Affidavit For Warrant.

The State of Ohio, Union County, ss. Before me one of the Justices of the Peace for said County, personally came S. C. Sigler, being one of the partners of the Sidney Hay Company, who being duly sworn according to law deposes and says that on or about the 18th day of May 1921, at the County of Union and in the village of Marysville, one A. Lewellyn, then over 18 years of age, who was formerly in the employ of the Sidney Hay Company, he being employed as buyer to purchase hay and having authority to write and issue checks in the name of said company, having charge of stationery, check stubs, cancelled checks, balers account, and bale tags, they being instruments of writing, has unlawfully and feloniously taken and carried away and embezzled said property from said company without the consent of his said employers, and refuses to deliver the same. Said goods and chattels are of the value of $35.00 and more, being the property of the said Sidney Hay Company, and which were in the possession of the said A. Lewellyn by virtue of his said employment. The said goods + chattels which the deponent verily believes and has good reason to believe are concealed by one, A. Lewellyn, at his dwelling house in which he resides, situated in the Township of Paris, County of Union State of Ohio, near the end of N. Court Street, in a one story led double house, in the village of Marysville. This deponent says he believes and has good reason to believe that one, A. Lewellyn, is guilty of the above said charge and does conceal
