To the Court:

The litigation described in my first account was augmented still further by three cases + proceedings in the Circuit Court of Indiana, in the city of Ellettsville, and that in my justification for the delay in settling this estate, to-wit: 1st. a proceeding to allow me to sell land in said State; 2nd an action asking power to sell to pay debts and legacies; 3rd an action brought by a former daughter-in-law of deceased, to quiet title, she claiming ownership. I was successful after great delay, and the proceeds did not reach me till February of this year, after which distribution had to be made.

The records of this court show that Oscar A. Green signing Voucher No. 64, is Trustee for said Josiah W. Machling, under bond, as is also Daniel H. Sowers, trustee for Ellen Buckpile, signing No. 65; and W. F. Copeland trustee for Frank Machling, and Ettrude M. Slick, thus conserving the interests of said parties under the will of deceased.

This executor further says, that certain notes charged to him in the inventory and appraisement, as follows, were found either to have been paid, or to be uncollectable, to-wit:

No. 24	R. F. Elliott et al.	234 30	Paid.
" 25	Geo. Carpenter.	8 12	Uncollectable.
" 29	G. W. Machling et al.	5 00	"
" 16	Rosa Hill, et al.	10 00	Paid by services
" 17	C. D. Martini.	113 60	Uncollectable.
" 12	M. R. Coffman.	61 93	"

The above belong to the persons named in Item III of deceased, under its terms.

UNION COUNTY PROBATE COURT

Plain City, Ohio, March 25th 1912.

To The Probate Judge,
Union County, Ohio.

Sir:-

We, the Trustees of the Plain City, M.E. Church, desire to file objections and do hereby object to the granting the Executors of the will of J. C. M. Cune, deceased, the amount of one hundred twenty-three & 8/100 ($123.80) dollars asked for by them for extraordinary services, on the following grounds:

First, Because the amount belongs to the said church according to the terms of the Will of the deceased.

Second: When the Trustees of said Church bought five shares of Home Telephone Co. Stock in order to enable said executors to close up the estate, there was a distinct understanding and agreement between the executors, J. D. McDowell and A. E. Warner, and the Board of Trustees of the church, that any balance of money after paying the bequests and necessary expenses would be returned to the said Trustees as part of the residue of the estate.

We therefore asks that this request be not allowed by the Court.

By The Order of The Board of Trustees

C. M. Jones, President.
D. E. Currier, Secretary.

Hon. D. E. Thouton
