In the Court of Common Pleas, Union County, Ohio, of the Term of March in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Eight Hundred and ~~Seventy~~ Eighty-nine.

The Jurors of the Grand Jury of the State of Ohio, within and for the body of the County of Union, impaneled, sworn and charged to inquire of crimes and offenses committed within the said County of Union, in the name and by the authority of the State of Ohio, on their oaths, do find and present, that

Rufus Andrews

late of said County, on the Twentieth day of April, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ~~seventy~~ Eighty seven, with force and arms, in said County of Union, and State of Ohio, was then and there, to-wit: in said county of Union, a person of full age and sound mind, and a tax-payer residing in the township of Darby, county of Union, and State of Ohio, and was then and there the owner and possessor of a large amount of credits and personal property which were due and owing to him, the said Rufus Andrews, from one Archibald E. Smith, also a resident of said township, county and State to-wit: the said Archibald E. Smith was then and there indebted to the said Rufus Andrews on a promissory note, executed by said Archibald E. Smith to said Rufus Andrews, and which promissory note said Rufus Andrews then and there owned and held, and which was dated on the 19th day of March A. D. Eighteen hundred and eighty-six. And the said Archibald E. Smith was then and thereby indebted to the said Rufus Andrews, and thereby promised to pay to the said Rufus Andrews, the sum of Three thousand and seventy-five dollars, on or before two years after the date of the said promissory note, with eight per cent interest, the interest payable annually, which said promissory note and said interest were then and there secured by the said Archibald E. Smith, to the said Rufus Andrews, by a mortgage on real-estate, which said personal property and credits were then and there liable to, and subject to be listed by the said Rufus Andrews for taxation in said township of Darby, and it was the duty of the said Rufus Andrews then and there, to list said promissory note and credit for taxation in said township. And the Grand Jurors say that the said Rufus Andrews, at said county of Union, on said ^{day of April} 20th A. D. 1887, was the owner of, and possessed of one other promissory note and credit in addition to the above mentioned and described promissory note, to-wit: the said Archibald E. Smith was then and there indebted to the said Rufus Andrews on a promissory ^{note}, executed by said Archibald E. Smith, to said Rufus Andrews on the 26th day of October A. D. 1886, in the sum of six hundred and fifty dollars, due twelve months after said date of October 26th 1886. Said Rufus Andrews name is written in said last mentioned note as R. Andrews. Which said promissory note was then and there liable to, and subject to be listed by the said Rufus Andrews for taxation, and that it was the duty of said Rufus Andrews then and there, and in said township of Darby and county of Union, to list said promissory note and credit for taxation. And the Grand Jurors further say that on said twentieth day of April, A. D. 1887, one Albert Keyes was the duly elected and qualified assessor in and for said township of Darby in said county of Union, and that on said 20th day of April A. D. 1887, said Albert Keyes as such assessor at said county of Union, called upon the said Rufus Andrews, and demanded of him a list verified by oath, of all his taxable personal property credits &c. according to law. And the said Rufus Andrews then and there made out and returned to said assessor the following list as, and for all the personal property and credits then and owned and possessed by him to-wit: four horses, nine cattle, ten hogs, one pleasure carriage, farming utensils &c. to the value of Twenty dollars, and moneys in possession or on deposit to the amount and value of Five hundred dollars. And the above list is all the personal property, credits &c. listed and reported to said Assessor for taxation or otherwise. The entire amount of all the personal property, moneys, credits &c. so returned by the said Rufus Andrews in his said tax-list, are of the value of Eleven hundred and sixty-one dollars, and no more. And the Grand Jury find and present, that the said Rufus Andrews, then and there in due form of law, was sworn and took his oath before said Albert Keyes as such assessor, (the said Albert Keyes then and there having full power, competent and lawful authority to administer the said oath to the said Rufus Andrews in that behalf), and that the said Rufus Andrews being so sworn as aforesaid, upon his oath aforesaid, made and deposed before the said Albert Keyes, assessor as aforesaid, falsely, maliciously, willfully, and corruptly did say, depose, and swear and give information in writing and printing to material matter as follows: "I Rufus Andrews do solemnly swear that to the best of my knowledge and belief, I have listed or exhibited to the assessor all the personal property, moneys, credits, investments in bonds, stocks, joint stock companies, annuities, or otherwise, in my possession or under my control as owner or holder, or as husband, parent, guardian, trustee, executor, administrator, receiver, accounting officer, agent, or factor, or otherwise, in the township, city or village in which I reside or did reside on the day preceding the second Monday of April, 1887, which are subject to taxation under the laws of this State."

Sworn to and subscribed before me, this 20th day of April 1887. A. Keyes, Assessor." Whereas in truth and in fact, and the Grand Jurors find and present, that the said Rufus Andrews did not, on said twentieth day of April, Eighteen hundred and Eighty-seven, or at any other time give in, list, or report to said assessor the personal property, credit, and promissory note above described, of Three thousand and twenty-five dollars, or any part thereof, and whereas, in truth and in fact the said Rufus Andrews did not on said 20th day of April 1887, or at any other time, give or list, or report to said assessor the said promissory note and credit last above described of six hundred and fifty dollars, or any part thereof, and said oath, and affidavit so made and sworn to by said Rufus Andrews, before said Albert Keyes as aforesaid, as assessor as aforesaid, was wholly false and untrue. And whereas, in truth and in fact the said Rufus Andrews did not then and there believe the said several matters and things so by him as aforesaid, before the said Albert Keyes, deposed and sworn to, but then and there well knew ^{the same} to be wholly false and untrue. And so the Grand Jurors aforesaid, upon their oaths aforesaid, say that the said Rufus Andrews, on the said twentieth day of April, Eighteen hundred and eighty-seven, and at said county of Union aforesaid, before the said Albert Keyes as such assessor as aforesaid, falsely, maliciously, wickedly, willfully, feloniously and corruptly in manner and form aforesaid, did commit wilful and corrupt perjury.

Indictment for Disturbing Meetings - Entry -

Now comes the Prosecuting Attorney on behalf of the State of Ohio, and the defendants Arrie Maddox, Frank Hoobert, and Thomas Holycross, being brought into court in custody of the Sheriff, and arraigned upon said indictment, for plea thereto, each saith he is "guilty;" and the court being fully advised in the premises, and the said defendants being inquired of if they had anything to say why judgment should not be pronounced against them; and showing no good and sufficient cause why judgment should not be pronounced:

It is therefore adjudged by the court that the said defendants Arrie Maddox, Frank Hoobert, and Thomas Holycross each pay a fine of twenty-five dollars ($25⁰⁰), and the costs of this prosecution, and that they stand committed to the jail of Union County until the amount of said fine and costs shall be paid, or secured to be paid, or they be otherwise legally discharged.
