J. S. Dillon & Abraham Innit

Motion.

Now comes the said Abram Innit and moves the court to set aside the levy of execution made by the sheriff of said county upon lands of said Abram Innit which is shown by the original return thereof in this court.

For grounds thereof he says a certain bay horse the property of the said J. S. Dillon and of sufficient value to satisfy said judgment in full, viz of the value of $100.00 & upwards, was taken in execution upon said judgment on April 25th 1877, by A. E. Myers Constable of Liberty township said county, in which said judgment was obtained, & said property was left after said levy by said Constable in the possession of said Dillon and by him disposed of for his own private benefit, and thereby through the fault of said Constable was not sold & proceeds applied on said judgment. Said levy has never been legally discharged but still remains a subsisting levy on said horse and said horse is still liable for the said value. And the said Abram Innit on said judgment and the same was not paid in full-Affiant says said horse was of sufficient value to satisfy said judgment in full- Affiant attended for the purpose of bidding at the place said horse was advertised for sale, Nov 20. 1877, and said horse was not offered because he had been disposed of as aforesaid while under levy of which affiant then first had notice or knowledge- [illegible] out

Affidavit.

State of Ohio Union County ss.

Personally appeared said Abram Trout who being duly sworn says, He never received any part of the consideration of the note upon which the judgment in the above case was obtained, and was in fact merely a security for said Dillon for the payment thereof.

He further says that on April 25 1877, levy of execution in the above case was duly made upon a certain bay horse of the value of $100 - the property of the said J. S. Dillon, by Abram Myers Constable of Liberty Township said County when said judgment was taken.

After said levy and pending the advertisement for sale of said horse said constable left the same in custody of said J. S. Dillon who disposed of him for his own purposes - and for that reason his value was not applied

To A. L. Williams I hereby offer to allow judgement to be taken in the above action against me for the sum of Twenty five Dollars and costs.

December. 13 1877

John Epps

Abraham Frout
vs.
Justus J. Miller
W. S. Phelps & Sons

Union Common Pleas
Petition for Injunction

The plaintiff says that on the 12 day of October 1876 the said W. S. Phelps & Sons obtained a judgment in an action before Jno. Mahaffey J.P. of Liberty Township said County in which said W.S. Phelps & Sons were plaintiffs and said Abraham Frout and one J.S. Dillon were defendants. Said judgment was for the sum of $112 73/100 debt & $2 25 costs - and execution was issued thereon by said J.P. for said sum & costs May 12, 1877 and on the 25th of April 1877 said execution was duly levied upon a certain bay horse the property of said J. S. Dillon of sufficient value, viz: of the value of at least $100,00 to satisfy said judgment in full, by A.E. Myers Constable of said Township But said Constable placed said horse after said levy in the custody & control of said Dillon to take care of the for said Constable until the day of sale and so left him in the possession of said Dillon, but under levy as aforesaid until said Dillon disposed of him, which he did about October 1877 as near as plaintiff can come at it, for his own private purposes And thereby through the fault of the said Constable said horse was not sold upon said execution and the proceeds thereof applied upon said judgment & the same satisfied in full.

Plaintiff further says that since said horse was disposed of as aforesaid said Constable has levied upon other property and sold it to apply upon said judgment - but not enough to pay the same.

That said levy upon said horse has never been legally disposed of and said ~~levy~~ Levy was merely a security for said Dillon upon the note upon which said judgment was obtained, and received no part of the consideration for said note, and said

judgment is by the said levy on said horse satisfied so far as he is concerned —
He further says that ~~said~~ ~~J. J. M.~~ a transcript of said judgment has been docketed in this court by said W. S. Phelps & Bro, and execution issued thereon to the said J. J. Miller as Sheriff of said County and that the said Miller as such sheriff has levied the same upon lands of the said Abram Trout in said County, and is threatening to sell said lands to satisfy said judgment & execution —
Which if permitted will cause the said Abram Trout great and irreparable injury, Wherefore the said J. J. Miller has been notified by plaintiff of the above facts and notified to desist from his said proceedings but wholly refuses & neglects to do so, Wherefore plaintiff prays that said J. J. Miller & said W. F. Peterson may be enjoined perpetually from proceeding to collect said judgment of the said plaintiff, and for all proper relief, and that on final hearing said judgment be made perpetual.

Homestead Exemption.

Whereas, on the 27th day of December A. D. 1879, came Sarah Snodgrass by Jno. E. Cameron her attorney and made demand in writing to have certain premises set off and assigned to her as a Homestead under the Laws of Ohio, a copy of which demand is hereunto attached. I, thereupon on the 27th day of December A. D. 1879, summoned B W Keys J T Anderson and W G Malin three disinterested free holders of Union County, and State of Ohio, who were by me duly sworn to view and appraise the said lands and tenements, and assign a Homestead therein to said Sarah Snodgrass in pursuance of the provisions of the Homestead Laws of Ohio.

And afterwards on the 27th day of December 1879, said appraisers made return to me under their hands and Seals, as follows:

We do upon actual view of the premises, estimate and appraise the real value of the same at $ 1666.66, and set off to Sarah Snodgrass as and for h er Homestead, the following property, to-wit:

All of In Lot number One hundred & Seventy two (172) in the village of Marysville Union County, Ohio, it being the same premis on which the said Sarah Snodgrass resides. For further discription see plat of said village.

The above premises will not in our opinion bear division without manifest injury and inconvenience and we adjudge that a fair and reasonable rent for said premises would be the sum of One hundred & twenty Dollars per annum as rental value
