ADMINISTRATOR'S BOND.

KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS, That we John I. McCullough, Cyrus Zimmerman and Wm G. Snodgrass are held and firmly bound unto the State of Ohio, in the penal sum of Six Hundred dollars, to the payment of which we do hereby jointly and severally bind ourselves, our heirs, executors and administrators, if default be made in the conditions following:

WHEREAS, Letters of Administration upon the estate of William T. Robinson deceased, were granted to the said John I. McCullough by the Probate Court of Union County, in the State of Ohio, on the 10th day of August A. D. 1896

Now, if said John I McCullough as Administrator of the Estate of said William T. Robinson, deceased, shall:

FIRST, Make and return into Court, on oath, within three months, a true inventory of all moneys, goods, chattels, rights and credits of the deceased, which have, or shall come to his possession or knowledge: and, also, if required by the Court, an inventory of the real estate of the deceased.

SECOND, Shall administer according to law, all the moneys, goods, chattels, rights and credits of the said deceased, and the proceeds of all his real estate that may be sold for the payment of his debts, which shall at any time come to the possession of the Administrator or to the possession of any other person for him:

THIRD, Shall render, upon oath, a true account of his administration, within eighteen months, and at any other times when required by the Court or the law; and failing so to do for thirty days after he shall have been notified of the expiration of the time by the Probate Judge, he shall receive no allowance for services, unless the Court shall enter upon its journal that such delay was necessary and reasonable.

FOURTH, Shall pay any balance remaining in his hands upon the settlement of his accounts, to such persons as the Court or the law shall direct; and

FIFTH, Shall deliver the Letters of Administration into Court, in case any Will of the deceased shall be thereafter duly proved and allowed; then this obligation to be void; otherwise to remain in full force and effect.

ADMINISTRATOR'S BOND.

KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS, That we Maggie Fink & L. Longpaw and Burt Cahill are held and firmly bound unto the State of Ohio, in the penal sum of Four hundred and fifty dollars, to the payment of which we do hereby jointly and severally bind ourselves, our heirs, executors and administrators, if default be made in the conditions following:

WHEREAS, Letters of Administration upon the estate of Ford Fink deceased, were granted to the said Maggie Fink by the Probate Court of Union County, in the State of Ohio, on the 27th day of October A. D. 189 7

Now, if said Maggie Fink as Administratrix of the Estate of said Ford Fink, deceased, shall:

FIRST, Make and return into Court, on oath, within three months, a true inventory of all moneys, goods, chattels, rights and credits of the deceased, which have, or shall come to her possession or knowledge: and, also, if required by the Court, an inventory of the real estate of the deceased.

SECOND, Shall administer according to law, all the moneys, goods, chattels, rights and credits of the said deceased, and the proceeds of all her real estate that may be sold for the payment of her debts, which shall at any time come to the possession of the Administratrix or to the possession of any other person for her use.

THIRD, Shall render, upon oath, a true account of her administration, within eighteen months, and at any other times when required by the Court or the law; and failing so to do for thirty days after she shall have been notified of the expiration of the time by the Probate Judge, she shall receive no allowance for services, unless the Court shall enter upon its journal that such delay was necessary and reasonable.

FOURTH, Shall pay any balance remaining in her hands upon the settlement of her accounts, to such persons as the Court or the law shall direct; and

FIFTH, Shall deliver the Letters of Administration into Court, in case any Will of the deceased shall be thereafter duly proved and allowed; then this obligation to be void; otherwise to remain in full force and effect.

Signed by us and dated at Marysville, Ohio, this 27th day of October A. D. 189 7

Said Bond being in words and figures following, to-wit:

ADMINISTRATOR'S BOND.

KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS, That we Alva Canatta, Jane E Canatta, W. L. Sanders and H E Moore are held and firmly bound unto the State of Ohio, in the penal sum of One Thousand ($1000.00) dollars, to the payment of which we do hereby jointly and severally bind ourselves, our heirs, executors and administrators, if default be made in the conditions following:

WHEREAS, Letters of Administration upon the estate of Jesse S Canatta deceased, were granted to the said Alva Canatta by the Probate Court of Union County, in the State of Ohio, on the 4th day of July A. D. 1898

Now, if said Alva Canatta as Administrator of the Estate of said Jesse S Canatta, deceased, shall:

FIRST, Make and return into Court, on oath, within three months, a true inventory of all moneys, goods, chattels, rights and credits of the deceased, which have, or shall come to his possession or knowledge: and, also, if required by the Court, an inventory of the real estate of the deceased.

SECOND, Shall administer according to law, all the moneys, goods, chattels, rights and credits of the said deceased, and the proceeds of all his real estate that may be sold for the payment of his debts, which shall at any time come to the possession of the Administrator or to the possession of any other person for him:

THIRD, Shall render, upon oath, a true account of his administration, within eighteen months, and at any other times when required by the Court or the law; and failing so to do for thirty days after he shall have been notified of the expiration of the time by the Probate Judge, he shall receive no allowance for services, unless the Court shall enter upon its journal that such delay was necessary and reasonable.

FOURTH, Shall pay any balance remaining in his hands upon the settlement of his accounts, to such persons as the Court or the law shall direct; and

FIFTH, Shall deliver the Letters of Administration into Court, in case any Will of the deceased shall be thereafter duly proved and allowed; then this obligation to be void; otherwise to remain in full force and effect.

Probate Judge.

Said Bond being in words and figures following, to-wit:

ADMINISTRATOR'S BOND.

KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS, That we James L. Woods as principal and Bent Cahill and H.E. Conkright as sureties, are held and firmly bound unto the State of Ohio, in the penal sum of Fifteen Hundred dollars, to the payment of which we do hereby jointly and severally bind ourselves, our heirs, executors and administrators, if default be made in the conditions following:

WHEREAS, Letters of Administration upon the estate of Rebecca Woods deceased, were granted to the said James L. Woods by the Probate Court of Union County, in the State of Ohio, on the 20th day of March A. D. 1900

Now, if said the said James L. Woods as Administrator of the Estate of said Rebecca Woods, deceased, shall:

FIRST, Make and return into Court, on oath, within three months, a true inventory of all moneys, goods, chattels, rights and credits of the deceased, which have, or shall come to his possession or knowledge: and, also, if required by the Court, an inventory of the real estate of the deceased.

SECOND, Shall administer according to law, all the moneys, goods, chattels, rights and credits of the said deceased, and the proceeds of all his real estate that may be sold for the payment of his debts, which shall at any time come to the possession of the Administrator or to the possession of any other person for him.

THIRD, Shall render, upon oath, a true account of his administration, within eighteen months, and at any other times when required by the Court or the law; and failing so to do for thirty days after he shall have been notified of the expiration of the time by the Probate Judge, he shall receive no allowance for services, unless the Court shall enter upon its journal that such delay was necessary and reasonable.

FOURTH, Shall pay any balance remaining in his hands upon the settlement of his accounts, to such persons as the Court or the law shall direct; and

FIFTH, Shall deliver the Letters of Administration into Court, in case any Will of the deceased shall be thereafter duly proved and allowed; then this obligation to be void; otherwise to remain in full force and effect.

FIRST, Make and return into Court, on oath, within three months, a true inventory of all moneys, goods, chattels, rights and credits of the deceased, which have, or shall come to her possession or knowledge: and, also, if required by the Court, an inventory of the real estate of the deceased.

SECOND, Shall administer according to law, all the moneys, goods, chattels, rights and credits of the said deceased, and the proceeds of all his real estate that may be sold for the payment of his debts, which shall at any time come to the possession of the Administratrix or to the possession of any other person for her.

THIRD, Shall render, upon oath, a true account of her administration, within eighteen months, and at any other times when required by the Court or the law; and failing so to do for thirty days after she shall have been notified of the expiration of the time by the Probate Judge, she shall receive no allowance for services, unless the Court shall enter upon its journal that such delay was necessary and reasonable.

FOURTH. Shall pay any balance remaining in her hands upon the settlement of her accounts, to such persons as the Court or the law shall direct; and

FIFTH, Shall deliver the Letters of Administration into Court, in case any Will of the deceased shall be thereafter duly proved and allowed; then this obligation to be void; otherwise to remain in full force and effect.

FIRST, Make and return into Court, on oath, within three months, a true inventory of all moneys, goods, chattels, rights and credits of the deceased, which have, or shall come to her possession or knowledge: and, also, if required by the Court, an inventory of the real estate of the deceased.

SECOND, Shall administer according to law, all the moneys, goods, chattels, rights and credits of the said deceased, and the proceeds of all her real estate that may be sold for the payment of her debts, which shall at any time come to the possession of the Administratrix or to the possession of any other person for her.

THIRD, Shall render, upon oath, a true account of her administration, within eighteen months, and at any other times when required by the Court or the law; and failing so to do for thirty days after she shall have been notified of the expiration of the time by the Probate Judge, she shall receive no allowance for services, unless the Court shall enter upon its journal that such delay was necessary and reasonable.

FOURTH, Shall pay any balance remaining in her hands upon the settlement of her accounts, to such persons as the Court or the law shall direct; and,

FIFTH, Shall deliver the Letters of Administration into Court, in case any Will of the deceased shall be thereafter duly proved and allowed; then this obligation to be void; otherwise to remain in full force and effect.

WHEREAS, Letters of Administration upon the estate of William Cunningham deceased, were granted to the said John D. Jolliff by the Probate Court of Union County, in the State of Ohio, on the Third day of September A. D. 1894.

Now, if said John D. Jolliff as Administrator of the Estate of said William Cunningham, deceased, shall:

FIRST, Make and return into Court, on oath, within three months, a true inventory of all moneys, goods, chattels, rights and credits of the deceased, which have, or shall come to his possession or knowledge: and, also, if required by the Court, an inventory of the real estate of the deceased.

SECOND, Shall administer according to law, all the moneys, goods, chattels, rights and credits of the said deceased, and the proceeds of all his real estate that may be sold for the payment of his debts, which shall at any time come to the possession of the Administrator or to the possession of any other person for him;

THIRD, Shall render, upon oath, a true account of his administration, within eighteen months, and at any other times when required by the Court or the law; and failing so to do for thirty days after he shall have been notified of the expiration of the time by the Probate Judge, he shall receive no allowance for services, unless the Court shall enter upon its journal that such delay was necessary and reasonable.

FOURTH, Shall pay any balance remaining in his hands upon the settlement of his accounts, to such persons as the Court or the law shall direct; and,

FIFTH, Shall deliver the Letters of Administration into Court, in case any Will of the deceased shall be thereafter duly proved and allowed; then this obligation to be void; otherwise to remain in full force and effect.

ADMINISTRATOR'S BOND.

KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS, That we, John George Dellinger as principal and Martin Bunsold and Elizabeth Dellinger, as sureties, are held and firmly bound unto the State of Ohio, in the penal sum of Sixteen Thousand dollars, to the payment of which we do hereby jointly and severally bind ourselves, our heirs, executors and administrators, if default be made in the conditions following:

WHEREAS, Letters of Administration upon the estate of John Frederick Dellinger deceased, were granted to the said John L. Dellinger by the Probate Court of Union County, in the State of Ohio, on the 18th day of November A. D. 1901.

Now, if said John L. Dellinger as Administrator of the Estate of said John C. Dellinger, deceased, shall:

FIRST, Make and return into Court, on oath, within three months, a true inventory of all moneys, goods, chattels, rights and credits of the deceased, which have, or shall come to his possession or knowledge: and, also, if required by the Court, an inventory of the real estate of the deceased.

SECOND, Shall administer according to law, all the moneys, goods, chattels, rights and credits of the said deceased, and the proceeds of all his real estate that may be sold for the payment of his debts, which shall at any time come to the possession of the Administrator or to the possession of any other person for him;

THIRD, Shall render, upon oath, a true account of his administration, within eighteen months, and at any other times when required by the Court or the law; and failing so to do for thirty days after he shall have been notified of the expiration of the time by the Probate Judge, he shall receive no allowance for services, unless the Court shall enter upon its journal that such delay was necessary and reasonable.

FOURTH, Shall pay any balance remaining in his hands upon the settlement of his accounts, to such persons as the Court or the law shall direct; and,

FIFTH, Shall deliver the Letters of Administration into Court, in case any Will of the deceased shall be thereafter duly proved and allowed; then this obligation to be void; otherwise to remain in full force and effect.

Administrator's Bond.

Know All Men by These Presents, That we, Newton I Skidmore, Andrew J. Skidmore and D. H. Harrington, are held and firmly bound unto the State of Ohio, in the penal sum of One Thousand and Six Hundred Dollars, to the payment of which sum we do hereby jointly and severally bind ourselves, our heirs, executors and administrators if default be made in the condition following: Whereas, letters of administration upon the estate of Rachel Long deceased, were granted to the said Newton I. Skidmore by the Probate Court of Union County, in the State of Ohio, on the 23rd day of December A.D. 1902,

Now, if the said Newton I. Skidmore, as Administrator of the estate of said Rachel Long deceased, shall:

First, — Make and return into Court, on oath, within three months a true inventory of all moneys, goods, chattels, rights and credits of the deceased, which have or shall come to his possession or knowledge; and, also, if required by the Court, an inventory of the real estate of the deceased.

Second — Shall administer according to law, all the moneys, goods, chattels, rights and credits of the deceased, and the proceeds of all her real estate that may be sold for the payment of her debts, which shall at any time come to the possession of the administrator, or to the possession of any other person for him.

Third — Shall render upon oath, a true account of his administration, within eighteen months, and at any other times when required by the Court or the law, and failing so to do for thirty days after he shall have been notified of the expiration of the time by the Probate Judge, he shall receive no allowance for services, unless the Court shall enter upon its Journal that such delay was necessary and reasonable.

Fourth — Shall pay any balance remaining in his hands upon the settlement of his accounts to such persons as the Court or the law shall direct; and case any will of the deceased shall be thereafter duly proved and allowed; then this obligation to be void; otherwise to remain in full force and virtue in law.
