In the Matter of the Estate of Margaret M. Warner, Deceased. | No. 13107. | Opinion of the Court.

This cause came on for hearing upon the exceptions of Orid Melick, a son of the decedent, Margaret M. Warner. The said Orid Melick claimed that he owned all of the chattel property which was set forth in the inventory of the estate as filed herein by the administrator.

The court finds from the admissions of Orid Melick that he has many times testified that the property in question was the property of Margaret M. Warner, and not the property of the said Orid Melick; if these statements were true, then the said Margaret M. Warner was the owner of said property and the same was rightfully included in the inventory. If the statements were not true, then the said Orid Melick perjured himself in order to avoid payment of debts or the support for a minor child, and hence the evidence must be minutely scrutinized before being accepted by this court, and since the evidence of Orid Melick is the only direct evidence in any manner which tends to support his contention that the property is his, and since the other evidence on behalf of the administrator shows that the property was returned for taxes by Margaret M. Warner, and that she paid the taxes thereon, and that she purchased the property, and that she listed the same in financial statements to the Marysville - Commercial Bank, the court finds that the exceptions are not well taken, and that they should be overruled, and the property should be considered as a part of the estate of Margaret M. Warner, deceased. A journal entry may be prepared accordingly. Exceptions saved for Orid Melick.

In the Matter of the Estate of Margaret Warner, Deceased. | No. 13107. | Exceptions to the Inventory and Appraisement herein.

Now comes O. M. Melick, next of kin, heir at law, only child of said Margaret Warner, deceased, and interested in said estate and of the property included in said inventory, and excepts to said inventory and appraisement herein, and on the following grounds, to-wit;

1. That the personal property and chattels scheduled therein, and advertised to be sold as the property of said estate on the 17th. day of March, 1936, are not the property of said estate. That on the contrary this exceptor is the absolute owner of said property.

2. That this Exceptor was not notified of the day of said appraisement as required by law; and that he knew nothing of it until a subsequent date.

3. That the surviving spouse, Francis Warner, is not entitled to any percentage of the real and personal property scheduled in section 10604-64 of the General Code of Ohio.; nor is he entitled to any portion of the property set off to him by the appraisers herein; nor is he entitled to any portion of said estate by reason of the inheritance laws of Ohio.

Wherefore the said B. M. Melick prays that a hearing may be had thereon, and that the Court make such order as may be proper.

B. M. Melick.

March 29- 1937.

Application for extension of time in which to make appraisement.

In the Matter of the Estate of John W. Elbin, Deceased.

This day comes the executor, Charles Elbin, by his attorney and represents that the said Charles Elbin was on the 2nd. day of March, 1937, duly appointed executor of the last will and testament of John W. Elbin.

That thereafter, on the 12th. day of March 1937 this court duly appointed P. A. Baker, Russell S. Banks and George P. Schindler as appraisers of the estate of John W. Elbin, deceased.

The executor represents to this court that the greater part of this estate, consisting of cash on deposit in the Morris Plan Savings & Loan Company and capital stock of the said the Morris Plan Savings & Loan Company, situated in the City of Wheeling in the State of West Virginia, is such that said executor is unable at this time to secure possession of the same and is unable to determine the amount and extent of such personal property. That said executor has made every reasonable effort to secure possession of said property but due to the statutes of the State of West Virginia he will be unable to secure possession until certain requirements are complied with. That said executor, is of the opinion that said property can be obtained sometime on or before the 1st. day of May, 1937.

Wherefore said executor prays the court for an order extending the time, under authority of Section 10509-41 of the General Code of Ohio, within which said executor may have the assets of said estate appraised.

In the Matter of the Estate of John W. Elbin, Deceased. | Journal Entry- Extension of time to make inventory and appraisement.

This day came Charles Elbin as the executor of the estate of John W. Elbin and filed his application with the court for an order extending the time in which to have the assets of the estate appraised.

The court being fully advised in the premises finds that a greater portion of the assets of said estate are outside the jurisdiction of the State of Ohio, being situated in the State of West Virginia and that said executor has made every reasonable effort to secure possession of the same, but that because of the Statutes of the State of West Virginia has been unable to secure possession of the same, and that said Executor is unable to determine, and that said appraisers heretofore appointed by this court would be unable to determine, the amount and value of said assets until such time as the executor is able to ascertain the value of the same.

The court further finds that said reasons as set forth in the application herein filed is good and sufficient showing for reason to have the time of making such appraisement extended by the court.

It is therefore ordered by the court that the time of making an appraisement of the assets in said estate be extended until the 1st. day of May, 1937.
