To the Judge of said Court.

The undersigned respectfully represents that they are the duly appointed and qualified Administrators of the estate of N. L. McDowell deceased, of said County; that the personal property of said estate has been duly appraised, and the inventory and appraisement thereof filed in said Court.

Your petitioners make application for authority to sell at private sale, as provided by law, upon such terms as the Court may order the following personal property of said estate, as described in said inventory and appraisement, to-wit:

No. of Items	No. of Items	Description	Appraised value

Said authority is asked for the following reasons:

To the Judge of Said Court:
The undersigned respectfully represents that they are duly appointed and qualified Administrators of the Estate of Charles F. Lutz, deceased, late of said County: that the personal property of said estate has been duly appraised, and the inventory and appraisement thereof filed in said Court.

Your petitioners make application for authority to sell at private sale, as provided by law, and upon such terms as the Court may order, the following personal property of said estate, as described in said inventory and appraisement and otherwise, to-wit:

no. of Item	Weight, Measure or No. Articles in Stock.	Description of Articles Appraised.	Appraised Value.

Also the following described promissory notes - (being the interest of said Estate therein), arising out of the business of said Company to-wit:-

Said Authority, to sell is asked for the following reasons, to-wit:-

1st- Said Company is vastly over capitalized at $450,000.00 the assets not being worth, perhaps, to exceed $75,000.00. The Common Stock has never paid a dividend, and dividends have ceased on the preferred Stock for more than a year.

2nd That the cost of operating the business of said company (a corporation) is very large and in excess of the profits derived therefrom.

the same is not productive of income, and is not worth more than 1/6 the face value of said preferred stock.

4th That the Patronage of said Company has greatly declined and shows no prospect of revival to a profitable degree.

5th The notes, set forth above, are found on investigation, to be practically worth less because the makers thereof are either executors-at-law or have valid defenses against the same.

6th Applicants have a bona fide offer of $2000⁰⁰, in cash, for said stock and the interest of said estate in said promissory notes; and they represent to the Court that the acceptance of said offer will, in their judgment, be to the best interest of all concerned, and will permit an earlier final settlement of said estate.

Exceptions to Inventory

Sylvia Stoddard says, that she is the widow of Albert Stoddard, deceased, and interested as such in his estate; she as such widow claims, that there was not a just and fair appraisement by disinterested appraisers, and she here now excepts and objects to the appraisement and the inventory filed in said estate; that two of the appraisers who made allowance for her year support, were nephews of said decedent and first cousins to the heirs at law of said decedent; first, that said appraisers only made an allowance of about $210.50, for her year support which is unreasonable, unjustified and unfair, and she prays the Court to increase the amount thereon; she further says as to said allowance that said appraisers assigned to her, and as for and part of a year support, "one bunch of chickens, 90.00", that in fact said chickens were the property of your petitioner, and were not of the assets of said estate; that the residue of her allowance was 15 bu. of corn, valued at $10.50, which was unreasonably high and $200. in money

Second, your petitioner complains, that the inventory and appraisement filed by the administrator, William King, included a large amount of property not of the assets of said estate, but is the property of this petitioner, to-wit: - No. 3 One Iron Kettle, $1.50; No. 4, Shingler, $8; No. 7, Five Shovels, $40; No. 8, One Black Brood Sow, $20; No. 9, Two Milch Cows, $80; No. 10, Three Yearling Calves, $60; No. 11, one Gray Horse, $150; No. 15, One Bay Mare, $150, No. 33, One Two Horse Wagon, $140; No. 51, No. 53, One Iron Kettle, $1; No. 54, 14 lambs, $42; No. 62, One bunch of chickens, $90; No. 19, Buck saw .50¢; No. 28, Ladder, $2; No. 42, Rake and Shovel, .25¢; No. 47, Step Ladder, .50¢; separate property at Marriage.

Petitioner says, that said kettles were her separate property at her marriage with decedent, Albert Stoddard; that said shingler and said two horse wagon were purchased by her, and paid for by her with her own separate money, and is her own individual property; that said live stock is a growth, and the off springs from live stock, that she owned in her own right at her marriage with said decedent, Albert Stoddard, and agreed by him and stated by him in his lifetime, to be her separate property and not his, nor of his estate; that the aforesaid items is not and never was of the property or assets, of the estate of said Albert Stoddard, deceased, but each and every item thereof is the separate property, owned individually by this your petitioner, and was by her so owned by her at and before the death of her said husband.

Union County Probate Court.

Third, that the Jersey Cow, set off to your petitioner under the third division of schedule 'a' of said inventory, was at the date of said appraisement the property of your petitioner, and not assets or property of said estate, and she claims $40. in money in lieu of the cow, as provided by law.

Fourth, that said administrator and appraiser did not set off to your petitioner $100. of personal property in addition to the special articles she is and was entitled to without appraisement; and she herewith selects the Certificate of Deposit on the Richmond Deposit Bank, dated January 25th, appraised at $100. as said $100., so allowed her by law.

Therefore, your petitioner prays for finding, order and judgment of your Court, to increase her year support to a fair and just amount; deducting the aforesaid items of personal property from the inventory filed in said estate, that the same is the property of this petitioner and was the property of this petitioner at the date of said appraisement; that she is entitled to $40. in lieu of the cow; that she is entitled to the $100. so selected by her herewith, as special property she is entitled to and not to be appraised; together with all other and further relief your petitioner may be found entitled either in law or equity.

J. E.
 This day this matter came on to be heard on the exceptions of Sylvia Stoddard, widow of Albert Stoddard, deceased, to the inventory of William King, Admin. of the estate of Albert Stoddard, deceased, and was submitted to the Court on the agreement of the said widow and the heir at law of said decedent, the only parties in interest in said estate; which agreement as follows, first said Sylvia Stoddard, is to have and hold as her own individual property the following items as noted in the inventory and appraisement, to-wit: No. 3, Iron Kettle; No. 53, Iron Kettle; No. 19, Buck saw; No. 28, A Ladder; No. 47, Step Ladder; No. 42 Rake and Shovel; No. 64, Bunch of chickens' coops; No. 65, Bunch of singles; No. 66, Wood on Wood pile, which said widow shall have and hold, without any charge against her as her support, and not of the estate of said Albert Stoddard, deceased.

That said widow shall have an equal one half, from the sale of the following articles in lieu of her rights, as she claims therein of the following property enumerated in said inventory, to-wit: No. 4, Singles, sold for $8; No. 7, Five Shoats, sold for $30.38; No. 8, One Brood sow, sold for $15.75; No. 9, Two Milch Cows, $87, No. 10, Three yearling calves, sold for $53; No. 14, One Black Horse, sold for $147; No. 15, One Bay Mare, sold for $135; No. 33, Two Horse wagon, sold for $37; No. 54, 13 Lambs, sold for $39, the aggregate amount for which said property was sold is $553.13 of which the administrator is to pay the said Sylvia Stoddard widow, one half as her individual property and not of the estate of the said Albert Stoddard, deceased, and not to be charged by said administrator as a part of said estate; the other one-half for which said property was sold $276.58 to be credited to said estate as the property of said Albert Stoddard, deceased.

It is further agreed that the amount of years support for said widow, shall be and is increased $50, making the total amount of said widow for years support $250, said exceptions as to $100. of special exemptions to said widow, shall stand as indicated in the appraisement for the corn and chickens as set off in lieu thereon; and the exceptions as to one cow as set off to her stands as satisfactory by setting off the Jersey cow as indicated in said inventory.

It is further agreed, that the house hold goods and property set off in the inventory to said widow, is the property and special exemptions under the law, is the separate property of said widow and shall be and remain to her in fee to dispose of as she may see fit, or remain a part of her estate if not disposed of.

It is further agreed, that the costs of said exceptions be paid out of the assets of the estate by said administrator, the Court on careful examination find that the agreement of said widow and the heir at law of said decedent is fair and reasonable and hereby approve and confirm the same, and direct the administrator to pay out to Sylvia Stoddard the one half
