Your petitioner respectfully represents that he is the duly appointed, qualified and acting Administrator of the estate of Zora Biddle, deceased; that as such, he has paid all of the debts of said decedent; that he has in his possession Receivers Proof of Claim No. 706, against The First National Bank of Richwood, Ohio, which claim was issued to Mrs. W. To the Court:

The State of Ohio, Union County, ss:

Clara A. Conklin, being sworn, makes oath, and says:

My name is Clara A. Conklin, my age is over 21 years, my occupation is that of house-keeper, and my place of residence is Plain City, Ohio.

I have further to say, that Sanford M. Conklin, my deceased husband, did on the 5th. day of March, 1923, eleven years ago; that soon thereafter I was appointed as administratrix of his estate; that on the advice of farmer friends, and acting on the hope and belief that prices would go up, instead of down as they did, I took both farms at the appraisement, and assumed and agreed to pay the debts; the earnings from the farms were applied to the debts, as well as my personal earning at a later period, as a nurse for the sick; this enabled me to pay the debts, thus relieving myself and bondsmen from any further liability therefor; forgetting that I was acting as administratrix, instead of myself only as the title holder for the said farms, I often omitted to take receipts to be filed as vouchers in the probate court; it follows that I am absolutely unable to produce any vouchers therefor; that those I did take were mislaid and lost, and can not be found after diligent search therefor; that no debts are now outstanding, but bills paid included the following, to wit:

No compensation is asked by the Administratrix herein.

Dear Sir:

Below is a list of what Mrs. Conklin paid out the year following Mr. Conklins death as near as she can figure out. Of course we know that there is more than this, but this is all she can find any recad of:

Dr. E. B. Holmes, medical service	$ 96.00
Dr. Jenkins, " "	35.00
Farmers Elevator, Unionville, O.	75.00
Nurse	50.00
Morey + Faulkner	600.00
E. W. Porter	100.00
Preacher for Preaching Funeral	10.00
Taxes	286.81
Union Life Ins. Co. Int. on loan	1225.21

Fire Insurance	35.00
Crying Sale to Evans	45.00
Clerking Sale to Hudson	10.00
Lot in Cemetery	140.00
	$ 2832.52

Then there was expense of printing sale Bills and adv. and other items like help in getting ready for sale and Auto Expense, Telephone bills + etc. which she can not remember, but which would all amount up to something. In reality she spent about $ 5000.00 or better which she staked and learned trying to hold these Farms, and as there was $12000.00 due the Life Insurance Co. and $ 5000.00 due the Unionville Banking Co. making a total of Seventeen Thousand Dollars besides accrued interest and Taxes against these Farms, she did not inherit anything but a over-load of indebtedness, which in the long run left them $5000.00 or better, which you can explain to the judge and Court. As you know at the time of Mr. Conklins Death these Farms would not bring the amount that was due on them. And that was the main reason she wanted to hold them thinking that prices would get better, and instead they got worse. Hoping this will be satisfactory and you can get it fixed all O. K.

I am, Yours truly, J. R. Hesriott.

The State of Ohio, Union County.

I, the undersigned, Administratrix of the Estate of Sanford M. Conklin, deceased, do solemnly swear that the within and foregoing account, and the vouchers therein referred to, and the itemized Statement of Funds, is a full, true and correct account of said Administration, in all respects, to the best of my knowledge and belief.

In the Matter of John G. Burns, Deceased. | Case No. 11986.
Katie N. Burns, Executrix. | Application.

Now comes John H. Kinkade, Attorney for the Executrix herein, and respectfully represents to the Court, that the first partial account filed herein October, 27th, 1931 is so vague and lacking of data of information as to be very unsatisfactory, if not impossible, to properly determine if the receipts and expenditures therein set forth are justifiable and properly chargeable in this estate as will be obviously apparent on the face of said account. July 5-1934.

Wherefore said applicant asks the Court for authority to restate the said first partial account in the final account now about to be filed in said estate so that said final account may set forth completely all the transactions, receipts, and expenditures made by said executrix in the full and final settlement of the said estate. 12249 12712 10564 12198 12530

1 Certificate of Claim No. 89 against The Farmers Deposit Bank of Richwood, Ohio, in liquidation, for the sum of $57.41, on which dividends of 45% have been paid; 1 Certificate of Proof of Claim No. 109 against The Marion Savings Bank Company, of Marion, Ohio, in liquidation for the sum of $507.00, on which dividends of 18% have been paid; Certificate No. GC 35964 for 10 shares of the par value of $1.00 each of Class A Common Stock of the Wrigley Pharmaceutical Company; Certificate No. GC 35805 for 5 shares of the par value of $1.00 each of Class A Common Stock of the Wrigley Pharmaceutical Company. The shares last above named stand in the name of P. E. Barnes, being the same person as Porter Eugene Barnes, deceased.

Your petitioner says that there is no sale for the stock last above mentioned, and that the two Certificates of Claim first above mentioned will be paid as the said Banks are liquidated, and that your petitioner believes that the amount of payments yet to be received on the payment of said claims will be small and that the said estate should not be held open for the liquidation of said claims, and that the said claims are not salable.

Your petitioner says that the distributees of said estate have agreed to have the assets above mentioned distributed in kind to "Alice B. Mather, Trustee", as evidenced by their written agreement hereto attached and made part hereof.

Wherefor, your petitioner asks for the order and approval of this Court for making distribution and assigning the said assets in kind to the said "Alice B. Mather, Trustee."
