I am acquainted with John Sherman and saw him ride in to Marysville on the sabbath going on which report said he stole the Horse. I talked with Sherman standing on the opposite side of the fence while he sat on the Horse. I intentionally noticed the Horse to see if it was John Thompsons Horse but seen it was not as it was bigger than his and the Horse Had a white face which I knew Thompsons had not. Be it remembered that upon the trial of this Cause before the Jury the defendant proposed to prove that one of the grand Jurors who found the bile of indictment in this Case had removed from the County and was not a resident thereof at the time of the drawing of the panel and that the venire for said Grand Jury was not duly returned as served according to law the return thereof being as follows "Legally served before the 15th Oct. 1839 R Clark Sheriff" which testimony so offered was ruled out by the Court and not permitted to be given in evidence to the Jury.

The State examined Samuel Dodd as a witness who stated that he held a conversation with the defendant That he told the defendant that if he was guilty they would give him hell - that it would do him (the defendant) no good a harm to tell where the horse was for he (the witness) expected it would be proved on him (the defendant) and it was a pitty that a poor man should loose his horse and he (the defendant) had better tell where it was to which statement of the said Dodd the said defendant answered "if Dodge will agree in writing to let me go I will tell where the horse is" The said Dodd then asked the said Shearman if he knew where the horse was to which he answered "I do" To which testimony the defendant objected on the ground that the defendant was unduly influenced to make the above statement by said Dodd as above set forth. ~~To which~~ The Court overruled the objected and permitted the testimony to go to the jury.
