Nov 16th 1895, the plaintiff filed his bill of particulars, which is in substance as follows

Nov 30th 1870, at 9 o'clock A.M. the parties appeared, the defendant filed his bill of particulars, as follows, The defendant denies that he is indebted to the plaintiff in any sum, but says that the plaintiff and defendant entered into a contract in regard to the sale of the horses, mentioned in plaintiffs bill of particulars, which contract was as follows, the plaintiff was to find a buyer for said horses, and as his compensation was to have one half of any sum in excess of $400 after deducting all expenses,

The defendant says that after deducting said expenses, said horses were sold at $765. in excess of $400.00 Making the commission due the plaintiff $32.50, and defendant has overpaid him the sum of $2.50

Defendants says that after he had taken the contract to sell said horses, the plaintiff took them to drive, and was so negligent and reckless in driving them, that he caused them to become overheated, and sick and greatly injured their sale, and caused the plaintiff to have to pay out $10.00 for the services of a veterinary, and the damage to said horses so caused by plaintiffs negligence was at least $25.00 The defendant therefore asks Judgment against the plaintiff for the sum of $37.50 by reason of the facts herein stated.

Marion Taylor by
Cameron & Cameron atty.

At the request of the defendant, and by consent of the plaintiff, this cause is continued to the 20th day of December 1895, at one o'clock P.M. M. A. Rogers Witness for plaintiff was present and is entitled to fees,

Dec 20 1895, one o'clock P.M. the parties appeared and agreed to continue this cause to the 27th day of Dec 1895 at 9 o'clock A.M. at the defendants costs. It is therefore on said 20th day of Dec 1895 considered by Me, that this cause be continued to the 27th day of Dec 1895 at 9 o'clock A.M. and that the defendant pay the costs of continuance,

Dec 27 1895, 9 o'clock a.m. the time set for trial, the plaintiff appeared, the defendant failed to appear, at that hour, or for one hour thereafter. The plaintiff insisted on trial. Trial had, the plaintiff was sworn and examined, on the evidence I do find for the plaintiff on his bill of particulars in the sum of fifteen dollars.

It is therefore considered by Me, on said 27 day of December 1895, that the plaintiff John McKiterick recover from the defendant Marion Taylor the said sum of $15.00 and his costs herein taxed at $6.70

Received of plaintiff $6.70 for costs.

Jan 9 1896, Execution issued to John Newloor constable.

Jan 10 1896, Execution returned, for want of property wherein to levy.
