Now comes Marble G. Burnham executor of the estate of Delphine Burnham deceased and represents to the Court that he has in his possession as such executor sufficient monies and certificates of deposit readily convertible in money to pay all the debts and costs of administration of said deceased as well as the inheritance tax due from the heirs of said estate.

That the said deceased left a small amount of household goods and personal belongings, appraised at $ 50.00 the value of which articles consists largely in their value as heirlooms or keepsakes to the heirs of said estate and that he believes it will be to the best interest of the persons entitled to the distribution of the assets of said estate that the same may be distributed to them in kind.

That he presents as a part of this application the written consent of the parties entitled thereto who have agreed upon a division of said household goods and personal belongings.

Wherefore, he prays that the Court may make an order authorizing him to distribute said household goods and personal blongings to the heirs to said estate in kind.

Exhibit A.

Memorandum of Law.
Sept 24/30
Filing atty.

State of Ohio. Union County. ss.

In the Probate Court. No. 11595.

In the Matter of the Estate of Mary J. Vosbury. deceased.

Memorandum of Law.

H. H. Spain as executor of the Will of Flora Josphine Spain. deceased. has filed an account therein in behalf of Josphine Spain as executor of the estate of Mary J. Vsbury deceased.

It appears that the executor has applied property specifically bequeathed in the payment of debts and expenses of administration of the estate and has distributed to the residuary legatee property which was applicable to the payment of debts and expenses of administration.

The Will of the decedent Mary J. Vosbury. by Item 11 gives and devises "all my property. in the same real. personal or mixed. or of whatsoever nature that came to me by inheritance from my mother Maria M. Partridge. ultimately upon the death of Francis L. Sager and Josphine Spain to Katherine A Guy absolutely. if living". Both Francis L. Sager and Josphine Spain are deceased. and Katherine A. Guy is living.

This legacy is of a particular fund or property and is therefore specific. Shaw Vs Shaw. 32 Oh. apps. 161. 167. N.E. 611 (In the case cited it appears in the decision of the Court. 32 Oh. apps. 173. that there was nothing left for distribution under the residuary clause. thus differentiating it from the case at bar. The case is therefore cited only for its definition of a specific legacy)

It is well settled that in the absence of provision in the Will of a contrary intention upon the part of the testator that Specific legacies must be paid in full and not abated pro rata or otherwise as long as the residuary estate is sufficient for the payment of debts and expenses of administration.

Puckett's Probate Edition p. 679 (dissecting Specific legacies)

"If the estate is insolvent such legacy does not abate until the entire amount of the General residuary legacies has been consumed in paying the testators debts. unless a contrary intention is manifested by the Will.

Rockel 4. pp. 317. 400" The third exception is that such property as is specifically bequeathed shall not be used until it is found by the ad. or Ex. that the residue of the personal property will not be sufficient to pay the debts of the deceased.

Likewise it has been held that if all the personal property be specifically bequeathed and the remainder left be real estate devised to a residuary legatee. Such real estate must have to be consumed for the payment of the debts before the personal property specifically devised"

Daniels Ohio Probate Code p. 445: "Abatement of legacies means reduction or failure in account of insufficiency of funds. Residuary legacies abate before general: general before specific and demonstrative: and demonstrative and specific abate ratably."

Page on Wills 2nd Edition p. 478" as to the order of abatement usually arises in connection with the payment of legacies, the definition frequently refer to abatement of legacies, and by inference include devises. Since insufficiency of assets is very frequently due to the necessity of paying testators debts before his devises or legacies can be satisfied, abatement is sometimes defined as though the deficiency in the assets were necessarily due to the payment of test ators debts.

If the assets are insufficient to pay the devises and legacies in full, the Courts are forced to decide whether the legacies shall all abate pro rata, or whether some shall fail entirely or shall be reduced disproportionally and others be paid in full; and whether legacies are to abate before devises or whether the two classes of gifts will abate together."

Page on Wills, 2nd Ed. p. 2183: "If there is a residuary clause and if testators estate is insufficient to satisfy the specific demonstrative and general legacies and leave anything for the residuary legacies (after paying testators debts where such debts exist) the legacies which are given in the residuary clause abate first unless the Will, when read in connection with the surrounding circumstances shows a contrary intention; and no payment should be made under a residuary clause until all the other classes of legacies have been paid in full. The reason underlying this rule is, that as testator bequeaths in a residuary clause only that part of his property left after the payment of the legacies and devises previously given, his intention may be best given effect by using the residuum first in paying testator's debts. The purpose of all these rules is to approximate testatrix intention as it would probably express itself if he had been aware of the actual relation of the value of his property to the amount of his debts, since it is impossible to give literal effect to testatrix intention.

Young Men's Christian Assn. V. Davis 106 U.S. 366; 140. (N.E. 114 (Certiorari denied, 43 Sup. Ct. 5-71. Rehearing granted and certiorari allowed, 43 Sup. Ct. 699.)

2" The charges imposed by law upon an estate must first be paid out of the estate as a whole, before payment of the charges imposed upon the estate by the Will of the testator.

3. A residuary devisee or legatee is presumed in law to be in the position of the last purchaser, after all prior lawful claims and charges have been satisfied out of the estate." This decision was affirmed by the Supreme Court of the United States, viz.

U.S.N.C.A. V Davis, 264 U.S. 47. 51: 44 Sup. Ct. 291. 292:

It is wholly within the power of the testator to exempt by specific direction to his executor all charitable gifts from payment of the tax by specific direction to his executor of the Choser. It must be presumed when he failed to exercise the power that she intended the incidence of the tax to be where otherwise by law it must be, and therefore that it was her purpose that her residuary legatees were to receive all that was left after paying all charges, including this tax, out of her estate.

It is hardly Time to say that under the judgment of this Court, the residuary gifts were lapsed: the gifts were and were intended by the testator to be indefinite in amount, and to be what was left after paying funeral expenses, attorneys fees, executor's compensation, debts of the decedent, and taxes. These classes do not pay the taxes, any more than they pay the funeral expenses, the lawyers, the executor, and the testator's debts.

Page vs Mills. 2 Ed. p. 71 Bl: "If the assets of the estate are insufficient to satisfy the gifts in the Will, even after appropriating the entire residuum, the general legacies, absolute or by, before demonstrative or specific legacies, if a contrary intention does not appear from the Will, and the surrounding circumstances, they will abate pro rata. As among themselves,

This principle applies even under statutes which provide, that in case of deficiency, legacies shall abate so as to equalize the loss; if such a statute is construed as declaratory of the common Law, as between the residuary gift and a specific gift the residuary gift must abate first, and this is sometimes explained by calling the residuary clause a general legacy. If the estate is insufficient to pay General legacies, some of which are given by the Will and some by the Codicil, the two classes of legacies will abate pro rata, a demonstration legacy has priority over all other legacies against the property or fund to which testator has pointed in his Will, as the source from which such legacy may be paid. This results necessarily from the definition of a demonstrative legacy.

A demonstrative legacy, is not defeated by the partial or total failure of the fund out of which such legacy is payable: but, in such case the deficiency, is to be made up out of such part of testator's general estate as can be applied to general legacies. This rule too, follows from the definition of a demonstrative legacy which has already been given.

Specific Legacies.

Specific legacies do not abate until residuary legacies and general legacies have abated in the absence of a contrary intention as manifested by the Will or the surrounding circumstances."

Dunlap v. McCloud et al. 84 O. S. 272. 282. In this case testators widow elected not to take under the Will and it was held that assignment of dower should be made so far as possible from property not specifically devised; that it was error to direct that dower be set off in part in lands specifically devised for life, and that any specific legatees who are prejudiced by her election to be endowed of Lands of her husband were entitled to compensation out of the rejected provisions made for her in the Will and if such provisions were not sufficient to compensate, the resulting uncompensated loss should fall upon the residuary estate in preference to specific devisees where a contrary intention did not appear from the Will. The following is quoted from the opinion:

"Does the amount of the residue of the estate need be reduced by the election of the widow to take under the Statute and the payment to her of her distributive share of the personalty; but that is where the uncompensated loss ultimately should fall unless it is otherwise indicated in the Will."

Glass v. Dunn. 17 O. S. 464: "It seems clear that the right of the plaintiffs to contribution depends upon the question whether they are to be regarded as mere general pecuniary legatees or whether their bequests are not in the nature of specific legacies or of the kind denominated "demonstrative legacies." If of the latter kind they stand on the same footing, so far as the right to contribution is concerned, with specific devisees and legatees. But are they of this description?

A demonstrative legacy is "a bequest of a sum of money payable out of a particular fund or thing"

It is a pecuniary legacy "given generally but with a demonstration of a particular fund as the source of its payment." It is therefore equivalent to, or in the nature of a devise or bequest of so much or such a part of the fund or thing specified.

The legacies in question were not of this description.

The fund provided was not for the payment of legacies alone. It was for the payment of debts also. It consisted, in part of the fund set apart by the law for the payment of debts and legacies, and the testator merely directed that an addition should be made to that fund by selling part of the real estate. It was a general fund for general purposes and not a specific fund for a specific purpose. The provision is no more than a direction to change part of the real estate into money thereby any merely the personal assets, which the law itself sets apart for the payment of debts and legacies. The fund was primarily for the payment of debts and was made up in the same way the law itself would have made it up by selling land and adding the proceeds to the personal assets. Had specific parts of the property been set apart for the payment of these legacies, and specific parts thereof to the payment of debts, the case would have been different. Then, to the extent to which the fund designated for payment of legacies had been intended upon for payment of debts, the legatees could have compelled contribution."

The rule that the making of a specific legacy exempts the legatee from liability to contribute to the payment of debts is recognized in General Code § 10684:

"Unless a will otherwise provides: If in such case, by making a specific devise, or bequest, the testator has virtually exempted a devisee or legatee from his liability to contribute with the others for the payment of the debts, or if by other provision in the will, he has provided or required an appropriation of his estate for the payment of his debts, different from that provided in such pending action, the estate must be appropriated and applied in conformity therewith."

Now comes T H Spain as adr. de bonis non of the estate of Mary J Vosburg deceased and moves the Court for a re-hearing and a new trial in the above matter that is on the exceptions to the account filed by him as Executor of the estate of Lilian Josephine Spain deceased for the following reasons to-wit:

Opinion of Court Rendered.
This day this cause came on to be heard.
Katharine M. Guy. by her attorneys Robert Day
& Wm. William J. Porter and H. H. Spain by his attorney
Wilbur L. Myers.
The plaintiff claims that Fun owned, by 17 shares of the Ohio Edison Company and certificate of deposit of the Citizens Home and Savings Company, and interest to the amount of $2358.00 due Mary J. Vosbury, or her estate, from the estate of her mother.
Mary J. Vosbury died on the 11 - day of May 1929 testate.

11-5-90 a
Sept. 15-1930.

That the Will of the said Mary J Vestry gives to Frances L Sayer and her niece Josphine Spain use of the property inherited from her mother Maria M Partridge, they to have and hold the same, the use thereof and the income therefrom for and during their natural life, share and share alike, and on the death of either, from & to the survivor for life.

Frances L Sayer died April 23-1929 accordingly Josphine Spain came into possession of all of the estate for and during her natural life

The Will of Mary J Vestry further says provided however in the event the income from said property shall not be sufficient with the income Either may have from their own property to amply support them or either of them then in the exercise of their discretion they, or either are hereby authorized to use so much of the principal of the estate as shall be needed for such purposes.

The Testimony introduced shows that at the time of the death of Mary J Vestry she had in her possession 17 shares of Ohio Edison Stock and $ 200.00 in the Citizens Home and Saving Co. while Josphine Spain was authorized to use of the principal nothing was shown to indicate that this was done.

This was a specific legacy of $ 3700.00 Rockwell 4th Edition P. 899 discussing special legacies Rockwell 4th pp. 399-402. Dirkl Ohio Probate Code p. 448.

It is therefore the opinion of the Court that there is due Katherine R. Kay the sum of $ 3700.00 or its equivalent, less inheritance tax to be paid H. H. Spain, adm. de bonis non.

Exceptions to the First Account of Benton Cahill, Executor.

Now comes the American Surety Company of New York and represents that it is a corporation under the laws of the State of New York, duly authorized to transact business in the State of Ohio, and says that it is surety on the bond of Benton Cahill, former Executor of the Estate of Sarah Jane Howison, deceased, and, as such, is interested in the accounting of said Benton Cahill, as such Executor of said Estate to this Court; that it had no notice of the filing of the first account of said Executor in this Court on January 13, 1932, or any notice before the same was approved by the court as the first and final account of said Executor and hereby excepts to the account so filed by said Benton Cahill, as Executor of the estate of Sarah Jane Howison, deceased, and says that said account is defective and incomplete in that it reports to the Court only the receipts and disbursements in said estate and in no way accounts to the Court for the assets of said estate in the hands of said Executor at the time of the filing of said report, or shows by any statement whatever that there were no assets in the hands of said Executor at the time of the filing of said report.

And said American Surety Company of New York prays the Court for an order to said Benton Cahill, former Executor of said Estate of Sarah Jane Howison, deceased, requiring that he file a supplemental report or statement under oath listing in detail the assets of said estate, if any there be, in his hands or indicating by such report that he is without any such assets.

At the time the undersigned was appointed administrator de bonis non with the will annexed of the estate of Delphine Burnham, deceased, there were turned over to him as assets of the estate two certificates of deposit as follows: a certificate for $700.00 in The Citizens Home & Savings Company of Marysville, Ohio, bearing interest at the rate of 5½ % and a certificate for $1600.00 in the Union County Savings & Loan Company of Marysville, Ohio, bearing interest at the rate of 6 %. As the parties entitled to distribution of the estate of Delphine Burnham were all of age and under no disability, it was agreed by them and the administrator on August 27th, 1931, that they would receive new certificates of deposit made payable to them individually, from the Citizens Home & Savings Company as payment of their share of the original certificate, and in accordance therewith new certificates for the sum of $175.00 each were issued to them individually, and the interest then paid to the administrator. Receipts for the above certificates were taken and the amounts are set forth in the items of credits shown above.

In regard to the $1600.00 certificate in the Union County Savings and Loan Company prior to the time the undersigned was appointed administrator de bonis non a notice of withdrawal had been served upon this company by Marble D. Burnham, executor, and after appointment, certain payments were made to the administrator de bonis non, amounting in all to $145.00 on the 28th. day of May, 1932, it was agreed by the heirs that they would accept new certificates in equal amounts for the sum that The Union County Savings & Loan Company were then willing to pay on this certificate, and after deducting the payments made from the face of the certificate and withholding six months interest. The Union County Savings & Loan Company credited $1365.00 on the face of certificate and $23.88 as interest due June 1st. 1932, making a total of $1388.88, which was distributed to the four persons entitled thereto in the sum of $347.22 each and these amounts are also shown in the items of credit set forth above.

William T. Hauger,
Guardian, etc.,
Plaintiff in error,

vs.

Mabel G. Foulds, et al.,
Defendants in error.

No. 85.
Journal Entry.

At a former day this cause came on for hearing on the transcript of docket and journal entries and the original pleadings and papers, and was argued by counsel; and there appeared in open court, Richard C. Thrall who by application represented to this court that after the filing of the proceedings in the probate court, which this proceeding in error, reviews, Mabel G. Foulds resigned as Guardian of the minor Jessie Opal Hauger, and that said Richard C. Thrall was duly appointed such guardian, and has ever since been acting as such, performing all and singular the duties of such guardian; That he is a proper and necessary party to this cause, in the event a final and binding decision may be made, he would waive the issuing and service of process against him and would be made a defendant, to the end that the matters and things in litigation in the probate court below and the validity of the judgment in respect thereof, be determined and decided herein.

Plaintiff in error herein consenting in open court, said Richard C. Thrall as guardian as aforesaid filed herein his answer and cross petition, and the said Richard C. Thrall having in open Court requested this court to consider and treat his said pleading as though it had been filed and adjudicated in the court below, and plaintiff in error herein consenting thereto, and plaintiff in error having replied to said pleading, this court finds that the judgments of the court of common pleas and probate court are contrary to law, in the appointment of the said Mabel G. Foulds as said guardian, was erroneously made, said Jessie Opal Hauger having been at the time of said appointment, not a resident of the county of Union and the State of Ohio, William T. Hauger having been theretofore duly appointed guardian of said Jessie Opal Hauger by the probate court of the county of the then residence of the said Jessie Opal Hauger. The court further finds that the appointment of said Richard C. Thrall as said guardian, was erroneously made, for that plaintiff in error was at the time of the appointment of said Richard C. Thrall the duly appointed, qualified and acting guardian of the said Jessie Opal Hauger.

It is therefore considered and adjudged that the judgments of the court of common pleas and of the probate court be reversed at costs on error of defendant Richard C. Thrall as said guardian, and that said judgments be held for naught.

It is further ordered that this cause be remanded to the probate court with direction to set aside the appointment of said Richard C. Thrall as guardian, and enter judgment for the costs made in that court, on the proceeding here under review; against said Mabel G. Foulder personally.

Whereupon the said Richard C. Thrall and the said Mabel G. Foulder severally except.

Exceptions to account of Richard Thrall.

Now comes the Guardian Wm. H. Hauger, Guardian of above ward, Jessie Opal Hauger, and excepts to the allowance of the item of Attorney's fee to Milo Myers, to wit in the sum of $137.00 in the account filed herein by Richard Thrall and pending hearing in this Court, and for grounds of said exceptions avers that said Court was without jurisdiction to allow same and that said sums was not for services rendered for the benefit of the ward's estate.

In the Matter of the Estate of	No 12056
Elizabeth Nicol, Deceased	Memorandum on Exceptions.

Statement.

John A. Nicol, Anna Margaret Gue and Laura B. Moder, children of John M. Nicol, deceased, filed exceptions to the account filed in this court by Alice Hollenbath as administratrix of the estate of Elizabeth Nicol, deceased.

The said Elizabeth Nicol, deceased, was the second wife of the said John M. Nicol, deceased, the said John M. Nicol and Elizabeth Nicol had no children from this marriage, and the exceptors were the only children and are the only heirs at law of the said John M. Nicol, deceased.

That in the year 1918 the said John M. Nicol died having a considerable estate and died testate, his last will and Testament being admitted to probate in this court.

The said Elizabeth Nicol, his widow, received from said estate approximately $6,141.00, and as we understand constituted the following items: $2,000.00 refund for moneys borrowed by the deceased, $400.00 for years allowance, $3,710.68 distributive share of the estate.

At the time of the death of the said Elizabeth Nicol, she had on deposit moneys in the Bank of Maysville in the sum of $1,000.00 and in The Citizens Home & Savings Company $1998.04, and it is the contention of the exceptors that they have and are entitled to a portion of said amount.

This is all the questions to be determined by the Court, at this time, as it was agreed by counsel as to the other exceptions.

Argument.

We base our claim under Section 8577 of the General Code of Ohio which reads in part, as follows, to-wit:

"When the relict of a deceased husband or wife dies intestate and without issue, possessed of any real estate or personal property which came to such intestate from a former deceased husband or wife, then such estate, real and personal, shall pass to and vest in the children of such deceased husband or wife, etc. If there are no children then one-half to the brothers and sisters of such intestate and one-half to the brothers and sisters of such deceased husband or wife from which such estate came, etc."

Elizabeth Nicol dying intestate, we contend that under this section the three children - exceptors - of John M. Nicol, deceased, are entitled to receive one-half of a certain portion of her estate, and the heirs of Elizabeth Nicol the other one-half thereof.

As stated above Elizabeth Nicol received from the John M. Nicol estate,

Refund for money borrowed	$ 2 000.00
Year Allowance	700.00
Distributive Share	3 710.68

We do not contend for any interest in the $2,000.00 paid to her as a refund for money borrowed which was represented by copy of five checks hereto attached, with interest thereon.

However, we do contend for an interest in $4,141.00, which she received as represented by a check to her dated April, 2nd, 1919, for said amount drawn on the Bank of Marysville by the representative of said estate of John M. Nicol, deceased.

The record discloses that on April, 2nd, 1919 said check was presented for payment at said Bank of Marysville, and on said day she received a time certificate of Deposit of said bank for the sum of $2,000.00 and there is no record of the disposition of the remaining $2,141.00.

That said certificate was renewed from time to time, to-wit: June 23rd, 1921, April 5th, 1922, Oct. 27th, 1923, Oct. 25th, 1925, April 3rd, 1926.

And on April 7th, 1927, the same was renewed for $1,000.00, and thereafter for said amount, to-wit:
April 17th, 1928, June 6th, 1929, April 5th, 1930.

And this last certificate was turned over to the said Alice Hollenbath as administratrix of the estate of the said Elizabeth Nicol, deceased.

The record further discloses that on the said April 7th, 1927, being the day that said Elizabeth Nicol reduced the certificate in the Bank of Marysville from $2,000.00 to $1,000.00 that on the suggestion of John A. Nicol, one of the exceptors, she placed said money in the Citizens Home and Savings Company at Marysville, Ohio, and from time to time allowed said certificate to be renewed and accumulate, and on September 12th, 1930, she had a balance thereon over and above the $1,000.00 deposited from the Bank of Marysville.

Briefly, it is our contention that the $2,000.00 deposited in the Bank of Marysville and the certificate renewed from time to time in that bank and the final one thereof of $1,000.00 therein is the same and identical money received from the estate of John M. Nicol, deceased, by Elizabeth Nicol, deceased, and that on her death we were and are now entitled to receive the one-half thereof.

And that we are entitled to receive one-half of the $1,000.00 deposited by her in the said The Citizens Home & Savings Company, it being a part of the original amount received.

We again call the courts attention to receipt dated November 8th, 1918, and the six several checks as introduced as exhibits herein by the exceptors.

It is not our purpose in this brief to quote extensively from the court decision, however, to aid the court we believe the following to be helpful.

Batjak vs. Dzwik et al., 27 O.N.P. ns 478.

"In the absence of any showing that this wife ever admitted the particular undivided one-half which she acquired from her first husband, it must be inferred that she died the owner of that one-half, the descent of which will be controlled by Section 8577, providing for descent of estate coming from former husbands or wives."

Another case in point and dealing with personal property, and which we ask the court to read, in full, is as follows, we quoting in part thereof.

Haltenman vs. Wilt, Admx. 34 Ohio Appellate 160

"Personal property descending to wife upon death of husband descended upon wife's death one-half to her next of kin and one-half to next of kin of her husband, in accordance with Section 8577, General Code, the provisions of Section 8678 being inapplicable, regardless of fact that property had been Transformed by administrator of deceased husband and came to wife's estate in the form of money."

We believe that this question is fully settled in the following case, and it being so interesting on the subject, we ask the court to read it, in full, that being;

Larkins vs. Houston, 115 O.S. 689.

And without making this brief lengthy, we again call the courts attention to the Brief of Charles C. White as reported in the 25th, Ohio Law Reporter on page 47, 68 and 257 which we ask the court to read, especially on page 47.

We think it unnecessary to further argue this case, for it appears to us that we are entitled to one-half of the $1,000.00 represented by the certificate of deposit in the Bank of Marysville and the one-half of $1,000.00 deposited by the deceased, in the Citizens Home & Savings Company of Marysville, Ohio.

Mrs. Elizabeth Nicol.

In the Probate Court of Union County, Ohio.

In the Matter of the estate of Elizabeth Nicol, Deceased.	Entry for John L. Price, et al., upon exceptions of John Nicol.

Elizabeth Nicol and John Nicol, Sr. were husband and wife and had no children. John Nicol died in about 1917 intestate, and certain chattel property came to his widow from his estate under the provisions of Section 8574 of the Code.

The question here to be determined is whether any of the chattel property owned by Elizabeth Nicol at the time of her decease is such property as under the provisions of Section 8577 of the General Code should be divided in equal shares between her next of kin and the next of kin of her deceased husband.

In the case of Haltinnan vs. Wilk, 34 O. A. 161, the husband and wife were murdered at approximately the same time, but it was held that the wife had survived the husband, and in that case the Court held that the chattel property which came to her administrator from the administrator of her husband came within the provisions of Section 8577, and the following is a quotation of the Court's opinion on Page 164

"It is claimed however, that these decisions do not apply to the present case because the property has already been transformed by the administrator of Charles Haltinnan, and came to the estate of Caroline Haltinnan in the form of money. While it is true that the descent of personal property is strictly construed, and that it has been often held that the rule does not apply where the property has been Transformed by the owner thereof and reinvested, nevertheless here the transformation of the property acquired from the estate of Charles Haltinnan in the process of settling the estate, and the proceeds which were paid to the estate of Caroline Haltinnan, must be held as property being received directly from the estate of Charles Haltinnan."

The same principal is enunciated in the case of Digby vs. Digby, 6 C.C. N.S., Page 130, quoting from the opinion of the Court on Page 134:

"We think what I have stated with respect to Section 4168 is True of Section 4162, that the person acquiring the estate from a deceased husband or wife, does not take it impressed with a Trust - does not take it as a Trustee, but takes it with an absolute right to dispose of it, and a right to change the character of the property so as to prevent the operation of this statute upon it. That he may rightfully change it so that it may not be said that the title of which the person died seized was derived immediately from a deceased husband or wife, and so that it may not be said that the property of which the person died possessed was the personal property or real estate which came from the deceased husband or wife, as the case may be.

Now that being our view of the statute, and it being clear that this fund is not the identical property, whether real estate or personal property, coming from John E. Digby, but is issue therefore, or something derived from changing the character of that property, this statute does not operate upon the fund."

To the same effect is the decision of the Supreme Court in the case of Guar, Plaintiff, vs. Stechschulte, 119 O. S. 1. In this case it was admitted that the widow had in her possession at the time of her death $8600.00 in securities which has been purchased with the proceeds of other securities which she took from her husband. The Supreme Court held that any change made by her in any securities left by her husband withdrew them from the operation of the statute. In other words the Court held that to come within the statute, the chattel property must be the identical property taken from the husband. Quoting from the opinion of the Court on Page 7:

"The provisions of Section 8577, General Code, require no construction, and its terms should be applied in accordance with the plain meaning of the language employed. The widow was at liberty to do as she pleased with any of the property left to her by her deceased husband; she could consume it all; she could give it away during her lifetime, or dispose of it by will if she chose. It was her property, and she could sell it and invest the proceeds in other property as she pleased. The brother and sister of her deceased husband had an interest only in the event the widow dies intestate without children or their legal representatives and in possession of the same property which came to her from her husband. The $ 86.00.00 of securities in question, owned and possessed by Clara B. Trauch at the time of her death, were not 'property which came to her from her deceased husband. Regardless of the time when the same were acquired by the widow, those bonds constitute property which came, not from the husband, but by purchase, and upon the death of the widow they pass under the statute to her heirs."

Attorney for John L. Knisely.

Memorandum.

The will of John Michael Nicol was probated in 1917, being No. 8729. It devised $ 2,000.00 to his wife, repayment for money advanced by her to him during her lifetime. It also devised an undivided one-fourth of the remainder of his estate to her.

This estate was administered by John Nicol, Executor, Case No. 8732. His entry showed charges of $ 1989.52 consisting of money, farm stock, grain, etc. His final account shows a disbursement to Elizabeth Nicol, under bequest in the will, of $ 980.24 and the following statement appears under the account:

"The provisions of the will for the payment of $ 2000.00 to Elizabeth Nicol are provided in Voucher No. 36 for $ 980.24. The balance of the $ 2000.00 has been adjusted among the heirs and widow having made amicable sale of real estate and divided the proceeds in accordance with the will of the decedent. The executor therefore files this as a balanced account showing full settlement of said estate."

In the Matter of the Estate of Highalum R. Van Houten, deceased. | No. 10706.
Exceptions to First Partial Account of Louis B. Mc Neal, Executor, and Final Account of Alice T. Mc Neal as Executrix of Louis B. Mc Neal.

Now comes Marie Nikelson and represents that she is a legatee under the will of the said Highalum L. Van Houten, deceased, and as such is interested in the administration of his estate; and does hereby except to the First Partial account of Louis B. Mc Neal, Executor, and to the Final account of Alice T. Mc Neal, Executrix of the estate of the said Louis B. Mc Neal for the following reasons:

1. Said exceptor excepts to the item of debit in said account of the said Louis B. Mc Neal appearing in said account as follows, "sale of farm $ 8000.00" and says that said item represents the sale price of a farm of about —— acres in Jackson Township, Union County, Ohio. That said farm was sold by said executor to one Milo Strowinder on the — day of — for $ 8000.00 and that at the time of said sale and immediately prior thereto said executor had a bona fide cash offer for said farm of $ 12000.00 which he failed and refused to accept.

2. Said exceptor excepts to said account of the said Louis B. Mc Neal for the reason that it does not show the payment of the State Inheritance Tax, and said exceptor says that the said Louis B. Mc Neal did not pay said inheritance tax; that he distributed all of the assets in his hands and that suit is now pending in the common pleas court of Union County, Ohio against said estate for the collection of said inheritance tax.

3. Said Exceptor further says that the acts of the said Louis B. Mc Neal above set forth constituted a fraud against herself and the other beneficiaries of said estate, and that she had no knowledge thereof until immediately prior to the filing of these exceptions.

That by reason of said fraudulent acts of the said Louis B. Mc Neal he was not entitled to any compensation as executor and said exceptor does hereby except to the items of credit in said account as follows: "Louis B. Mc Neal, Administrators compensation $ 328.64," L. B. Mc Neal, attorney fee for the sale of real estate $348.00", Said exceptor alleges that said items should be stricken from said account; that the said Louis B. Mc Neal should be charged in said account with the additional sum of $4000.00 for the sale of said real estate, and that there should be stricken from his said account said items of credit for the payment of his fee as above set forth.

Said exceptor says that said account of the said Louis B. Mc Neal should show a balance due said estate of $4787.72 instead of $116.08 as shown by said account. And said exceptor therefore excepts to the final account of the said Alice T. Mc Neal for the reason that said account does not show a balance due said estate in the amount of $4787.72.
