ENTRY ORDER ADMITTING TO PROBATE AND RECORD

In the Matter of the Will of Verna Chandler, deceased.

This matter came on this day further to be heard on the application of Lloyd George Kerns, to admit to probate and record the Will of Verna Chandler, deceased, late of the Township of Claibourne in the said County, heretofore filed in this Court.

It is now shown to the satisfaction of the Court that the said decedent died leaving Charles S. Chandler, the surviving spouse, and that the surviving spouse and those persons who are known to be resident of the State of Ohio, who would be entitled to inehrit from the said decedent under the statutes of descent and distribution if the said decedent had died intestate, (excepting any person who would be entitled to inherit from the said decedent solely by reason of the relationship to deceased spouse thereof) have been duly served with notice of the filing of the said Will and of the application to admit it to probate and record in this Court, pursuant to a former order of this Court, or have waived notice and given consent to the probate of the said Will.

And it further appearing to the Court that Robert L. Cheney one of the subscribing witnesses to the said will is now serving in the armed forces of the United States and is outside of the jurisdiction of the State of Ohio and for that reason his testimony cannot be obtained within a reasonable time.

Thereupon Gladys L. Cheney and Sturgis H. Cheney appeared in open Court and were duly sworn and examined according to law touching the genuineness of the signature...of the signature of the said Robert L. Cheney attached to the said Will. Thereupon on this day came Gladys L. Cheney, the othersubscribing witness to the said Will, who having been duly sworn, testified as to execution and attestation of the said Will, which testimony was reduced to writing was subscribed by them respectively, and was filed with the said will.

Whereupon the Court finds that the aforesaid instrument of writing is the Will of the said Verna Chandler, deceased; that it was duly execyted and attested; and that the said testator, at the time of signing said Will was of full age, of sound mind and memory and not under any restraint. Therefore the Court being-satisfied as to its jurisdiction herein, orders the admitting of the said Will to probate and record, and that the testimony of the witnesses herein, be entered of record in this Court. John W. Dailey-Probate Judge (*).

This matter came on this day further to be heard, on the application of Anna Hyland to admit to probate and record the Will of William D. Hyland, deceased, domiciled at 704 North Main Street, Marysville, Ohio, heretofore filed in this Court.
It is now shown to the satisfaction of the Court that said decedent died leaving Anna Hyland surviving spouse and that the surviving spouse and those persons, who are known to be resident of the The State of Ohio, who would be entitled to inherit from the decedent under the statutes of descent and distribution if said decedent had died intestate, (excepting any person who would be entitled to inherit from said decedent solely by reason of relationship to a deceased spouse thereof), have been duly served with notice of the filing of said Will and of the application to admit it to probate and record in this Court, pursuant to a former order of this Court, or waived notice and given consent to the probate of said Will.
And the subscribing witnesses, this day appeared in open Court and having been duly sworn, testified respectively to the due execution and attestation of said Will, which testimony was reduced to writing, was subscribed by them respectively, and was filed herein.
Whereupon the Court finds that the aforesaid instrument of writing, is the Will of said William D. Hyland deceased; that it was duly executed and attested; and that the said testator, at the time of signing Will was of full age, of sound mind and memory and not under any restraint.
Therefore the Court, being satisfied as to its jurisdiction herein, orders the admitting of said Will to probate and record, and that the testimony of the witnesses herein, be entered of record in this Court. Luther L. Liggett, Judge. (Seal)

ORDER ADMITTING TO PROBATE AND RECORD.
This matter came on this day further to be heard, on the application of Effie B. Baker to admit to probate and record the Will of John Baker, deceased, late of the Village of Marysville in said County, heretofore filed in this Court.

It is now shown to the satisfaction of the Court that said decedent died leaving Effie B. And the subscribing witnesses, LeRae Struewing and William L. Coleman this day appeared in open Court and having been duly sworn, testified respectively to the due execution and attestation of said Will which testimony was reduced to writing, was subscribed by them respectively, and was filed herein.
Whereupon the Court finds that the aforesaid instrument of writing, is the Will of said John Baker deceased; that it was duly executed and attested; and that the said testator, at the time of signing Will was of full age, of sound mind and memory and not under any restraint.
Therefore the Court, being satisfied as to its jurisdiction herein, orders the admitting of said Will to probate and record and that the testimony of the witnesses herein, be entered of record in this Court.

This matter came on this day further to be heard, on the application of Mary E. Rockhold to admit to probate and record the Will and Codicil of Levi G. Rockhold, deceased, domiciled at York Township, Union County, Ohio, heretofore filed in this Court.
It is now shown to the satisfaction of the Court that said decedent died leaving Mary E. Rockhold surviving spouse and that the surviving spouse and those persons, who are known to be resident of The State of Ohio, who would be entitled to inherit from the decedent under the statutes of descent and distribution if said decedent had died intestate, (excepting any person who would be entitled to inherit from said decedent solely by reason of relationship to a deceased spouse thereof), have been duly served with notice of the filing of said Will and Codicil and of the application to admit it to probate and record in this Court, pursuant to a former order of this Court, or have waived notice and given consent to the probate of said Will and Codicil. And the subscribing witnesses, Paul G. Jewell, C. A. Hoopes, Gwynn,Sanders, and Bernette Mader, this day appeared in open Court and having been duly sworn, testified respectively to the due execution and attestion of said Will and Codicil, which testimony was reduced to writing, was subscribed by them respectively, and was filed herein.

Whereupon the Court finds that the aforesaid instrument of writing, is the Will and Codicil of said Levi G. Rockhold, deceased; that it was duly executed and attested; and that the said testator, at the time of signing said Will and Codicil was of full age, of sound mind and memory and not under any restraint.
Therefore, the Court, being satisfied as to its jurisdiction herein, orders the admitting of said Will and Codicil to probate and record, and that the testimony of the witnesses herein, be entered of record in this Court.

In the matter of the Will of Clarence G. Hamilton, deceased.
JOURNAL ENTRY. ORDER ADMITTING TO PROBATE AND RECORD.

This matter came on this day further to be heard, on the application of May M. Hamilton to admit to probate and record the Will of Clarence G. Hamilton, deceased, domiciled at Paris Township, Union County, Ohio, heretofore filed in this Court.
It is now shown to the satisfaction of the Court that said decedent died leaving May M. Hamilton his surviving spouse and that the surviving spouse and those persons, who are known to be resident of The State of Ohio, who would be entitled to inherit from the decedent under the statutes of descent and distribution if said decedent had died intestate, (excepting any person who would be entitled to inherit from said decedent solely by reason of relationship to a deceased spouse thereof), have been duly served with notice of the filing of said Will and of the application to admit it to probate and record in this Court, pursuant to a former order of this Court, or have waived notice and given consent to the probate of said Will.
And the subscribing witnesses, Helen Louise Heller and Lloyd George Kerns this day appeared in open Court and having been duly sworn, testified respectively to the due execution and attestation of said Will, which testimony was reduced to writing, was subscribed by them respectively, and was filed herein.
Whereupon the Court finds that the aforesaid instrument of writing, is the Will of said Clarence G. Hamilton deceased; that it was duly executed and attested; and that the said testator, at the time of signing said Will was of full age, of sound mind and memory and not under any restraint.
Therefore the Court, being satisfied as to its jurisdiction herein, orders the admitting of said Will to probate and record, and that the testimony of the witnesses herein, be entered of record in this Court.

This matter came on this day further to be heard, on the application of John L. Smith to admit to probate and record the Will of Charles H. Smith, deceased, late of the Township of York in said County, heretofore filed in this Court.
It is now shown to the satisfaction of the Court that said decedent died leaving Eleanor T. And the subscribing witnesses, Christine Kasper and Clifton L. Caryl, this day appeared in open Court and having been duly sworn, testified respectively to the due execution and attestation of said Will, which testimony was reduced to writing, was subscribed by them respectively, and was filed herein.
Whereupon the Court finds that the aforesaid instrument of writing, is the Will of said Charles H. Smith deceased; that it was duly executed and attested; and that the said testator, at the time of signing his Will was of full age, of sound mind and memory and not under any restraint.
Therefore the Court, being satisfied as to its jurisdiction herein, orders the admitting ofsaid Will to probate and record, and that the testimony of the witnesses herein, be entered of record in this Court.

This matter came on this day further to be heard, on the application of Milton L. Dickason to admit to probate and record the Will of Gertrude M. Dickason, deceased, late of the Village of Richwood in said County, heretofore filed in this Court.
It is now shown to the satisfaction of the Court that said decedent died leaving Milton L. And F. LeRoy Allen and Robert F. Allen, the subscribing witnesses this day appeared in open Court and having been duly sworn, testified respectively to the due execution and attestation of said Will which testimony was reduced to writing, was subscribed by them respectively, and was filed herein.
Whereupon the Court finds that the aforesaid instrument of writing, is the Will of said Gertrude M. Dickason, deceased; that it was duly executed and attested; and that the said testator, at the time of signing her Will was of full age, of sound mind and memory and not under any restraint.
Therefore the Court, being satisfied as to its jurisdiction herein, orders the admitting of said Will to probate and record, and that the testimony of the witnesses herein, be entered of record in this Court.

Return
To the honorable judge of the prob te Court of Union County, Ohio:
In compliance with the requirement of the order herto attached and returned herewith, I proceeded to ascertain the value of the provision made by said John H. Clark in his will for Louise Clark, his widow.
I find that the value of the provision made by said John H. Clark in his will for his said surviving consort, is Two hundred fifty-three and 52/100 dollars.
I also find that the value of the provision made for said surviving consort by the law o t of the estate of said decedent is One thousand eight hundred ten and 36/100 dollars.
I return herewith also an inventory and appraisement of the items of said provision by will, and by law, respectively.
Witness my hand, this 25th day of January, 1956. Todd Hoopes
Inventory
Under the provisions of the will of said decedent, the surviving spouse is to receive the net income for life from the net estate left in trust for her said lifetime. The net estate, after deducting the 20 per centum and a $5,000.00 year's allowance, without provision for probable debts is $3,620.71. Invested con ervatively at 3%, the surviving spouse would receive at most $108.62 per year. At the age of 88, her life expectancy is 2.334 years, making a present value of the provision under the will of $253.52.
Under the law, the surviving spouse would receive one-half the net estate, there having been only one child. The value of the said one-half would therefore amount to $1,810.36. Todd Hoopes

Myers surviving spo se, and that the surviving spous and those persons, who are known to be resident of The State of Ohio, who would be entitled to inherit from the decedent under the statutes of descent and distribution if said deceden had diedintestate, (excepting any person who would be entitled to inherit from said decednet solely by reason of relationship to a deceased spouse thereof), have been duly served with notice of the filing of said Will andof the application to admit it to probate and record in this Court, pursuant to a former order of this Court, or have waived notice and given consent to the probate of said will.

And it further appearing to the Court that John H. Willis and E. S. Bown both of the subscribing witnesses to said wil , are dead

Thereupon L. H. Collins and Fred Asman appeared in open Court and were duly sworn and examined according to law touching the genuineness of the signature of said Ben E. Myers attached to said will. which testimony was reduced to writing, was subscribed by them respectively, and was filed with said will.

Whereupon the Court finds that the aforesaid instrumentof writing, is the Last Will and Testament of said Ben E. Myers deceased; that it was duly executed and attested; and that the said testator, at the time of signing said will he was of full ge, of sound mind and memory and not under any restraint.

Therefore the Court, being satisfied as to its jurisdiction herein, orders the admitting of said will to probate and record, and that the testimony of the wit nesses herein, be entered of record in this Court.

Order Admitting to Probate and Record

This matter came on this day further to be heard, on the application of Carrie Ethel Cormany to admit to probate and record the will of Leroy Cormany, deceased, late of the Villageof Plain City, in said County, heretofore filed in t is Court.

It is now shown to the satisfaction of the Court that said decedent died leaving Carrie Ethel Cormany surviving spouse, and that the surviving spouse and thosepersons, who are known to be resident of The State of Ohio, who would be entitled to inherit from the decedent under the statutes of descent and distribution if said decedent had died intestate, (excepting any person who would be entitled to inherit from said decedent solely by reason of relationship to a deceased spouse thereof), have been duly served with notice of the filing of said will and of the application to admit it to probate and record in this Court, pursuant to a former order of this Court, or have waived notice and given consent to the probateof said will.

And if further appearing to the Court that Glenn Daugherty, one of the subscribing witnesses to said will, is dead, and for that reason his testimony cannot be obtained.

Thereupon Ethel Daugherty and Sheridan Jobe appeared in open Court and were duly dworn and examined according to law touching the genuineness of the signature of said Glenn Daugherty attached to said will. Thereupon this day came Ethel Daugherty Paul, formerly Ethel Daugherty, the other subscribing witness to said will, who having been duly sworn, testified as to the execution and attestation of said will, which testimony was reduced to writing, was subscribed by them respectively, and was filed with said will.

Whereupon the Court finds that the aforesaid instrument of writing, is the will of said Leroy Cormany, deceased; that it was duly executed and attested; and that the said testator, at the time of signing the said will was of full age, of sound mind and memory and not under any restraint.

Therefore the Court, being satisfied as to its jurisdiction herein, orders the admitting of said will to probate and record, and that the testimony of the witnesses herein, be entered of record in this Court. Luther L. Liggett Probate Judge (Seal)

Order Admitting to Probate and Record

This matter came on this day further to be heard, on the application of Anna B. Vollrath, to admit to probate and record the will of George Vollrath, deceased, domiciled at Milford Center, Ohio, heretofore filed in this Court.

It is now shown to the satisfaction of the Court that said decedent died leaving Anna B. Vollrath surviving spouse, and that the surviving spouse and those persons, who are known to be resident of The State of Ohio, who would be entitled to inherit from the decedent under the statutes of descent and distribution if said decedent had died intestate, (excepting any person who would be entitled to inherit from said decedent solely by reason of relationship to a deceased spouse thereof), have been duly served with notice of the filing of said will and of the application to admit it to probate and record in this Court, purusant to a formerorder of this Court, or have waived notice and given consent to the probate of said will.

And the subscribing witnesses, C. A. Hoopes and Eloise C. Smart, this day appeared in open Court and having been duly sworn, testified respectively to the due execution and attestation of said will which testimony was reduced to writing, was subscribed by them respectively, and was filed herein.

Whereupon the Court finds that the aforesaid instrument of writing, is the will of said George Vollrath, deceased; that it was duly executed and attested; and that the said testator, at the time of signing his will was of full age, of sound mind and memory and not under any restraint.

Therefore the Court, being satisfied as to its jurisdiction herein, orders the admitting of said will to probate and record, and that the testimony of the witnesses herein, be entered of record in this Court. Luther L. Liggett Probate Judge (Seal)

ENTRY OF PROBATE.
The last Will of Otis C. Hatton, also known as O. C. Hatton, deceased, domiciled in the County, was on the 10th day of December, A.D. 1957, presented to the Court for probate and record.
The Court finds that the decedent died leaving Marie S. Hatton, surviving spouse, and that she and all persons known to be residents of the state who would be entitled to inherit from the testator under the Statutes of Descent and Distribution if he had died intestate, have waived service of notice of the hearing thereon.
Thereupon, on the 11th day of December, A. D. 1957, appeared in open Court Eva Wagner, formerly Eva Grupe, one of the subscribing witnesses to said Will, as to her own signature and as to the genuineness of the signature and handwriting of ClarenceR. Foust, the other subscribing witness to said Will, who has, since the date of said Will, died, and Charles D. Evans, as to the signature of said Clarence R. Foust, said deceased witness, and were duly swom and examined and their testimony was reduced to writing and filed.
The Court finds, from the testimony so taken, that said Will was duly executed and attested, and that at the time of executing same the testator was of legal age, sound mind and memory, and not under any restraint.
The Court on the this 13th day of December, A. D. 1957, admits the said Will to probate and orders the same, together with the testimony so taken, to be recorded according to law.

SUPPLEMENTAL INFORMATION FOR APPLICATION FOR DETERMINATION OF INHERITANCE TAX

The undersigned, Robert H. Hatton, Attorney for the Executrix of the estate of Otis C. Hatton, deceased, and son of the decedent, says that to the best of his knowledge and belief that the following described property of the decedent was transferred by the decedent less than two years prior to his death but not in contemplation of death; that the following information is to be made a part of and included under section 2 of Schedule D of the original application to which this is attached.
The decedent Otis C. Hatton, enjoyed generally good health throughout his life and until his final illness about three weeks prior to his death pursued his very active and normal routine even after his retirement in September, 1955; and the following transfer was not made in contemplation of death.

Undivided one-half interest in the following described premises:

Sub lot 58 and north 30 front and rear of sub lot 59 of a Re-Allotment of Good Farm Allotment as shown by recorded plot of said allotment in Recorder's Office Plat Book 24, Pages 66-73 incl.
Tax duplicate valuation at transfer $4,715.00

Market value at date of transfer $ 11,787.50

This transfer of the decedent's interest in the family home was made February 18, 1956, after decedent's retirement, when he was better able to evaluate his position so that Marie S. Hatton, his wife, would have entire possession and enjoyment of the home, and to create a substantial balance in their real estate holdings at that time.
Total Value of Property transferred $11,787.50.
And hereby claims exempt from tax the foregoing listed transfer.

Robert H. Hatton

Sworn to and subscribed before me this 6th day of March, 1958.

ORDER ADMITTING TO PROBATE AND RECORD.
This matter came on this day further to be heard on the application of Della B. King and Etta Carter to admit to probate and record the will and codicil of John B. Foos, deceased, late of the village of New Bloomington in said County, heretofore filed in this Court.
It is now shown to the satisfaction of the Court that said decedent died leaving no surviving spouse and that those persons, who are known to be resident of The State of Ohio, who would be entitled to inherit from the decedent under the statutes of descent and distribution if said decedent had died intestate, (excepting any person who would be entitled to inherit from said decedent solely by reason of relationship to a deceased spouse thereof), have been duly served with notice of the filing of said Will and codicil and of the application to admit it to probate and record in this Court, pursuant to a former order of this Court, or have waived notice and given consent to the probate of said will and codicil.
And Rebecca J. George and Robert F. Allen, this day appeared in open Court and having been duly sworn, testified respectively to the due execution and attestation of said will and codicil which testimony was reduced to writing, was subscribed by them respectively, and was filed herein.
Whereupon the Court finds that the aforesaid instrument of writing, is the will and codicil of said John B. Foos, deceased; that it was duly executed and attested; and that the said testator, at the time of signing said will and codicil was of full age, of sound mind and memory and not under any restraint.
Therefore the Court, being satisfied as to its jurisdiction herein, orders the admitting of said Will and codicil to probate and record, and that the testimony of the witnesses herein, be entered of record in this Court.

JOURNAL ENTRY, ORDERS ON HEARING, ADMISSION TO PROBATE.
This day this cause came on to be heard upon the application to admit said Will to probate; due notice having been given to or waived by the surviving spouse and the persons known to be resident of the state who would be entitled to inherit from the testator under Sections 2105.01 to 2105.21, inclusive, of the Revised Code, if he had died intestate, pursuant to the former order of the Court.

Thereupon came Bertha E. Breck and Marie B. Snyder the subscribing witnesses to said Will who being duly sworn, testified as to the execution and attestation of said Will; which testimony was reduced to writing, by said witnesses respectively subscribed, and filed with said Will.

ORDER ADMITTING TO PROBATE AND RECORD (COMMISSION RETURNED)
This matter came on this day further to be heard, on the application of Jay Turner to admit to probate and record the will of W. G. Lincoln, deceased, domiciled at Woodstock, Ohio, heretofore filed in this Court.
It is now shown to the satisfaction of the Court that said decedent died leaving no surviving spouse, and that the surviving spouse and those persons, who are known to be resident of The State of Ohio, who would be entitled to inherit from the decedent under the statutes of descent and distribution if said decedent had died intestate, (excepting any person who would be entitled to inherit from said decedent solely by reason of relationship to a deceased spouse thereof), have been duly served with notice of the filing of said will and of the application to admit it to probate and record in this Court, pursuant to a former order of this Court, or have waived notice and given consent to the probate of said will, Luther L. Liggett, Probate Judge of Union, the Commissioner heretofore appointed to take the deposition of Frances Helmick one of the subscribing witnesses to said will, duly returned the commission issued to him, with said will annexed, and also the deposition so taken, duly certified; and thereupon came this day also Russell B. Holding, the other subscribing witness to said will. Said subscribing witnesses to said will, having been duly sworn, testified as to the execution and attestion of said will, which testimony was reduced to writing, was subscribed by them respectively, and was filed herein.
Whereupon the Court finds that the aforesaid instrument of writing is the last will of said W. G. Lincoln, deceased; that it was duly executed and attested; and that the said testator at the time of signing said will, was of full age, of sound mind and memory, and not under any restraint.
Therefore the Court, being satisfied as to its jurisdiction herein, orders the admitting of said will to probate, and that it together with the said testimony of the witnesses herein, be entered of record in this Court.

Smith and Philip W. Smith. In the event either of my said children shall have predeceased me, then the respective share of such child shall vest in his issue then surviving, per stirpes, and in default of such issue, his share shall be added to the share ofmy other child. If, however, at the time of my death the only beneficiaries under this provision are my grandchildren, then all shall take per capita. Further, in the event both of my said children shall have predeceased me without leaving issue surviving, then I give, devise and bequeath all of my said property to my heirs at law.

ITEM III: In the event my wife, Mary Elizabeth Smith, is living at the time of my death and survives me for a period of not less than ninety (90) days:

A. One-half (½) of my net estate remaining after the payment of my debts, funeral expenses and expenses of administration, I give, devise and bequeath to my said wife, Mary Elizabeth Smith, to be hers absolutely and forever. In determining my net estate for the purpose of calculating the portion thereof which shall comprise my wife's interest, pursuant to the provisions of this ITEM III, I direct

(1) That there shall be included in the calculation of my total estate any life insurance policies upon my life, which, for the purposes of determining Federal Estate Taxes are includable in my gross estate although the proceeds thereof are payable directly to the beneficiaries named in said policies, and

(2) That no deduction be made for any Federal Estate or State Inheritance Taxes payable in connection with my estate;

I direct that my said wife, Mary Elizabeth Smith, shall have the privilege of selecting, by notice in writing, after the appraised value of my estate has been determined, the specific property which shall comprise the interest herein given, devised and bequeathed to her by this ITEM IIIA:

B. From the property remaining in my estate after compliance with the provisions of ITEMS I AND IIIA above, I direct my Executors to pay all Federal Estate and State Inheritance Taxes imposed upon or with respect to any property required to be included in my estate for such tax purposes, whether or not such property passes through the hands of my said executors, and I direct that my executors shall not require that any part of such taxes be recovered from, paid by, or apportioned between the recipients of such property.

C. All the rest and residue of my net estate of every kind and description, wheresoever situated, of which I die seized or entitled to or over which I have the right of testamentary disposition, and which remains after compliance with the provisions of ITEMS I AND IIIA AND B above, I give, devise and bequeath to the Testamentary Trustees hereinafter named and appointed, and their successors in trust, for the uses and purposes and upon the terms and conditions hereinafter set forth.

ITEM IV. The respective property which is herein given, devised and bequeathed to my Testamentary Trustees as my testamentary trust, under the provisions of ITEM IIIC above, is to be held by said Testamentary Trustees, or their successors in trust, for the following uses and purposes and upon the terms and conditions hereinafter set forth:

A. TESTAMENTARY TRUSTEES

I make, nominate and appoint my son, Frederick G. Smith, my son, Philip W. Smith, and Joseph L. Halberstein, all of Marion, Ohio, to be the Trustees of my Testamentary Trust. In the event of the death, disability or unwillingness of any one of said persons, or their respective successors, to act as Trustee, a successor Trustee shall be selected and appointed by the remaining Trustees. In case any differences of opinion shall at any time arise between my Trustees, or their successors, as to any matter concerning my Testamentary Trust, the decisions and acts of a majority of the Trustees shall be binding and conclusive and shall be deemed to be the acts of all of the Trustees.

B. POWERS OF TRUSTEES

During the entire term of the Trust herein created, my Trustees (subject to their liability to account for and pay over under the terms hereof, the income and corpus of the Trust Estate to the persons entitled thereto), shall have, in the management and control thereof, all of the rights, powers and authority over the Trust property which I would have if I were living and if no trust or other restrictions had been created by me. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing grant of power, my Trustees shall during the term of the Trust herein created, have the right and power:

(a) To retain title and have possession, management and control of the Trust Estate and every part thereof, with power to collect all income therefrom and to sell, receive, transfer or exchange all or any part thereof, together with all property which may from time to time be substituted therefor or added thereto, at such prices and upon such terms and conditions and in such manner as they may deem best, including the right to lease any property of said Trust Estate for any term of years, irrespective of the period of the Trust.

(b) To sell, invest, reinvest or otherwise deal with the Trust Estate as and when they deem advisable and for the best interests of the beneficiaries thereof without the order or intervention of any Court or other authority and irrespective of any statutes or rules or practices of Courts now or hereafter in force, limiting the investment of Trusts generally, and persons dealing with my said Trust in respect to the Trust Estate need not see to the application of the purchase price or other sums concerned therewith.

(c) To continue my Estate or any part thereof in the form it is in at the time it is received by said Trustees, if in their judgment they deem it advisable to do so, without liability for loss from depreciation in the value thereof.

value thereof.

(d) To take title to any property in the name of a nominee or nominees, if desired, and to execute and deliver proxies for securities held to proxy designees of their selection to vote the same at meetings of the respective issuers thereof.

(e) To employ suitable agents which they may deem necessary at any time in the management and prexervation of the Trust Estate and to pay reasonable compensation and expenses thereof.

(f) To compromise, compound and djust all claims in favor of or against the Trust Estate at their sole discretion and upon such terms and conditions as they may deem best.

(g) To pay any and all taxes and other charges and expenses incurred in connection with the Trust Estate.

D. DISTRIBUTION OF INCOME

During the period of the Trust herein created, the income therefrom shall be distributed to my said wife, Mary Elizabeth Smith, on a quarterly basis.

E. DISTRIBUTION OF CORPUS

In the event that the income derived from the Trust Estate herein created is insufficient, in the sole discretion of the Trustees, to maintain my wife in reasonable comfort upon the plane of life to which she has become accustomed, after giving consideration to other property owned by her and other income available to her from sources other than the Trust herein created, then and in that event I hereby empower and authorize my said Trustees, in the exercise of their sound discretion and judgment, to distribute to my wife, Mary Elizabeth Smith, such reasonable part of the principal or corpus of the Trust as may be necessary to permit of her being provided with said living standard, even though the Trust Estate is thereby diminished substantially or consumed entirely.

Upon the death of my said wife, Mary Elizabeth Smith, the Trust, except as hereinafter provided, shall cease and the Trustees shall convey and transfer all of the property then in the Trust Estate, in equal shares, the property then in the Trust Estate, in equal shares, to my children. In the event either of my said children shall have predeceased such date of termination of the Trust, the respective share of such child shall vest in his issue then surviving, per stirpes, and in default of such surviving issue, such share shall be added to the share of my other child. If at the time of my wife's death, the only beneficiaries under this provision are grandchildren of mine, then all shall take per capita. Further, if at the time of my wife's death there shall be no children or grandchildren of mine then living, the remaining Trust property shall be distributed to my heirs at law.

Upon the death of any person before becoming entitled to his or her distributive share, such share shall be treated in the same manner as though such person or persons had predeceased the termination of the Trust. During the period in which the respective share of such person or persons is held in trust by said Trustees, there shall be paid to them all or such part of the income from their respective shares of the trust property which the Trustees in their sole and absolute discretion determine to be necessary for their proper support, care, health, education and maintenance, any unexpended income to be added to and become part of their respective sharesof the trust corpus.

G. PROHIBITION AGAINST ALIENTAION

No income or principal payable to any beneficiary hereunder shall be alienated, disposed of or in any manner encumbered while in the possession of the Trustees otherwise than by the authorized actof the Trustees. If by reason of the act of any such beneficiary, or by operation of law, or by the happening of any event, or for such other reason except by an act of the Trustees authorized hereunder, any of such income or principal shall, or except for this provision, woulc cease to be enjoyed by such beneficiary as provided herein, or if for any reason of an attempt of such beneficiary to alienate, charge, encumber, or dispose of the same, or by reason of the bankruptcy or insolvency of such beneficiary, or because of any attachment, garnishment of or other proceeding or any order, finding or judgment of Court, either in law or in equity, shall, or except for this provision would, vest in or be enjoyed by some other person, firm or corporation otherwise than as herein provided, then the Trust herein concerning such income and/or principal shall cease and determine as to such beneficiary and all such income or principal thereafter during the life of such beneficiary, but subject to the rights of all other beneficiaries as hereinabove provided, shall be held by the Trustees according to their absolutely discretion. This matter came on this day further to be heard, on the application of Frederick G. Smith and Philip W. Smith to admit to probate and record the Will of Frederick C. Smith, deceased, late of the city of Marion in said County, heretofore filed in this Court.
It is now shown to the satisfaction of the Court that said decedent died leaving Mary Elizabeth Smith surviving spouse and that the surviving spouse and those persons, who are known to be resident of The State of Ohio, who would be entitled to inherit from the deceden under the statutes of descent and distribution if said decedent had died intestate, (excepting any person who would be entitled to inherit from said decedent solely by reason of relationship to a deceased spouse thereof), have been duly served with notice of the filing of said Will and of the application to admit it to probate and record in this Court, pursuant to a former order of this Court, or have waived notice and given consent to the probate of said Will.

The Court further finds that for the purpose of determining Federal Estate Taxes on the decedent's Estate, there will be includible life insurance policies in the aggregate face amount of $17,000.00, the proceeds of which are payable directly to decedent's widow; that the widow succeeded under the provisions of Item III of decedent's will to property taxable under Ohio Inheritance Tax laws of the value of $73,569.72; that the aggregate value of the remainder of the assets subject to Ohio Inheritance Tax is $84,461.47, all of which assets constitute the corpus of a Testamentary Trust created by decedent's Will, that the net annual income from such Trust Estate is payable to decedent's widow during her lifetime, with the corpus to be distributed to her or heirs of the second class upon the death of the life tenant.
The Court further finds that the provisions of said decedent's will grant authority to the Trustees to invade or consume entirely the principal of said Trust Estate for the benefit of said widow, and that in order to assess the Inheritance Taxes payable on said estate at the highest possible rate, as provided by law, it must be assumed that said power to invade will be fully exercised, that until the happening of the contingencies contained in said decedent's Will permitting a final determination, the widow, for Inheritance Tax purposes, is deemed to have succeeded, in addition to taxable property passing directly to her, to all taxable property comprising said Testamentary Trust.

ORDER ADMITTING TO PROBATE AND RECORD(A WITNESS DEAD, ETC.)
In the matter of the Will of Lank W. Cary, deceased.
This matter came on this day further to be heard, on the application of Gay S. Cary to admit to probate and record the Will of Lank W. Cary, deceased, late of the village of Plain City in said County, heretofore filed in this Court.
It is now shown to the satisfaction of the Court that said decedent died leaving Gay S. Cary surviving spouse and that the surviving spouse and those persons, who are known to be resident of The State of Ohio, who would be entitled to inherit from the decedent under the statutes of descent and distribution if said decedent had died intestate, (excepting any person who would be entitled to inherit from said decedent solely by reason of relationship to a deceased spouse thereof), have been duly served with notice of the filing of said Will and of the application to admit it to probate and record in this Court, pursuant to a former order of this Court, or they have waived notice and given consent to the probate of said Will.

And it further appearing to the Court that Milo L. Myers one of the subscribing witnesses to said will, is dead.
Thereupon Elizabeth Shearer and Helen R. Heller appeared in open Court and were duly sworn and examined according to law touching the genuineness of the signature of said Milo L. Myers attached to said will. Therefore on this day came Elizabeth Shearer the other subscribing witness to said Will, who having been duly sworn, testified as to the execution and attestation of said Will, which testimony was reduced to writing, was subscribed by them respectively, and was filed with said will.
Whereupon the Court finds that the aforesaid instrument of writing, is the Will of said Lank W. Cary, deceased; that it was duly executed and attested; and that the said testator, at the time of signing his Will was of full age, of sound mind and memory and not under any restraint. Therefore the Court, being satisfied as to its jurisdiction herein, orders the admitting of said Will to probate and record, and that the testimony of the witnesses herein, be entered of record in this Court.

ORDER ADMITTING TO PROBATE AND RECORD(A WITNESS DEAD, ETC.)
This matter came on this day further to be heard, on the application of John M. Campbell, Sr. to admit to probate and record the Will of Irene Campbell, deceased, late of the City of Urbana, Ohio, in said County, heretofore filed in this Court.
It is now shown to the satisfaction of the Court that said decedent died leaving John M. Campbell, Sr. her surviving spouse and that the surviving spouse and those persons, who are known to be resident of The State of Ohio, who would be entitled to inherit from the decedent under the statutes of descent and distribution if said decedent had died intestate, (excepting any person who would be entitled to inherit from the said decedent solely by reason of relationship to a deceased spouse thereof), have been duly served with notice of the filing of said Will and of the application to admit to probate and record in this Court, pursuant to a former order of this Court, or have duly waived notice and given consent to the probate of said Will.

And it further appearing to the Court that Ben P. Dixon, one of the subscribing witnesses to said will, is dead.
Thereupon Irene S. Pearce and Benj. E. Seibert appeared in open Court and were duly sworn and examined according tolaw touching the genuineness of the signature of said Ben P. Dixon attached to said will. Thereupon on this day came G. P. Seibert, the other subscribing witness to said will, who having been duly sworn, testified as to the execution and attestation of said will, which testimony was reduced to writing, was subscribed by them respectively, and was filed with said will.
Whereupon the Court finds that the aforesaid instrument of writing, is the Will of said Irene Campbell, deceased; that it was duly executed and attested; and that the said testator, at the time of signing said Will was of full age, of sound mind and memory and not under any restraint.
Therefore the Court, being satisfied as to its jurisdiction herein, orders the admitting of said Will to probate and record, and that the testimony of the witnesses herein, be entered of record in this Court.
