Frank L. Judy, and Bert Judy being by me severally duly sworn say that they as two of the executors have taken upon themselves the burden of administering upon the estate of their testator; that they have reduced all the chattels of the estate into cash and have applied same to the payment of the debts of the estate and the costs of administration in so far as such assets will go; that there is no other assets out of which the indebtedness of the estate can be paid except the real estate of said decedent and that affiants as such executors have not applied to this Court for an order to sell same for the reason that Sarah J. Judy, the widow of Michael W. Judy, affiants' testator, holds a life estate therein and that the sale of such real estate subject to such life estate would be injurious instead of beneficial to the said estate; and all claims presented against said estate for allowance have been paid or arranged for and none are presented for immediate payment; for these reasons they ask further time in which to administer said estate.

7953. To The Court And All Others Interested:
 I regret to say that for the first time in my life I was not able to pay the debts of an estate. When I took charge of this estate I found that there was about $ 2200.00 against the estate, and there was not sufficient assets to clean up. I worked hard for the interest of all concerned and did the very best I could, and in order that the mortgages, street assessments, local taxes, probate expense, and a miserly sum to my good attorney could be paid, I have consequently made no charge for my services as Executor, and not only that but in addition I paid out personal funds in the interest of the estate.

Ohio, on the 13th day of June, 1908; that no personal estate of her said Ward ever came into Accountant's hands, save the rentals derived from real estate reported in the foregoing account; that her said ward is now seized, in fee simple, of about 158 Acres of farm lands, and three houses and lots in the Village of Peoria, in said County; that the vouchers showing expenditures on said real property, embodied in said joint account, above set forth, are filed with Accountant's amended final account for her deceased Ward Walter A. Finley, heretofore confirmed by said Probate Court; that during the administration of her guardianship for said Belle S. Finley, up to the 22<sup>d</sup> day of February, 1913, this Accountant owned and conducted at Peoria, Ohio, a stock of general merchandise from which she furnished to her said Ward the necessary supplies set forth in the foregoing account; that the prices charged therefor were reasonable and fair; and that the principal items of said supplies, such as shoes and clothing, were charged at less than the retail prices thereof.

Accountant further represents that, in the month of April, 1910, in order to save the lands of her said Wards, Belle S. Finley, and Walter A. Finley, (the latter now deceased), from forced sale to pay the debts of the Estate of James F. Finley, deceased, for want of funds belonging to her said Wards, she advanced to the Administrator of said James F. Finley, from Accountant's own funds, the sum of $ 636.23, One-half of which is charged in the foregoing account to said Belle S. Finley, the same having been inadvertently omitted from former accounts, to wit, the sum of $ 318.13, which advancement has been approved by the Court in special proceedings therefor, with interest thereon from February 20th 1914.

Accountant further represents that, under her power to borrow money, granted by the Court, in order to save her said Ward the cost and expense of effecting a loan, this Accountant advanced from her own funds the respective amounts shown by Vouchers, 81 and 82, above set forth.

In the Matter of the Guardianship of Smith Newton McCloud, (Minor)
Now comes the Guardian Nam S. McCloud, and makes to the Court the following statement in lieu of account:

Said Guardian represents to the Court that at the time of his appointment as Guardian aforesaid, to-wit, Dec. 21, 1908.

It was supposed and so represented to the Court that said Ward was the owner of 10 shares of stock in "The Davis Chain Company" of $1000, face value, and afterwards the Court on proper application and showing authorized this Guardian to sell said stock.

The Guardian was unable to do so. Petition was filed in the Common Pleas Court of Union County, Ohio in a cause entitled "Charles H. McCloud, John J. McCloud and Chas. L. Schwartz, Executors of the Estate of S. N. McCloud, Dec'd. Vs. Smith Newton McCloud, a minor, and Nam S. McCloud, his Guardian Defendants.

Denying the validity of this issue of $1000 in stock in said "Davis Chain Co." to said minor, after due trial in which this Guardian stoutly stood for the Ward's rights, the Common Pleas Court upheld the rights of said minor to said stock.

However on appeal to the Circuit Court the matter was decided adversely to Ward's interest, "Oct. 4, 1911 Circuit Court Record" Finding and Decree for Plaintiff, judgement. Motion for new trial over-ruled. Exceptions noted. Remanded to Court of Common Pleas for Execution."

The case was then dropped with the decision of the Circuit Court standing "That said Ward did not own said 10 shares of stock ($1000).

So the Guardian has no estate to administer and therefore now asks to be discharged, as said Guardian.

The court further find that said assignee has received the sum of $ 1369.10 since the date of last account and that he had on hands at the date of the last account $ 1027.13 making the total amount with which said assignee is chargeable $ 2396.23. That said assignee is entitled to credit in the sum $ 1617.00, and that there remains a balance in his hands of the sum of $ 773.23 for distribution among the creditors. declared upon the first account of 22% upon $179.00 and that it is entitled to receive same, to wit the sum of $39.38 and that J.W. Eastman did not receive the dividend declared upon the first account of 22% upon $20.42 and that he is entitled to receive the same, to wit the sum of $4.49. Application To Compromise Claims.

Hugh Fausnaugh, deceased.

W. S. Burgorn, Executor.

Now comes the said executor and says that Sevilla Nash has presented her claim for nursing and caring for said Hugh Fausnaugh, during his last sickness, to this executor for a sum of $73.75; the claimant being a daughter of said decedent; That William Fausnaugh has presented his claim for nursing said decedent to this executor in the sum of $70.<sup>15</sup>; he being the son of the decedent.

The executor deems that both accounts are excessive, if at all worthy, and thinks that $50.<sup>00</sup> for each would be ample, if the claims are legal, therefore the said executor asks said Court permission to adjust each of said claims and compromise them by paying each of said claimants $50.<sup>00</sup> in full settlement of the respective claims aforesaid.

W. S. Burgorn,
Executor aforesaid by H. V. Spicer, His Attorney.

This day this application to compromise came on to be heard, and the court being fully advised in the premises, it is Ordered that each of said applicants be paid the sum of $50.<sup>00</sup>.

In the matter of the Trusteeship of Emilius M. Kilbury, under the last Will and Testament and the Codicil thereto of his father, T. T. Kilbury, of his niece, Dorthula Read, and the affairs and matters arising thereunder.

Statement and Receipt of Dorthula Read

To the Honorable, The Probate Court, Of Union County, Ohio.

Appreciating the watchful care and consideration of my uncle, Emilius M. Kilbury, under the trusteeship herein named to properly educate and fit me for usefulness in life and now having arrived at that age where I myself may make a legal and binding contract and receipt and desiring to protect my said Uncle and trustee the said Emilius M. Kilbury from any possible annoyance or complication which might arise from the administering of said trust I hereby voluntarily appear in open court to give my sanction to every act of my said Uncle and trustee, and every expenditure of money made by him under said trust covering the entire trusteeship from its beginning up to the present time, well knowing that without his thoughtfulness I would not have had the advantages he gave me in childhood and while growing up when he saw to it that I had necessary books and clothing, board and lodging, and other things that parents are required and expected to give their children.

This I desire to be his receipt in full, covering all other receipts, for all monies expended in said trusteeship and my expression of appreciation for what he has done for me.
