The State of Ohio } Court of Common Pleas.
Union County SS } April Term A.D. 1846

The jurors of the Grand Jury, then and there being duly empannelled and sworn, in the name and by the authority of the State of Ohio, to inquire within and for the body of the County of Union aforesaid, upon their said oaths do present and find, that Catharine Grow, late of the county of Union aforesaid wickedly and Maliciously contriving and intending unjustly to aggrieve one Henry Kezartee: and him the said Henry Kezartee to subject to the punishments, pains, and penalties by the Laws of this State provided for persons guilty of an assault with intent to commit a rape, on the twenty seventh day of March, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and forty four, at the County aforesaid, came in her proper person before George W. Cherry, esquire, then and yet being one of the justices of the Peace, in and for the township of Paris, in the county of Union and State of Ohio, and then and there before the said George W. Cherry, in due form of Law was sworn, and took her corporal oath, in due form of Law upon the Holy Gospel of God, (he the said George W. Cherry then and there having a Lawful and competent power and authority to administer the said oath to the said Catharine Grow in that behalf); and that the said Catharine Grow being so sworn as aforesaid, not having the fear of God before her eyes, but being moved and seduced by the instigation of the devil, then and there, upon her oath aforesaid, before the said George W. Cherry, (the said George W. Cherry then and there having a Lawful and competent power and authority to administer the said oath to the said Catharine Grow in that behalf as aforesaid), upon a certain affidavit intituled, State of Ohio, Union County SS-- falsely, corruptly, knowingly, wilfully, and maliciously, did say, ~~and~~ depose, swear, and give information in writing, (amongst other things) in substance and to the effect following, that is to say - Catharine Grow (meaning the said Catharine Grow aforesaid) deposeth and saith that on or about the twenty fourth day of March one thousand eight hundred and forty four at the County of Union aforesaid, an unlawful assault was then and there made upon the person of her the said Catharine Grow with intent then and there to commit a rape upon the person of her the said Catharine Grow. And this deponent (meaning the said Catharine Grow) says that one Henry Kezartee is guilty of the fact charged; as in and by the said affidavit of the said Catharine Grow affixed with the said George W. Cherry, a Justice of the Peace as aforesaid, more fully and at large appears: Whereas, in truth and in fact the said Catharine Grow there was not on or about the twenty fourth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and forty four at the County of Union aforesaid, an unlawful assault then and there made upon the person of her the said Catharine Grow with intent then and there to commit a rape upon the person of her the said Catharine Grow by the said Henry Kezartee; And whereas in truth and in fact no assault was then and there made upon the person of the said Catharine Grow by the said Henry Kezartee; and whereas in truth, and in fact no assault whatever was made upon the person of the said Catharine Grow on or about the twenty fourth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and forty four, or at any other time at the County aforesaid by the said Henry Kezartee; And so the jurors aforesaid, upon their oaths aforesaid, do say, that the said Catharine Grow on the twenty seventh day of March, in the year last aforesaid, at the County aforesaid, before the said George W. Cherry (he the said George W. Cherry then and there having such power and authority as aforesaid,) by her own act and consent, and of her own most wicked and corrupt mind, in manner and form as aforesaid, falsely, wickedly, wilfully, and corruptly did commit wilful and corrupt perjury; to the great displeasure of Almighty God, to the evil and pernicious example of all others in the like case offending, against the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace and dignity of the State of Ohio

And the jurors aforesaid, empanneled and sworn as aforesaid, in the name and by the authority aforesaid, to inquire within and for the body of the County of Union aforesaid, upon their said oaths do further present and find, that afterwards, to wit, on the twenty seventh day of March in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and forty four aforesaid, at the County aforesaid, before the said George W. Cherry, a justice of the peace (and duly qualified as such) in and for the township of Paris and County of Union aforesaid, a certain inquiry being then and there pending, upon issue joined, wherein the State of Ohio was plaintiff, and one Henry Kegartee was defendant, on a certain complaint then and there instituted against the said Henry Kegartee, for an assault with intent to commit a rape upon the person of the aforesaid Catharine Grow; came on to be tried in due form of Law. And the jurors aforesaid upon their oaths aforesaid, do further present, that at the request of the said George W. Cherry, one James Turner another justice of the peace (and duly qualified as such) in and for the township and County aforesaid, then and there assisted the said George W. Cherry, on said trial, in the investigation of said complaint. And the jurors aforesaid, upon their oaths aforesaid, do further present, that the said complaint was then and there, (upon issue joined) inquired into in due form of Law, by the said George W. Cherry, assisted by the said James Turner, upon which said trial, the said Catharine Grow, late of the County of Union aforesaid, then and there appeared as a witness for and on behalf of the State of Ohio the plaintiff in the trial aforesaid, and was then and there duly sworn, and took her corporal oath in due form of Law, before the said George W. Cherry, and the said James Turner (so assisting as aforesaid) so being such justices of the peace as aforesaid. that the evidence which she, the said Catharine Grow, should give to the court there, touching the matter then in question between the said parties, should be the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth. (the said court then and there having sufficient and competent authority to administer the said oath to the said Catharine Grow, in that behalf) And the jurors aforesaid, upon their oaths aforesaid, do further present, that at and upon the said trial of the said issue so joined between the State of Ohio and the said Henry Kezartee as aforesaid, certain questions then and there became and were material - that is to say, whether the said Henry Kezartee assaulted the said Catharine Grow. Whether the said Henry Kezartee assaulted the said Catharine Grow with intent to commit a rape upon the person of her (the said Catharine Grow - whether she (the said Catharine Grow) had made any threats against the person or property of the said Henry Kezartee, previous to the commencement of the said prosecution then pending before said court. whether she (the said Catharine Grow) had conversed with one James C Harriott upon the subject of the said assault upon the person of her (the said Catharine Grow) previous to the commencement of the then pending prosecution. And the jurors aforesaid, upon their oaths aforesaid do further present, that the said Catharine Grow, being so sworn as aforesaid, not having the fear of God before her eyes, but being moved and seduced by the instigation of the devil and maliciously contriving and intending to pervert the due course of law and justice, and unjustly to aggrieve the said Henry Kezartee, the defendant in the said issue, and him the said Henry Kezartee to subject, to the punishments pains and penalties, by the laws of this State provided for persons guilty of an assault with intent to commit a rape, and to subject him to the payment of sundry heavy costs, charges, and expenses, then and there on the trial of the said issue, upon her oath aforesaid, falsely, corruptly, knowingly, wilfully and maliciously, before the said George W. Cherry and the said James Turner as aforesaid, did depose and swear (amongst other things) in substance, and to the effect following, that is to say— On last Sunday evening about dusk (meaning Sunday evening the twenty fourth day of March in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and forty four) I (meaning the said Catharine Grow) went out of Wards front door (meaning front door of the dwelling house of one James Ward in the county aforesaid) and pulled it (meaning said front door) so it Catched. Kegartee (meaning the said Henry Kegartee) ketched hold of me and said he would do it to me just as much as he was a mind to (thereby meaning that the said Henry Kegartee would carnally know the said Catharine Grow as much as he had a mind to forcibly and against the will of the said Catharine Grow). I (meaning the said Catharine Grow) had no conversation with James E. Harriott about it (meaning that the said Catharine Grow did not mention the said assault to the said James E. Harriott nor the said Harriott to her the said Catharine) I (meaning the said Catharine Grow) never made any threats neither against the person or the property of Kegartee (meaning the said Henry Kegartee): Whereas in truth and in fact the said Catharine Grow did not on the said evening of the twenty fourth day of March in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and forty four go out of the said Wards front door and pull it so it Catched: and Whereas in truth and in fact the said Henry Kegartee did not ketch hold of the said Catharine Grow and say he would do it to her just as much as he was a mind to. And whereas in truth and in fact the said Henry Kegartee did not on said Sunday evening say anything whatever to the said Catharine Grow: and whereas in truth and in fact the said Henry Kegartee did not ketch hold of the said Catharine Grow on said Sunday evening. And whereas in truth and in fact the said Catharine Grow did have a conversation with said James E. Harriott about said alleged assault. And Whereas in truth and in fact the said Catharine Grow did make threats against the person and property of the said Henry Kezartee: And so the jurors aforesaid upon their oaths aforesaid, do say, that the said Catharine Grow, on the twenty seventh day of March in the year last aforesaid, at the county of Union aforesaid, before the said George W. Cherry, and the said James Jurner assisting as aforesaid, (they the said George W Cherry and James Jurner having such power and authority as aforesaid,) by her own act and consent, and of her own most wicked and corrupt mind, in manner and form aforesaid, falsely, wickedly, wilfully, and corruptly did commit wilful and corrupt perjury; to the great displeasure of Almighty God, against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace and dignity of the State of Ohio.

And the jurors aforesaid, empannuled and sworn as aforesaid, by the authority aforesaid, upon their oaths aforesaid, do further present, and find, that afterwards, to wit, on said twenty seventh day of March, in the year aforesaid, at the county aforesaid, a certain trial was then and there had before the said George W Cherry, a Justice of the Peace in and for the township of Paris and County of Union aforesaid, wherein the State of Ohio was plaintiff and the said Henry Kezartee was defendant, on an information for an assault upon the person of the said Catharine Grow with intent to commit a rape, upon which trial, the said Catharine Grow then and there appeared, as a witness for and on behalf of the State of Ohio, the plaintiff in the trial aforesaid, and was then and there duly sworn, and took her corporal oath in due form of law as aforesaid, before the said George W. Cherry, so being such Justice as aforesaid, that the evidence which she the said Catharine Grow should give to the Court there, touching the matters then in question, should be the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, (the said Court then and there having sufficient and competent authority to administer said oath in that behalf,) and the jurors aforesaid, upon their oaths aforesaid, do further present, that at and upon said trial, it became and was a material question, whether the said Henry Kezartee assaulted and laid hold of the said Catharine Grow. And the jurors aforesaid, upon their oaths aforesaid do further present, that the said Catharine Grow being so sworn as aforesaid, not having the fear of God before her eyes, but being moved and seduced by the instigation of the devil, maliciously, and unjustly, contriving and intending to aggrieve the said Henry Kezartee, the defendant on said trial, upon her oath aforesaid, did falsely, wilfully, knowingly, and corruptly before the said George W. Cherry, a justice as aforesaid, did depose and swear (among other things) in substance and to the effect following, that is to say, On last Sunday evening (meaning the evening of the twenty fourth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and forty four aforesaid) Kezartee (meaning the said Henry Kezartee) caught hold of me (meaning the said Catharine Grow) at Wards door (meaning the dwelling house of the said James Ward at the County aforesaid) against my will. Whereas in truth and in fact, the said Henry Kezartee on said Sunday evening did not, ketch hold of her, the said Catharine Grow at said Ward,s door, against her will. And whereas in truth and in fact the said Henry Kezartee, did not on said evening ketch hold of the said Catharine Grow, in any manner whatever, and whereas in truth and in fact, the said Henry Kezartee, did not on said evening, assault the said Catharine Grow in any manner whatever. And so the jurors aforesaid, upon their oaths aforesaid, do say, that the said Catharine Grow, on the twenty seventh day of March, in the year last aforesaid, at the County aforesaid, before the said George W. Cherry, a Justice as aforesaid (the said George W. Cherry having such power and authority as aforesaid) by her own act and consent, and of her own most wicked and corrupt mind, in manner and form aforesaid, falsely, wilfully, knowingly and corruptly, did commit wilful and corrupt perjury; against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided and against the peace and dignity of the State of Ohio
