Before T. M. Walters, Probate Judge, in and for Lucas county, State of Ohio.

Cross- Examination of Dr. R. A. Wilson and J. S. Hare, witnesses, To the will of Elizabeth George, deceased.

Cross- examination made by J. E. Mc Kenny, attorney of Columbus Ohio, who is associated with J. Lawrence Porter, as attorneys for Zella Lawless, of Columbus Ohio, and Etta Brust of Milford Center, Ohio, both being daughters of Elizabeth George, the deceased. Dr. R. A. Wilson, being first duly sworn according to law, testified as follows:

Cross Examination by.

J. E. Mc Kenny.

Q. Did the testatrix request you to sign her last will and testament? A. I don't believe she requested it not in that many words. I went to see her, or was called to see her, on my second visit to her home, I told her daughter I did not believe her mother was going to live very long. The daughter said her mother wanted to make a will and wanted to know, if I, could bring an Attorney. I said I would, and I brought Mr. Hare. She had the will wrote and afterwards he read it to her and I signed it as a witness, she did not request it but she knew it had to be witnessed.

Q. Were you the attending physician at the time of her last illness? A. Yes sir. Q. Are you the family physician for Mrs Groseareth? A. Yes sir. Q. When was this will executed, the date and the time of day? A. some time in the forenoon along between ten and eleven o'clock I think. I do not remember the date sometime in December. Q. In December and the date of the will? A. In December and the date I do not remember. (December 15th) Q. What was her physical condition at the signing of that will? A. She was in bed and had been in bed for a couple of days. I talked to her and she answered my questions all right. Q. Did she suffer much pain? A. Practically none. Q. Was she under the influence

Testimony Cross. examination

10001 of a hypperdermic? A. I had not given her a hypodmic I made two or three visits bfore she was confined to her bd, I went to see her one after noon the following afternoon I did not see her, for two or three days. but she was not under the influence of a hypperdermic. Q. what was the nature of the disease? A. on my first visit she had tonsilitis. Had a Chill and high temperature. when I went back again I found her in bad shape, her temperature up to one hundred and three. three about three days after the will was signed, she was unconscious and died about twelve hours later. I attribute her death to cerebral hemorage. or apoplexy. Q. How long after she signed the will did she live? A. If I remember it was about three days. Q. were any other persons present when you signed the will as a witness. A. no sir. Q. was her daughter there? A. not in the room.
Q. who wrote the will if you know? A. Mr Hare. I presume I took him out for that purpose. Q. did not see him write it. Q. at whose request did you sign the Will? A. I witnessed the Will at Mr Harris request. Have to have a witness in the room when it is read and he asked me, if I would sign it?

Testimony cross. examination Q. Any statement made at the time the Will was signed by any other person than the testatrix? A. no one else in the room. Q. Do you know whether or not she could read or write? A. I do not know whether she could read or not. Her daughter told me, she never signed her name, that she always made her mark, I think Mrs Gwyn said she could not sign her name. Q. about what was her age? A. I would say about eighty. Q. what was the mental condition of Elizabeth Gwyn. at the time of signing her last Will and testament? A. I would say her mental condition was normal. I did not see any thing wrong, with her mind at all.
Q. Was the will read to her in your presence? A. yes. sir.
Q. Did you see her make her mark? A. yes sir.
Q. Did she touch the pen? A. she did. Q. She acknowledged this as her signature? A. yes sir.
Q. In your presence, did you hear her authorize any one to sign her name to the Will? A. No. sir.
Q. Was her mind in a condition that she could dispose of her property without the suggestions of influence of another? A. I think so. Q. Was she restrained or influenced in any manner when she executed her last Will and Testament? A. Not to my Knowledge.
J. S. Hale. being first duly sworn, according to law, testified as follows:

Cross-Examination by J.E. Mc Kenney.

Q. Did the testatrix request you to sign her last Will and testament, stating same to be such at the time of her request? A. She requested me to sign as a witness on my asking her if that was her last will and testament. I asked her if she requested Dr. Wilson to sign it as a witness and she said yes. I want Dr. Wilson to sign it. Q. When was the will executed? A. on the morning of the 15th day of December, 1902. Q. What was her physical condition at the time of signing of the Will? A. She was in bed. Q. Any person present besides yourself and Mrs. George? A. No body whatever. Q. Who gave you the information that was contained in the Will, Mrs. George or her daughter? A. I was informed by the daughter of requests that she had made and that she had said she wanted her will that way. then I went up and talked to her personally. I think in the presence of Dr. Wilson, as to how she wanted the will made, indicating who was wanted included in the will and the names of her children, also, indicating that she did not want two of her children to have anything. Q. The information embodied in the Will was first given to you by Mrs Grossarth? A. She was down stairs when I came in and said her mother wanted to make a Will. I asked her if she knew how she wanted the Will, and she told me, after I had asked her what her mother had informed her, then I went up and talked to Elizabeth George herself. Q. Did you suggest to her what her daughter had told you about the way she wanted the Will? A. I had stated some facts to her and she formally indicated to me just how she wanted it. Q. The same as Mrs. Grossarth had told you? A. Yes. I think with one exception. I think that was with reference to the executor. She indicated to me who the executor was to be. Q. Was Mrs. Grossarth present when the Will was read? A. She was not in the room when the Will was written or witnessed. Q. The Will was written in your hand writing? A. Yes sir. Q. She signed her name by a mark? A. Yes sir. Q. You wrote her name? A. I wrote her name and asked her if she acknowledged that to be her last Will and testament and she put her mark on there with a pen. Q. Do you know whether she could read or write? A. I asked her if she could, and she shook her head, no. Q. What was the mental condition of Elizabeth George at the signing of her last Will and testament? A. I would say sound to the extent that she realized the solemnity of her act. Q. Did you read the Will to her? A. Yes sir, and asked her if

Probate

In the Matter of the Will of Mary M. Perry, Deceased.

Be It Remembered, That heretofore, to wit: on the 12 day of May, 1924, an instrument of writing, purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Mary M. Perry late of Richwood, Blairmore Township, in this County deceased, was produced in open Court, and offered for probate and was then filed; and, it now being shown to the satisfaction of the Court, that due notice of the fixing of said Will, and, of the application to admit the same to probate and record in this Court, has been given to the next of kin, of the testator, resident of the State of Ohio, pursuant to a former order of this Court. And, it further appearing to the Court, that C. E. Hagan, one of the subscribing witnesses to said will, is deceased, Thereupon Carrie M. Kornbrek and Edna B. Hunsted appeared in open Court, and were duly sworn, and examined according to law, touching the genuineness of the signature of said C. E. Hagan attached to said Will. Thereupon this day Charles Arthur Flesher, the other subscribed witness to said will who having duly sworn, testified as to the execution of said will, which testimony was reduced to writing, by said witness respectively subscribed, and, filed with said Will.

Whereupon, the Court finds the aforesaid instrument of writing is the last Will and Testament of said Mary M. Perry, deceased; that the same was duly executed and attested; and, that the said Testator at the time of making, signing and sealing the same; was of full age, of sound mind and memory and not under any restraint. It is therefore by the Court ordered, that the said Will be admitted to Probate, and, that the same, together with the testimony of the witnesses thereunto, be entered of record in this Court. It is further ordered that the executors pay the costs herein taxed at $5.00

W. H. Husted Probate Judge.

Will.

Know all men by These Presents,

That I, William Stillings of Union Township, Union County Ohio, do hereby make, and publish this to be my last Will and Testament, hereby revoking all former Wills and Codicils by me made.

Item 1. I give and bequeath to my beloved wife Emily E. Stilling, all my household goods and furniture should she survive me, and if she should not survive me, then I direct that the same be sold by my Executor hereinafter named and the proceeds distributed among my children, or their heirs, in equal shares. Item 2. I give and devise to

Will my said wife Emily E. Stillings for and during the period of her life, the eighty (80) acre farm on which we reside in Union Township, Union County, Ohio, being 130 acres, conveyed to me by Thomas Stillings by deed recorded in Vol. #8. page 62. Deed Records of Union County, Ohio. Except 5-5- acres off the west side conveyed by me to my son, Charles Stillings, hereinafter referred to, and at the death of my said wife, I direct that my Executor sell the said 80 acres and distribute the proceeds thereof to my children, or their heirs, in equal shares. This provision, together with my life insurance, I consider a sufficient provision for my said wife's support, and it is given to her in lieu of her dower interest in my estate, and in lieu of her one years maintenance, or any other claim that she might have against my estate by reason of her being my widow.

Item 3. I direct that the appraisers of my estate appraise the two tracts of land deeded to me by my father, Thomas Stillings, by deed dated Jany. 5th 1909, recorded in Book 100 page 83. Deed Records of Union County, Ohio and being 147.50 acres in Survey 5726 in Union Township, Union County, Ohio, located South of the Urbana and Milford Outlet Pike, and 102 acres in Survey No 7736 located North of my home farm of 135 acres, which tracts are more particularly described in said deed, and which was conveyed to me by said deed, for life with remainder in fee to five of my children, to-wit: Estella Stillings Davis, (said deed describes 55 acres but 5 acres off the east side has been paid for by my said son Charles), and that, in the event said 50 acres is valued higher by said appraisement than the shares of each of my five children above named in said two tracts above mentioned, the difference be deducted from the share of my said son, Charles Stallings, in the distribution of my estate as herein after provided.

Item 4. I hereby direct that my Executor convert the property of my estate into money, including all real estate and personal property, and, that the proceeds thereof be distributed as follows:

1031⅛ said Children shall be deducted any amount that such a Child shall be indebted to me, upon promissory note, or otherwise at the time of my decease, regardless of any Statute of limitations which might Apply to same. Item 5. In case any one of my five Children, to-wit: Estella Davis, Carrie Lee, Nellie Kenny, John Stillings or Elizabeth Ferrel make any claim with reference to my having sold timber off of the two tracts above referred to as deeded to me, by my father for life with remainder to said Children So as to cause me in my lifetime, or my estate after my decease, to pay any sum on this account, it is my will and I hereby direct that any such sum be so paid to them be deducted from their distributive share of my estate as above divided, and distributed equal among all seven of my children. And, in case any of my children, or any of the beneficiaries under this Will, make any effort to contest this will and have the same set aside, in that event such child, or beneficiary shall be denied any share of my estate, and the share of such Child or beneficiary so contesting or attempting to set aside said Will be distributed among the others of my children not so attempting to contest said Will.
