Last Will and Testament.

In the Name of the Benevolent Father of All.

I, Mary C. Davis, a resident of the Township of Jerome in the County of Union being of sound memory and a disposing mind do make and publish this my Last Will and Testament, hereby revoking all other Wills heretofore by me made.

Item 1: It is my desire that all of my just debts be paid out of my estate as soon after my decease as may be found practical.

Item 2: I give and bequeathe all of the residue of my estate on every description, both personal and real to my three children now living viz, Alva Pettet, Celia Bailey and Claude Pettet and to the heirs of my deceased Son William Pettet so that the entire estate be divided in four equal parts. It being my wish that the heirs of William take the share that he would have had if he had been living and that that his said share would equal one of the other three.

Last Will & Testament.

Item 3: I hereby nominate L. A. Davis as Executor of this my last Will and Testament.

In Testamony Whereof I, do hereto sign my name this 5th. day of August, of 1933.

Mary C. her X mark Davis.

The foregoing instrument was signed by Mary C. Davis this 5th. day of August 1933 and by her acknowledged to be her last Will and Testament and signed by us in her presence and in the presence of each other and at her request as witnesses thereof.

This matter came on this day further to be heard, on the application of Clayton E. Herriott to admit to probate and record the Will of Jennie E. Herriott deceased, late of the township of Jerome in said County, heretofore filed in this Court.

It is now shown to the satisfaction of the Court that said decedent died leaving no surviving spouse and Clayton E. Herriott all the next of kin of said decedent known to be resident of the State, has waived notice and given consent to the probate of said Will.

And C. B. Folkerth, 1750, Arlington Avenue; and Frank M. Item I. I direct that my just debts and funeral expenses be paid.

Item II. I do give and bequath to the Trustees of the old cemetery at Jerome, Union County, Ohio, in which my parents and a brother are buried, the sum of Five Hundred ($500.00) Dollars, to be known as the "Smith H. and Jennie E. Last Will & Testament.

Item III. I do give and bequath to the Trustees of the new cemetery at Plain City, Madison County, Ohio, in which my brother, Smith H. I also direct that they report annually to the body or organization they represent, stating the income and disbursements, and a list of securities in which the principal of said respective funds is invested.

Item VIII. I do give and bequeath to my friend, Almeda Johnson, my personal wearing apparel and my chiffonier and its contents.

I direct that he shall have full power, in his discretion, to sell any real or personal property, at such prices, to such persons and upon such terms as may to him seem wise, whether such sale be necessary or not for the payment of my debts and, pending the settlement of my estate, to lease any real estate, at his discretion, upon such terms as he may think best, collect the rents thereon and to execute leases, deeds, mortgages and any other instruments that may be necessary in the management of my affairs.

I also direct that he shall have full power and authority to settle and adjust any claims in favor of or against my estate.

Fred G. Avery, Administrator of the Estate of Ella Avery, Deceased, Plaintiff,

No. 10726
Petition for the Construction of Will.
Petition.

The Plaintiff represents that on the 26th. day of October, 1925, one William F. Avery died leaving a Will, which was duly admitted to probate by the Probate Court of Union County, Ohio, and on the 20th. day of March, 1926, Letters Testamentary were issued by said Court to Ella Avery and Fred G. Avery. Fred G. Avery is now the duly qualified and acting Executor of said estate. Ella Avery having died September 23rd. 1930.

That a copy of said Will, marked Exhibit A, is attached hereto and made a part hereof.

That the following defendants are the legatees and devisees named in said Will:-

Fred S. Avery - Marysville, Ohio.

That the following defendants claim to have an interest in said estate as creditors:- None.

The Plaintiff is in doubt as to the true construction of said will in the following particulars, and can not safely proceed without the direction of the Court:-

Until the Court makes a finding and order construing said will as to whether said Ella Avery took an estate in fee simple or life estate only under the provisions of said will.

The phraseology of said will gives to Ella Avery an estate in fee simple, but the Probate Court in administering the estate of said William T. Avery, considered and treated the holding of Ella Avery as a life estate only.

Taking the will as a whole, it is apparent that the testator intended to confer on his widow Ella Avery a life estate only.

It is necessary for the guidance of the Executor that there be a finding and order of this Court construing said will, that the estate given Ella Avery was a life estate only and not an estate in fee simple.

Plaintiff, therefore, prays the judgment and direction of the Court in regard to the true construction of said Will.

Fred S. Avery.

The State of Ohio, Union County, ss.

Fred S. Avery, the within named Plaintiff, being duly sworn says that the various matters and things set forth in said petition are true, to the best of his knowledge and belief.

Will.

I, John Harris, of Union Township, Union County, Ohio, being of sound and disposing mind and memory, do hereby make, publish and declare this my last Will and testament, hereby revoking all former Wills and codicils by me made.

Item 1. It is my will that all my just debts and funeral expences be paid.

Item 2. I give, devise and bequeath unto my beloved wife Mary Harris, during her natural life, all my estate, both real and personal. This provision for her to be in lieu of dower, years allowance and any and all other rights

Will.

13146 in my estate.

Item 3. I desire that during the lifetime of my said wife, my sons Walter P. Harris and Clarence D. Harris, shall continue to operate my farm the same as they have been doing in my lifetime, so as to provide for the care and support of my said wife as long as she shall live, and if necessary for her comfort and care, even the real estate may be sold. But probably the same operation of the farm as in the past with her in my stead will be sufficient for her.

Item 4. At the death of my said wife, I give, devise and bequeath all my real estate equally, share and share alike unto my sons Walter P. Harris and Clarence D. Harris, to them, their heirs and assigns forever.

Will. Item 5. I give and bequeath Five Thousand (5000) Dollars each, to my Grandsons Vaughn P. Hauser and Walter C. Hauser, when they respectively become 21 years of age, or sooner if necessary.

I have already placed in their names Government Bonds, of the face value of Three Hundred (300) Dollars each, this to be counted as a part of the legacy of $5000 above named for each of them.

I may also do something else for my Grandsons during my lifetime, if so, it is not to be charged against the legacy to them, unless I shall so specify in writing. But I would like, if my wife, and Executors would also help these Grandsons, or either of them, financially, if necessary, in getting an education, and this may be as an advancement to them and charged to their legacy.

Item 6. All the rest and residue of my estate, I give, devise and bequeath unto my said sons, Walter P. Harris and Clarence D. Harris, share and share alike, equally, to them, their heirs and assigns forever.

Item 7. I hereby nominate as Executors of this my last will and testament, my sons, Walter P. Harris and Clarence D. Harris, without bond.

In Testimony Whereof, I have hereunto affixed my name and signature at Maysville, Ohio, this 2nd. day of February, A. D. 1922.

John Harris.

The foregoing instrument was signed, acknowledged, published and declared by John Harris as and for his last will and testament in our presence and signed by us as witnesses at his request, in his presence and in the presence of each other, this 2nd. day of February, 1922.

Order admitting to Probate & Record.
(& Witness Dead, Etc.)

On the Matter of the Will of John Kreamer, Deceased.

This matter came on this day further to be heard, on the application of Rosa Kreamer to admit to probate and record the will of John Kreamer deceased, late of the Township of Union in said County, heretofore filed in this Court.

It is now shown to the satisfaction of the Court that said decedent died leaving Rosa Kreamer, surviving spouse, and that the surviving spouse and all the next of kin of said decedent known to be resident of the State have been duly served with notice of the filing of said will and of the application to admit it to probate and record in this Court, pursuant to a former order of this Court, or have waived notice and given consent to the probate of said will.

Order Admitting to Probate & Record.

And it further appearing to the Court that T. G. Reynolds and John A. Kennington, two of the subscribing witnesses to said will, are dead.

Thereupon Walter Howard and Eugene McConnell appeared in open Court, and they duly sworn and examined according to law touching the genuineness of the signatures of said T. G. Reynolds and John A. Kennington attached to said Will. Thereupon came J. L. Boylan, one of the subscribing witnesses to said will who was duly sworn and who then testified as to the execution and attestation of said will, which testimony was reduced to writing, was subscribed by them respectively, and was filed with said will.

Whereupon the Court finds that the aforesaid instrument of writing is the last will of said John Kreamer, deceased; that it was duly executed and attested; and that the said testator at the time of signing said will, was of full age, of sound mind and memory, and not under any restraint.

Therefore the Court orders the admitting of said will to probate, and that it, together with the said testimony of the witnesses above named, be entered of record in this Court.

13326 It is now shown to the satisfaction of the Court that said decedent died leaving Austin M. Courtenay surviving spouse and that the surviving spouse and all the next of kin of said decedent known to be resident of the State have been duly served with notice of the filing of said Will and of the application to admit it to probate and record in this Court, pursuant to a former order of this Court, or have waived notice and given consent to the probate of said Will.

And Florence G. Denton and Nettie Nulton, subscribing witnesses to said Will, this day appeared in open Court and having been duly sworn, testified respectively to the due execution and attestation of said Will, which testimony was reduced to writing, was subscribed by them respectively, and was filed with said Will.

Whereupon the Court finds that the aforesaid instrument of writing, is the Last Will and Testament of said Calista Mc Cabe Courtenay deceased; that it was duly executed and attested; and that the said testator at the time of signing said Will, was of full age, of sound mind and memory and not under any restraint.

Therefore the Court orders the admitting of said Will to probate, and that it, together with the said testimony of the witnesses above named, be entered of record in this Court.

In the Matter of The Last Will and Testament of Samuel A. Hoskins, Deceased.

Last Will and Testament of Samuel A. Hoskins, Columbus, Ohio.

I, Samuel A. Hoskins of the City of Columbus, County of Franklin, State of Ohio, being of sound mind and memory, do publish and declare this to be my last will and testament, hereby revoking all former wills by me heretofore made.

Item One: I hereby direct that all my just debts and funeral expenses be paid out of my estate as soon as practicable after my decease.

Item Two: I hereby give, devise and bequeath to my son, George B. Hoskins, and my daughter, Helen M. Hoskins, in equal parts, my undivided one-half interest in what is commonly known as the Hamilton Farm, situated in Claiborne Township, Union County, Ohio, the said farm containing a total of about three hundred (300) acres, being all the land in which I have a half interest, situated in said township, including the Village of Richwood, to be the property of the said George B. Hoskins, and Helen M. Hoskins, in equal parts, absolutely and in fee simple.

I also give, devise and bequeath to my said son, George B. Hoskins, and my daughter, Helen M. Hoskins, an undivided one-half interest in all chattel property which I may own at the time of my death, that may be on said farm, and used in connection therewith at the time of my decease, and I hereby place a valuation on said one-half interest in said farm and the undivided one-half interest in said chattel property of $12,000.00 and in the settlement of my estate the same shall be charged to said George B. Hoskins at $6000.00, and to my daughter, Helen M. Hoskins, $6000.00.

Item Three: I hereby give, devise and bequeath to my son, Donald J. Hoskins, the sum of Six Thousand Dollars ($6000.00). This bequest of $6000.00 is given to said Donald J. Hoskins to equalize the shares of my said children in said farm and said chattel property.

It is understood that the said Donald J. Hoskins, is already the owner of a one-half interest in said farm by virtue of the will of his Aunt, Marian G. Hamilton, deceased, the purpose of this will being to give Donald J. Hoskins, a one-half interest in all said chattels, and each of my other children a one-fourth interest, so that the ownership of the chattels shall be in the same proportions between them as the ownership of the land.

Item Four: Whereas I was married to my present wife, Roge M. Hoskins, on or about the 23rd. day of August, 1919, and whereas before entering into said marriage contract, and on the 18th. day of August, 13331 1919, I entered into a premuptial contract with my present wife, Rose M. Hoskins, which said premuptial contract is in the words and figures following, to-wit;

"This Article of Agreement, made and entered into this 18th. day of August, 1919, by and between Samuel A. Hoskins of Columbus, Ohio, and Rose McLean of Washington Courthouse, Ohio,

Witnesseth;

"That Whereas, the said Samuel A. Hoskins and Rose McLean have heretofore agreed to and are about to enter upon a marriage contract, and

Whereas each of said parties has certain separate property, both personal and real, and

Whereas both of the said parties desire to agree upon and enter into a contract affecting their said property, both personal and real, as related to their proposed married state;

Wherefore, the said Samuel A. Hoskins, for and on his own part, hereby covenants and agrees with the said Rose McLean and her heirs and assigns, that if he should outlive the said Rose McLean, then he hereby releases all claims of every nature, kind and description against any estate that the said Rose McLean may leave at her death. This covenant on his part is made so that the said Rose McLean shall be entirely free to dispose of all of her property, by will or otherwise, as she may deem best, without any claim upon the part of the said Samuel A. Hoskins if he should outlive the said Rose McLean. This covenant is intended to cover all the present property of the said Rose McLean, or any other form into which the said property may be converted during her said life. Should the said Rose McLean in her lifetime sell any of her real estate or change the form of her investments, then this release shall operate upon any form into which said investments may be changed.

It is the intention of this agreement that the said Rose McLean shall have all the rights concerning her property that she would have had, had she not entered into said marriage contract.

In the event the said Rose McLean should outlive the said Samuel A. Hoskins and should be left his widow, she, the said Rose McLean, hereby covenants and agrees as follows:

Whereas the said Samuel A. Hoskins has heretofore received from his deceased wife, Clara Hamilton Hoskins, certain property, both personal and real, and

Whereas, the said Samuel A. Hoskins has had children by the said Clara Hamilton Hoskins, and

Whereas it is the desire of both parties to this contract that the said Rose McLean should never make any claim to any of said property now owned by the said Samuel A. Hoskins, received through his deceased wife, Clara Hamilton Hoskins.

Therefore, the said Rose McLean hereby covenants and agrees that in the event of the prior death of the said Samuel A. Hoskins, she will make no claim whatever upon any property which the said Samuel A. Hoskins may have received from his deceased wife, Clara Hamilton Hoskins, and she hereby distinctly waives all right of dower and every other claim of every nature and kind against the said property devised by the said Clara Hamilton Hoskins to her said husband, Samuel A. Hoskins.

For the purpose of defining and finally settling what property of the said Samuel A. Hoskins is meant by this agreement, it is understood and agreed that the said property so received by the said Samuel A. Hoskins from Clara Hamilton Hoskins shall be construed as the undivided one-half interest in a farm of about three hundred (300) acres, situated in Claiborne Township, Union County, Ohio, and also the undivided one-half interest in a certain farm containing about two hundred fifty-five (255) acres situated in Jackson Township, Union County, Ohio.

It is further understood that all of said farm lands were not inherited by the said Clara Hamilton Hoskins from her father but that certain lands in Jackson Township, Union County, Ohio, containing about one hundred twenty-two and one-half (122½) acres, and also certain small lots adjacent to Richwood, Ohio, have been purchased since the death of George B. Hamilton, father of Clara Hamilton Hoskins.

As a further explanation of this contract, it is understood and agreed that the said Samuel A. Hoskins has also received from his said deceased wife, Clara Hamilton Hoskins, in addition to said lands, a sum of money, amounting to approximately seven thousand dollars ($7900.00) and for the purpose of defining all of the property in which the said Rose McLean shall not claim dower, it is understood that this release shall relate to all the farm lands above described located in Claiborne and Jackson Townships, Union County, Ohio, being all the lands now owned jointly by the said Samuel A. Hoskins and Marian G. Hamilton, including a certain sixty (60) acre tract of land recently purchased from Carrie Hamilton.

This release shall also relate to livestock and chattel property that may be located on said lands and used in connection therewith at the time of the death of the said Samuel A. Hoskins.

It is further understood and agreed that this release of dower and all other claims shall cover said lands and chattel property above described, no matter into what form the same may be converted. If any of the said lands or property should be sold, then this release shall apply to the proceeds of said sale or sales, or to an amount of money equivalent to such proceeds.

The said lands purchased since the death of George B. Hamilton, father of Clara Hamilton Hoskins, are included in said waiver of dower in lieu of the seven thousand dollars ($7000.00) in money received from the said Clara Hamilton Hoskins by Samuel A. Hoskins, so that the property to which said waiver of dower and claims relates shall include the above described joint property owned by the said Samuel A. Hoskins and Marian G. Hamilton, it being understood that the said chattel property on said land is also the joint property of the said parties.

It is further understood that the said Samuel A. Hoskins is the owner of certain other property which he has accumulated during his lifetime and the said Rose McLean does not hereby surrender her rights to the said property, except as hereinafter stated, if she should become the widow of the said Samuel A. Hoskins,

It is further understood that it is the mutual desire of both parties to this contract that the children and heirs-at-law of the said Samuel A. Hoskins shall ultimately be the sole beneficiaries of all property that he may leave at his decease.

It is, therefore, further agreed upon the part of the said Rose McLean that, in the event she should become the widow of the said Samuel A. Hoskins and shall receive property by way of dower, will or otherwise, out of the estate of the said Samuel A. Hoskins, she the said Rose McLean, hereby covenants and agrees at her death to give to the children or heirs-at-law of the said Samuel A. Hoskins all of the property, whether real or personal, that she may receive through the said Samuel A. Hoskins.

It is understood that the said Rose McLean may return said property to the children or heirs-at-law of the said Samuel A. Hoskins by will or otherwise, as she may deem best, but in the event that she should not make provision for returning said property by legal will, then the said money and property so received shall become a debt against the estate of the said Rose McLean and in favor of the children and heirs-at-law of the said Samuel A. Hoskins and the same shall become due at the time of the death of the said Rose McLean.

It is understood and agreed that in this contract no question of income shall be considered and that this contract applies to the principal of all money or property received by either party hereunder and has no application to the question of income from the property of either party, it being the intention of the said Samuel A. Hoskins that his proposed wife, Rose McLean, shall have the income from all property received from him and that she shall only be accountable to his children and heirs-at-law for the principal thereof.

It is further understood that this contract shall apply not only to property now owned by both parties to this contract, but to any property hereafter acquired or to any change in the form of investments made by either party.

Should the said Rose McLean, upon the death of the said Samuel A. Hoskins, receive the proceeds of any life insurance, then this contract shall apply to the principal of said life insurance, the same as if it were any other form of property.

The general intention and desire of both parties to this agreement is that they may live together during their joint lifetimes and enjoy as they may deem best the income and proceeds from any property owned by either of them, but that when both parties to this contract are dead then the purpose and intent is that the property of the said Rose McLean shall descend to her heirs-at-law or be disposed of by will or otherwise as she may deem best, and that the property of the said Samuel A. Hoskins, including all property received through him by the said Rose McLean, shall go to his children and heirs-at-law or be disposed of by will or otherwise as he may deem best.

In Testimony Whereof, the said Samuel A. Hoskins and the said Rose McLean have hereunto set their names, this, the day and year first above written.

Witnesses:

Hoskins, my children above named, their heirs and assigns, should receive from my said wife, Rose M. Hoskins, or her estate, all moneys and properties of every nature, kind and description which she should of receive from me at the time of my decease.

I desire in this, my last will, to express to my present wife, Rose M. Hoskins, my appreciation and gratitude for all she has done for me and my children, and for the very happy life we have lived together.

I also desire to express to my children my appreciation of the life they have lived and the character they have established, and to express the hope that they may always continue to live as honestly and uprightly as they have heretofore.

I hereby nominate and appoint George B. Hoskins and Donald J. Hoskins, as Executors of this my last will and testament, and direct that no bond be required of my said Executors by the Probate Court of Franklin County, Ohio.
