Explanatory Statement.

The widow, Rose Anna Parsons, being also the sole heir at law of the decedent, said Hannah L. Parsons, waived the receipt of her dower valuation as found and ordered paid by the court out of the proceeds of said sale of real estate by the administrator, as to demand it would simply necessitate the sale of more of her real estate to pay herself. All debts of the said decedent known to the said Administrator have been paid in full, except a certain promissory note for the sum of five hundred dollars, given by the decedent to one Elizabeth Scott, which with interest thereon, on May 1st 1902 amounted to $ 536 cts. On that date said administrator paid $216 cts thereon and the remaining $320 cts thereof was assigned to Kate Evans a daughter of said Rose Anna Parsons, she agreeing to hold it to be paid out of rents at the convenience of his said mother, and thus prevent the further sale of land for the payment thereof

Assignment of Jacob Swisher.

Entry - Declaring Dividend - In the Probate Court of Union County, Ohio. In the Matter of the Assignment of Jacob Swisher to J. F. Kimball, Assignee. | No. 5428. October 26, 1901. Declaration of First and Final Dividend.

This day this matter came on to be further heard on motion of said Assignee for an order of distribution of balance found in his hands on settlement of his final account. Whereupon, the Court finds in the hands of said Assignee the sum of $2831.17 for distribution among the unsecured creditors of said assignor; and that the allowed claims of such creditors amount to the sum of $5782.75.

Jacob Swisher and makes application to the court to correct the dividend, declared by said court in the above assignment on the 26th day of October 1901, of 48 3/4 per cent; and change the same to 45 3/4 per cent, for the reason that there was a mistake in the amount of the claim presented by James Swisher.

That in the making of the affidavit for the verification of said claim the note of the said James Swisher was copied as of the date of Feb. 7, 1900 when it should have been of the date of Feb 7, 1894 and that by reason of said mistake the claim of the said James Swisher was made to amount to the sum of Nine Hundred fifty seven and 57/100 dollars, when in reality and according to the note the actual amount of the same is Thirteen hundred, Thirty and 66/100 dollars.

Wherefore the said J. F. Kimball, Assignee of the said Jacob Swisher prays said court to declare said dividend of 45 3/4 % for the reasons above set forth.

Entry correcting dividend

In the Probate Court of Union County, Ohio.

In the Matter of the Assignment of Jacob Swisher. } December 6, 1901. Correcting Dividend.

This day this cause came on to be heard on motion of J. F. Kimball, Assignee in trust for the benefit of the creditors of Jacob Swisher, to correct the dividend declared by this court herein, on October 26, 1901, and the same was submitted to the court. On consideration whereof the court finds that there was a mistake in the Report of Claims presented by said Assignee in this, court; that the claim of James Swisher was reported as of the date of February 7, 1900, when in fact it should have been of the date of February 7, 1894; that said claim was reported as of the amount of $95-75/100 on July 19th 1901, when in fact it amounted to the sum of $1330.60 on said July 19, 1901, making the total amount of claims $615-84/100 instead of $570.75 and that by reason thereof the dividend of $48 3/4 per cent, as declared on said October 26, 1901 should in fact have only been for 45 3/4 per cent. It is therefore considered, ordered and decreed by the court that the said order and decree of said court as of the date of October 26, 1901 declaring a 48 3/4 per cent dividend herein, be and the same hereby is corrected so that said dividend shall be a 45 3/4 per cent dividend on said corrected amount of claims as herein set forth and this cause is continued.

Motions — Filed Nov. 17/903

In the Matter of the Administration of the Estate of James D. Haines, Deceased, A. J. Miller, Executor. | In the Probate Court of Union County, Ohio. Motion for Further Time.

Now comes A. J. Miller, Executor of said estate and represents to the Court that the one-half of a certain insurance policy on the life of said decedent for the sum of two thousand dollars, in The Union Central Life Insurance Company, of Cincinnati Ohio, which was regarded as belonging wholly to his estate, and was so inventoried and appraised has been claimed by one Barney Breiston, as administrator of the estate of Aggie M. (Haines) Breiston, deceased; that said company brought an action in interpleader in the Common Pleas Court of this county, in which it was decided that said estates were each entitled to the one-half thereof; that your relator appealed said action to the Circuit Court and before trial thereof settled the same on Sept 29th 1903, realizing therefrom the sum of $1106.63; that said decedent, James D. Haines, bequeathed legacies of $800. to Cyrus N. Haines and $300. to Sylvia Miller, his son and daughter; that the widow of said decedent, Elizabeth Haines, has filed a claim against said estate for the sum of $500. for money borrowed from her by said decedent, with interest on $200. thereof from 1891 and on $300. thereof from 1893; that there is due said estate about three hundred dollars from said Cyrus N. Haines, which your relator has deferred to collect, intending to apply it as a set-off against said legacy to him of $800.; that your relator had hoped to have funds sufficient to settle said estate until the termination of said action, but owing to said claim therein made and sustained the funds in his hands amounting to $ , are not sufficient, including said amount due said estate, to pay said claim and against it and said legacies due from it; that he has endeavored to settle said estate to the best advantage and to avoid the necessity of selling any real estate, and that under the circumstances he believes he has used due diligence in his endeavors to so do and to collect the assets thereof; that he still hopes to be able to settle the same by reasonable compromise with said parties interested, without the sale of any of decedent's real estate, said parties being each and all devisees under decedent's will and liable to contribute in case any such land should have to be sold; but that it will be necessary for him to sell a portion of said land if he cannot otherwise effect a settlement of said estate by agreement with said parties remaining interested therein.

Wherefore your relator moves that one year further time be allowed him to settle said estate by agreement with the parties interested if possible, and if not, then by the sale of real estate as provided by law.

J. L. Millar
Atty for said A. J. Miller, Exec.

State of Ohio, Union County, ss:
