Mathew Lingrel et al } Appeal.

This day this cause came on for hearing to the court upon the petition of plaintiff, answer of defendant Mathew Lingrel and Reply thereto of the plaintiff & testimony and was argued by counsel the defendant Mathew Lingrel failing to answer or demur to said petition on consideration whereof the court do find, that there is due at this date upon the note described in the petition including interest at the rate of 8 per cent per annum the sum of $372.50. And the court further finds that the defendants, Mathew Lingrel and Martha Lingrel his wife executed & delivered to the plaintiff the mortgage deed in the petition mentioned and described, on the premises therein described, that said mortgage was duly recorded in Book 12 pages 222 & 223 of the record of Mortgages of said Union County Ohio and is the first & best lien on the premises described in the petition herein. The court further find that the condition of defeasance in the mortgage has been broken & that the plaintiff is thereby entitled to have the defendants Equity of redemption foreclosed, &c.

It is therefore considered & decreed that unless the said defendants within 3 days from this date fail to pay the said sum of $372.50 with 8 per cent interest until paid & according to the tenor of said mortgage to this plaintiff or his attorney that then the equity of redemption of defendants be foreclosed and said premises shall be sold and that an order of sale issue to the Sheriff of said County directing him to sell said premises according to law free from dower as upon execution and bring the proceeds of said sale into court to be distributed in accordance with this decree. And it is further ordered that a special mandate issue to the Court of Common pleas to carry this decree into execution.

District Court, Union County Ohio.

This day this cause came on to be heard upon the pleadings and testimony and was argued by counsel and submitted to the Court upon consideration whereof the Court do find the allegations of the said petition are true that the three roads or parts of roads described in the pleadings and proceedings herein do not form one continuous road improvement and that the said Commissioners had no jurisdiction or power to order the improvement under one petition or in one proceeding.

It is further found by the Court that the said Plaintiff and the said Defendants who are united with him in the prosecution of their case and who have filed ^{their} answer and cross-petition have done no acts or omitted to do anything by reason of which they are estopped from asking for relief in the premises.

Whereupon the Defendants filed their motion for a new Trial which motion was overruled by the Court to which Defendants excepted and asked the Court to sign and seal their bill of exceptions which is done by the Court's order, the same to be recorded as a part of the record of this cause.

It is therefore considered ordered and decreed that the said Defendants be each and all perpetually enjoined from taking any further steps in the matter of making and improving said roads and that the said Commissioners and Auditor of said County be forever enjoined from issuing the bonds of the County in payment of said improvement and also from placing upon the duplicates of said County the assessment made upon the lands of Plaintiff and the said Defendants who have been united with him in their action and filed their cross-petition herein. It is further ordered that the said Defendants the Commissioners of said County pay all the costs of this action taxed at and the same is not paid execution issue therefor.

To all of which judgment and finding of the Court the Defendants the Commissioners of Union County and Samuel B. Robinson then and there excepted.

Now came all the parties to this cause and the parties to the cause of M. C. Lawrence Trustee &c against Henry Barth and others No. 98 in this Court and which cause was consolidated under the title of Newton Smith against Mary E. Haines et al. and thereupon this cause so consolidated came on to be heard on the pleadings, exhibits and evidence offered by all the parties, whereupon the Court find that said mortgage in said petition described was made for a valuable consideration without fraud or misrepresentation and is the property of said Newton Smith and the defendants, named in said petition as the heirs of Lieutenant Edward Smith deceased, ^{who are the sole heirs of the said Edward Smith deceased.} and that there remains due and unpaid to said heirs of said Edward Smith on said mortgage the sum of $4264 ⁶⁰/₁₀₀ with eight per cent interest thereon from March 28th 1877 which this 9th day of March A.D. 1883 amounts principal & interest to the sum of $6289 ⁸⁰/₁₀₀ on which the Administrator of M. C. Lawrence holds a lien for his fees in and about the litigation relating thereto as set forth in said pleadings, and that the several interests of said heirs of said Smith deceased in said sum is as follows viz: $2096 ⁴⁹/₁₀₀ to Newton Smith subject to the share of M. C. Lawrence's interest therein, $2096 ⁴⁹/₁₀₀ to Mary E. And the Court further find that on the payment of said sum due on said mortgage the decrees mentioned in said defendants answers should be receipted and cancelled, and the title of said heirs of said Henry Barth deceased quieted in them against all the said heirs of said Smith deceased.

It is therefore considered ordered and decreed that unless the said defendants the said heirs of Henry Barth deceased to-wit- Charles Barth, William H. Barth, Henry D. Barth, Rosanna C. This day came the parties and submitted this cause to the ^{court} the pleadings. Evidence & arguments of counsel whereupon the court being fully advised ~~and~~ the premises find that the said property in said petition described was by the codicil of said will of Elizabeth Mann dec'd devised to said U.S. Alden on conditions in said petition mentioned & that said Alden by his refusal to use said premises for other than saloon purposes as alleged in said petition & not denied in his answer hath forfeited his right and title to said premises but that he retains by virtue of said codicil the right to be paid by the Executor of her will a just & equivalent for the improvements made thereon by the said U.S. Alden and the court find that said U.S. Alden hath a just claim against said Estate of Elizabeth Mann dec'd by reason of all the matters and claim set up in his said answer for the sum of Two Thousand Dollars which the said F. S. Hoyt as said Executor ought to allow & pay as a just claim against said Estate which the court order to be & the same is the first lien on said property. It is therefore considered ordered and decreed by the court that said title to said premises, subject to the said rights of said U.S. Alden be quieted in said F. S. Hoyt as Executor & that he is hereby quieted in said title in trust to sell & carry out this decree & the trust in said will mentioned and he the said Executor is hereby ordered to pay out of said Estate to said Alden said sum of Two Thousand dollars and the said Executor is authorized & ordered by the votes of S. D. Elliott Edward P. Houghton and George Est. to cause said premises to be duly appraised & that he advertise & sell said premises according to law at public sale & report his proceedings herein to the court of common Pleas of this County to carry out this decree to which court this cause is hereby remanded for that purpose. Whereupon the plaintiff moved the court to grant him a new trial for reasons mentioned in his said motion which motion the court overruled, to which ruling of the court plaintiff excepted and asked the court to allow signed seal his Bill of Exceptions which the court accordingly does & orders the same to be recorded as part of the records in this cause.

Court met this morning at 8.30 am. the same Officers present as on yesterday.

John Orr, Plaintiff in Error. against
The Village of Richwood Defendant in Error.

114

This day this cause came on to be heard, upon the petition in Error and the Record of the proceedings in this cause, and was argued by counsel, and the Court being fully advised in the premises, do find that important and difficult questions of law arise in this case, and the Court is unanimous in the opinion that this cause should be reserved for decision in the Supreme Court. And thereupon, on motion of the plaintiff in Error, the Court order that this cause be reserved for decision in the Supreme Court.

And the Court in this cause find the following facts, to wit:

- 1st That Plaintiff in Error had duly paid his $200⁰⁰ tax on the 19th day of June 1883 under the Law commonly known as the Scott Law.
- 2nd That defendant in Error, on the 7th day of August 1883, passed the ordinance (a full copy of which is set up in the Bill of Exceptions) and which went into effect on the 27th day of August 1883.
- 3rd That Plaintiff in Error kept a house where he had for sale spirituous liquors, beer, wine, tobacco and cigars, and that he made frequent sales of beer by the glass, and sometimes whiskey by the glass to different persons which they drank in the house between the taking effect of the ordinance and the filing of the affidavit.
- 4th The evidence does not show any intoxication by any of such sales, or any disturbance in or about the house, or anything going to the character of the house, except as above found. Upon these facts arise the following questions of law, to wit: Was the conviction of Plaintiff in Error, as shown by the record, lawful or unlawful?

Court adjourned until tomorrow at 8 1/2 o'clock am.

V. J. Case

Clinton W. Case et al

This day came the parties and submitted this cause to the Court upon the petition, answer and amended answer and reply thereto and evidence whereupon the Court being fully advised in the premises do order that the case no. 4056 docketed in the Court of Common Pleas on the account originally attached to the plaintiff's petition be consolidated with this cause and the defendants in open Court authorizing the Court to enter such decree in this cause against them as may be equitable and do justice to the parties. The court after hearing the evidence and the arguments of counsel do not find the alleged contract and its fulfillment so clearly proven as the law requires and therefore find against the plaintiff on said issue so far as it seeks a completion of said contract, but the Court find that said plaintiff hath for years past labored for the said Newton Case without full compensation and that in satisfaction of said account in the said pleadings mentioned and in full satisfaction for the ^{said} work done by said plaintiff for said Newton Case decrees not included in said account the said Estate ought in equity to pay altogether to said plaintiff the sum of Twenty seven hundred dollars and that the cost of this proceeding including the costs of this case so consolidated should be paid out of said Estate.

Therefore it is considered, ordered and decreed by the Court that the plaintiff is not entitled to a decree for a specific performance for conveyance of said land and as to that part of the case, the petition is dismissed, but as to the alternative part of this case, the Court order and decree that Peleg Cranston as Administrator of the Estate of Newton Case decrees, pay out the first of any funds that may come into his hands as Administrator liable to pay debts, to the said plaintiff Velasco J. Case in satisfaction of said account and of all claims for labor and improvements made on behalf of said Newton Case, the said sum of Twenty seven hundred Dollars with int. from this date, and the cost of these proceedings to be charged against said Estate in his settlement and this cause is remanded to the Court of Common Pleas, without record in this District Court, for such proceedings as may be necessary.

Liles O. Griswold
Daniel W. Camp et al

This day came on this cause to be heard by the Court whereupon Gardner, Clark and York who alone filed an undertaking for appeal desire to withdraw their appeal and the plaintiff consenting thereto, they have leave to withdraw their appeal. Thereupon Charles Randall by his Atty asks to be heard on his answer and the reply thereto but it appearing that Charles Randall did not file any appeal bond, the Court hold and decide that his said cause is not pending in this Court and overrule his motion for hearing.

Whereupon it is considered, ordered and adjudged by the Court that the appeal of said cause by Gardner Clark and York be and the same is dismissed at their costs, and that the judgment and decree of the said Court of Common Pleas in said cause be and remain the same as if they had not filed said appeal bond, and this cause is remanded to said Court for further proceedings, To all of which findings and rulings of the Court said Charles Randall excepts

District Court,
Union County,
Ohio.

Commissioners of Union County, Ohio,
Uriah Cahill, Nathaw Howard, J. B. Whelpley and George A. Fryer and others, Dfta in Error.

This day this cause is settled by the parties upon the following terms to wit: the plaintiff in error agrees to construct, under their said railroad, the culvert mentioned in their said proceedings, and at its own expense, so as to allow the free passage of the waters of said Claburnaw Ditch under its said railroad, said culvert to be constructed by said railroad Company in a reasonable time from this date and the said railroad Company agrees to pay the costs by them made in the same.

It is further agreed between the parties that this agreement of settlement be spread upon the Journal of the District Court of said County as the final settlement and ending of said proceedings, and no further record is required to be made by either party.
