 In the Matter of Application of The Estate of Mary Alice Arthur, Deceased.

Now comes George E. Whitney, Executor, and respectfully represents to the Court that for a long time prior to the death of Mary Alice Arthur, she was compelled to stay in a hospital at Columbus; that the said George E. Whitney had acted as her business advisor for a long time, and during her confinement in the hospital she insisted on his making numerous trips to visit her and advise with her on business and other matters. That at the time of her death he had never been repaid his expenses incurred in making these trips, by reason of the fact that he was Executor of her estate, he did not feel like presenting a claim, but that his expenses actually incurred amounted to a considerable sum of money.

8510 That shortly after the death of the testatrix an

That by reason of the pendency of said suit, said Executor was compelled to retain the rental property owned by decedent in Columbus and to manage and operate them for two and one-half years, and that he was required to, and did, make numerous trips to Columbus, for the purpose of looking after said properties, collecting rents, making repairs, etc., and that all of the expenses for these trips were paid by said Executor out of his own funds.

That all of the services above enumerated are in addition to those ordinarily required of an Executor and said Executor claims by reason thereof he is entitled to additional compensation for his services in the sum of Five Hundred Dollars.

1st. For many years prior to the death of said
Martha J. Kinget, said Dr. A. Boylan was her agent

the said Martha J. Kinget was either dead or mentally incapacitated, the said Dr. A. Boylan, pretending to act as her agent, withdrew of her moneys on deposit in the Milford Center Bank of Milford Center, Ohio, brought suit on said note against the makers thereof, in the Common Pleas Court of Union County, Ohio, being Case No. 10 073 on the docket of said court, in which the individual defendants answered alleging the said note was the note of the corporation alone and that their signatures thereto were understood and intended to be only for the purpose of giving their authority as directors of said corporation to its execution of such note, and prayed the same be reformed accordingly.

A reply having been filed denying the averments of said answer, on the trial of said action the said defense was sustained on the evidence of said Dr. A. Boylaw, alone, said note was reformed so as to be the obligation of said insolvent corporation alone, and judgment was rendered against it only and said individual defendants discharged.

Exceptions

The said Dr. A. Boylaw as Executor failed to prosecute error or appeal for said judgment; and no part of the same has ever been collected or collectible. By reason whereof

The said Dr. A. Boylaw is accountable to the estate of said Martha J. Wierget for said sum of $9500.00, with interest from December, 21- 1913, either because he negligently and wrongfully paid said sum to said insolvent corporation or because he fraudulently conspired with said individual defendants to enable them to obtain said decree of reformation and release from individual liability on said note.

3rd. On or about the --- day of November 1915, the said Dr. A. Boylaw, as executor of said Martha J. Wierget, under authority of this court granted him in proceedings then pending therein for the sale of the real estate of the estate of said Martha J. Wierget, deceased, sold a certain tract of 131 acres of ^{said} land to Fred Thiergartner, Sr. for $13000.00, and fraudulently reported to this court the sale of said land to Martha J. Mancourt, for the sum of $10480.00 and procured her to convey the same to said Thiergartner for the alleged consideration of $5.00 and other considerations.

The said Martha J. Mancourt did not purchase said land, but was used by said Executor simply as a means to enable him to defraud said estate out of the difference between the said sum of $13000.00, which was in fact paid to said Executor for said land by said Fred Thiergartner, Sr., and the sum of $10480.00, for which said Executor reported he had sold said land to said Martha J. Mancourt, viz. The sum of $2620.00, for which, with interest from December

The said Charles Woodworth Administrator of Martha J. Winget, deceased, further excepts to the final and other accounts of Dr. A. Boylan, Executor, of the Will of said Martha J. Winget, upon the following grounds:

(A) - Some date between the 1st day of Nov. 1913 and the 1st of May, 1914, the said Dr. Boylan, whether acting as agent of said Martha J. Winget or as executor under her will purchased of F. M. deceased on his claim against The C and C Haulage Company for the wrongful death of said Gladys Seely. Also upon the application of said administrator to apportion said fund among the beneficiaries entitled thereto. Whereupon the Court approves said report and the action of the Administrator herein and coming on to apportion said sum of $1790.⁰⁰ (bring the said sum of $1800.⁰⁰ less the Court costs of this action) finds that the parents and all of the next of kin of the said Gladys Seely have agreed among themselves as to an apportionment of the same and have filed in this Court with said application, their written request and instructions to the Court to deliver all of said balance to Albert Lee Seely, as an individual; that all of said next of kin are adults except Fred Seely, who is a minor of the age of about 17 years. The Court coming now to consider the proportion of said fund to which said minor is entitled, finds that the said Gladys Seely at the time of her death had graduated from High School and was about to enter a University or college that she had no earning capacity at the time, that the father of said Gladys Seely was obliged to expend and did expend large sums of money in connection with the injury and death of the said Gladys Seely and in view of all the circumstances of the case. The Court finds that $100.⁰⁰ is a fair apportionment of said sum to the said minor, Fred Seely. The Court further finds that the said minor, Fred Seely, has no other property than the $100.⁰⁰ above mentioned, that his father, Albert Lee Seely, is his natural guardian and is responsible financially, that to qualify as guardian and incur the costs and expenses in connection therewith, would consume more than the income of said fund, and the Court therefore dispenses with the appointment of a guardian and directs the said Albert Lee Seely, as administrator, to pay said sum of $100.⁰⁰ to him as father of the said Fred Seely. The Court finds that the parents and the next of kin excepting Fred Seely, have agreed among themselves that their proportion of said sum of money shall be delivered to Albert Lee Seely, individually, and the Court finds that the same is fair and equitable and according to the statutes for such cases made and provided, and doth therefore approve the same. It is therefore ordered, adjudged, and decreed, by the Court, that Albert Lee Seely, as such Administrator, pay the costs of this action, taxed at $10.⁰⁰, the sum of $100.⁰⁰ to Albert Lee Seely, as father of Fred Seely, and the balance, to wit: the sum of $1690.⁰⁰ to Albert Lee Seely, as agreed, among the parents and next of kin except the said Fred Seely,

4462 Journal Entry: In the Probate Court, Union County, Ohio,
 In the matter of Journal Entry,
 The Estate of Exceptions
 Mary A. Baldwin, Deceased.
 and First and Final Acct. of January, 12th 1922.
 of C. E. Kagay, Admin.
 This day came Kate L. Moffitt, attorney, for the heirs of N. M. Baldwin, deceased, and filed his exceptions to the account of C. E. Kagay, Administrator of the estate of Mary A. Baldwin, deceased. The court therefore fixes the 28th day of January 1922, at One O'clock P.M. as the time for hearing said exceptions. It is ordered that Kate L. Moffitt give said C. E. Kagay four (4) days notice of said hearing, and the case is continued.
 H. K. Busted, Probate Judge.

 1922 Exceptions.
 In the matter of the Estate of Mary A. Baldwin, Deceased, and the First and Final Acct. of
 C. E. Kagay, Admin.
 Filed January 3-1922.
 Now comes Kate L. Moffitt, Attorney for H. J. and W. C. Baldwin and Sarah Dawson, brothers and sister of N. M. Baldwin, deceased, and represents that they are the heirs at law of the said N. M. Baldwin, and except to the account of C. E. Kagay, Admin. of the Estate of Mary A. Baldwin, deceased, filed therein, and says that said account is not correct in the following particulars, to wit:
 The exceptions are taken to the manner of the distribution of Estate. N. M. Baldwin and Mary A.
 Baldwin were married September 15th 1869.
 N. M. Baldwin died May 23- 1918, intestate, and without issue.
 On final settlement of his estate January 31 1919, his widow Mary A. Baldwin took said estate by descent under Sec. 85-75- G.C. The said Mary A. Baldwin, during her life time failed to dispose of said estate, and died July 22-1920, intestate, and without issue.
 The said Administrator files with, and makes it a part of his final settlement an affidavit of R. C. Cahill, who says, "That Mary A. Baldwin at the time of her marriage to N. M. Baldwin was seized of 10 acres of land, which she subsequently sold for $600.00 and gave the same to her husband Nathan W. Baldwin."
 The right for her to make such a gift, can hardly be questioned with effect fifty years after.

by her heirs at law. That the said Mary A. Baldwin did not keep her estate separate and apart from her said husband's is admitted in said affidavit, and was appropriated to his own use by her consent. Said $600.00 so appropriated has revolved in many deals until its identity has long since been lost.

The said R. C. Cahill says the sum was never returned. We do not know the source of his information, but we do know that Mary A. Baldwin never claimed it in the settlement of the estate of N. M. Baldwin, deceased, or was it allowed, hence we deny that it is now due the Cahill heirs in such a manner as to have the administrator set it off to them in the distribution. Hence we claim that said Administrator should make his final distribution by dividing the $2111.40 into two equal parts of $1055.70 and distribute according to Sec. 8577 General Code, instead of allowing the Cahill heirs $1355.70 and the Baldwin heirs $755.70, we ask the Court to so order.

Respectfully submitted,

Nate L. Moffitt, atty. for Baldwin heirs of C. E. Kagay, Admr. of the Estate of Mary A. Baldwin, Deid.

Finding and Journal Entry,
February, 9- 1922.

This day this cause came on to be heard. The testimony of G. J. Baldwin and C. E. Kagay was given in open Court. A certificate from Dr. George Miller, of Byhalia, certifying that H. B. Baldwin, was not physically able to appear in Court as a witness, was produced and filed with said Court by Attorney Nate L. Moffitt. Two letters without dates, one signed by H. B. Baldwin and one signed J. H. and Sarah, were filed with the Court for consideration.

According to a statement noted on said account an affidavit had been made by R. C. Cahill, that there was due the heirs of Mary A. Baldwin the sum of $600.00.

said amount arising from the sale of ten acres of land belonging to the said Mary A. Baldwin, that said money was turned over to her husband W. M. Baldwin, and that the same had never been returned to the said Mary A. Baldwin.

The said affidavit was not produced in court, and no dates of such transaction given.

The court therefore can not take said affidavit into consideration.

The evidence produced did not clearly show that G. J. Baldwin, had been empowered to make a settlement for the other Baldwin heirs.

It is therefore ordered that C. E. Kagay, admor. of the Estate of Mary A. Baldwin, pay all court costs, and make distribution of the remainder of said estate in accordance with Sec. No. 85-77 of the Gen. Code of Ohio.

Statement

To the Court: The appraisers for the land sale case no. 9400, have made no charges for their services as shown by their statement in writing, filed with the vouchers herin. The attention of the Court is called to the fact that the Adm. Dr Bonis now herin, was appointed under no. 9629, whereas, it should be no. 9399, A. and further that deceased is named as John A. Phipps, instead of Johnson E. Phipps. Wherefore, the Court is respectfully asked to make the necessary corrections in the record, including the General Index. The deceased widow herin now draw all of her years allowance, but the heirs at law and next of kin, have receipted for the balance thereof as it is included in the distribution shown as receipted for by said heirs.

Resignation of Guardian.

This day the resignation of Chester Brisher, Guardian of Argus Brisher, a minor, was filed in said court.

The reasons for said resignation appear to the court to be satisfactory excuses and reasons the court therefore accepts said resignation of Chester Brisher, also a statement filed by said guardian in lieu of an account.

W. H. Busted, Probate Judge.

Statement,

April 10th 1922.

Judge W. H. Busted, Marysville, O.

Dear Judge Busted:— Permit me to state that when I took over the guardianship of Argus Thompson, all of his property except his clothing consisted of seventeen War Savings stamps, one thrift stamp and one Liberty bond, face value $50.00. These were turned over to his mother when she was appointed his guardian. All the money received for him was the $2.00 per week that his father pays for his support and that was all turned over to his mother, even while I was supporting him.

His car fare to Chicago, and from Chicago to Kansas City was paid by me, as well as the court costs for his guardianship papers.

Yours Very truly, Chester Brisher.

Statement

To the Court:

The administrator herein respectfully represents that he allowed and paid the amount in vouchers no. 13, because he had personal knowledge of the fact that deceased, made her home with said Frank W. Freshwater; that her husband, David M. Freshwater, also, resided there, but for about a year was sick in bed, and ever since has been physically incapacitated, and, could never help deceased; that the latter was insane until her death; that for many weeks she had no control of her limbs, bowels or kidneys, which occasioned great labor and responsibility on her part of said Frank W. Freshwater and of his family; that he gave her the best care for 241 weeks, 117 of which she was confined to her bed, and for furnishing her with a home with his own family, with room, board and nursing.
