And afterwards, to wit, at the aforesaid Term of said Court of Common Pleas, continued & held on the 19th day of July 1831. Came the Prosecutor aforesaid on behalf of the State, & the Defendant by his Atty.
& thereupon came a Jury to wit, John Ferris, Henry Wilson, Alanson H. Scott, Daniel Bartleson, James Eaton, Benjamin Wood, David Finley, Samuel Adams, John F.
Ballard, David Armstrong, Thomas Warren & Elijah
Sackett, who were duly elected tried & sworn well & truly to try the issue between the State of Ohio and Reuben E. Ferris & a true verdict to render according to the evidence that should be given them in Court.

This day came again the jury sworn in this cause, and upon their oaths aforesaid do say, the Prisoner being brought to the bar, that they find him guilty in manner & form as is set forth in the Indictment. Whereupon the said Torry being asked by the Court if he has anything to say why sentence should not be passed upon him, agreeable to the verdict of the jury, answers nothing thereto. And it is further considered by the court that the state of Ohio recover of Defendant the costs of this prosecution taxed at dollars and cents &c.

And the following is a copy of the bill of exception taken and on file in this cause, to wit,

The State of Ohio } Court of Com. Pleas June Term 1831.
Delaware County. ss. }

The State of Ohio } Indictment for arson.
James F. Torry } venue change from Union County.

On the trial of the issue joined between the State and the said James F. Torry; before the jury aforesaid;- John Adamson was called upon as a witness and sworn on the part of the State;- and testifies that in March last I with my brother Nathan Adamson were in the possession of a store house in Marysville in Partnership. On the 11th of March in the evening closed the store & locked it up. The shutter at the end of the store fastens with a bar. Left some fire in the stove well secured. Left the store about nine O'Clock in the evening. About one or two O'Clock A.M. was alarmed with the cry of fire. The shutter I found shoved and appeared to have been pried off. The store was on fire in the store room and in the back room. The store was all on fire when I first saw it, and was burned entirely down. Near the store I found two bags in which were goods of ours which appeared to have been taken out of the store. The bags were marked "J. Middleton"; saw marks & tracks near the store. The marks of the negro's cane was seen there. The marks of the nails on the cane were to be seen; also marks of horses. Samuel Razer was at the store about 3 weeks previous to the burning. Assisted at removing the stove; was in the back room - he saw where I kept my money. I was changing some money - emptied my money on the counter. Razer saw the money. (This last statement concerning Razer was objected to by Defts Counsel and asked the court to over rule the same, which the Court refused)

Adamson further testifies, that he afterwards in May last overheard a conversation between Tony, Hazen & the Negro Sam. Johnson who were all in jail charged with this same offence. The Negro was in the upper room. Hazen & Tony were in a room immediately below. There was a crack in the floor so that the person above could converse through it with those below. I was in the room with the negro, and by signs induced him to avoid making the fact of my presence known to Hazen and Tony, and to influence him to hold with them a conversation upon the subject of this crime. The Negro rattled his cane in the crack & called Samuel Hazen. The Negro then said to Hazen. "I am going now to the Penitentiary for seven years. I am going innocently & you know it. For I did not take any of the goods, nor did I fire the store; neither was I nearer to it than the fence & you ought now to give me the twenty dollars. Hazen replied:— Just it on them other two & I will give you a horse. The negro then did ask Tony if he will do so too. Hazen then asked Tony & Tony speaking to the Negro said— If you will charge it upon them other two, (or if you will charge it upon Carpenter & Middleton, the witness does not recollect which expression was used, but one of them was.) I will give you a horse. They did not know I was there or listening to them. Tony is some deaf. Mr. Wingett owned the store & the soil, I rents of him for no particular time. My brother and myself owned another store near the one burnt, the soil on which it stood we owned; we had some suit in it.

Calvin Wingett sworn and examined; and says that he resides at Maryville. On the night of 11th of March was alarmed by fire between 11 & 12 O Clock at night. Was carrying out goods. ~~at~~ from his own home, about 8 rods from the store saw two bags filled with goods, saw also some shoes and a roll of leather all which had been taken from Adamson's store. Jory at that time lived at Milford five miles from Marysville. Saw marks near the store which compared with the staff of Black Sam. The Store was entirely consumed and when discovered the fire had so far progressed as that nothing was saved or taken from the store.

Mr. January sworn and examined; who testified that he resides at Marysville and was at the fire. The next morning a little after daylight about a half mile from Marysville on the Milford road saw some tracks. Saw the tracks of two men, measured the tracks but soon lost the measure. Afterwards compared black Sam's and Jory's shoes, found about 3/4 of an inch difference between them, which was the same difference that was found between the two tracks. The shape of one of the tracks also corresponded with the shoe of Jory, which on examination witness discovered was trodden over so that the track was made by the side of the shoe.

Mr. Shelpman sworn & examined; and testified that he lived at Marysville and was at the fire. After the goods were carried out I went home and found it a little after two O'clock A.M. was with Mr. January when he found the tracks on the Milford road. The Negro's tracks had marks of nails, corresponding with the Negro's shoes; the length and tread corresponded with the Negro.

The defts Counsel asked the Court to overrule the testimony of the last witness; which they refused.

Silas G. Strong sworn & examined; and testified that he lived at Marysville. On the 11th of March was up very late, about 11 or 12 O'clock at which time I went to the door and heard some conversation near my house in a low tone of voice; went near where the persons were conversing, but could not see any one. Went to bed, was awoke by the explosion of gun powder. As I went out I saw the back shutter of Adamson's store open and the store all on fire. It looked like looking into a hot oven. Saw the bags with Mr. Middletons name on them.

John Middleton sworn and testified that he lives at Millford. Torry. Black Sam. and Razer all lives at Millford. On the 10th of March in the evening passed by Torry's house, looked into the window and saw Sam in Torry's house about 8 O'clock P.M. Sam. lived with me at that time, returned home about 9 O'clock, conversed with him until about 10. Sam took some fire on the fire shovel and carried it to his shop near by. Discovered an intimacy between the negro and Torry. The bags which were found at Millford had been emptied in the negro's shop and laid on the hot of meal. Found a box buried in the old stable, covered with a hood which Torry said he let the negro have. The negro was at Torrys house as often as 3 times that week before the fire and perhaps 5 or 6 times in 3 weeks. Razer was often at the negro's shop, often heard Razer and the negro together in low conversation - did not hear what they said - When of an evening Razer was at negro's shop the candle would be blown out, and they often conversing in the dark, in a low tone of voice. I kept a box of flower or meal in the negro's shop and Defts counsel asked the Court to overrule this last testimony concerning Kaiser & the negro; - which was refused.

Mr. Keneday, sworn & testifies that on the evening of the fire I was passing through the streets of Millford about dusk, met Razer and the negro and heard a part of the conversation between them, and heard the negro say as the witness passed by: in the name of God Almighty how can you be at the saw mill all night & then too which the Court also refused to overrule.

Mr. Morse, sworn & testifies that he lives at Milford and the morning after the fire, Mr. Strong presents to me my anger at Marysville, had not seen the anger for two days before; does not know how it was taken there.

Mr Ryes, sworn & testifies that the afternoon after the fire he went to Marysville. On the way back found a crock and a cobblers apron on the fence about 4 miles from Marysville by the road from Milford to Marysville; some ashes and blacking in the crock. Did not know that it belonged to Torry. The ground had been wetted and the only tracks near the fence were those of a horse. Which testimony the Court refused to consider.

Samuel B. Johnson sworn and examined. The Prosecuting attorney produced to him two notes in the words following, to wit, which notes the said Johnson testified were in the hand writing of Torry and that Torry had acknowledged them to be his writing; the signature of one of them was the writing of Kazer and of the other, the writing of Torry. Witness overheard a conversation in the jail between Torry, Kazer & the negro. Torry told the negro that he wants give to the negro a suit of clothes, if he would put it on Middleton and Carpenter. Kazer was in the lower room of the jail, Torry & the negro were above. The negro wanted $20. instead of the clothes. Kazer asked what they were talking about, the negro answered that they were talking about what they were talking about the other day. Kazer said "Keep dark". Some time afterwards witness had a conversation with Torry and Kazer. Kazer told me that Torry let the negro have a board about 4 feet long. Torry described it, and said he let the negro have it for a shelf in his shop, but Mrs. Middleton had said it was not there. Kazer supposed it might be found in the old stable as the negro when apprehended was muddy on his arms and cobwebs on his back as though he had been creeping under some floor. On searching the old stable, a hole was found sunk in the earth and covered with a board answering the above described, and the whole covered with the rubbish in the stable.

Dodt. Wood, sworn, and testifies that he was once in the upper room of the jail. the Negro was there and Terry was brought into the ~~jail~~ room. The negro charged Terry of being at the fire; — Terry denied it. After the witness left the room, the witness heard a conversation between Terry and the Negro. Terry was pleading with the negro to do something, could not hear what, but the negro seemed reluctant to consent and Terry seemed to rejoice; could not hear distinctly. Heard Terry say to the Negro that he would not charge him for the theft. Afterwards heard the negro say to Terry, "then you think it in My Power to clear or convict?" Terry said he did. The two notes above described were admitted in testimony.

John Calloway, sworn and testified that soon after Rogers and Terry were first put in jail he went to the window to listen, heard a conversation between them. Could not hear what was said in particular, except he heard distinctly the words, "goods" and "shoes." Also Terry said to Rogers "your brother has got well out of the scrape." Rogers said he had. Rogers brother had been taken and charged with the offence, but upon examination was discharged.

This last testimony the Court also refused to overrule.

Mr. Kent, sworn and testifies that he on the evening before the fire a little before sun down saw Rogers mare in the Town of Milford — the mare was hitched at a post at or near Mr. Leathrop's house. Rogers lives about a mile from the town of Milford. This last testimony the Court also refused to overrule.

Alexander Pollock sworn & testifies that he heard a part of a conversation between Rogers and Terry about the time of the Court at Marysville. They were put together that afternoon in the upper room of the jail. Witness secreted himself in the jail without their knowledge. Listened to them for three hours in the evening laying down near a crack. Mr. Peal was with me. Heard Terry say to Rogers, "Parish has written me a letter in which he says that not one word of the negro's testimony can come against us; And that if we are guilty not to confess it." And now if we have to go, (said Jory to Kazer) have you yet concluded to bring out the rest; Kazer said I am not certain yet. Mr. Hall then moved, and they Commons no longer so as to be heard.

There was no other testimony given than that above detailed on the part of the prosecution to prove the said issue: and Defts by his Counsel excepts to the said several opinions of the Court and prays the same to be signed & sealed by the Judges of said Court.

NORWALK, HURON COUNTY, OHIO, MONDAY, APRIL 18, 1831.

Atrocity.—The store of Messrs. N. & J. Adamson, at Marysville, Union county, Ohio, together with six adjoining buildings were destroyed by fire and gun-powder on the 12th ult. The fire was believed to be the result of accident until the accidental discovery of some bags in the vicinity containing goods, induced a different opinion, and a name marked on one of the bags, led to the arrest of a negro who confessed that he had been concerned in robbing and burning the store. He named two white men, Samuel Kazar and James F. Torry, of Milford, as his accomplices. They were both arrested and are to be tried in May next. The impolicy and injustice of the Law of Ohio, which prevents the testimony of blacks from being received in Courts of Justice against white men, may then be made apparent.—Zanesville Rep.
