Statement.

Now comes Richard T. Burl, administrator De Bonis Non, of Mary L. Root, deceased, and moves the Court, that he may be dismissed, and discharged as said administrator of the estate of Mary L. Root, deceased, for the following reasons to-wit:-

(1) That there is no property in said Estate for said Administrator to administer on.

1. The Probate Judge of this Court for Court costs $22.00

Orders on Amended Final Account and Exceptions.

In the Probate Court of Union County Ohio.

In the Matter of the Guardianship of } No 6869. Feb. 20th 1914. Journal Entry
Walter A. Finley, a minor, (deceased) } Amended Final Account and Exceptions.

This day this matter coming on to be heard, pursuant to adjournment, on the Amended Final Account of Della Finley, Guardian of Walter A. Finley, a minor, now deceased, and the Exceptions to said Amended Final Account, and the First Current Account, of said Guardian heretofore filed herein by Edna Finley as widow and Administratrix of the said deceased minor and the evidence, the Court, being fully advised in the premises, finds:

That due notice of the filing and suspension of the said Amended Final Account, has been published according to law:

That the said Walter A. Finley and Belle L. Finley, said Guardian's wards, were the sole heirs at law of Robert D. Finley and James F. Finley, both deceased; and that said wards derived title to all their real estate by descent from the decedents last aforesaid:

That, under the said First Current Account, said Guardian, to save the lands of her said wards from forced sale to pay the debts of the estate of the said James F. Finley, for want of funds belonging to her said wards, advanced to the administrator of the said James F. Finley, out of her own money, the sum of $636.23; and that said advancement by said Guardian was a reasonable and provident act for the preservation of the estate of her said wards for which said Guardian should receive credit in the administration of her trust. But, the Court finds that through inadvertance and mistake, said Guardian failed to charge her said deceased ward, in said accounts, with his proportion, to wit one-half of said advancement, to wit the sum of $318.13; and that said amended final account should be corrected accordingly.

The Court further finds: That the fourth written exception to said Amended Final Account is well taken in this, to-wit: Said Guardian failed, through inadvertance, to charge herself with the sum of $3.25, rent of store-room that the said account should be corrected accordingly; and-

That the sixth written exception to said Amended Final Account is well taken in this, to-wit: Said Guardian failed, through inadvertance, to charge herself with her said deceased ward's share of rent of School House which the Court finds to be the sum of $4.00; and that the said account should be corrected accordingly.

The Court further finds: That, as to all items of disbursement charged in said Amended Final Account for which vouchers are not produced the same are supported by said Guardian's own oath positively to the fact of payment, specifying time and person, and that under such oath, uncontradicted said disbursements are established and proven pursuant to law.

Therefore it is considered, ordered, and adjudged by the Court that the said Exceptions, otherwise than as aforesaid found well taken, be, and the same hereby are overruled.

It is further ordered and adjudged that said Guardian be, and she hereby is allowed the sum of $237.50, as asked, as compensation for her services from the date of her appointment, which sum the Court finds, and deems reasonable.

It is further ordered and adjudged that said Guardian be, and she hereby is allowed the items of expense, entered as disbursements, in her said Amended Account, as being reasonable expenses incurred in the administration of her trust.

It is further ordered and adjudged that the said Amended Final Account be, and the same hereby is corrected in accordance with the findings aforesaid to show as follows, to-wit: Individual account for said Walter H. Finley, deceased ward: Total amount chargeable, $182.74; total amount credited $2193.16; balance due said Guardian, from said Ward's estate, $2010.72; and, as so corrected, the said Amended Final Account of said Guardian is hereby allowed, approved and confirmed; and the said Account is ordered recorded according to law.

It is further ordered and adjudged that said Guardian, as such pay the costs accruing upon said exceptions, taxed at $3.70, and charge the same as a credit against her said deceased ward's estate. To all of which findings, orders, and judgments of the Court in the premises, the said executor, Edna Finley, by her counsel, excepts and gives notice of her intention to appeal therefrom to the Court of Common Pleas of said County; and the Court fixes the undertaking of such appeal at $500.00.

and derived their entire estate, real and personal, from the said decedents by inheritance; that no personal estate whatever came into the hands of this Accountant at the time of her said appointment, and none since said appointment save as derived from real estate which is constituted of 158 acres of land, more or less, and three houses and lots, (one of which is a store building), in the Village of Peoria; that the reasonable value of all said real estate is, approximately, $14000.00 and is owned in equal shares by said Belle L. Fairley and the estate of said Walter A. Fairley, deceased.

Accountant further represents that during the administration of said Guardianship of Walter A. Fairley, Accountant owned and conducted at Peoria, Ohio, a stock of General merchandise from which she furnished to her said ward the necessary supplies set forth in the foregoing account; that the prices charged therefor were reasonable and fair; and that the principal items of said supplies, such as shoes and clothing, were charged at less than the retail prices thereof.

Accountant further represents that said "farmlands" were rented on a basis of $150.00 per annum, in cash, and one-half the grain and hay produced; and that said Peoria property lands were rented for pasture or, if cultivated, for one-half the product.

Accountant further represents that said Walter A. Fairley, being nearly twenty years of age, on the 20th day of November, 1912, intermarried with one Edna Herd and, on the 4th day of April, 1913, deceased; that said Walter desiring to enter the business of agriculture and general farming, and showing qualification, industry and thrift, therefore, this Accountant, at his request, advanced and furnished to him, for the purpose aforesaid, the items of personal property and supplies marked "in the foregoing account, as reasonably necessary for his living and conduct of said business; that said Walter A. Fairley died on the date aforesaid, possessed of the live stock and farming equipment, aforesaid; that said Edna Fairley, now the acting administrator of said Walter's estate, has sold said personal property and now holds the proceeds thereof undistributed; and that said Walter promised and agreed to reimburse this Accountant for and in the various amounts of the advancements aforesaid, with interest at the rate of 6% per annum thereon, and now disavowed or repudiated his said agreement.

Wherefore this Accountant prays the Court's approval and confirmation of her said foregoing account and report.
