Now comes the prosecuting attorney on behalf of the State of Ohio, and the defendant being brought into court in custody of the Sheriff, and arraigned upon said indictment, for plea thereto, saith he is "guilty."

Thereupon the court being fully advised in the premises, and the defendant being inquired of if he had any thing to say why judgment should not be pronounced against him; and having nothing but what he hath already said:

It is therefore considered and adjudged by the court that the said defendant, William Wallis, pay a fine of five dollars, and the costs of this prosecution; and execution is awarded. E. T. Porter Pros. Atty.

D. 1890, and he, the said Henry De C. Richards, on said 4th day of December A. D. 1896, unlawfully, willfully, feloniously, and verbally as aforesaid, demanded with menaces and threats as aforesaid, and with the intent thereby said property, as aforesaid, to extort from said water-works, franchise, appurtenances and as aforesaid, that if the said George M. McC. Peck, John F. Zwerner, Walter C. Fullington and Jerome E. Davis, would not pay to him, the said Henry De C. Richards, the sum of ten thousand dollars as aforesaid, he the said Henry De C. Richards would have the village counsel of said municipal corporation enjoined from accepting the water-works, which water-works the said George M. McC. Peck, John F. Zwerner, Walter C. Fullington and Jerome E. Davis, had then and there substantially built and completed and nearly ready for operation and use under their said contract and franchise with said municipal corporation. And that he, the said Henry De C. Richards would have the right, franchise, and contract of the said George M. McC. Peck, John F. Zwerner, Walter C. Fullington, and Jerome E. Davis set aside and annulled. That the franchise and contract of the said George M. McC. Peck, John F. Zwerner, Walter C. Fullington and Jerome E. Davis, with the said municipal corporation was not worth the paper on which it was written, and that he, the said Henry De C. Richards, had taken counsel of eminent lawyers, to-wit, of Sherman & Hoyt, Nash & Lentz, and Garfield & Garfield, and that they had all told and advised him that the said right, franchise, and contract of the said George M. McC. Peck, John F. Zwerner, Walter C. Fullington and Jerome E. Davis with said municipal corporation was worthless, and could be set aside and annulled. That he, the said Henry De C. to him, the said Henry De C. Richards. That he had been thinking this matter over all last summer, and that now he had his cards ready, and was now prepared to play them. That he, the said Henry De C. Richards, would publish the private letters of the said George M. McPeck relating to said water-works franchise, and named the Cincinnati Enquirer as one of the papers that he would make said publication in, and that publications would create a great sensation. And that all these steps to be taken, and things which would be done by him the said Henry De C. Richards would destroy the credit of the said George M. McPeck, John F. Zwerner, Walter C. Fullington, and Jerome E. Davis, and prevent them from negotiating or selling any notes, coupons or bonds, which said George M. McPeck, John F. Zwerner, Walter C. Fullington and Jerome E. Davis, might desire to negotiate or sell for the purpose of borrowing money to aid them in carrying out and fulfilling their said contract with said municipal corporation, and in carrying on, managing, and running said water-works. But if said George M. McPeck, John F. Zwerner, Walter C. Fullington and Jerome E. Davis, would pay to him said sum of ten thousand dollars, he the said Henry De C. Richards would not disturb, molest, or interfere with them in said business, or the management of the same, or in their contract or franchise, and would not seek to enjoin said corporation, or annul said contract and franchise, and would not injure their credit, but would let them carry on their said water-works peacefully. That by paying said ten thousand dollars in manner aforesaid, they would not be interfered with in any way, as no one else but him, the said Henry De L. Richards knew that said franchise and contract was worthless. All of said menaces and threats so made by the said Henry De L. Richards to the said George M. McPeck, John F. Zwerner, Wallis L. Fullington and Jerome E. Davis, were so made by him with the intent to extort and gain from the said George M. McPeck, John F. Zwerner, Wallis L. The State of Ohio. vs Thomas Scott } No 1 Embezzlement.

May 13, 1891. Complaint in writing on oath signed by Frank Cullum filed with me, charging "That on or about the 4th day of July 1890, at the County of Union aforesaid one Thomas Scott, being then and there the factor and agent of the said Frank Cullum, of the City of Springfield, in the state aforesaid, was in the possession of certain goods, merchandise and property of the said Frank Cullum, to wit 35 Bunches of Bananas of the value of $4.38 cts and $8 in money and all of the amount and value of $56 25 of the goods merchandise and property of the said Frank Cullum, which said 35 Bunches of bananas were then and there intrusted and consigned to him the said Thos Scott by the said Frank Cullum, for the purpose of selling the same and making due return of the proceeds to the said Frank Cullum and the said $8 was intrusted to the said Thos Scott by the said Frank Cullum to pay expenses incurred in the sale of said merchandise, and the said Thomas Scott on the day and year aforesaid in the County of Union aforesaid did sell said goods, merchandise and property then and there so intrusted and consigned to him as aforesaid for the sum of $70.00 which said sum of money so received by the said Thomas Scott for the goods, merchandise and property aforesaid he the said Thomas Scott did thereand there apply and dispose of to his own use and wholly failed to pay over the proceeds arising from the sale of said goods, merchandise and property aforesaid to the said Frank Cullum, remaining in his hand after deducting his commission for selling said goods merchandise and property said commission not exceeding the sum of $15, contrary to good faith and with intent to defraud the said Frank Cullum the true owner of said goods, merchandise and property," the complainant Frank Cullum paid me 90 cts as my fee for warrant and affidavit and filing the same.

May 13 1891 I issued Warrant against said Thomas Scott directed to the Sheriff and delivered the same to the Prosecuting Attorney May 17 1891, This day came the said Thomas Scott in custody of Patrick Graney, Agent for the State, who made return of the warrant as follows: "I took the within-named Thomas Scott and have him before the Justice this 17th day of May A.D. 1891 Service 30 mileage $.32, transportation $.8, Subsistence $1 total $41.30 Patrick Graney, Agent for the State of Ohio,

Said Patrick Graney, held a Commission from the Governor of Ohio, dated May 14 1891 authorizing him to act as Agent for the State, in arresting said Thomas Scott and bringing him before me for trial upon and by virtue of said affidavit and by virtue of a Requisition issued by said Governor upon the Governor of Indiana May 17, 1891, The defendant being arraigned before me and the charge in said affidavit read to him refused to enter any plea whatever, Therefor I entered a plea of not guilty and on account of the absence of material witness neither the State nor defendant being ready for trial, and upon motion of the Prosecuting Attorney Ell Porter, I adjourned the trial to Friday next being May 22 1891, at One o'clock P.M. and I do fix the bond upon adjournment at $1000 which defendant failing to give, I issued a mittimus and delivered the same to Patrick Graney agent for the State as aforesaid for the commitment of said Thomas Scott to the Jail of the County for safe Keeping,

May 17 1891 Mittimus returned endorsed "May 17 1891, I committed the within-named Thomas Scott to the custody of the within named Jailer with whom I left a certified copy of this writ, and the defendant came in custody of the Sheriff and being represented by his attorney D W Ayers Esq. The Prosecuting Attorney E C Porter Esq assisted by E. S. Wallace Esq appeared for the State, The defendent by his attorney waived arraignment and entered a plea of not guilty.

Trial had. Frank Cullum the prosecuting witness, Patrick Graney, Alex McWilson Anthony Papania and George Arnold, Sworn and examined as witnesses for the State, while the following witnesses for the State were sworn but not examined to wit: Benj Harris, John Hill, Chas Pritchard and Frank Litt.
The State then rested, The defense introduced no witness and rested, case submitted without argument, And thereupon I do find that said offense has been committed and there is cause to believe the defendant guilty thereof. I therefor ordered him to enter into a recognizance in the sum of $1000- with sufficient sureties for his appearance before the Court of Common Pleas of said County on the first day of the next term thereof, which order he failed to comply with not offering sufficient or any bail, I issued a mittimus for his commitment and delivered same to the Sheriff of said County, Thereupon I recognized the following witnesses for the State, to wit P. F. Graney John Hill, A. McC Wilson, A. Papania, George Arnold, Benj Harris, Chas Pritchard and Frank J. Tritt, to appear on first day of next Term of Court of Common Pleas in said County, J. H. Kimkade J.P.

THE STATE OF OHIO, }
UNION COUNTY, SS. }

Union County, Ohio, of the term of May in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and Sixty-one.

The Jurors of the Grand Jury of the State of Ohio, within and for the body of the County of Union, impaneled, sworn and charged to inquire of crimes and offenses committed within the said County of Union, in the name and by the authority of the State of Ohio, on their oaths, do find and present, that late of said County, on the 4th day of July in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and Sixty, with force and arms, in said County of Union and State of Ohio, being the agent of a certain private person, to-wit: of one Frank Cullum and the said Thomas Scott being then and there not a person within the age of eighteen years, and being not an apprentice, certain fruit, to-wit: bananas, each bunch of the value of fifty-one and 25/100 Dollars, and money of the amount of eight dollars, and of the value of eight dollars, and all of the value of fifty-nine dollars and 25/100 dollars, belonging to the said Frank Cullum, and being the goods, money, and personal property of the said Frank Cullum, did unlawfully, fraudulently, and feloniously sell, embezzle, and convert to his own use without the assent or consent of the said Frank Cullum, his said employer, and without the assent or consent of any owner or owners of said goods, money and property, which said goods, money and property then and there had come into the possession and care of him the said Thomas Scott by virtue of his said employment as agent of the said Frank Cullum as aforesaid, contrary to the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace and dignity of the State of Ohio.

Second count: And the Jurors aforesaid, upon their oaths aforesaid, do further find and present that the said Thomas Scott on the Fourth day of July in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety, at the county of Union aforesaid, being then and there the agent of a certain private person, to-wit: of one Frank Bullum, and the said Thomas Scott being then and there not a person within the age of eighteen years, and being not an apprentice, certain money belonging to the said Frank Bullum of the amount of fifty-nine and 25/100 Dollars, and of the value of fifty-nine and 25/100 Dollars the property of the said Frank Bullum, did unlawfully, fraudulently, and feloniously embezzle and convert to his own use, without the assent or consent of the said Frank Bullum his said employer, and without the assent or consent of any owner or owners of said money; which said money had then and there come into the possession and care of him the said Thomas Scott by virtue of his said employment as agent of the said Frank Bullum as aforesaid, contrary to the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace and dignity of the State of Ohio.

Third Count: And the Jurors aforesaid, upon their oaths aforesaid do further find and present that the said Thomas Scott on the 4th day of July in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety, at the county of Union aforesaid, being then and there the agent and factor of a certain one Frank Bullum of the county of Clarke in the State aforesaid, was in the possession of certain goods, merchandise, and property of the said Frank Bullum to-wit: ~~thirty-four bunches of~~ bananas, of the value of fifty-one and 25/100 Dollars, and eight dollars in money, and of the value of eight dollars, and all of the amount and value of fifty-nine and 25/100 Dollars of the goods, merchandise, property and money of the said Frank Bullum as aforesaid, which said bananas were then and there shipped and consigned to him, the said Thomas Scott to and in the said county of Union, by the said Frank Bullum from said county of Clarke for the purpose of selling the same in said county of Union, and of making due return of the proceeds of said sale to the said Frank Bullum, and the said eight dollars in money was intrusted to said Thomas Scott by the said Frank Bullum to pay the expenses incurred in the sale of said bananas, and the said Thomas Scott on the day and year aforesaid, in the county of Union aforesaid, did sell said goods, merchandise, and property, there and there so intrusted and consigned to him as aforesaid for the sum of fifty-one and 25/100 Dollars in money, which said sum of money so received by the said Thomas Scott for the goods, merchandise, and property aforesaid, he the said Thomas Scott did there and there apply, dispose of, and convert to his own use, and wholly failed to pay over the proceeds arising from the sale of said goods, merchandise and property aforesaid, and said eight dollars in money to the said Frank Bullum, or any part thereof, but on the contrary the said Thomas Scott did make said sale with intent to defraud said Frank Bullum, and did thereby, then and there, unlawfully and fraudulently embezzle and convert to his own use all of said goods, wares, merchandise and money as aforesaid, without the consent or assent of said Frank Bullum his said employer, and without the assent or consent of any owner or owners of said personal property and moneys, contrary to the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace and dignity of the State of Ohio.

No. 831

Indictment for Embezzlement.

Entry.

This day again came the prosecuting attorney on behalf of Ohio, and the defendant with his counsel; also came the jury heretofore impannelled and sworn, and the trial proceeded—

And the said jury having heard the testimony adduced by the parties, the arguments of counsel, and the charge of the court, retired to their room in charge of the sheriff for deliberation.

And afterward came the jury, conducted into court by the sheriff, and returned the following verdict in writing, signed by their foreman, to wit: "We the jury, on the issue joined &c. (copy).

Thereupon the defendant herein having been convicted of embezzling a less sum than thirty-five dollars, was this day brought into court, in custody of the sheriff, and informed by the court of the verdict of the jury and enquired of if he had any thing to say why judgment should not be pronounced against him; and having nothing but what he hath already said; It is therefore adjudged by the court that the said Thomas Scott be imprisoned in the jail of Union county for the term of thirty days, and that he pay the costs of this prosecution for which execution is awarded.

And the court order that the sum of twenty-five dollars be paid as counsel fee to D. W. Ayers, in defending Thomas Scott, the defendant herein.

THE STATE OF OHIO, } ss.
UNION COUNTY,

In the Court of Common Pleas, Union County, Ohio, of the Term of November in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Eight Hundred and Ninety-one.

The Jurors of the Grand Jury of the State of Ohio, within and for the body of the County of Union, impaneled, sworn and charged to inquire of crimes and offenses committed within the said County of Union, in the name and by the authority of the State of Ohio, on their oaths do find and present, that

late of said County, on the 31st day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one, with force and arms, in said County of Union, and State of Ohio, did unlawfully, willfully, and maliciously, and without proper authority, in and upon the track of a certain rail-road, towit: The New York, Pennsylvania, and Ohio Rail Road, then and there situate and being, did put and place an obstruction, towit; a carriage without a box, commonly called a buck-board, and by the said putting and placing of the said obstruction upon the said rail-road track by the said James Kinnear and Ellis Parrish, as aforesaid, great danger was then caused that the locomotive and train of cars, next then and there to come upon said track, would be thereby thrown from said track, to the great damage of the property of and upon such locomotive and train, and to the great hazzard of the lives and bodily safety of the persons thereon being and passing, which said rail-road was then and there in operation and known as the New York, Pennsylvania and Ohio Rail Road as aforesaid, contrary to the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace and dignity of the State of Ohio.

Union County, Ohio, of the term of November in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and Ninety-one.

The Jurors of the Grand Jury of the State of Ohio, within and for the body of the County of Union, impaneled, sworn and charged to inquire of crimes and offenses committed within the said County of Union, in the name and by the authority of the State of Ohio, on their oaths, do find and present, that

late of said County, on the 30th day of July in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and Ninety, with force and arms, in said County of Union and State of Ohio, did make, execute, and deliver a mortgage to one Jacob Leonard of the following personal property, to-wit: one dark iron-gray horse, about three years old, of the value of Sixty dollars, the property of the said Elmer Poling, to indemnify the said Jacob Leonard against his liability as surety for the said Elmer Poling, and indemnify him against loss that may result from said surety-ships, upon a certain promissory note, for the sum of Thirty-four dollars executed on the 30th day of July A. D. 1890, by the said Elmer Poling, to ~~the Farmers Bank, which bank is situate in the village of Marysville~~ one R. H. Downing, in said county of Union, and on which promissory note, the said Elmer Poling was principal, and the said Jacob Leonard was security for the said Elmer Poling. That said personal property was at the time of the making, execution, and delivery of said mortgage, situate in said county of Union. That afterwards, to-wit, on the 12th day of April A. D. 1891, the said Elmer Poling, he the said Elmer Poling then and there having said personal property in his possession, and said mortgage being then and there in full force and effect, and said personal property being then situate in said county of Union, did unlawfully and fraudulently, and without the consent of the said Jacob Leonard, he the said Jacob Leonard being then and there still liable upon said promissory note, as surety for the said Elmer Poling as aforesaid, and still holding and owning said mortgage upon said personal property as aforesaid, he, the said Elmer Poling did remove said personal property from the said county of Union, and did sell the same outside said county of Union, without the consent of the said Jacob Leonard as aforesaid, with intent to defraud, contrary to the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace and dignity of the State of Ohio.
