Indictment for

Affidavit in support of Motion for Change of Venue

State of Ohio }
Butler County } ss.

Thomas McGehan being duly sworn according to law deposes and says that a fair and impartial trial cannot be by him had in said Union County upon said charge; and he states the following facts in support of his statement;

1st The Marysville Tribune a paper published in and extensively & generally circulated throughout the said Union County in speaking of the arrest of this affiant uses the following language to wit

"Another Arrest - A man named McGehan, residing in Butler County, Ohio, was arrested last week & brought to this place, under suspicion of having been connected with the bank robbery in this place, & is in Confinement in the County Jail, and will undergo a preliminary examination in a few days, — whether guilty or innocent of the charge he is represented as a man of bad reputation!! That about 800 Copies of said paper are circulated in said Union County, and are read by a large majority of the adult male residents of said County.

William H. Woods, Cornelius S. Hamilton, and Thomas J. Burton the persons who are referred to in said indictment as the proprietors of the Bank that was broken into & robbed, are all men of extensive acquaintance & influence in said County; that they have uniformly asserted that affiant was guilty of the Commission of said crime in the presence & hearing of a large number of the citizens of said county; that the said Cornelius S. Hamilton has been especially diligent in Circulating the report, that affiant is at the head of a large gang & association of persons engaged in the Commission of Crimes of every kind; and that affiant is a bad and dangerous man; and that affiants beliefs similar opinions are now held by a large Majority of the people of said County.

3d

That affiant was at the time of his arrest taken & the said Town of Marysville during the session of the last term of the Court of Common Pleas of said Union County. That there was an unusually large number of men in said Town from all parts of said County, that they were greatly excited and discussed the probable guilt of said affiant, and asked many questions in regard to the extent and nature of the testimony against said affiant. — That the burglary & larceny charged in said indictment is the largest amount in said County, and is undoubtedly known to every man in said County; and that this affiant was charged by the said Grand Jury as one of his accomplices is also guilty as well known. —

4th

Affiant — presents — the following facts — in evidence of the guilty against him in said County, —

1 — The District of the peace before whom he was originally taken fixed the bail of affiant at the reprehensible sum of $20,000.00 —

2. Said District of the peace refused to take any bail that might be offered unless the persons offered were residents — of said Union County —

3. The Probate Judge of said county — also refused to take good & sufficient bail when offered because the persons who were offered were not residents — of said County —

4th The officers of said County have permitted an abandoned woman to cohabit with the said David Lloyd in the Jail of said County, and to have free access to the said Dawes boyd at all times.

Although the said Boyd, an accomplice of his,
one John Hale, are charged with the Commission of said Crime in Common with this Defendant yet the parties in charge of the prosecutions against them have agreed & promised to abandon & dismiss said prosecutions in event that the said State & Boyd procure & assist, in, the Conviction of this Affiant.

That a number of persons other than the prosecutor residing in said Union County, how many Affiant is unable to say, had money & property in said Bank, specially deposited, which sums also taken at the time of said robbery, as Affiant is informed & believes,

Union County Ohio
Court of Common Pleas Indictment for Burglary and Larceny.

State of Ohio Union County ss.

I Cornelius S. Hamilton being sworn on his oath says that the said Thomas McGehan can not have a fair and impartial trial in said county.

2 He says that the statement of the defendant in his affidavit that this affiant has been especially diligent in circulating the report that said defendant is at the head of a large gang or association of persons engaged in the commission of crimes of every kind; and that defendant is a bad and dangerous man; is not true. He says that his business has confined him to stay within his office closely, and that he has seen and conversed with very few persons outside of his immediate associates, in his office, and in the village of Marysville; and he says that he has never in a single instance made a single remark with the intent to prejudice the mind of any one against said McGehan and to prevent him from having a fair and impartial trial: and he says that what he has said about the said defendant in connection with said alleged Burglary &c, has almost always, when spoken of outside of the circle of his immediate business associates, been spoken in answer to questions put to him by others in a casual way. Affiant admits that he has expressed the belief that said defendant was guilty of the crime charged, and he says he believes it still; and he says that whatever he has said of the defendant being a bad and dangerous man ~~and desperate~~ being at the head of a gang or association of persons engaged in the commission of crime, was simply his opinion of affiant, and so expressed, and that he generally stated the grounds of his opinion to be conversations had by him with gentlemen residing at Dayton & Hamilton.

Affiant further says he said to said Loyd mentioned in the affidavit of defendant that he was satisfied that he was not the principal criminal and that if he would honestly aid us in bringing them to justice, he should not be prosecuted; this is the only conversation or communication he ever had with said Loyd, and that said Loyd in no way committed himself in relation to said proposition to this affiant.

Affiant says it is not true that the prosecutors of the Bank of Maysville ever tried to raise a subscription among the people of Mason County to pay the expenses incident to the prosecution of defendant. So far as this affiant knows or believes and further this affiant say not.
