June 28, 1882. 5. o'clock. P.M. the defendants appeared in person and by their Attorneys Cole & Son. T.B. Benton appearing for the State.
James Paris Thomas Wharton, Wesley Newhouse, T.B. Benton, S.W. Bonnett, witnesses for the State, trial had. Chattle Mortgage and note introduced by state and the above-named witnesses sworn and examined, and thereupon on hearing the whole examination I discharged the said Mary Sandridge but it appearing that an offence had been committed and there is good reason to believe that the defendant Streater Sandridge is guilty of secreting said mortgaged personal property with intent to defraud said Mortgagee T.B. Benton. I therefore ordered the said defendant Streater Sandridge to enter into a recognizance in the sum of twenty-five dollars for his appearance at the Court of Common Pleas in and for said Union County Ohio. On the first day of the next term thereof, then and there to answer to the charge of wilfully and maliciously secreting one bay horse upon which there is a chattle mortgage, with intent to defraud the mortgagee. The State of Ohio vs John G. Cornell } No 415. Profane Swearing. August 14, 1884.

Complaint in writing upon oath signed by Charles Kuntz filed with me charging that John G. Cornell late of said County, on or about the 6th day of August 1884, at the County of Union, State of Ohio, being a person over 14 years of age, did curse and profanely swear by using the name of God in vain, I consider the complainant wholly responsible for costs and required him to procure some responsible security therefor, thereupon Chas Kuntz, was accepted as satisfactory security and entered into the following acknowledgment "Marysville, O. August 14, 1884, I hereby acknowledge myself security for costs in case the written complaint be dismissed by the magistrate or an indictment not found. C. Kuntz. Taken and acknowledged before me this 14th day of August 1884, J. H. Linkhart JP" This acknowledgment was taken on the back of the affidavit. August 14, 1884, Issued warrant against said John G. Cornell and delivered to Sam Bennett Constable to serve. August 16, 1884, warrant returned with body of defendant, Constable's return "I took the body of the written named John G. Cornell and have him before the justice Aug 16 1884 Sam Bennett Constable"

Aug 16 1884. The defendant being before me plead "not guilty" to the charge but not being ready for trial requested an adjournment for time to prepare, Thereupon trial adjourned to Wednesday next August 20th 1884, 10 o'clock AM, The defendant not offering any recognizance Mittimus issued and delivered to Sam Bennett, Constable for commitment of said John G. Cornell to Jail of County for safe keeping.
August 16, 1884, Mittimus returned indorsed "August 16 1884, I committed the within named John G. Cornell to the custody of the within named Jailer John T. Strusack with whom I left a certified copy of this writ. Sam Bennett Const, August 16, 1884, 10 o'clock P.M. Upon application for the release of said John G. Cornell upon recognizance, I issued an order upon the Jailer of the County for the delivery of said defendant to be brought before me to enter into recognizance and delivered said order to Sam Bennett Constable. August 16, 1884, Order returned Constable's return "August 16 1884 Received this order and served a copy of the same on the within Jailer, and now have the within named defendant before the Court Aug 18th 1884, Sam Bennett Cons't" Thereupon said John G. Cornell with Edmund Turner his surety approved by me entered into a recognizance before me for his appearance in the sum of $100 = at the time and place above named for trial, August 18 1884 Issued subpena for witnesses for the State towit Arthur Staley, Aaron Barnes, Charley Kountz, Alonzo Elliott, Tobias Beighbler, and George Parthemer.

August 20th 1884 the defendant appeared and waived an examination of witnesses to sustain the charge and submitted to be bound over without such examination. Thereupon I find said offense has been committed and there is cause to believe the defendant guilty thereof. Therefore I ordered him to enter into a recognizance in the sum of $50 - with sufficient sureties for his appearance at the next term of the Court of Common Pleas in and for Union County Ohio, which was accordingly done by John G. Connell and Edmund Turner his surety duly approved by me,
