L. M. Lingrel, Alexander Cahill and D. R. Robinson, ~~L. W. Hamlin~~ the above named defendants being first duly sworn make solemn oath that William Fist, B. F. Rinny and Henry Lingrel are material witness for all of the defendants in the above action and without whose testimony and for the want thereof these defendants nor either of them can safely proceed to trial. That said witness are all under subpoena to appear in this Court and testify in behalf of these defendants in this action to day but are not here and that they are by reason of sickness wholly unable to come to Marysville and testify in this case at this time the said Wm Fist being confined to his bed sick with a fever and B. F. Rinny is also sick, under a physicians care and wholly unable to attend at this trial at this time. Affiants

Further affiant say that this affiant was present when the said window was raised and that it was himself that raised the window and that neither of the defendant in any manner assisted or participated therein and that while there were many persons both outside and in the house making noise, these defendants did not participate in the same and that on that occasion the defendants behaved themselves in an orderly and becoming manner day they sent a team this morning to the residence of said Henry Liegel to bring him here to testify on their behalf in this action but said Henry Liegel was sick in bed and wholly unable to come.

Affiants further say that on the trial of this cause they expect to prove by said Wm. Fiat and by will another that none of defendants in this action raised or assisted in raising the window as alleged in the indictment in this action and that none of the defendants raised or found the window blind as alleged in this indictment nor did any of them defendants yell or hoot on the occasion alleged in the indictment in this action and that none of the defendants were present when said above named offences were committed and that he Wm Fiat was present during the entire

Ramey and that he will swear that he was present on the occasion alleged in the indictment in this action acting as sexton of the Church and that the night was so dark that it was impossible for a person within the house to look out at the windows and destinguish the countenances of individuals outside of the house and that he heard it and knows of his own knowledge that all the disturbance he had any knowledge of was caused when certain individuals from the audience within the house went out of doors—
Affiants further say that Clinton Frankly and Andrew Middleworth an material witnesses for all of the defendants in the above action and without whose testimony and for the want thereof they nor either of them can safely proceed to trial— That defendants did not learn of the materiality of the testimony of said witness until Thursday morning last at which time they gave the name of said witness to one of their attorneys and requested that said witness be subpoenaed to attend and testify on their behalf in this action today but as affiants learn from the sheriff this morning that by unavoidable oversight said witness have not been subpoenaed and are not present.

Affiants expect to prove by the witness Clinton Young and that he will testify as the trial of this action that said witness on the night and at the place alleged in the indictment drove up to said Church about the middle of the performance of the play alleged in the indictment at which time there was no disturbance outside of the Church but all was quiet and that witness invited the defendant [redacted] Lingel to ride with him and that witness and said Mabel Lingel then drove off together and did not return to the place of said

meeting until said meeting was closed & the audience dismissed.
Affiants on the trial of the cause expect to prove by the witness

The Defendant being in court declared himself ready for an examination Thereupon I administered an oath to Patrick King & Samuel Neal

Transcribed 1.25

In behalf of the State & examined them touching the said Complaint. Also administered an oath to James Donahue, Thomas Dorsey & Patrick Sheridan & examined them in behalf of the Defendant.

After hearing all the evidence given in this case & well considering the same, I find a good Cause to require the Defendant to give his bond for his appearance at the next term of Court. Thereupon he entered into a recognizance in the sum of $50.00 with Wm. McGraw for his said appearance. Thereupon I discharged the said Patrick Sheridan.

Also I required the following witnesses to enter into & give their separate recognizances for their appearance at the next term of Court: to wit: Thos Donahue, Samuel Seals & Patrick Ring being their recognizee.
