RECORD OF ACCOUNTS

James Mills, died testate, the inventory of said estate showing household goods, etc $201- cash in bank $1700, real estate $8600- that the money left by James Mills, deceased, was insufficient to pay the funeral expenses, and debts against said estate,

The deceased, James Mills, provided for his widow, Minerva Mills, according to his wish and desire, the said widow elected to accept and take under the Will.

The Court is of the opinion that the legislators in making this law, did not intend that the amount given the widow in lieu of personal property to be a lien on real estate owned by said deceased.

The Court is of the opinion therefore that Minerva Mills is not entitled to the difference between the value of the personal property and five hundred dollars, in money.

The Court, therefore overrules the said exceptions. W.H. Husted, Probate Judge-

UNION COUNTY PROBATE COURT

In the Probate Court, Union County, Ohio.

No. 10293, October 12-1925.

Journal Entry.

On motion for re-hearing.

This day Miles L. Myers, attorney for Minerva Mills filed motion for re-hearing on exceptions to the account of James O. Mills, executor of the estate of James Mills, dec'd. Said motion is hereby over-ruled.

No. 10293.

Orders on hearing exceptions.

Journal Entry.

This day this cause came on to be heard upon the exceptions filed June 29-1925 by Miles L. Myers, attorney for Minerva Mills, to the first and final account of James O. Mills Executor, and, it appearing to the Court that the said Executor or his attorney had been notified of this proceeding and time of hearing thereof as required by law, the said cause was submitted to the Court upon said exception, briefs and argument by Counsel:

Whereupon the Court find that said exception is not well taken and, therefore overrules the same; that the money left by James Mills, deceased, was insufficient to pay the funeral expenses and debts against said Estate; that the deceased provided for his widow according to his wishes and desire by last Will and Testament and said widow elected to accept and take under the Will; that under Section 1065-4 of the General Code of Ohio, this law did not intend the amount given the widow in lieu of personal property to be a lien on Real Estate, and that Minerva Mills the widow is not entitled to the difference between the value of the personal property and Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00) in money.

The Court further find that said account is in all respects correct and according to law, and, does hereby approve and confirm the same.

Therefore it is ordered and decreed that the Executor make final distribution of the estate of James Mills, deceased, according to this account.

The cost of said proceedings, in the sum of $--- are taxed against the executor.

To all such findings, orders, decrees, and judgments, the complainant excepts.

On notice filed by Minerva Mills, of her intention

This cause came on for hearing upon the petition in error, the transcript, and the original papers, and pleadings from the Court of Common Pleas, Union County, Ohio, and was argued by counsel; and on consideration thereof the Court finds that there is error apparent in the proceedings, findings and judgment of said Court to the prejudice of the Defendant in error.

And the Court further proceeding to consider the premises finds the judgment of the Court of Common Pleas to be that the defendant in error be given absolute ownership of the specific articles given for life to the defendant in error by the second item of the Will of James Mills, deceased, and a further sum of $150.00 to be paid the executor out of moneys in his hands belonging to the estate.

It further find the judgment of the said Court of Common Pleas showed of here for the specific personal property above mentioned, and the difference between the appraised value of said specific articles to wit: $201.00 and $500.00 the amount exempted by Section No. 10654, General Code, namely, the sum of $299.00 with interest thereon from the 1 day of June, 1925, at the rate of six per cent, per annum, and that the said sum of $299.00 with interest, be paid to her by said executor out of any money in his hands, belonging to said estate.

It is therefore ordered by the Court, that this cause be remanded to the said Court of Common Pleas for judgment in accordance with the finding of this Court, as herein above set forth, and that a special mandate therefor by the Clerk of this Court, to be sent to said Court.

Miner's Mills
Plaintiff in error, vs.

James O. Mills, Executor of the estate of
James Mills, deceased,
Defendants in error.

Case no. 11635-
Journal entry.

This day this cause came on for hearing on the petition in error, transcripts and exhibits and arguments of counsel, and the Court, being fully advised in the premises and on consideration thereof finds that there is error in the proceedings and finding of the Court, to-wit:

That the $1500⁰⁰ in money in the Bank of Marysville at the time of the death of the said James Mills, deceased, as shown in the inventory should not have been charged in the account as assets belonging to said estate (section 10654).

That there being only $201⁰⁰ worth of household goods, as inventoried, the widow, the plaintiff, under section 10654, of G.C. is entitled to have and to hold said household goods, as her own, and, in addition thereto the said $1500⁰⁰ in money as her own and that said sum should be paid to her.

That there being not enough money or personal property to make up the difference of the value of $500⁰⁰ that the widow the plaintiff, is not entitled to or has she any firm on the real estate of which the deceased died seized.

The Court erred in approving and confirming said account, as filed.

Therefore it is ordered, and decreed, that the said widow the plaintiff, have, and hold said household goods, as her own absolutely, and that the executor of said estate pay to her the said sum of $1500⁰⁰ and that the said account of the said executor be, so, reformed, and be it further ordered, that these proceedings and findings and orders of the Court be certified by the clerk of this Court, to the Court below for further proceedings, in the premises, to all of which findings and orders the defendant in error excepts.

Motion for re-hearing overruled and appeal bond fixed at $200⁰⁰.
