good security at 8% when he brought note it - made for 6% I spoke to him and he said he would change it to 8% which he did. Mr Sterling swore before Squire Jenkins that the note had no Interest - expressed in it - when he gave the note to me. Mr Crauston says that he saw Mr Sterling change the Interest from 6% to 8%.

Mr Sterling swears that there was no Int. on the note when he left it at my house and that he did not change the note

Jesse Jenkins

Samuel Sterling testified before me in the Crauston case & swore that I am an authoritative Justice of the Peace Mr Sterling swears that there was no Interest expressed in this note. The McElroy swears to the same also Mr Sterling's wife Mr Crauston & I met Mr Sterling and talked to him in regard to the note and Mr Sterling said that the note was to draw only 6%. I have talked with the McElroy in regard to this note. He said the note was in the Bank with 8% on it - when it should be 6%.

The trial was had before me in July^{3^d} 1895

Mrs Crauston
