on being arraigned before me to answer to said charge entered a plea of not guilty. Defendant requested time to prepare for trial, and request granted and time for trial set for Wednesday April 5th 1899, at 9-0'clock A.M.

I required the said defendant to enter into a recognizance for Fifty dollars with sufficient surety, for her appearance before me, April 5th 1899, at 9-0'clock A.M. for trial, and on failing to enter into or give sufficient bond, I committed her to the city prison until the time set for trial April 5th 1899, at 9-0'clock A.M.

April 5th 1899. - 9-0'clock A.M.
J. B. Cole appeared as Attorney for the Village of Marysville as also Complainant's Attorney. The defendant Fanny F. Houston was brought into court without an attorney, and said defendant refused to make any defense.

I declined to permit a final trial, as in my opinion the public interest would, thereby be promoted, & preliminary hearing was had, and Michael Murphy, Fred.
