11800 In the matter of the Estate of Lewis P. Shaw. Deceased.
Aug 1- Exceptions to Inventory.
1930 Now comes H. H. Shaw and says that he is the president and general manager of the Shaw-Davis Co. a corporation duly incorporated with principle places of business located at 34 West Second St. in the City of Columbus Ohio, and that the said corporation is one of the principle creditors of the estate of Lewis P. Shaw deceased.

That Dwight S. Shaw was appointed by this Court as adr. of the estate of the said Lewis P. Shaw deid and qualified herein and is still acting as such.

That on the 22 day of April 1930. the said Dwight S. Shaw as such administrator filed herein an Inventory and appraisement purporting to be an inventory and appraisement of all the property both real and personal owned by the said Lewis P. Shaw deceased at the time of his demise.

That the said purported inventory and appraisement does not include all the personal property of which the said Lewis P Shaw owned and was in possession of at the time of his death, and therefor the said the Shaw-Davis Co. excepts to the said inventory and asks that the said adr. be required to inventory appraise and account for all the household goods furnishings and Equipment and automobile owned and in possession of the deceased at the time of his demise.

Further the said Shaw-Davis Co. represents that the said Dwight S. Shaw is now preparing to leave the jurisdiction of this Court and the State of Ohio without fully accounting for or settling said estate, and will leave the jurisdiction of this Court and State without accounting for or settling said estate unless prevented by this Court.

Wherefore the said Shaw-Davis Co. asks that a Citation issue and forthwith from this court demanding and requiring that the said Dwight S. Shaw forthwith appear before this Court and show cause why he should not account for inventory and appraise the balance of the property belonging to this estate and settle said estate, and that at such hearing he be required to resign as such administrator forthwith file an account and turn over to the Court or administration de bonis non all the property assets and effects belonging to said estate.

exceptions to Inventory.

Now comes Jessie Barnes, and says that she is the widow of R. J. Barnes, deceased, and represents that the appraisers of the estate of the said deceased allowed her the sum of $32.00 in property and the sum of $125.00 in money for her support for one year.

She further represents that said allowance is insufficient to support her for said period.

She therefore excepts to the inventory in this case filed on the ground that the said allowance as allowed by the said appraisers is insufficient for her support.

Wherefore she prays that a hearing may be had thereon and that said allowance may be increased and the fiduciaries of said estate be directed to pay said additional sums to her.

Jessie Barnes.

State of Ohio, Union County, ss.

Jessie Barnes, being duly sworn, deposes and says she is the above named petitioner and that the facts and allegations set forth in the foregoing exceptions are true as she truly believes Journal Entry.

Probate Court, Union County, Ohio. May 5th. 1932.

Order Granting Application by Surviving Spouse to take Property at Appraised Value.

This day Jennie Wile, the surviving spouse of J. R. Wile, deceased, filed a schedule of the certain property of above estate shown in the schedule, by her elected to be taken at its appraised value, and her application for an order directing Jennie Wile, the administratrix of the estate, to deliver and convey the same to her under the terms and conditions of payment as fixed by the court.

It appearing to the court that the facts stated in said application are true, and that said surviving spouse is by law entitled to make such election, said election is approved, and accordingly said Jennie Wile administratrix is ordered to convey and deliver to said Jennie Wile the property elected to be taken, upon the said surviving spouse complying with the terms of payment.

It is further ordered that said Jennie Wile, Administratrix of said decedent's estate, pay the costs of this proceeding taxed at $4.00

W. H. Husted — Probate Judge.

Personal Property taken by Widow at Appraisement.

To Jennie Wile Administratrix, of the estate of J. R. Wile, deceased.

I, Jennie Wile, widow of said decedent, desire to take the following specified personal property belonging to said estate described in the Inventory and Appraisement thereof, at the valuation made by the appraisers, to-wit:

All property mentioned in application by Jennie Wile, amounting to $1540.00

Dated May 5th. 1932. Jennie Wile.

In the Matter of the Estate of Homer Jolley, Deceased. | No. 12237. Entry.

It having been made to appear to the Court that the inventory and appraisement heretofore filed herein on the 23rd. day of February, A. D. 1932, does not show the amount which the appraisers set off to Helen Jolley as the widow of Homer Jolley, deceased, as her years support, and it further having been made to appear to the Court that it was suggested by said appraisers that the sum of One Thousand Dollars ($1,000) be set off to said widow as her years allowance.

It is therefore, ordered, adjudged and decreed, that the said sum of One Thousand Dollars ($1,000) be paid to Helen Jolley, widow of Homer Jolley, deceased, as her years support, by S. J. Kovar, the administrator herein, in twelve (12) equal monthly installments.
