

Union County Law Library Resources Board

Public Access and Hours of Operation

Hours of Operation: 9:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon and 1:00 p.m. to 4:00 p.m., Tuesday through Thursday, with operation suspended during Union County government holidays and other times the Law Librarian is absent and an appropriate replacement is unavailable.

1. During business hours, if the Law Librarian is required to be out of the Law Library, the library door is to be locked and an easily observed sign shall be placed on the door which contains information pertaining to when the Librarian will return.
2. In the event of the Law Librarians' absence, a sign will be posted on the Law Library door which states that the library is currently closed and lists the date that the library will reopen.

Staffed: Full time during all hours of stated operation.

Unstaffed: During hours outside of stated operation.

Public Access: During hours of stated operation, the library and the materials held within are accessible and open to use by any person. After-hours access is limited to those authorized by both the Law Librarian and Court Security. Abuse of access can result in loss of after-hours access or any access.
