of the lands in said petition described be assigned and set off to Esther Martin, as her dower estate; and that by the like oaths of the same persons partition be made of said lands subject to said dower estate; in the following proportions, to-wit: To Monroe Martin one equal fourth (1/4) part; To Albert U. Martin, one equal fourth (1/4) part; To Minerva Laughery, wife of David Laughery, one equal fourth (1/4) part; To Charles J. Carlewine and Ollie Carlewine, children of Elnora Carlewine, died, who was a daughter of said Charles Martin, deceased, one equal one eighth (1/8) part each, if the same can be done without manifest injury to the premises; and if in their opinion a division cannot be made without manifest injury to the premises, then and in that case that they return the true value in money of said premises to this Court, both subject to and also free from the dower of the said Esther Martin; and that a writ of partition issue to the Sheriff of Union County commanding him to cause said dower to be assigned and said partition to be made in accordance with this order,

Bridget Slattery
vs.
James E. Slattery et. al.

7964

Court of Common Pleas, Union County, Ohio,
March, 30th, 1903.

And now this cause coming on to be heard upon the petition and answers of Mary St. John, Administratrix, and the evidence, the Court find that all of the defendants have had due legal notice of the pendency and demand of the said petition, and that with the exception of the above named they are in default for answer thereto, Therefor the Court further find that the plaintiff and defendants hereafter named are tenants in common in the relate described in the petition; that the plaintiff, Bridget E. Slattery has a legal right to the one fifth part; and the defendant, Mary St. John, to the one fifth part; and the defendant Elizabeth Carey, to the one fifth part, and the defendant, James E. Slattery to the one fifth part; and one fifth part to the de- 8164

fendant Margaret Ryan; and that the plaintiff is entitled to have partition of said estate made as prayed in the petition,

It is therefore ordered, adjudged and decreed that partition of said estate be made in favor of all interested; and S. C. Edwards, J. B. Galloway, and Mike Murphy, three judicious and disinterested freeholders of the vicinity are hereby appointed Commissioners to make the same, and it is ordered that a writ of partition issue to the Sheriff of Union County commanding him that by the oaths of the Commissioners above named he cause to be set off and divided to each of the above named parties the part and proportion of said estate to which they are severally above found entitled, And it is ordered that if said estate is entire and cannot be divided by metes and bounds, or that said estate cannot be divided without manifest injury thereof, then that said estate be so reported and appraised without dower, and 7914 of this proceedings herein said Sheriff is ordered to make due return,

Appointment of Bailiffs

Report of Grand Jury

To the Honorable Duncan Dow,
Judge of the Court of Common Pleas, Union County, Ohio.

The Grand Jury of the Court of Common Pleas of said County of the March Term, 1903, beg leave to report that they have been in session five days, and herewith return to the Court the Indictments presented by said Jury; We have carefully examined in all such matters as have legitimately came to our notice, having examined over 100 witnesses covering eleven cases, and presented ten bills, and ignored one case considered by us,

The business has been transacted in as expeditious a manner as possible.
During our session we visited the County Jail, and examined its state and condition, and inquired into the discipline and treatment of the prisoners, and their habits, diet and accommodations, We find, and respectfully report to the Court, that the rules prescribed by the Judge have been faithfully kept and observed, and we do not find that any provision of law for the regulation of County Jails have been violated.
We find that the Hall to the rear part of the Jail is very dark and recommend that the County Commissioners have a glass put in the front door to said Hall, We further find the drive-way West of the Jail in an almost impassable condition and recommend that the County Commissioners have same straightened, graded and paved with paving brick.
We further find that the stairways of the Court House are so constructed as to be very difficult of ascent especially to aged and infirm people, and that a great many such people are compelled to attend Court and other business about the said Court House, and we therefore recommend that the County Commissioners cause an elevator to be constructed in said Court House from the basement to the top story.

Respectfully Submitted
April 3rd, 1903. Albert Adams, Foreman,

Lincoln J. Cook.

8164 Vs. Court of Common Pleas, Union County, Ohio.

Florence McDonald et. al. April, 4th, 1903.

This cause coming on to be heard upon the petition the answer of E.H. Porter, Guardian ad litem for the minor heirs and the evidence, the Court finds that all the defendants have had due legal notice of the pendency and demand of the said petition, and that with the exception of the above named Guardian they are in default for answer or demurrer, thereto,

Thereupon, the Court find, that the plaintiff, and the defendants hereto are tenants in common in the estate described in the petition; that the plaintiff is entitled to 2/7 part thereof, and that the defendants, Rollie D. Cook, Cassius C. Cook, and Henry R. Cook are entitled to the 1/7 part thereof; and that Senora Warner, Lincoln Warner, Burley Warner, and Pearl Warner are entitled to the 1/28 part thereof; and that Willie Lamb, Lillie May Lamb, and Earl Lamb are entitled to the 1/21 part thereof, And that the plaintiff is entitled to have partition of said estate made, as prayed for in his petition,

It is therefore ordered, adjudged, and decreed that partition of said estate be made in favor of all parties interested, and that Sylvanus Billville, Hugh E. Moore, and J. M. McCoy, three judicious and disinterested freeholders of the vicinity, are hereby appointed Commissioners to make the same,

And it is ordered that a writ of partition issue to the Sheriff of the County of Union, and State of Ohio, commanding him that by the oaths of the Commissioners above named he cause the above premises as described in plaintiffs petition to be appraised, sold, and to be divided to each of the above named parties the part or proportion of said estate to which they are severally above found entitled, and that Ben F. Warner and William F. Lamb be forever barred of their respective rights of dower therein,

And of this proceedings herein said Sheriff is ordered to make due return forthwith,

H.C. Hamilton
Vs. Court Common Pleas. Union County, Ohio.
8086 Emma V. Van Winkle, et.al. April 4th 1903.

On Motion of the Plaintiff, and on his proceedings the return of the Sheriff, of the sale made under the former order of this Court; and the Court, on careful examination of the proceedings of the said Sheriff, being satisfied that the same have been had in all respects in conformity to law and the order of this Court, it is ordered that the said proceedings and sale be, and they are hereby, approved and confirmed.

And it is further ordered that the said Sheriff convey to the purchaser, Horatio C. Hamilton by deed according to law, the property so sold, to-wit; as described in plaintiffs petition, and the said purchaser is hereby subrogated to all the rights of the said lienholders in said premises, so far as they may be paid herein, for the protection of his title, and a writ of possession is awarded to put said purchaser in possession of said premises.

And the Court coming now to distribute the proceeds of said sale, amounting to Fourteen Hundred and Sixty seven Dollars, it is ordered that the Sheriff, from said proceeds; in his hands pay

First: To the Treasurer of this County the taxes, penalty and interest against said property to-wit, the sum of One Hundred and Fifteen 62/100 Dollars.

Secondly: The costs of this action, taxed at One Hundred and Eleven 63/100 Dollars. (out of the remainder and out of the proceeds of sale of chattels)

Thirdly: To the Plaintiff, Horatio C. Hamilton the amount found due him with interest to-wit; the sum of Twenty ~~Two~~ Hundred and Forty-nine and 22/100 Dollars, less $329.78 received by plaintiff since this action was begun as a payment for loss by fire.

It is further ordered that the Sheriff out of any balance in his hands after the payment of the above amount found due plaintiff, and the costs and taxes, pay to the Standard Paper Co. upon its claim of $103.97 which by the judgment of this Court is found due it upon its answer and cross-petition filed herein.

James Reed-
Vs
8105 Joseph P. Martin Executor &c.

Court of Common Pleas Union County, Ohio.
April 9th, 1903.

This day came the parties herein; and also came the Jury heretofore impaneled and sworn in this case, and the trial proceeded. And the said Jury having heard all the testimony adduced in this case, the argument of Counsel, and the charge of the Court, retired to their room in charge of the Sheriff for deliberation. And now comes the Jury into open Court with their verdict in writing signed by their foreman and says:- We the Jury, being duly impaneled, sworn and affirmed, find the issues in this case in favor of the Plaintiff, and assess the amount due to the plaintiff from the defendant at the sum of Two Hundred and Fifty Dollars ($250.) Dated 4/9 1903.
J. J. Williams Foreman

The Jury in this action having on a former day of this term rendered a verdict for the plaintiff and assessed his damages at $250, and no motion for a new trial having been made;
It is therefore considered by the Court that the said Plaintiff recover from the said defendant, Joseph S. Martin as Executor of the estate of Elizabeth Reed deceased, the sum of $250, together with his costs herein expended.

Cary Rose and Frank Gast. Indictment for Arson &c.

Now comes the Prosecuting Attorney, on behalf of the State of Ohio, and the defendants Frank Gast, being brought into court in custody of the Sheriff, and arraigned upon said Indictment, for plea thereto, saith he is guilty, and is remanded to the custody of the Sheriff until sentence.

8154 Elizabeth Haines
vs.
Cyrus N. Haines et. als.

Court of Common Pleas, Union County, Ohio.
April, 10th, 1903.

And now this cause came on to be heard on the plaintiff's petition asking for the direction and judgment of the Court in construing certain parts of the Will of James D. Haines, the plaintiff being the widow of said testator, and asking for construction of said Will under the provisions of the Statutes in such case provided.

This cause being submitted to the Court upon the pleadings and evidence, on consideration whereof the Court being fully advised in the premises find that all parties in interest have been duly and legally notified of the filing and pendency of the petition and that they are now before the Court, to submit to the decision hereof.

The Court further finds from the evidence that the said Caspar A. Haines is the youngest son of said James D. Haines and that at the time said Will was made the said Caspar A. Haines was living at home, and that it was the intention of said James D. Haines to give to said Elizabeth Haines, his widow, and said Caspar A. Haines, the One Hundred Acres of land mentioned in the second item of said Will as an estate in fee simple, and that the words "during their lifetime" inserted therein after the grant of a fee simple estate, are repugnant to said grant and clearly against the manifest intention of said testator as shown by the tenor and scope of said Will, and that the said words "during their life time" should be and they are rejected, and the Court now declares the true intent and meaning of said Will was to give to the said Elizabeth Haines and the said Caspar A. Haines, a joint fee simple estate in the One Hundred Acres of land in the second item of said Will described.

And all the parties being before the Court, and there being no objection thereto, the Court further construe the true intent and meaning of the third item of said Will was to give to the said Cyrus N. Haines a fee simple estate in the lands described in the third item of said Will, subject to the reservations of timber and a road to the same, as expressed in said Will. And there being no objection thereto, the Court further construes the true intent and meaning of the fourth item of said Will, was to give to the said Sylvia J. Miller, a fee simple estate in the lands described in the said Fourth item.

It is therefore considered, ordered and decreed by the Court that the true construction and intention of said Will, be as follows:- That the said Elizabeth Haines and Caspar A. Haines have a fee simple estate in equal parts in the One Hundred Acres of land described in the second item of said Will. That said Cyrus N. Haines have a fee simple estate in the lands described in the third item of said Will, subject to the reservation of timber and roadway stated therein. That said Sylvia J. Miller has a fee simple estate in the lands described in the fourth item of said Will. It is further decreed by the Court that the cost of this proceeding be paid by the said Elizabeth Haines, Caspar A. Haines, Cyrus N. Haines and Sylvia J. Miller in equal parts.

1145 State of Ohio. vs. James Kline 2nd Susanna E. McGoron. Court of Common Pleas, Union County, Ohio. April 11th, 1903. Indictment for Burglary and Larceny.

Now comes the Prosecuting Attorney on behalf of the State of Ohio. and the defendant, Susanna McGoron, being brought into Court in custody of the Sheriff; Thereupon said defendant Susanna E. McGoron retracts her plea of not guilty heretofore entered and for plea to said Indictment, saith she is guilty as she stands charged in said Indictment. It is therefore ordered by the Court that the said defendant, Susanna E. McGoron, be imprisoned and confined in the Penitentiary of this State and kept at hard labor for without any solitary confinement for the period of one year; and that she pay the costs of this prosecution for which execution is awarded.

1145 State of Ohio vs. James Kline 2nd Susanna E. McGoron. Court of Common Pleas, Union County, Ohio. April 11th, 1903. Indictment for Burglary and Larceny.

Whereas at the present Stated Term of the Court of Common Pleas, begun and held at the Court House in the County of Union and State of Ohio, more than one person to wit: James Kline and Susanna E. McGoron were convicted and sentenced to imprisonment in the Penitentiary of this State, and the Court being of opinion that it is such an extraordinary case as requires the allowance of one Guard to assist the Sheriff in the transportation of said convicts to said Penitentiary, do allow said guard for the purpose aforesaid.

8164 Lincoln J. Cook
vs.
Florence McDonald et. al.

Court of Common Pleas, Union County, Ohio.
April, 14th, 1903.

This cause came on for hearing upon the return of the Sheriff and the report of the Commissioners heretofore appointed herein, and on the motion to confirm the same, And it appearing from said report that said estate could not be divided by metes and bounds without manifest injury to the value thereof, and the said Commissioners have made and returned their appraisement of the same at twenty three ($23.) Dollars per acre, the Court find that said return, and proceedings in all respects correct and in conformity to law and do therefore approve and confirm the same.

And it appearing to the Court that the said Lincoln J. Cook has elected to take the said premises at their appraised value, it is ordered by the Court, on good cause shown, that the proportion due the other parties be paid in cash (except that proportion due to the parties herein whose interest has been purchased by the said Lincoln J. Cook) and that upon the said Lincoln J. Cook paying the same together with his proportion of the costs of this case including Counsel fee of $35.00 to Milo S. Myers for his services herein, and his proportion of the taxes and penalty due on said premises, amounting to $, the said estate be, and it hereby is, adjudged, to him; and the Sheriff is ordered thereupon to make and execute to him conveyance thereof. 815

And the Court saying now to distribute the proceeds of said estate, it is ordered that the Sheriff, upon receiving the same, as above pay:-

First:- To the Treasurer of Union County $1.31 being the taxes and pedalty due on said premises.

Secondly: To the Clerk of the Court the costs of this action, including counsel fee, the sum of $62.30

Vs.
William Diehl et.al.

Court of Common Pleas, Union County, Ohio.
April, 27th, 1903

This day this cause came on to be heard upon the demurrer of the plaintiff, Alfred N. Kennedy to the answer and was argued by counsel and submitted to the Court upon the pleadings and the will of Alfred N. Morse and the Court being fully advised in the premises it is adjudged by the Court that said demurrer be and the same is hereby sustained. And the Court further considering the pleadings and especially the will of Alfred N. Morse find that the said Alfred N. Morse by his said will devised unto the plaintiff, Alfred N. Kennedy the real estate described in the plaintiff's petition as an estate in fee simple, absolute, without condition.
That the clause in said will "The lands not to be sold or conveyed out of the Kennedy family," is repugnant to the nature of the estate devised and is void.
And the Court further finds that the defendant William Diehl is in possession of an estate in fee simple, absolute, of the lands described in the plaintiffs petition. And neither party desiring to plead further, it is adjudged and decreed by the Court, that the plaintiff recover of the defendants said sum of $500 with interest thereon from the 2nd day of February, 1903, at 6% per annum, together with his costs in this behalf expended, taxed at $— for which execution is ordered.
And it is further ordered by the Court that unless the said Defendants, William Diehl and Mary Jane Diehl pay or cause to be paid said above adjudged sum of money to the plaintiff within 60 days from the date of the entry hereof an order of sale issue to the Sheriff for the time being of said County, commanding him as such said Sheriff, to cause said premises to be appraised, advertised and sold as upon execution. 115

Court of Common Pleas, Union County, Ohio.
April, 27th, 1903.

This cause came on this day to be heard upon the petition and evidence, and on consideration thereof the Court find that the plaintiff at the time of filing her petition had been a resident of the State of Ohio for one year next preceding the same, and was at that time a bona fide resident of this County of Union; and that the parties hereto were married as in said petition set forth.

The Court further find upon the evidence adduced that the defendant has been guilty of gross neglect of duty, and that by reason thereof the plaintiff is entitled to a divorce as prayed for.

It is therefor ordered and adjudged by the Court that the marriage contract heretofore existing between the said Anna M. Robinson and O. C. Robinson be and the same hereby is, dissolved and both parties are released from all obligations of the same. It is further ordered and adjudged that the defendant pay to the plaintiff as her reasonable alimony in money the sum of $300.00; and in default of payment of the same for three days, execution is allowed to issue therefor. It is further ordered that the plaintiff pay the costs of this action taxed to $—.

8180 In the matter of the application of The Presbyterian Church of Marysville, Ohio, by its Trustees, Robert S. Carroll, William G. Snodgrass, and Walter Reed, for Encumbrance of Real Estate,

Court of Common Pleas, Union County, Ohio.
April, 27th, 1903.

This day this cause came on to be heard on the petition and evidence and was submitted to the Court, Whereupon, the Court being fully advised in the premises and upon due consideration, find that due notice of this proceding has been given according to law, and that the allegations of the petition are true; that the object sought to be attained by this proceding is desired by said Church, and that it is right and proper that authority be given to accomplish the same.

Therefor the prayer of the petition is granted and the petitioners are hereby authorized to encumber by mortgage the real estate in the petition described in the said sum of Twenty Five Hundred Dollars ($2500.) for the said purpose of paying part of the indebtedness accrued in the erection of a new church building, and it is further ordered that said loan be made for one year and at a rate of interest not exceding Six (6) per cent per annum.

It is further ordered that said trustes report their proceedings to this Court upon the execution of this order of the Court.

Albert Adams, Executor &c,
Vs.
U. G. Kilbury et. al.

8172 Court of Common Pleas, Union County, Ohio.
April, 27th, 1903.

Now comes the plaintiff, by his Attorney, and the defendants, and each of them, being in default for answer and demurrer, the Court finds that the allegations of the petition are confessed by them, and each of them, to be true, And the Court further finds that there is due the plaintiff from the defendants, U. G. Kilbury, John T. Kilbury and H. H. Kilbury, on the promissory note set forth in the petition, with interest as stipulated in said note, to the first day of this term, the sum of $269,86, with interest at the rate of right per cent per annum from the first day of this term, together with his costs in this behalf expended taxed at $—, And it being made to appear to the Court that the defendant, U. G. Kilbury, signed the promissory note herein sued on as principal, and that the said defendants, John T. Kilbury and H. H. Kilbury signed the said promissory note as sureties for their said co-defendant, U. G. Kilbury, the Court finds that the said U. G. Kilbury is the principal debtor, and that the said John T. Kilbury and H. H. Kilbury are sureties in the above judgment; and it is ordered that execution issue in the premises accordingly,

Perry H. Wood
8179 Vs. Court of Common Pleas Union County, Ohio.
Addie Wood et. al. April, 27th, 1903.

Now comes the plaintiff, by his Attorney, J. F. Millar, and applies to the Court for the appointment of a guardian ad litem for the infant defendants herein; and it appearing to the Court that Maud Mulvain, Walter Wood, Gertie Wood, Myrtle Wood, and Howard Wood Thompson are such minor defendants, and that each and all of them have been duly served with summons herein; that more than twenty days have elapsed since the return day of the summons so served upon each and all of them, except in the case of said Howard Wood Thompson, who is under fourteen years of age; and that each and all of them have neglected to apply for the appointment of a guardian ad litem herein.

Now therefore James McCampbell is hereby appointed guardian for the suit for said minor defendants, and authorized and directed to defend their interests herein; and thereupon he duly accepted said appointment.

Perry H. Wood.
8179 Vs. Court of Common Pleas, Union County, Ohio,
Addie Wood et. al. April, 27th, 1903,

This cause came on to be heard on the plaintiff's petition, the answer of the minor defendants by their guardian ad litem, and the evidence, all the other defendants being in default for answer, although having been duly served with summons or having waived such service and having duly entered their appearance herein, The Court, upon due consideration thereof, finds that the allegations of the petition are true; that the defendant Addie Wood has a life estate in and is entitled to the immediate possession of seventy acres off the South end of the real estate described in the petition, subject to the conditions and to the rights and interests of the defendant Isabelle Wood as set out in the petition; that of the remainder of said real estate the plaintiff and the defendants John Wood, Joseph Wood, and Robert Wood are each legally entitled to the possession of the one seventh part thereof; that the defendants Archie Wood, Ernest Wood, Frank Wood, and Gertie Wood, Taylor, being the only heirs of William Wood, deceased, are jointly legally entitled to the possession of the one seventh part thereof; that the defendants Della Mulvain Mohn, Ella Mulvain Stultz, Minnie Mulvain Wilcox, and Maud Mulvain, being the only heirs of Martha Wood Mulvain, deceased, are entitled to the one seventh part thereof; and that the defendants, Walter Wood, Gertie Wood, Myrtle Wood and Howard Wood Thompson, being the only heirs of Albert Wood, deceased, are entitled to the one seventh part thereof; that each and all of the said parties have derived their title to the said real estate by the Will of one Bigham Wood, deceased; that by the terms of said Will it is directed that said real estate be divided among said parties in the manner and respective portions hereinbefore set forth, and that the plaintiff and the defendant Joseph Wood be assigned their shares next to lands that they now own, if they should so desire, and that the defendant Robert Wood shall have the right to locate his share.

It is therefore ordered that a writ of partition be issued to the Sheriff of said County of Union, commanding him that by the oaths of George Metzger, Marshall Elliott and William Styer, who are hereby appointed Commissioners for that purpose, he cause to be set off and divided in severalty to the said named parties respectively the portions of said real estate to which they are hereby respectively found to be entitled, locating the shares of the plaintiff and of the defendant, Joseph Wood, next to lands owned by them respectively, if they should so desire, and permitting the defendant Robert Wood to choose the location of his share, And of his proceedings said Sheriff is ordered to make due return forthwith.

8198 In the matter of the Will of John Edwards, deceased. Court of Common Pleas, Union County, Ohio. June 15th, 1903. 8193

Be it remembered that heretofore, towit, on the 11th day of May, A.D. 1903, an instrument of writing purporting to be the last Will and Testament of John Edwards, late of Dover Township in this County, deceased, was produced in the Probate Court of said Union County, Ohio, and offered for Probate, and was then filed. And it now being shown to the satisfaction of the Court that due notice of the filing of said Will and of the application to admit the same to Probate and Record in said Probate Court has been given to the widow and next of kin of the testator, resident of the State of Ohio, pursuant to a former order of said Probate Court, and John M. Brodrick the Probate Judge of this County, being one of the subscribing witnesses to said Will and having duly certified the hearing hereof into this Court as provided by Statute; thereupon on this day came Emory F. Sawyer and John M. Brodrick, the subscribing witnesses to said Will, who being duly sworn testified to the due execution and attestation of said Will, which testimony was reduced to writing, by them respectively subscribed, and filed with said Will, Thereupon the Court finds that the aforesaid instrument of writing is the last Will and Testament of said John Edwards, deceased; that the same was duly executed and attested, and that said testator at the time of making, signing and sealing the same was of full age, of sound mind and memory, and not under any restraint,

It is therefore, by the Court ordered, that the said Will be admitted to Probate, that a complete record be made of all the proceedings herein in the Probate Court of Union County, Ohio, and that the costs herein taxed at $— be paid by the Executor to be hereafter appointed within ten days, and that an execution is awarded therefor; and that a transcript of the findings and judgment of this Court, together with the original testimony of the witnesses, and the original Will and all other original papers pertaining thereto be certified to the said Probate Court of Union County, Ohio,

Myrtle Park,

8177 Vs. Court of Common Pleas, Union County, Ohio.

Carlos Park, June, 15th, 1903.

This cause coming on for hearing this 15th day of June, A.D. 1903, was submitted to the Court upon the petition and the evidence, the defendant being in default for answer or demurrer. On consideration whereof the Court finds that the defendant's residence is unknown and cannot with reasonable diligence be ascertained; that he has been duly served by publication herein; that more than six weeks have elapsed since the first publication of said notice; that the plaintiff at the time of filing her petition had been a resident of the State of Ohio for more than one year next preceding said date, and was at that time a bona fide resident of the County of Union; that the said parties hereto were married as in said petition set forth; and that one child only has been born of said marriage as in the petition alleged.

The Court further finds from the evidence adduced that the defendant has been guilty of willful absence from the defendant without cause for three years next preceding the date of filing her petition in this action, and that by reason thereof she is entitled to a divorce as therein prayed for.

It is therefore ordered and adjudged by the Court that the marriage contract heretofore existing between the said Myrtle Park and Carlos Park be, and the same hereby is, dissolved, and both parties are hereby released from the obligations of the same. It is further ordered that the care, custody, education and control, of the said child of the parties hereto be, until further order of Court, confided to plaintiff, said Myrtle Park exclusively.

It is further ordered that the plaintiff pay the costs of this proceeding for which execution is awarded.

George Gardner,

8185 Vs. Court of Common Pleas, Union County, Ohio.

Edith Gardner. June, 15th, 1903

This day this cause came on to be heard upon the petition of the plaintiff, and the Court being fully advised in the premises finds that the defendant has been willfully absent from the plaintiff for more than three years next preceding this action, and that the defendant has been duly notified of the pendency of this action by publication for six weeks in Marysville Tribune a newspaper of general circulation in the County.

It is therefore considered and adjudged by the Court that the plaintiff have a complete divorce from the defendant, each party released from the obligations thereof, and that the plaintiff pay the costs of this action.

8189 Harry H. Leeper.
Vs.
Lew D. Leeper et. al.

Court of Common Pleas, Union County, Ohio.
June, 15th, 1903.

It is ordered by the Court that J. F. Millar, Sr, and he is hereby appointed Guardian ad litem to the defendant, Lizzie M. Leeper named in the petition, and the said J. F. Millar appeared in open Court and accepts said appointment and filed his answer as such Guardian ad litem.

8189 Harry H. Leper
Vs.
Lew D. Leper et. al.

Court of Common Pleas, Union County, Ohio.
June, 15th, 1903

This cause came on to be heard upon the petition of Harry H. Leper, plaintiff, and the answer of the Guardian ad litem of Lizzie M. Leeper, infant defendant, and the exhibits, on consideration whereof, and it appearing to the satisfaction of the Court that all the parties have had due notice of the pendency and demand of the said petition as required by law, and that the petitioner has a legal right and estate in the premises described in the petition, and no sufficient reason appearing why partition should not be made, it is ordered that by the oaths of I. B. Harvey, Albert Martin and Wesley Rinehart, three judicious, disinterested freeholders of the vicinity (who are not of kin) one full and equal third (1/3) part of the lands in the said petition described be adjudged and set off to the said Ellen Leeper as her dower estate; and that by the like oaths of the same persons partition be made of said lands subject to said dower estate in the following proportions, towit:- To Harry H. Leeper, one equal fifth (1/5) part; To Anna L. Leeper one equal fifth (1/5) part; To Lew D. Leeper one equal fifth (1/5) part; To Orlow P. Leeper one equal fifth (1/5) part; To Lizzie M. Leeper one equal fifth (1/5) part, if the same can be done without manifest injury to the premises, and if in their opinion a division cannot be so made without manifest injury to the premises, then and in that case that they return the true value in money of said premises to the Court, both subject to and also free from the dower of the said Ellen Leeper, and that a writ of partition and dower issue to the Sheriff of this County commanding him to cause said dower to be assigned and said partition to be made in accordance with this order.

The Citizens Home and Savings Company.
Vs.
William A. Pope and Clara L. Pope.

8192 Court of Common Pleas, Union County, Ohio.
June, 15th, 1903.

This cause now coming on for hearing on the petition and the evidence, the Court find that the defendants have been duly served with summons in this case, and that they are in default for answer and demurrer, and that the allegations of the petition are thereby confessed by them to be true, and that there is due the plaintiff from the defendant, William A. Pope on the promissory note set forth in the petition with interest to the date of the decree the sum of $2159 37.

The Court further finds that in order to secure the payment of said note the defendants, William A. Pope and Clara L. Pope, his wife, executed and delivered to plaintiff their certain mortgage as in the petition described, and on the premises therein described, That said mortgage was duly recorded in Vol. 46 Page 399 & 400, of the records of mortgages of Union County, Ohio, and is a good and valid lien on the premises described in said petition, and that the conditions in said mortgage have been broken,

It is therefor considered, ordered and adjudged by the Court that the plaintiff recover from the defendant, William A. Pope the said sum of $2159.37 and its costs herein expended, and it is further adjudged and decreed that unless the defendants shall within three days from the entry of this decree pay or cause to be paid to the Clerk of this Court the costs of this case, and to the plaintiff herein the sum so found due as aforesaid, with interest from this date, the defendants equity of redemption be foreclosed and said premises be sold, and that an order of sale issue therefor to the Sheriff of Union County commanding him to appraise, advertise, and sell said premises as upon execution, and report his proceedings to this Court for further order.

Ada Riley.

8183 Vs. Court of Common Pleas, Union County, Ohio,

H. T. Riley. June, 15th, 1903,

Now came the plaintiff and the defendant having been duly served with summons and a copy of the petition herein, and having failed to appear, the Court find him in default for answer and demurrer to said petition, and find that the allegations thereof are confessed by him to be true,

The Court also find that the plaintiff at the time of filing her petition had been a resident of the State of Ohio for one year next preceding the same, and was a bona fide resident of this County of Union, and that the parties hereto were married as in said petition set forth, The Court further find upon the evidence adduced that the defendant has been guilty of gross neglect of duty and willful absence for three years last past, and that by reason thereof the plaintiff is entitled to a divorce as prayed for,

It is therfore ordered and adjudged by the Court that the marriage contract heretofore existing between the said Ada Riley and H. T. Riley be and the same hereby is dissolved and both parties are released from the obligations of the same, And the Court find that the plaintiff is the owner of the undivided one half interest in the following real estate situated in the Village of Richwood, County of Union, and State of Ohio, to-wit:—

Being Lots Nos. 242 and 266 in Marriott's addition to the said Village of Richwood, O, and that the same be restored to her divested of all and every claim, title, and interest by dower or otherwise of her said husband,

It is further ordered and adjudged that the said defendant pay the said plaintiff Fifty Dollars alimony, and that the same be paid into the hands of the Clerk of this Court within thirty days or execution issue therefor,

It is further ordered that the plaintiff be restored to her maiden name of Ada Cook,

7935 In the matter of the estate of Isaac Brodrick, Deceased. Court of Common Pleas, Union County, Ohio. June, 15th, 1903

This day R.S. Woodburn, Administrator of the estate of Isaac Brodrick, deceased, appeared in open Court and presented an account of the payments made, and of the delivery over to the persons entitled thereto, of the money and other property in his hands as required by the order of distribution heretofore made. Said account being proved to the satisfaction of the Court, and verified by the oath of said R.S. Woodburn; it is ordered that the same be and hereby is allowed as his final discharge. Said Administrator and his sureties are therefore forever exonerated from all liability under said order of distribution, unless his accounts be impeached for fraud or manifest error. It is further ordered that said account and this proceeding be recorded in the records of the Probate Court, and that said R.S. Woodburn pay the costs herein taxed at $ within ten days. Costs paid.

The Farmers Bank.

8111 Vs. Court of Common Pleas, Union County, Ohio.

C. L. Stout et. al. June, 15th, 1903.

This day this cause came on to be heard upon the answer and cross-petition of Church Bros. & Hild, and the evidence; on consideration whereof the Court find that all the defendants herein have entered their appearance to this action and are now in Court.

The Court further find that the defendant, C. L. Stout is indebted to the defendant Church Bros. & Hild on the promissory note set out in its answer and cross-petition with interest included to this 15th day of June, 1903, in the sum of $(64.50) Sixty-four and 50/100 Dollars.

The Court further find that in order to secure the payment of the promissory note set out in the answer and cross-petition, the defendant, C. L. Stout executed and delivered to the defendant, Church Bros. & Hild, the mortgage deed upon the real estate described in the answer and cross-petition; and that said mortgage was duly recorded in Vol. 56 Page 547 of the Record of Mortgages of Union County, Ohio; and is a good and valid lien on the premises described in said answer and cross-petition, and that the conditions in said mortgage have been broken,

It is therfore considered, adjudged and decreed by the Court that the defendant, Church Bros. & Hild recover from the defendant, C. L. Stout the said sum of $64.50 and its costs herein expended; and it is further ordered by the Court that unless the defendant, C. L. Stout, shall within three days from the entry of this decree pay or cause to be paid to the Clerk of this Court the costs of this action, and to the defendant, Church Bros & Hild, the sum so found due as aforesaid with interest from this 15th day of June, 1903, at 8%, the defendants equity of redemption be foreclosed, and said premises be sold, and that an order of sale issue therfor to the Sheriff of Union County, directing him to appraise, advertise and sell said premises as upon execution, and report his proceedings to this Court for further order,

Richardson & Dickinson,
Vs. Court of Common Pleas, Union County, Ohio.
No. 6069 C. H. Brooks et. al. June, 15th 1903

This day this cause came on to be heard upon the return of the Sheriff of the sale of the chattels and real estate made under the former order of this Court; and on motion to confirm the same; and the Court on careful examination of the proceedings of the said Sheriff, being satisfied that the same have been had in all respects in conformity to law and the order of this Court, it is ordered that the said proceedings and sale be, and they are hereby, approved and confirmed.

It is further ordered that a writ of possession be awarded to put the purchaser of the real estate sold by the Sheriff in this action in possession of said premises.

And the Court coming now to distribute the proceeds of said sale of chattels and real estate amounting to Ninety-two and 98/100 Dollars, It is ordered that the Sheriff out of the money in his hands pay:-

First:- The costs of this action taxed to Fifty-six and 95/100 Dollars;

Second:- The balance of the proceeds of said sale amounting to Thirty-six and 3/100 Dollars, to be applied on the plaintiffs claim including interest to this day of Eighty-one and 86/100 Dollars.

It is ordered that all matters, causes and motions now pending in this Court not otherwise disposed of, be, and the same hereby are continued to the next term thereof.

The present term of this Court was begun on the 30th day of March A.D. 1903, and continued from day to day and from time to time by regular adjournments until this 15th day of June, A.D. 1903, and is now adjourned without day.

8170 Vs. Court Common Pleas. Union County. Ohio.

Arthur Flesher. Sept. 14th. 1903.

This cause came on for hearing this 14th day of September, 1903. on plaintiffs application for leave of Court to file reply and upon her motion to require defendant to grant her an inspection of the receipt set out in his answer. The Court upon due consideration grants leave to plaintiff to reply instanter, and the same is accordingly filed: and the Court orders that the defendant forthwith place in the hands of his attorney, James E. Robinson, the said receipt. and that that the plaintiff be given the right to inspect the same.

H.V. Spicer.

8218 Vs. Court Common Pleas. Union County Ohio.

Elizabeth Mather. et.al. Sept. 14. 1903.

And now this cause coming on to be heard upon the petition and the evidence. the court find that all of the defendants have had due legal personal notice of the pendency and demand of the said petition, and that they are each in default for answer thereto. Thereupon, the Court further find that the plaintiff and the defendants hereafter named are tenants in common in the estate described in the petition: that the plaintiff. H.V. Spicer. has a legal right to the one-fourth thereof. the defendant. W.T. Hoops. a legal right to one-fourth part thereof. and. the defendant. Elizabeth Mather. a legal right to one-half thereof subject to the payment of the mortgage set forth in the said petition, to the Fahey's Banking Co. and that the plaintiff is entitled to have partition of said estate. as prayed in his petition. It is therefore ordered. adjudged. and decreed that partition of said estate be made, in favor of all parties in interest: and F. W. Simons, John Blair. and A. B. Conkright. three judicious and disinterested freeholders of the vicinity, are hereby appointed commissioners to make the same. And it is ordered that a writ of partition issue to the Sheriff of Union County, commanding him by the oaths of the commissioners above named he cause to be set off and divided. to each of the above named parties the part and proportion of said estate to which they are severally above found entitled.

and of his proceedings herein. said Sheriff is ordered to make due return.

Harry W. Leeper
8189. Vs. Court Common Pleas. Union County, Ohio.
Levi D. Leeper et.al. Sept, 14th 1903.

This cause came on for hearing upon the return of the Sheriff and the report of the commissioners heretofore appointed herein and on motion to confirm the same. and it appearing from said report. that said estate could not be divided by metes and bounds. and that dower could not be assigned in said premises by metes and bounds without injury to the value thereof. and that they have assigned dower to the said Barbara Ellen Leeper as of a third part of the rents issues and profits in the annual sum of Forty ($40) dollars during her natural life the same to be a charge upon said premises and have made and returned their appraisement of said estate subject to the dower of the said Barbara Ellen Leeper in the of $680.00 dollars and free from dower at the sum of $900.00 the Court find said return and proceedings in all respects correct. and in conformity to law, and do therefore approve and confirm the same. And it appearing to the Court that Harry W. Leeper. and Barbara Ellen Leeper has elected to take the said estate at its appraised value. Subject to said dower of Barbara Ellen Leeper and no one objecting thereto, and has paid to the Clerk of this Court the costs of this suit amounting to $62.28 including attorney fees - and to Harry W. Leeper $100.00 and to Barbara Ellen Leeper $100.00 debts of the estate heretofore paid by them respectively - and to the other parties herein their respective distributive shares as follows. To Harry W. Leeper $83.54 To Levi D. Leeper $83.54 To Orten P. Leeper $83.54 Anna L. Leeper $83.55 and to Barbara Ellen Leeper Guardian of Lizzie M. Leeper $83.55 And the said estate subject to the dower charge of Barbara Ellen Leeper is hereby adjudged to the said Harry W. Leeper and Barbara Ellen Leeper and the Sheriff is ordered to execute and deliver a deed to them therefore.

Charles S. Ward
William E. Rogers & Lizzie Rogers Sept. 14th, 1903.

This cause now coming on for hearing on the petition and the evidence the Court find that defendants William E. Rogers and Lizzie Rogers have been duly served with summons in this case and that they are in default for answer and demurrer, and that the obligations of the petition are hereby confessed by them to be true and that there is due the plaintiff from the defendants William E. Rogers and Lizzie Rogers. On the promissory note set forth in the petition with interest to the first day of this term the sum of $146,59 The Court further find that in order to secure the payment of said note the defendants William E. Rogers and Lyzzie Rogers his wife executed and delivered to the said Charles S. David the plaintiff their certain mortgage as in the petition described and on the premises therein described. That said mortgage was duly recorded in book 36 page 308 of the records of mortgages of Union County and is a good and valid lien on the premises described in the petition. And that the conditions in said mortgage has been broken.

It is therefore considered by the Court that the plaintiff recover from the defendants the said sum of $146.59, and his costs herein expended. And it is further adjudged and decreed that unless the defendants William E. Rogers & Lyzzie Rogers shall within five days from the entry of this decree, pay or cause to be paid to the Clerk of this Court the costs of this case and to the plaintiff herein the sum so found due as aforesaid with interest from the 14th day of September, 1903. The defendants equity of redemption be foreclosed and the said premises be sold and that and Order of Sale issue therefore to the Sheriff of said Union County directing him to appraise advertise and sell premises as upon execution, and report his proceedings to this Court for further order.

Report of Grand Jury.

To the Honorable Duncan Dow Judge of the Court of Common Pleas, Union County, Ohio
The Grand Jury of the Court of Common Pleas. of said County, of the Sept. Term, 1903. beg leave to report that they have been in session four days. and herewith return to the Court the Indictments presented by said Jury. We have carefully examined in all such matters as have legitimately come to our notice. having examined over 28 witnesses. covering Sixteen cases. and presented twelve bills, and ignored four cases considered by us. The business has been transacted in as expeditious a manner as possible.

During our session we visited the County Jail. examined its state and condition, and inquired into the discipline and treatment of the prisoners. and their habits. diet and accommodations. We find, and respectfully report to the Court, that the rules prescribed by the Judge have been faithfully kept and observed, and we do find that provisions of law for the regulations of County Jails have been violated Respectfully submitted Geo. M. Wilber. Foreman Sept. 17th. 1903.

8100. Cyrus Moore Vs. Fleetwood Courtright — Court Common Pleas, Union County, Ohio. Sept. 17th. 1903.

8218. H.V. Spicer Vs. Elizabeth Mather et.al. — Court Common Pleas, Union County, Ohio. Sept. 17th. 1903.

This cause came on for hearing upon the return of the Sheriff and the report of the Commissioners heretofore appointed herein, and on the motion to confirm the same. And it appearing from said report that said estate could not be divided by meles bounds without injury to the value thereof, and that said commissioners have made and returned their appraisement of said estate at $600 00 free of dower, the Court find the said return and proceedings in all respects correct and in conformity to law, and do therefore approve and confirm the same. And it appearing to the Court that the said H.V. Spicer have elected to take the said premises at their appraised value, and neither of the other parties electing to take it is ordered by the Court, on good cause shown, that the proportioner thereof due to the other parties be paid in cash, and that upon said H.V. Spicer, paying the same, together with his proportion of the costs of this case, including Counsel fee of $30 00 to W.T. Hoops and H.V. Spicer, for their services herein, and his proportion of the taxes and penalty due on said premises, Amounting in all to $8 40/100. the said estate be, and it hereby is adjudged to him:
And the Sheriff is ordered thereupon to make and execute to him in conveyance thereof. And the Court coming now to distribute the proceeds of said estate, it is ordered that the Sheriff, upon receiving the same, as above, pay:
First) To the Treasurer of Union County $8 00/100, being the taxes and penalty due on said premises.
Secondly) To the Clerk of this Court the costs of this action, including Counsel fee, the sum of $ Thirdly) To the Taby Banking Co, the sum of $350 00 and of the share of Elizabeth Mather as far as said Mather shall will pay the same and the remainder of said $350 00 after exhausting said Mather share to be paid equity out of the shares of the said H.V. Spicer & W.T. Hoops in equal parts, and the remainder of said $600 00 to be paid to the said Spicer & W.T. Hoops in equal parts. The title to said property to be and the same is hereby quested to all parties to this suit.

Vs. Court of Common Pleas, Union County, Ohio.
John Wesley Parmenter et. al, Sept. 30th, 1903. 8197

This day this cause came on for hearing on the petition of the plaintiff Thomas Emanuel Parmenter, an infant under 14 years of age by Joseph M. Kennedy, as next friend, and the evidence and was submitted to the Court; and the Court find that due and legal service has been obtained upon the defendants, John Wesley Parmenter by publication, and the Court finds that the defendant, John Wesley Parmenter was at the commencement of this action seized of the life estate and in the possession of the premises described in the petition being the undivided one half thereof, subject to the dower interest therein of Barbara Crotinger, the widow of one John Crotinger, deceased, being the lands devised to said John Wesley Parmenter by the last will and testament of John Crotinger, deceased, which said last will and testament was duly probated in the Probate Court of said County of Union, State of Ohio, on the 28th day of February, 1899, which said estate was duly settled in the Probate Court of said County. And the Court further finds that by the terms of said last will and testament that said John Wesley Parmenter was to have and to hold said real estate as and for his life estate therein, and to go to his heirs after said John Wesley Parmenter. 8176

The Court further find that the plaintiff, Thomas Emanuel Parmenter, an infant under 14 years of age is the son and only heir at law of said defendant, John Wesley Parmenter. The Court further finds that the said defendant, John Wesley Parmenter by the terms of said will of said John Crotinger, deceased, came into the possession of and is now in the possession of said real estate, and that he failed and refused to pay the tax thereon and permitted the same to become delinquent and was duly and properly placed by the Auditor of said County of Union on the delinquent tax list, and said lands were by said Auditor duly advertised and sold at delinquent tax sale on the 21st day of January, 1902, to Henry E. Coukright and that more than one year had elapsed since said sale of said lands by said Auditor of said County at delinquent tax sale, before the commencement of this action, That said defendant, John Wesley Parmenter has failed and refused to pay the amount of the purchase price of said lands at said sale, and the penalties thereon, or any part thereof, and that his right to do so, and his interest in said land by reason of said sale of said land for taxes, and failure to redeem the same ought to be, and the same are hereby adjudged to be forfeited, and the title and possession of the said John Wesley Parmenter to all and singular the premises in the petition described, hereby are decreed by the Court to be forfeited as to said defendant John Wesley Parmenter, and all persons claiming under him, and the Court do adjudge and decree that all the interest, right and title and possession of said premises belonging to said John W. Parmenter, are hereby vested in the said plaintiff, Thomas Emanuel Parmenter, an infant under fourteen years of age, as the only heir at law of the defendant, John Wesley Parmenter, And it was further ordered that the costs and expenses of this action and Attorney Fees of plaintiff, be and are a lien upon said premises, and this cause is continued as to all questions arising under the cross-petition of Henry E. Coubright, as to his tax lien on said premises.

8197 John Saughrey
Vs.
Melvina Saughrey

Court of Common Pleas, Union County, Ohio.
Sept. 30th, 1903.

This day this cause came on to be heard upon the pleadings and the evidence, on consideration thereof and the Court being fully advised in the premises finds that the plaintiff at the time of filing his petition was, and had been a bona fide resident of the State of Ohio, and the County of Union for one year next preceding the filing thereof; but finds that said plaintiff is not entitled to a divorce as prayed for therein, and the Court refuses the same to him, and the petition of plaintiff herein is dismissed. This cause came on further to be heard upon the cross-petition of the defendant for alimony, and upon consideration thereof the Court refuses same. It is therefor ordered by the Court that plaintiff pay the costs herein taxed at $—,

Court of Common Pleas, Union County Ohio.
Oct. 13th 1903.

This day comes the plaintiff and dismisses and discharges the attachment heretofore made in this cause, because the property taken by the officer was property that would be exempt from execution, plaintiff to pay the costs of attachment for which judgment is awarded, and the cause of action is continued.

8203 The State of Ohio, on relation of The Board of Education of Jerusburg Township, Union County, Ohio,
Vs.
Dwight Edwards, as Auditor of Union County, Ohio, and William King, O. M. Bell, Frank Beem, Harry Thomas, O. B. McClain and William Carroll.

Court of Common Pleas, Union County, Ohio.
Oct. 13th, 1903.

This day came the parties and submitted this cause to the Court upon the pleadings and the evidence; on consideration whereof the Court finds that at the February Term, A.D. 1903, of the Circuit Court of this County, in a case in Quo Warranto there pending in said Court entitled "The State of Ohio on relation of John M. Sheets Attorney General Vs. S. S. Drake and others", the said Circuit Court rendered the finding and decision, a true copy of which is set forth in the reply of the plaintiff herein to the answer of defendant Dwight Edwards, and that prior to the time of filing the petition herein, and before any tax levy was placed on the tax duplicate for the present year a certified copy of said decree was filed with said Auditor, and that he had actual notice of said decree. The Court further finds that subsequent to the rendering of said decree by the Circuit Court the defendants therein named filed a petition in error in the Supreme Court of this State to reverse said action and decision of the Circuit Court, and that the same is now pending in said Supreme Court, The Court further finds that on the 21st day of May, 1903, the said Supreme Court entered a stay of execution of ouster as set forth in the defendants answer, The Court further finds that in district No.— both Boards of education employed the same teacher and she is now teaching the school in said district, The Court further finds that in sub-district No.— the Boards employed different teachers, and were each willing to carry on the school in said district, but that the teacher employed by the relators is now teaching said school, and that the teacher employed by the special board, the defendants, is teaching in the Village of Magnetic Springs, under the employment of the defendants.
The Court further finds that the Auditor has entered the tax levy of ten mills made by the defendants upon the tax duplicate for collection covering all the territory mentioned in the special act referred to in the petition.
The Court finds as a matter of law that the act of the Supreme Court in granting stay of execution of ouster in said proceedings in the Supreme Court operated to continue said special board, and that the tax levy already entered on the tax duplicate is all that is authorized by law to be levied, and for that reason the levy made by the relators should not be entered. It is therefor considered and adjudged by the Court that the application for mandamus prayed for be refused, and this action dismissed at the costs of the plaintiff. to all of which findings and judgment of the Court the plaintiff then and there excepted, and having made its motion for a new trial herein the same is overruled by the Court, to which plaintiff excepted. It is ordered and adjudged by the Court that this action be and it is dismissed, and it is further adjudged that the defendants recover of the plaintiff their costs herein expended taxed to $—.

D. H. Ayers, Guardian &c.

7981 Vs. Court of Common Pleas, Union County, Ohio.

Eliza Webb et. al. Oct. 13" 1903.

This day came the parties by their Attorneys and waived a Jury and submitted this cause to the Court upon the pleadings and evidence. On consideration whereof the Court being fully advised in the premises finds in favor of the defendants, and that the plaintiff's ward, Don C. Black is not entitled to receive the sum of $600, or any other sum in lieu of advancement made to the defendants, for the reason that his father Benjamin Black in his life time received an advancement making him equal with the other children of said Mary Saughrey. It is therefor adjudged and decreed by the Court that the cost of this proceeding be paid by the said O. H. McAdow as Administrator of the estate of Mary Saughrey out of the funds of said estate, and that he distribute the balance of said fund to the plaintiff one sixth part thereof, and to the said Eliza Webb, Archibald Black, Eunice Stone, Mary Harter, and Anna Howard, each one sixth part thereof.

Ellen B. Bunn, Oct. 14th, 1903

Now came the plaintiffs and the defendant by their Attorneys and agreed to a settlement of this case, by which defendant is to pay plaintiffs in full settlement of their claim herein the sum of One Hundred Dollars; and defendant also to pay the costs of this action.

And said settlement having been approved by the Court, it is therefore adjudged by the Court that the plaintiffs recover of the defendant, the said sum of One Hundred Dollars, together with their costs herein expended taxed to $11.93, for which execution is awarded.

Sarah Scott

8196 Vs. Court of Common Pleas, Union County, Ohio.

John V. Scott. Oct. 14th, 1903.

Now came the plaintiff, and the defendant having been duly served with summons and a copy of the petition herein, and having failed to appear, the Court find him in default for answer and demurrer, and find that the allegations thereof are confessed by him to be true.

The Court also find that the plaintiff at the time of filing her petition had been a resident of the State of Ohio, for one year next preceding the same and was at that time a bona fide resident of this County of Union, and that the parties hereto were married as in said petition set forth.

The Court further find upon the evidence adduced that the defendant has been guilty of wilful absence, and that by reason thereof the plaintiff is entitled to a divorce as prayed for.

It is therefor ordered and adjudged by the Court that the marriage contract heretofore existing between the said Sarah Scott and John V. Scott be, and the same hereby is, dissolved, and both parties released from the obligations of the same, and that the plaintiff pay the costs in the case.

Vs.
Morris Parker. Court of Common Pleas, Union County, Ohio.
Oct. 15th, 1903.

This cause came on this day to be heard on the petition, the answer of the defendant and the evidence; and on consideration thereof the Court find that the plaintiff at the time of filing her petition had been a resident of the state of Ohio for one year next preceding the same, and was at that time a bona fide resident of this County of Union, and that the parties hereto were married as in said petition set forth, and that the defendant was legally served with summons and a copy of the petition. The Court further find upon the evidence adduced that the defendant has been guilty of habitual drunkenness, and that by reason thereof the plaintiff is entitled to a divorce as prayed for.
It is therefor ordered and adjudged by the Court that the marriage contract heretofore existing between the said Clara Dell Parker and Morris Parker be, and the same hereby is, dissolved, and both parties are released from the obligations of the same. And the Court find that the plaintiff is the owner of the following described real estate, towit:- Lot No. 662 in the Orin Bunn Addition to the Village of Richwood, Ohio, and the same is hereby restored to her divested of all and every claim, title and interest by curtesy or otherwise of her said husband.

Edwin H. Perkins, Admr &c.
Vs.
H. H. Merchant, Admr &c. Court of Common Pleas, Union County, Ohio
Oct. 24th, 1903.

This cause being heard on demurrer to defendants answer to the Amended Petition herein filed, it is considered and adjudged by the Court, that the said demurrer be, and the same is hereby sustained. And thereupon the said defendant not asking to plead further, and a jury having been waived, this cause was submitted to the Court upon the pleadings and the evidence as to the appointment of Perkins, as such Admr, no other evidence being introduced by plaintiff. Thereupon, on consideration thereof, the Court finds on the issues joined for the plaintiff, and finds that there is due and owing to said plaintiff, as Administrator of Lydia Ann Perkins, deceased, from the said defendant, as Administrator of the estate of Abner Liggett, deceased, the sum of Three Hundred and Fifty ($350) Dollars, with interest thereon at the rate of six per centum per annum from the 17th day of January A.D. 1901. It is therefor considered, ordered and adjudged by the Court that the said plaintiff recover from the said defendant as such Administrator, the said sum of $350.00, with interest thereon at the rate of six per centum per annum from the 17th day of January, A.D. 1901, so as aforesaid found due, together with his costs in this behalf expended taxed at $-. And to the findings, orders and judgments of the Court, in the premises the said defendant, by his Counsel at the time excepted.

Martha E. Liggett, Admr,
Vs,
The estate of Gideon Liggett, decd, et al.

Court of Common Pleas, Union County, Ohio.
Oct. 24th, 1903,

On this 24th day of October, 1903, this cause came on to be heard upon appeal from the order of the Probate of Union County disallowing the claim of said Martha E. Liggett, herein, and upon the issues joined between the parties as shown by the transcript and original papers transmitted from said Probate Court and filed herein, and by agreement of the parties a jury was waived and this cause submitted to the Court upon the evidence, and the Court being fully advised finds that said claim of said Martha E. Liggett is not a valid claim against said estate of Gideon Liggett, deceased, and the same is disallowed. It is further ordered that the costs herein be paid by the Sheriff out of the proceeds of the sale now remaining in his hands in the case of Charles A. Liggett Vs. Ida M. McKitrick et.al. and numbered 8065, to all of which finding, order and judgment the plaintiff then and there excepted and filed her motion for a new trial, which the Court overruled, and which ruling and decision is excepted to by plaintiff.

Chas. A. Liggett
Vs.
Ida M. McKitrick et.al.

Court of Common Pleas, Union County, Ohio,
Oct. 24th, 1903,

This day this cause came on to be heard upon the pleadings and the evidence, on consideration whereof the Court finds that all the defendants have had due legal notice of the pendency and demand of the petition filed herein; and also of the answer and cross-petition of Martha E. Liggett, widow of Gideon Liggett, deceased.
The Court further finds that there is due the said Martha E. Liggett, upon the claim set out in her amended answer the sum of Eleven Hundred and Twenty-five ($1125) Dollars.
It is therefore, ordered, adjudged and decreed that the Sheriff out of the proceeds of the real estate sold in his hands pay:-
First:- The additional costs in this case, together with the costs taxed in Case No. 8199, which is an action between the same parties,
Second:- The Widow's dower interest in the real estate sold amounting to the sum of $2726.65,
Third:- The amount found due Martha E. Liggett, upon the claim set out in her amended answer, to-wit, the sum of $1125,
Fourth:- To Martha E. Liggett, as Administrator, whatever sum the Probate Court shall certify to be necessary to pay the debts of the estate of Gideon Liggett, deceased,
Fifth:- The balance of said proceeds in said Sheriffs hands to the heirs of the said Gideon Liggett, in their proper proportions; to all which orders, judgments and decrees, except the order relating to the widow's dower, the plaintiff and defendants there and there excepted. And thereupon plaintiff by his Attorney gave written notice of his intention to appeal said cause to the Circuit Court, and the Court fixed the amount of the appeal bond at $300.

D. 1903,

The Farmers Bank.

8111 Vs. Court of Common Pleas, Union County, Ohio.

C. L. Stout et. al. Oct. 24th, 1903.

This day this cause came on for hearing on motion to confirm the sales made under the former order of this Court; and the Court on careful examination of the proceedings of the Sheriff, being satisfied that the same have been had in all respects in conformity to law and the orders of this Court, it is ordered that the said proceedings and sales be, and they are hereby, approved and confirmed. And it is further ordered that the said Sheriff convey to the purchasers, D. H. Ayers, and Church Bros. & Held, by deeds, according to law the property so sold; and the purchasers are hereby subrogated to all the rights of the said lien-holders in said premises, so far as they may be paid herein, for the protection of their title; and a writ of possession is awarded to the purchasers to put them in possession of said premises. And the Court coming now to distribute the proceeds of the sale to D. H. Ayers, amounting to Eighty Dollars, it is ordered that the Sheriff out of the money in his hands pay:-

First:- To the Treasurer of this County, one half of the taxes, penalty and interest against said property, to-wit, the sum of $2.36,

Second: all the costs of this action, except the cost made by Church Bros. & Held on their answer and cross-petition, amounting to $48.07,

Third:- To the plaintiff, The Farmers Bank, the balance of the proceeds in the said Sheriff's hands, amounting to $39.57, as a credit on plaintiff's claim of $64.64, leaving a balance still due to plaintiff of $35.07 for which execution is awarded against the said C. L. Stout, and D. H. Ayers, therefor.

And the Court coming now to distribute the proceeds of the sale to Church Bros. & Held, amounting to $75.00, it is ordered that the Sheriff out of the money in his hands pay:-

First:- To the Treasurer of this County, one half of the taxes, penalty and interest against said property, to-wit the sum of $2.36

Second:- The costs by Church Bros. and Held made in this action, taxed to $32.24,

Third:- To the defendant Church Bros. & Held, the balance of the proceeds in said Sheriff's hands amounting to $40.40, as a credit on their judgment and interest therein amounting to $66.11, and there still remaining due to said Church Bros. & Held the sum of $25.71, execution is awarded against the said C. L. Stout, therefor.

8156 I.C. Burn
Vs.
A. B. Moutross et al.

Court of Common Pleas, Union County, Ohio.
Oct. 24th, 1903.

All parties hereto having agreed that the defendant, John Burns is entitled to receive the sum of One Hundred and Twenty Dollars upon the claim set up in his cross-petition filed herein, the Court so finds and orders that the defendant, Jane Lake pay him said amount out of the money due upon her said contract with the defendant, Moutross, It is further agreed by and between the plaintiff and the defendants, A. B. Moutross and Jane Lake, that there will yet remain due from said Lake to said Moutross upon said contract the sum of Two Hundred and Sixty Dollars, which amount the said Moutross claims by right of exemption in lieu of a homestead; and the cause is now heard upon said claim, After due consideration of the facts as agreed upon in relation to said claim, and of the pleadings herein, and after hearing argument of counsel, the Court finds thereon in favor of the plaintiff. It is therefore ordered that the said Jane Lake pay the costs herein, out of the said Two Hundred and Sixty Dollars, towit, the sum of $—, and that she pay the balance thereof to the plaintiff; and it is accordingly adjudged that he recover from her said amount found due him and the costs aforesaid herein expended; to all of which findings, orders and judgments the said defendant, A. B. Moutross, duly excepts, and causes his exceptions to be herein noted,
