Union County Probate Court.

Estate of Harrison M^c Mahan, Deceased.

In Probate Court of Union County, Ohio, June 12, 1899.
 In the Matter of the Estate of } No. 5220. Journal Entry.
 Harrison M^c Mahan, Deceased. } Order for Private Sale.

This day came John W. M^c Mahan, Administrator of the estate of Harrison M^c Mahan, deceased, and presented his written application, duly verified, for an order to sell the chattel property, mentioned in said Application, at private sale.

Whereupon the ordered said Application filed. And thereupon this matter came on to be heard upon said Application and the evidence introduced in support thereof, and was submitted to the Court. Whereupon the Court, being fully advised in the premises, finds that it will be more to the advantage of said Estate to sell the property, in said Application specified, at private, than at public, sale.

It is, therefore, considered, ordered and adjudged by the Court that said Administrator proceed to sell said property, for not less than the appraised value thereof, at private sale for cash. It is further ordered by the Court that said Administrator report his proceedings under this order in two months from the date hereof and forthwith upon the execution of the same and matter continued.

James M^c Campbell Probate Judge.

This day came John W. M^cMahan, Administrator of the Estate of Harrison M^cMahan, deceased, and moved the Court for an extension of time for the return of the order for private sale of chattels heretofore issued in the premises.

Mentioned in the inventory of said estate, filed in said court. Said authority is asked for the following reasons: It is necessary to sell said chattels to raise money with which to pay the funeral expenses and raise money with which to pay the $300.00 legacy to George Price and to pay the expenses of administration.

The said petitioner further represents that said chattels may be sold at private sale, for much less expense and for more money as she believes than at public sale. She therefore prays for an order to sell said chattels at private sale.

 Partnership of Ferguson & Haggy. } Private Sale.

This day this cause came on for hearing on motion of J. W. Ferguson for an order authorizing Jefferson L. Richey as Administrator of the estate of said Roscoe C. Haggy, deceased, to sell the stock of said late firm of Ferguson & Haggy as herein returned by the Emmentory and Appraisement herein. Thereupon came said J. W. Ferguson, in person, and by his Attorney Robt. McMorro, and said Jefferson L. Richey as Administrator as aforesaid, in person, and in open court both of said parties waived the appointment of a receiver herein, and asked the court to order said Jefferson L. Richey as such administrator to proceed to sell said personal property and return the same to this court.

On consideration whereof, the court find that the estate of said late firm is small, and that it would be for the best interests of all parties interested for said Jefferson L. Richey as such Administrator to proceed to sell said personal property at not less than the appraised value. It is therefore considered and ordered by the court that said Jefferson L. Richey, as Administrator of the estate of Roscoe C. Haggy, deceased, take charge of, and sell to the best advantage at not less than the appraised value thereof, the said goods and chattels herein returned in the Emmentory and appraisement thereof as returned in said court; and that said Admin make a return of his proceedings herein without unnecessary delay and this cause is continued.

Said authority is asked for the following reasons: That the assets set forth in the inventory are in the aggregate of so small value, that the expense of a public sale will not be justified and also the great bulk of the inventory as returned are the personal household effects, and wearing apparel of the deceased, that could be of little value to strangers, and can thus by private sale be distributed among the children & next of kin as the executors.

Your petitioner, Rose Anna Parsons, widow of Dennis J.
