Feb 9 1884 both Plaintiff and Defendant Appeared and Plaintiff objected Seriously to Defence bringing in as ~~Set~~ Counter Claim certain promisory Note which is the same Stated in above bill of particulars and cited Sec 5072 O Statute. as not arising out of said claim When Plaintiff and Defendant Both agreed to give the Justice until Saturday Feb 16 1884 to Render Judgement as to whether said Note and Interest Should be allowed on said claim as all the other Claims were agreed to as Just and Equitable

Saturday Morning Feb 16 1884.

I do find after examining the Statute that the Defendant erred in Filing his bill of Particulars in off Sett as A counter claim Should have been as off Sett and not counter claim but as the Plaintiff was not injured in any way by Said action and after carefully Examining the Statute in regard to allowing Said Note with its accrued interest and the Statute being Very Plain
