- Wayne Dellinger stated he received an email from one of the state specialists regarding a tentative positive test for highly pathogenic avian flu in Canadian geese around the uptown reservoir. He has attempted to follow up but has not found any new information but is still attempting to find definitive answers. A position with OSU Extension has opened. It is half Consumer Family Sciences and half 4H. The position could be posted as soon as next week and encouraged people to share with those who might be interested. Beef tag in deadline is today for fair.
  - Brad Gilbert stated employees should monitor their emails for EMA's annual report. EMA coordinated with the Union County Sheriff's Office and Marysville Police/Fire. They designed and facilitated an exercise at Trinity and had a good discussion with Trinity's staff. Thank you to the Commissioners for the support of the Community Development Block Grant. The Siren project is about 98% done and they have the training to do with the 911 center. More reports to come. Elected officials and senior staff, there is a 402 IDF Overview Class. This helps understand what happens in disasters and is a virtual class. On morning of January 21 there will be a multi- agency exercise to bring multiple agencies into the location in the event a disaster occurs. Reminder about Continuity of Operations Plan (COOP) plans and continue to update them in the new year. If offices need any assistance he is available to help.
  - Ginger Yonak stated employees should check health insurance deductions on their paystubs to ensure accuracy. There will be no ID cards for dental and vision coverage. There will be an EAP information webinar on January 14th at 11:00 am. No RSVP is necessary. Human Resources is currently working on several job announcements and there will be about 7 jobs to post in the next several days. She is working on setting up EAP and BMI Financial lunch and learns. The first wellness program activity for the year is underway. New Year – New You promotes employees to work together as a team of 7 to complete 15 activities each. Each team and individual that completes the challenge will be entered to win prizes. They are attempting to promote a healthy start to the year.
  - Brad Bodenmiller stated they are working on a Data Center report regarding what you can do with zoning and issues to pay attention to. Model text began in October, and he expects it to be completed in the first quarter of the year. LUC has put together subdivision statistics from the housing summit. They have reviewed 260 subdivision plats from 2014-2025 and 86% are acted on within 30 days.
  - Wade Branstiter stated that 2025 property values have been finalized for the 2026 tax calculations. Ohio Law is very specific for homeowners looking to appeal their valuation they will need to visit the website for information on how to file an appeal with the Board of Revision. Board of Revision has no say over tax value or rates, only property values. Share a reminder about dog tags and that they are due by January 31. CAUV application renewals are due March 2. A cybersecurity reminder that House Bill 96 required additional cybersecurity. The County Commissioners approved this in December, and an informational email will be sent out later this month. A reminder about the annually required cybersecurity class for all county employees. Be sure to immediately report any suspect or potential cybersecurity concerns for IT to investigate.
  - David Phillips stated the Prosecutors office currently has open position and is working with Ginger Yonak to get the position ready to be posted. The Prosecutor's office is currently helping DJFS with Child Support inditement cases.
  - Judge Fraser stated there are no updates.
  - Eric Phillips stated that the Economic Development Strategy has a survey out that will be shared with Elected Officials to be shared with staff. They would like to get 1500 responses and currently have 1100. Eric plans to share some of the updates on the progress of the Economic Development
