Will

I, Christian F. Mayer, of Paris Township, Union County, Ohio, have been farming in partnership, with my son, Edward H. Mayer, upon the lands owned by myself and wife.

On January 20th 1925, we deeded the lands to said Edward H. Mayer, for the sum of $5000.⁰⁰ This includes my interest in said partnership.

This $5000.⁰⁰ is to be paid $1000.⁰⁰ in cash, evidenced by a promissory note, due one day after date. The balance, also a note, is to be paid as my wife and I may need it upon demand. Edward H. Mayer has also the right to prepay the principal, as he may desire, stopping interest upon amount paid. All secured by mortgage upon the lands with 5% interest.

This arrangement is to continue as long as either I or my wife live.

After the death of the survivor of us (my wife and I) whatever remains unpaid upon the note and mortgage, shall become due in one, two, and three years in equal payments. Whatever estate may be left after the death of both my wife and I, shall be equally divided among my 8 children or their representatives.

This they should be able to do among themselves. If necessary this instrument may be probated as my last will and testament.

Dated at Marysville, Ohio, January 20th 1925.

Signed by Christian F. Mayer, as and for his will in our presence January 20 - 1925.

Journal Entry: Orders on Hearing Admission to Probate? Record, Probate Court, Union County, Ohio.
March, 26th 1931.

Be it Remembered, that heretofore, to wit, on the 12. day of March, 1931, an instrument of writing purporting to be the Last Will and Testament of Samuel N. Robinson, late of Belair town Township, in this County, deceased, was produced in open Court and offered for probate and was then filed. And it now being shown to the satisfaction of the Court that due notice of the filing of said Will and of the application to admit the same to probate and record in this Court, has been given to the next of kin of the Testator, residents of the State of Ohio, pursuant to a former order of this Court,

Thereupon on this day came Robert Aller and Rachel Ransome the subscribing witnesses to said Will who being duly sworn, testified as to the execution and attestation of said Will: which testimony was reduced to writing by said witnesses respectively subscribed, and filed with said Will.

Whereupon the Court finds the aforesaid instrument of writing is the Last Will and Testament of Samuel N. Robinson deceased; that the same was duly executed and attested, and that the said Testator, at the time of making, signing and sealing the same was of full age, of sound mind and memory, and not under any restraint.

It is ordered that the objections and motion of Clarence P. Robinson to dismiss the application to probate be dismissed.

It is therefore by the Court ordered that the said
Will be admitted to Probate and that the same together with the testimony of the witnesses above named, be entered of record in this Court.
It is further ordered that Eymon Sanders Executor pay costs $ 21.⁸⁸

Objections and motion of Clarence P. Robinson, Son of Samuel N. Robinson.

In the Probate Court of Union County, Ohio.
In the matter of the application to probate a certain paper writing purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Samuel N. Robinson deceased.

Objection & Motion to dismiss application.

120 19

now comes Clarence P. Robinson a. son, and person having the next estate of inheritance from said Samuel R. Robinson, deceased, late of Union County, Ohio, and objects to the probate of a paper writing purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Samuel R. Robinson, deceased, for the reasons:

Objections

1. Said Samuel R. Robinson was an incompetent person and incompetent to execute a valid last Will and Testament at the time said alleged paper writing was executed.

2. at the time said purported paper writing purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Samuel R. Robinson was executed and for several years prior therefor, and thenceforth until his death, said Samuel R. Robinson was an incompetent person, and had been so declared by this Court, as an incompetent person and one Peola B. Cherry was his Guardian, and procured her said ward by undue influence to write his name to a paper writing now termed his last Will and Testament, while her said ward was under her domination, and, said paper writing is not the last Will and Testament of said Samuel R. Robinson, now deceased, and, said Samuel R. Robinson for the past two or more years, was and has been incompetent to make said alleged and purported Will or any Will and he was a ward of this Court, for that this Court has during that time appointed two Guardians for said Samuel R. Robinson.

3. Said paper writing is not the last Will and Testament of Samuel R. Robinson now deceased.

Wherefore, Clarence P. Robinson moves this Court to dismiss the application to probate said purported last Will and Testament.

Be it Remembered, that heretofore, to-wit, on the 4- day of May, 1931, an instrument of writing, purporting to be the Last Will and Testament of Sarah E. Thompson, late of Liberty Township in this County, deceased, was produced in open Court, and, offered for probate and was then filed. And, it now being shown to the satisfaction of the Court that due notice of the filing of said Will and, of the application to admit the same to probate and record in this Court, has been given to the widower and next of kin of the Testator resident of the State of Ohio, pursuant to a former order of this Court.

Wherefore, on this day, came, Lulu Wolford and Ovid Clark the subscribing witnesses to said Will: who being duly sworn, testified as to the execution and attestation of said Will: which testimony was reduced to writing, by said witnesses respectively subscribed, and filed with said Will.

Whereupon the Court finds the aforesaid instrument of writing is the Last Will and Testament of said Sarah E. Thompson, deceased: that the same was duly executed and attested: and, that the said Testator at the time of making, signing and sealing the same, was of full age, of sound mind and, memory, and not under any restraint.

It is therefore by the Court ordered, that the said Will be admitted to Probate, and, that the same, together with the testimony of the witnesses above named, be entered of record in this Court.

It is further ordered, that F. C. Walker pay the costs $ ⁵⁰/₁₀₀ (50¢) has since the date of the Will died.

Whereupon, Carrie W. Hornbush & Clara B. Busted appeared in open Court and were duly sworn and examined according to law touching the genuineness of the signature of said O. W. Thorp attached to said Will. Whereupon this day, came

In the Probate Court. Union County, Ohio.

Now comes Neil Ahlfred and represents to the Court that he is an agent of Elizabeth G. Wadsworth, trustee for the estate of William A. Wadsworth, who died an inhabitant of the County of Livingston, State of New York, leaving a last Will and Testament and certain codicils thereto; and therefore said last Will and Testament was duly admitted to probate in the said County of Livingston and State of New York; that said William Austin Wadsworth, deceased, left an estate in this County in trust to his widow, Elizabeth Greene Wadsworth, relative to certain property, securities and investments in this County, and that said Elizabeth Greene Wadsworth received letters of trusteeship of said last Will and Testament of said William Austin Wadsworth, deceased, and entered upon the discharge of her duties as such trustee, which letters of such trusteeship are still valid and in force; a certified copy of said letters are annexed to said Will.

Will The Last Will & Testament of William Austin Wadsworth of Genesee, New York.

I, William Austin Wadsworth, of the Town of Genesee, County of Livingston and State of New York, do make, publish, and declare this to be my last Will and Testament.

First: I direct my just debts, and funeral expenses, to be promptly paid, and if my death occur at such time and place as to make it reasonably convenient, I request that my earthly body, for which I have a certain fondness, be destroyed by fire in the Buffalo Crematory, or some similar institution, instead of by the uncleanly and repulsive practice of earth burial.

Second.

I devise my interest in the lot of land at the corner of Main and South Streets in the village of Genesee, to the body corporate known as the Trustees of the Wadsworth Library, organized under and pursuant to Chapter 262, of the Laws of 1869 of the State of New York, as a site for the Library Building mentioned in the next article of this Will, and for no other purpose.

Third: I give and bequeath to the said body corporate known as the "Trustees of the Wadsworth Library" the sum of seventy five thousand dollars, for the purpose of erecting a building to be known as the "Wadsworth Memorial Building" which building shall provide facilities for the present and future corporate purposes of said Library and the care and exhibition of such articles connected with the Wadsworth family as may be considered of historical interest, and the further sum of twenty five thousand dollars for the purpose of providing a fund for the care and maintenance of said building and its contents and the other corporate purposes of said body corporate.

Fourth:

I give and bequeath to my grandson Charles Wadsworth Murray, the son of my cousin Charles James Murray of Loch Carron, Ross-shire, Scotland, if he shall be living at the time of my death, the sum of thirty thousand dollars. I fix this sum of thirty thousand dollars, as my estimate of the net amount in money and land which I have received and am to receive, by reason of its having been decided by the Court of this State that the said Charles James Murray, because of his minority, was not entitled to any interest in that portion of the estate of James Wadsworth, late of Genesee, devised in and by his last Will and Testament dated the twenty-fifth day of November, One thousand Eight hundred and forty three, to certain trustees in trust for Martin Brimmer Jr. during his life time, with the remainder over as in said Will stated: ^{and} such estimate is to be taken as final whatever the amount received by me may ultimately prove to be.

Tenth:

I give, bequeath and devise to my wife Elizabeth Greene Bradnor, her heirs and assigns the house and lot and the appurtenances thereto belonging, situated in the city of Boston, State of Massachusetts, and known as Number 45 Beacon Street: also the household furniture, carpets, maps, books, pictures, ornaments, silver, linen, china, and all other personal property therein contained, and used in connection therewith: also all the horses, carriages, harnesses, and other stable equipment which form a part of my Boston establishment.

Eleventh:

all the rest, residue and remainder of the property, real, personal and of every kind and description and wherever situated, which I shall own at the time of my death, I give, devise and bequeath to my said wife In Trust, nevertheless, to collect and receive the rents, issues, profits and income thereof and apply the same as follows:

1. To pay over and apply to her own use, one half of such rents, issues, profits and income during her life time.

2. To apply out of the other half thereof to the support, maintenance and education of such of my children as shall from time to time be living (and under the age of 21 years so much as she or her executors or successors in the trust shall deem proper).

3. To pay to each of my children who shall from time to time be living and over the age of 21 years,
out of said last mentioned half of said rents, issues, profits, and income, so much as such child now have been entitled from time to time to receive had the whole of such last mentioned one-half been directed to be distributed in equal shares among all my children from time to time living.

4. To pay and apply to the use of the issue of any of my children who shall die during the continuance of said trust the same portion of said last mentioned one-half of said rents, issues, profits, and income which the parent nowed have been entitled to from time to time
if living:

5. To pay and apply from time to time to the use of my descendants from time to time living, per stirpes and not per capita; and in default at any time of such descendants then to the use of my brother Herbert Bradsworth, all of the rents, issues, profits and income of said rest, residue and remainder to which at the time of any such payment or application no other person shall be entitled under the foregoing provisions.

The said trust shall terminate upon the death of the survivor of my said wife and my brother Herbert unless any child of mine shall sooner attain the age of 20 years in which case the same shall then terminate.

Upon such termination of the said trust, I give devise and bequeath unto my said wife, if she shall then be living, an undivided half part of all the said rest, residue and remainder of my property, to have and to hold the same unto her for her own use, for and during her natural life; and subject to such life estate in favor of my said wife, I give devise and bequeath the whole of said rest, residue and remainder unto my descendants then living per stirpes, and not per capita; and in default of any such descendants of mine (meaning descendants of mine living at the termination of said trust) then unto my said brother Herbert Bradsworth, during his life or in case of his death to his children or if he should die without legal issue then surviving then to any male relation to whom he may assign it.

Sixth:

In the event that my said wife shall die in my lifetime, I direct that the provisions of the foregoing Sixth Article of this Will shall take effect as if her death had occurred immediately after mine.

Eighth:

The provisions hereinbefore made for my said wife Elizabeth Greene Bradsworth are in lieu of all dower or claim of dower on her part in the real estate of which I shall die seized.

Ninth:

I authorize and empower my said wife as trustee of the trusts herein created to retain as proper investments of my estate any securities or real estate of which my said estate may consist at the time of my death, and to continue to hold the same as such in her discretion; and in making investments at any time of the trust estate, or any part thereof, to select for that purpose such bonds or other securities as she may deem proper, without regard to the limitations or restrictions imposed by law upon investments by trustees, including stocks or mortgage bonds of any railroad corporation incorporated in this State, or elsewhere, hereby intending to confer upon her unrestricted power of management, and investment, and I direct that in case of securities passing to, taken, or purchased at a premium, she shall not be bound to set apart any portion of the income as a sinking fund to redeem, or amort such premium.

I further authorize and empower her as said trustee with respect to the shares of stock, bonds, scrip or other securities of any corporation which may at any time form a part of said trust estate, to consent to the merger, consolidation or re-organization of such corporation or corporations, and to make any surrender, exchange, or substitution of stock, bonds, scrip, or other securities, as an incident thereto and to surrender or exchange the same for any shares of stock, bonds, scrip or other securities issued in lieu thereof, or to retire the same under any plan or scheme other than a merger, consolidation or reorganization and generally to have and exercise as to all such matters the power of an individual owner who is under no trust obligation.

If my said wife shall die or resign as such trustee, or become in any way incapacitated from acting as such, I hereby appoint as trustees of said trust in her place, and stead William A. Brodie, of Geneva, New York, William M. Vaughan, of Boston, Massachusetts, and James W. Wadsworth Jr. (son of my cousin J. W. Wadsworth), and the survivor or survivors of them, and hereby confer upon them the same power and authority as such trustees as are herein conferred upon my said wife as such.

Tenth.

I direct that she shall not be required to give any inventory of that portion of my said residuary estate which shall consist of stocks, bonds, or any other kind of personal property, or any security for the return thereof, and I hereby confer upon my said wife as such tenant for life the same power and authority with respect to the management and investment of said estate as are herein conferred upon her as trustee thereof.

Eleventh:

I direct that any and all transfer, succession or legacy taxes that may be levied on my estate or income payable in respect of any legacy or other interest passing under this will be paid by my executors out of the principal of my residuary estate.

Twelfth:

I nominate and appoint William A. Bordie of Geneva, New York, and William W. Vanglen, of Boston Massachusetts, executors of this my last will and Testament, and I direct that neither of them shall be required to give any bond as such nor file any inventory of my estate, nor shall either of them or my said wife or said James W. Bradstreet Jr. be required to give any bond or security as a trustee hereunder.

I direct my said executors to turn over without sale or conversion to the trustee of my residuary estate such portion of the same as may at my decease consist of stocks bonds or any other kind of personal property, including the household furniture, carpets, rugs, pictures, ornaments, silver, linen, china, horses, carriages, harnesses and stable equipment, and all other personal property forming a part of and used in connection with my establishments in Geneva, New York, New York City, and Colvert Massachusetts.
