of the estate of said Sarah A. James, deceased, filed in this Court on the 26 day of January, 1926 by Anson James, certain notes belonging to said estate that are at the left there for safe keeping and certain money is on deposit in said bank. The total amount of said notes has appraised as a part of said estate Lots nos. 51

Now come, Mary Bonnette, Lizzie Shepard, W.H. James, Vio James, Perry James, Wm. Liggitt, Florence Benton, Emma Freshwater, and Edwin Montgomery and represent that they are heirs at law <sup>Ans.</sup> and legatees under the will of said Sarah A. James deceased, and as such interested in the administration of the estate, and they further represent to the court, that the said Anson James executor of the said estate of Sarah A. James deceased, has been guilty of the following misconduct in the management of said estate, to-wit:

First: that he has been guilty of gross neglect of duty in the settlement of said estate in the failing to ascertain and correctly appraise the assets of said estate.

Third, that there are unsettled claims existing between said executor and the decedent for money loaned by decedent to the said executor <sup>Ans.</sup> for money retained <sup>Ans.</sup> unaccounted for, out of the estate of Sarah A.
