John M. Broderick Probate Judge.

Said Bond being in words and figures following, to-wit:

ADMINISTRATOR'S BOND.

Know all Men by these Presents, That we William E. Williams, Clinton Williams and T. E. Williams are held and firmly bound unto the State of Ohio, in the penal sum of One Thousand Dollars, to the payment of which sum we do hereby jointly and severally bind ourselves, our heirs, executors and administrators, if default be made in the condition following:

Whereas, Letters of Administration upon the estate of Mary Williams deceased, were granted to the said William E. Williams, by the Probate Court of Union County, in the State of Ohio, on the 28" day of March A. D. 1903

Now, if the said William E. Williams as Administrator of the Estate of said Mary Williams, deceased, shall:

FIRST—Make and return into Court, on oath, within three months, a true inventory of all moneys, goods, chattels, rights, and credits of the deceased, which have or shall come to his possession or knowledge; and, also, if required by the Court, an inventory of the Real Estate of the deceased.

SECOND—Shall administer according to law, all the moneys, goods, chattels, rights, and credits of the deceased, and the proceeds of all her Real Estate that may be sold for the payment of her debts, which shall at any time come to the possession of the Administrator, or to the possession of any other person for him

THIRD—Shall render, upon oath, a true account of his administration, within eighteen months, and at any other times when required by the Court or the law, and failing so to do for thirty days after he shall have been notified of the expiration of the time by the Probate Judge, he shall receive no allowance for services, unless the Court shall enter upon its journal that such delay was necessary and reasonable.

FOURTH—Shall pay any balance remaining in his hands upon the settlement of his accounts, to such persons as the Court or the law shall direct; and,

FIFTH—Shall deliver the Letters of Administration into Court, in case any will of the deceased shall be thereafter duly proved and allowed; then this obligation to be void; otherwise to remain in full force and virtue in law.

Signed by us and dated at Marysville, Ohio, this 28" day of March A. D. 1903

Executed in presence of

Carter that appraisement herein be dispensed with, until further order of the court, that this proceeding be recorded and that said Administrator pay the costs herein taxed at $

John A. McBrodrick, Probate Judge.

Said Bond being in words and figures following, to-wit:

ADMINISTRATOR'S BOND.

Know all Men by these Presents, That we William H. Carter as principal, and Morris H. Hill and A. E. Copper as sureties are held and firmly bound unto the State of Ohio, in the penal sum of Eight Hundred Dollars, to the payment of which sum we do hereby jointly and severally bind ourselves, our heirs, executors and administrators, if default be made in the condition following:

Whereas, Letters of Administration upon the estate of Sarah A. Carter, deceased, were granted to the said William H. Carter, by the Probate Court of Union County, in the State of Ohio, on the thirteenth day of July A. D. 1903.

Now, if the said William H. Carter as Administrator of the Estate of said Sarah A. Carter, deceased, shall:

FIRST—Make and return into Court, on oath, within three months, a true inventory of all moneys, goods, chattels, rights, and credits of the deceased, which have or shall come to his possession or knowledge; and, also, if required by the Court, an inventory of the Real Estate of the deceased.

SECOND—Shall administer according to law, all the moneys, goods, chattels, rights, and credits of the deceased, and the proceeds of all his Real Estate that may be sold for the payment of his debts, which shall at any time come to the possession of the Administrator or to the possession of any other person for him

THIRD—Shall render, upon oath, a true account of his administration, within eighteen months, and at any other times when required by the Court or the law, and failing so to do for thirty days after he shall have been notified of the expiration of the time by the Probate Judge, he shall receive no allowance for services, unless the Court shall enter upon its journal that such delay was necessary and reasonable.

FOURTH—Shall pay any balance remaining in his hands upon the settlement of his accounts, to such persons as the Court or the law shall direct; and,

FIFTH—Shall deliver the Letters of Administration into Court, in case any will of the deceased shall be thereafter duly proved and allowed; then this obligation to be void; otherwise to remain in full force and virtue in law.

Signed by us and dated at Marysville, Ohio, this 13" day of July A. D. 1903.

Executed in presence of

W. H. Carter
Morris H. Hill
A. E. Copper

This Bond approved in open Court, this 13" day of July 1903.

John A. McBrodrick Judge of the Probate Court.

And said Letters of Administration issued being in words and figures following, to-wit:

BE IT KNOWN, That by the Probate Court of said County, Administration of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, Rights, Credits and Estate, which were of Rose Anna Parsons, late of said County, deceased, has been granted unto John T. Millar whose duty it shall be to:

FIRST—Make and return into Court, on oath, within three months, a true inventory of all moneys, goods, chattels, rights, and credits of the deceased, which have or shall come to his possession or knowledge; and, also, if required by the Court, an inventory of the Real Estate of the deceased.

SECOND—Shall administer according to law, all the moneys, goods, chattels, rights, and credits of the deceased, and the proceeds of all his Real Estate that may be sold for the payment of her debts, which shall at any time come to the possession of the Administrator or to the possession of any other person for him.

THIRD—Shall render, upon oath, a true account of his administration, within eighteen months, and at any other times when required by the Court or the law, and failing so to do for thirty days after he shall have been notified of the expiration of the time by the Probate Judge, he shall receive no allowance for services, unless the Court shall enter upon its journal that such delay was necessary and reasonable.

FOURTH—Shall pay any balance remaining in his hands upon the settlement of his accounts, to such persons as the Court or the law shall direct; and,

FIFTH—Shall deliver the Letters of Administration into Court, in case any will of the deceased shall be thereafter duly proved and allowed.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto affixed my signature and the Seal of said Probate Court, at Marysville, Ohio, this 21st day of August, A. D. 1903

Ashbaugh as sureties are held and firmly bound unto the State of Ohio, in the penal sum of Eight Thousand Dollars, to the payment of which sum we do hereby jointly and severally bind ourselves, our heirs, executors and administrators, if default be made in the condition following:

Whereas, Letters of Administration upon the estate of Derrick B. Seely, deceased, were granted to the said Laurinda Seely by the Probate Court of Union County, in the State of Ohio, on the 26th day of September A. D. 1903.

Now, if the said Laurinda Seely as Administratrix of the Estate of said Derrick B. Seely, deceased, shall:

FIRST—Make and return into Court, on oath, within three months, a true inventory of all moneys, goods, chattels, rights, and credits of the deceased, which have or shall come to her possession or knowledge; and, also, if required by the Court, an inventory of the Real Estate of the deceased.

SECOND—Shall administer according to law, all the moneys, goods, chattels, rights, and credits of the deceased, and the proceeds of all his Real Estate that may be sold for the payment of his debts, which shall at any time come to the possession of the Administratrix or to the possession of any other person for her.

THIRD—Shall render, upon oath, a true account of her administration, within eighteen months, and at any other times when required by the Court or the law, and failing so to do for thirty days after She shall have been notified of the expiration of the time by the Probate Judge, She shall receive no allowance for services, unless the Court shall enter upon its journal that such delay was necessary and reasonable.

FOURTH—Shall pay any balance remaining in her hands upon the settlement of her accounts, to such persons as the Court or the law shall direct; and,

FIFTH—Shall deliver the Letters of Administration into Court, in case any will of the deceased shall be thereafter duly proved and allowed; then this obligation to be void; otherwise to remain in full force and virtue in law.

Signed by us and dated at Marysville, Ohio, this 26th day of September, A. D. 1903.

Executed in presence of

Laurinda Seely.
May Chapman.
E. L. Ashbaugh.

This Bond approved in open Court, this 26th day of September, 1903.

Know all Men by these Presents, That we Lena Rosenberg as principal, The United States Casualty Co. of Chicago, Ill. as surety, are held and firmly bound unto the State of Ohio, in the penal sum of Fourteen Thousand Dollars, to the payment of which sum we do hereby jointly and severally bind ourselves, our heirs, executors and administrators, if default be made in the condition following:

Whereas, Letters of Administration upon the estate of Jacob Rosenberg, deceased, were granted to the said Lena Rosenberg by the Probate Court of Union County, in the State of Ohio, on the 26" day of October, A. D. 1903.

Now, if the said Lena Rosenberg, as Administratrix of the Estate of said Jacob Rosenberg, deceased, shall:

FIRST—Make and return into Court, on oath, within three months, a true inventory of all moneys, goods, chattels, rights, and credits of the deceased, which have or shall come to her possession or knowledge; and, also, if required by the Court, an inventory of the Real Estate of the deceased.

SECOND—Shall administer according to law, all the moneys, goods, chattels, rights, and credits of the deceased, and the proceeds of all his Real Estate that may be sold for the payment of his debts, which shall at any time come to the possession of the Administratrix or to the possession of any other person for her.

THIRD—Shall render, upon oath, a true account of her administration, within eighteen months, and at any other times when required by the Court or the law, and failing so to do for thirty days after she shall have been notified of the expiration of the time by the Probate Judge, she shall receive no allowance for services, unless the Court shall enter upon its journal that such delay was necessary and reasonable.

FOURTH—Shall pay any balance remaining in her hands upon the settlement of her accounts, to such persons as the Court or the law shall direct; and,

FIFTH—Shall deliver the Letters of Administration into Court, in case any will of the deceased shall be thereafter duly proved and allowed; then this obligation to be void; otherwise to remain in full force and virtue in law.

Signed by us and dated at Marysville, Ohio, this 26" day of October, A. D. 1903.

John M. Brodrick, Probate Judge.

Said Bond being in words and figures following, to-wit:

ADMINISTRATOR'S BOND.

Know all Men by these Presents, That we George E. Whitney, as principal, and L. L. Chapman and James Mc. Campbell, as sureties, are held and firmly bound unto the State of Ohio, in the penal sum of Five Thousand Dollars, to the payment of which sum we do hereby jointly and severally bind ourselves, our heirs, executors and administrators, if default be made in the condition following:

Whereas, Letters of Administration upon the estate of Kate Whitney deceased, were granted to the said George E. Whitney by the Probate Court of Union County, in the State of Ohio, on the 2cd day of February A. D. 1904;

Now, if the said George E. Whitney as Administrator of the Estate of said Kate Whitney, deceased, shall:

FIRST—Make and return into Court, on oath, within three months, a true inventory of all moneys, goods, chattels, rights, and credits of the deceased, which have or shall come to his possession or knowledge; and, also, if required by the Court, an inventory of the Real Estate of the deceased.

SECOND—Shall administer according to law, all the moneys, goods, chattels, rights, and credits of the deceased, and the proceeds of all her Real Estate that may be sold for the payment of her debts, which shall at any time come to the possession of the Administrator or to the possession of any other person for him.

THIRD—Shall render, upon oath, a true account of his administration, within eighteen months, and at any other times when required by the Court or the law, and failing so to do for thirty days after he shall have been notified of the expiration of the time by the Probate Judge, he shall receive no allowance for services, unless the Court shall enter upon its journal that such delay was necessary and reasonable.

FOURTH—Shall pay any balance remaining in his hands upon the settlement of his accounts, to such persons as the Court or the law shall direct; and,

FIFTH—Shall deliver the Letters of Administration into Court, in case any will of the deceased shall be thereafter duly proved and allowed; then this obligation to be void; otherwise to remain in full force and virtue in law.

Signed by us and dated at Marysville, Ohio, this 2cd day of February A. D. 1904.

Executed in presence of

George E. Whitney
L. L. Chapman
James Mc Campbell

This Bond approved in open Court, this 2cd day of February 1904.

John M. Brodrick, Judge of the Probate Court.

And said Letters of Administration issued being in words and figures following, to-wit:

And on the 19th day of May 1905, the following Declination of Administration was filed in said Court in words and figures as follows, to-wit:

DECLINATION OF ADMINISTRATION.

In the matter of the Estate of George Harris, Deceased.

No. 6279 Probate Court, Union County, Ohio.

Declination.

To the Judge of the Probate Court of said County:

I ~~We~~, the undersigned, ~~husband~~ widow ~~and the next of kin~~ of said George Harris late of said County, deceased, ~~who are residents of said County~~ hereby voluntarily renounce the administration of said Estate, and recommend the appointment of John Harris as Adminstrator

Mary V. Harris, ~~Husband~~ Widow.

Dated this 18th day of May 1905

Thereupon the Court ordered as follows:

In the matter of the Estate of George Harris Deceased.

Probate Court, May 19, 1905

Appointment. Order for Bond.

This day John Harris appeared in open Court, and made and filed an application under oath as required by law to be appointed Administrator of the Estate of George Harris, late of Paris Township, Union County, Ohio, deceased, and an affidavit that their is not to his knowledge, any last Will and Testament of the alleged intestate, also a statement in general terms as to what the estate consists of and the probable value thereof; and the Court being satisfied that an Administrator should be appointed: and that said John Harris is a suitable person and legally competent; and Mary V. Harris widow of said George Harris, having filed herein her written declination and recommended the appointment of said John Harris, it is ordered that said John Harris be appointed as such Administrator, upon giving Bond with sureties as required by law, in the sum of Three Hundred Dollars, and this cause is continued.

It is therefore ordered that Letters of Administration issue to said Anna Horch, that this proceeding be recorded and that said Administratrix pay the costs herein taxed at $

Dudley E Thornton Probate Judge.

Said Bond being in words and figures following, to-wit:

ADMINISTRATOR'S BOND.

Know all Men by these Presents, That we Anna Horch and the Farmers County Company of New York are held and firmly bound unto the State of Ohio, in the penal sum of Four Thousand Dollars, to the payment of which sum we do hereby jointly and severally bind ourselves, our heirs, executors and administrators, if default be made in the condition following:

Whereas, Letters of Administration upon the estate of John Bandtle deceased, were granted to the said Anna Horch by the Probate Court of Union County, in the State of Ohio, on the 14th day of March A. D. 1906.

Now, if the said Anna Horch as Administratrix of the Estate of said John Bandtle, deceased, shall:

FIRST—Make and return into Court, on oath, within three months, a true inventory of all moneys, goods, chattels, rights, and credits of the deceased, which have or shall come to her possession or knowledge; and, also, if required by the Court, an inventory of the Real Estate of the deceased.

SECOND—Shall administer according to law, all the moneys, goods, chattels, rights, and credits of the deceased, and the proceeds of all her Real Estate that may be sold for the payment of her debts, which shall at any time come to the possession of the Administratrix or to the possession of any other person for her.

THIRD—Shall render, upon oath, a true account of her administration, within eighteen months, and at any other times when required by the Court or the law, and failing so to do for thirty days after she shall have been notified of the expiration of the time by the Probate Judge, she shall receive no allowance for services, unless the Court shall enter upon its journal that such delay was necessary and reasonable.

FOURTH—Shall pay any balance remaining in her hands upon the settlement of her accounts, to such persons as the Court or the law shall direct; and,

FIFTH—Shall deliver the Letters of Administration into Court, in case any will of the deceased shall be thereafter duly proved and allowed; then this obligation to be void; otherwise to remain in full force and virtue in law.

Appointment. Bond Approved. Letters Issued.

This day John W White appeared in open Court, accepted the appointment as Administrator of the estate of Rebecca J White deceased, and gave and filed herein his Bond in the sum of Twenty four Hundred Dollars, conditioned according to law, with Larson B Harry and L A Thompson freeholders as sureties, which Bond is approved by the Court. It is therefore ordered that Letters of Administration issue to said John W White , that this proceeding be recorded and that said Administrator pay the costs herein taxed at $ Dudley E Thornton, Probate Judge.

Said Bond being in words and figures following, to-wit:

ADMINISTRATOR'S BOND.

Know all Men by these Presents, That we John W White Larson B Harry and L A Thompson are held and firmly bound unto the State of Ohio, in the penal sum of Twenty-four Hundred Dollars, to the payment of which sum we do hereby jointly and severally bind ourselves, our heirs, executors and administrators, if default be made in the condition following:

Whereas, Letters of Administration upon the estate of Rebecca J White deceased, were granted to the said John W White by the Probate Court of Union County, in the State of Ohio, on the 28th day of April *A. D. 190*6

Now, if the said John W White as Administrator of the Estate of said Rebecca J White , deceased, shall:

FIRST—Make and return into Court, on oath, within three months, a true inventory of all moneys, goods, chattels, rights, and credits of the deceased, which have or shall come to his possession or knowledge; and, also, if required by the Court, an inventory of the Real Estate of the deceased.

SECOND—Shall administer according to law, all the moneys, goods, chattels, rights, and credits of the deceased, and the proceeds of all his Real Estate that may be sold for the payment of his debts, which shall at any time come to the possession of the Administrator or to the possession of any other person for him.

THIRD—Shall render, upon oath, a true account of his administration, within eighteen months, and at any other times when required by the Court or the law, and failing so to do for thirty days after he shall have been notified of the expiration of the time by the Probate Judge, he shall receive no allowance for services, unless the Court shall enter upon its journal that such delay was necessary and reasonable.

FOURTH—Shall pay any balance remaining in his hands upon the settlement of his accounts, to such persons as the Court or the law shall direct; and,

FIFTH—Shall deliver the Letters of Administration into Court, in case any will of the deceased shall be thereafter duly proved and allowed; then this obligation to be void; otherwise to remain in full force and virtue in law.

Signed by us and dated at Marysville, Ohio, this 28th day of April *A. D. 190*6

Executed in presence of

This day Elbert E Sherwood appeared in open Court, accepted the appointment as Administrator of the estate of Hester A Sherwood deceased, and gave and filed herein his Bond in the sum of Two Thousand Dollars, conditioned according to law, with Owen E Sherwood and Abbie M Pence freeholders as sureties, which Bond is approved by the Court. It is therefore ordered that Letters of Administration issue to said Elbert E Sherwood, that this proceeding be recorded and that said Administrator pay the costs herein taxed at $

Dudley E Thornton Probate Judge.

Said Bond being in words and figures following, to-wit:

ADMINISTRATOR'S BOND.

Know all Men by these Presents, That we Elbert E Sherwood, Owen E Sherwood and Abbie M Pence are held and firmly bound unto the State of Ohio, in the penal sum of Two Thousand Dollars, to the payment of which sum we do hereby jointly and severally bind ourselves, our heirs, executors and administrators, if default be made in the condition following:

Whereas, Letters of Administration upon the estate of Hester A Sherwood deceased, were granted to the said Elbert E Sherwood by the Probate Court of Union County, in the State of Ohio, on the 5th day of March A. D. 1907

Now, if the said Elbert E. Sherwood as Administrator of the Estate of said Hester A Sherwood, deceased, shall:

FIRST—Make and return into Court, on oath, within three months, a true inventory of all moneys, goods, chattels, rights, and credits of the deceased, which have or shall come to his possession or knowledge; and, also, if required by the Court, an inventory of the Real Estate of the deceased.

SECOND—Shall administer according to law, all the moneys, goods, chattels, rights, and credits of the deceased, and the proceeds of all her Real Estate that may be sold for the payment of her debts, which shall at any time come to the possession of the Administrator or to the possession of any other person for him.

THIRD—Shall render, upon oath, a true account of his administration, within eighteen months, and at any other times when required by the Court or the law, and failing so to do for thirty days after he shall have been notified of the expiration of the time by the Probate Judge, he shall receive no allowance for services, unless the Court shall enter upon its journal that such delay was necessary and reasonable.

FOURTH—Shall pay any balance remaining in his hands upon the settlement of his accounts, to such persons as the Court or the law shall direct; and,

FIFTH—Shall deliver the Letters of Administration into Court, in case any will of the deceased shall be thereafter duly proved and allowed; then this obligation to be void, otherwise to remain in full force and virtue in law.

Signed by us and dated at Marysville, Ohio, this 5 day of March A. D. 1907

Executed in presence of

Know all Men by these Presents, That we J. C. Elliott, N. L. Sanders and H. C. Moore are held and firmly bound unto the State of Ohio, in the penal sum of Eight Hundred Dollars, to the payment of which sum we do hereby jointly and severally bind ourselves, our heirs, executors and administrators, if default be made in the condition following:

Whereas, Letters of Administration upon the estate of William H. Kezerter deceased, were granted to the said J. C. Elliott by the Probate Court of Union County, in the State of Ohio, on the 19th day of December A. D. 1908

Now, if the said J. C. Elliott as Administrator of the Estate of said William H. Kezerter, deceased, shall:

FIRST—Make and return into Court, on oath, within three months, a true inventory of all moneys, goods, chattels, rights, and credits of the deceased, which have or shall come to his possession or knowledge; and, also, if required by the Court, an inventory of the Real Estate of the deceased.

SECOND—Shall administer according to law, all the moneys, goods, chattels, rights, and credits of the deceased, and the proceeds of all his Real Estate that may be sold for the payment of his debts, which shall at any time come to the possession of the Administrator or to the possession of any other person for him.

THIRD—Shall render, upon oath, a true account of his administration, within eighteen months, and at any other times when required by the Court or the law, and failing so to do for thirty days after he shall have been notified of the expiration of the time by the Probate Judge, he shall receive no allowance for services, unless the Court shall enter upon its journal that such delay was necessary and reasonable.

FOURTH—Shall pay any balance remaining in his hands upon the settlement of his accounts, to such persons as the Court or the law shall direct; and,

FIFTH—Shall deliver the Letters of Administration into Court, in case any will of the deceased shall be thereafter duly proved and allowed; then this obligation to be void; otherwise to remain in full force and virtue in law.

Signed by us and dated at Marysville, Ohio, this 19 day of December A. D. 1908

Executed in presence of

FIRST—Make and return into Court, on oath, within three months, a true inventory of all moneys, goods, chattels, rights, and credits of the deceased, which have or shall come to his possession or knowledge; and, also, if required by the Court, an inventory of the Real Estate of the deceased.

SECOND—Shall administer according to law, all the moneys, goods, chattels, rights, and credits of the deceased, and the proceeds of all his Real Estate that may be sold for the payment of his debts, which shall at any time come to the possession of the Administrator or to the possession of any other person for him.

THIRD—Shall render, upon oath, a true account of his administration, within eighteen months, and at any other times when required by the Court or the law, and failing so to do for thirty days after he shall have been notified of the expiration of the time by the Probate Judge, he shall receive no allowance for services, unless the Court shall enter upon its journal that such delay was necessary and reasonable.

FOURTH—Shall pay any balance remaining in his hands upon the settlement of his accounts, to such persons as the Court or the law shall direct; and,

FIFTH—Shall deliver the Letters of Administration into Court, in case any will of the deceased shall be thereafter duly proved and allowed; then this obligation to be void; otherwise to remain in full force and virtue in law.

This day William J. Wolfert appeared in open Court, accepted the appointment as Administrator of the estate of Rhoda N. Wolfert deceased, and gave and filed herein his Bond in the sum of $2,000.00 Dollars, conditioned according to law, with The United States and Fidelity & Guaranty Co. freeholders as sureties, which Bond is approved by the Court. It is therefore ordered that Letters of Administration issue to said William J. Wolfert, that this proceeding be recorded and that said Administrator pay the costs herein taxed at $ —

Dudley E. Houston Probate Judge.

Said Bond being in words and figures following, to-wit:

ADMINISTRATOR'S BOND.

Know all Men by these Presents, That we William J. Wolfert, The United States Fidelity and Guaranty Co. are held and firmly bound unto the State of Ohio, in the penal sum of Two Thousand Dollars, to the payment of which sum we do hereby jointly and severally bind ourselves, our heirs, executors and administrators, if default be made in the condition following:

Whereas, Letters of Administration upon the estate of Rhoda N. Wolfert deceased, were granted to the said William J. Wolfert by the Probate Court of Union County, in the State of Ohio, on the 30th day of June A. D. 1900.

Now, if the said William J. Wolfert as Administrator of the Estate of said Rhoda N. Wolfert, deceased, shall:

FIRST—Make and return into Court, on oath, within three months, a true inventory of all moneys, goods, chattels, rights, and credits of the deceased, which have or shall come to his possession or knowledge; and, also, if required by the Court, an inventory of the Real Estate of the deceased.

SECOND—Shall administer according to law, all the moneys, goods, chattels, rights, and credits of the deceased, and the proceeds of all her Real Estate that may be sold for the payment of her debts, which shall at any time come to the possession of the Administrator or to the possession of any other person for him.

THIRD—Shall render, upon oath, a true account of his administration, within eighteen months, and at any other times when required by the Court or the law, and failing so to do for thirty days after he shall have been notified of the expiration of the time by the Probate Judge, he shall receive no allowance for services, unless the Court shall enter upon its journal that such delay was necessary and reasonable.

FOURTH—Shall pay any balance remaining in his hands upon the settlement of his accounts, to such persons as the Court or the law shall direct; and,

FIFTH—Shall deliver the Letters of Administration into Court, in case any will of the deceased shall be thereafter duly proved and allowed; then this obligation to be void; otherwise to remain in full force and virtue in law.

FIRST—Make and return into Court, on oath, within three months, a true inventory of all moneys, goods, chattels, rights, and credits of the deceased, which have or shall come to her possession or knowledge; and, also, if required by the Court, an inventory of the Real Estate of the deceased.

SECOND—Shall administer according to law, all the moneys, goods, chattels, rights, and credits of the deceased, and the proceeds of all her Real Estate that may be sold for the payment of her debts, which shall at any time come to the possession of the Administratrix or to the possession of any other person for her.

THIRD—Shall render, upon oath, a true account of her administration, within eighteen months, and at any other times when required by the Court or the law, and failing so to do for thirty days after She — shall have been notified of the expiration of the time by the Probate Judge, She — shall receive no allowance for services, unless the Court shall enter upon its journal that such delay was necessary and reasonable.

FOURTH—Shall pay any balance remaining in her hands upon the settlement of her accounts, to such persons as the Court or the law shall direct; and,

FIFTH—Shall deliver the Letters of Administration into Court, in case any will of the deceased shall be thereafter duly proved and allowed; then this obligation to be void; otherwise to remain in full force and virtue in law.

Signed by us and dated at Marysville, Ohio, this 1st day of Oct. A. D. 1900.

Executed in presence of

Addie Fulk
Martha Guse
Pearl M. Williams.

This Bond approved in open Court, this 1st day of Oct. 1900

Dudley E. Thurston Judge of the Probate Court.
