DISPOSITION OF FINES (Sec. 1181-5 G. C.)
All fines collected from, or moneys arising from bonds forfeited by persons apprehended or arrested by state highway patrolmen shall be paid one-half into the state treasury and one-half to the treasury of the incorporated city or village where such case may be prosecuted. Provided, however, if such prosecution is in a trial court outside of an incorporated city or village such money shall be paid one-half into the county treasury. Such money so paid into the state treasury shall be credited to the "state highway maintenance and repair fund" and such money so paid into the county, city or village treasury shall be deposited to the same fund and expended in the same manner as is the revenue received from the registration of motor vehicles.
The trial court shall make remittance of such money as prescribed by law and at the same time as such remittance is made of the state's portion to the state treasury such trial court shall notify the superintendent of the state highway patrol of the case or cases and the amount covered by such remittance.
All salaries and expenses of members of the state highway patrol and all expenditures for vehicles, equipment, supplies and salaries of clerical forces and all other expenditures for the operation and maintenance of the patrol shall be paid by the treasurer of state out of the state highway maintenance and repair fund. BEFORE ME, the undersigned, one of the Justices of the Peace in and for said County, personally came Margaret Collinson who being duly sworn according to law, deposeth and saith that ~~he~~<sup>she</sup> has just cause to fear, and does fear that one James Dean late of the County of Union will unlawfully do harm to herself and daughter and two little grand children

Sworn to and subscribed before me, this 16 day of Oct A. D. 1942 } And further this deponent saith not.
W. H. Jolliff Justice of the Peace. } Margaret Collinson

(After the word "unlawfully," add "assault and beat him," or "and feloniously shoot and kill him," or "and feloniously burn and destroy the barn of this deponent," or "of the ward or child of said deponent," or such other words as the circumstances require.)

WARRANT TO KEEP THE PEACE.

THE STATE OF OHIO, Union COUNTY, ss.
TO ANY CONSTABLE OF SAID COUNTY, GREETING:

WHEREAS, Complaint has been made before me, by one Margaret Collinson of Union County, on oath, that ~~he~~<sup>she</sup> has just cause to fear, and does fear that one James Dean late of the County of Union will unlawfully do harm to herself and daughter and two little grand children

These are, therefore, to command you, in the name of the State of Ohio, to apprehend the said James Dean and bring him forthwith before me or some other magistrate having cognizance of the matter, in said County, to show cause why he should not find surety to keep the peace and be of good behavior toward the citizens of the State generally, and the said Margaret Collinson especially, and for his appearance before the proper Court.

COMMITMENT.

State of Ohio,
Union County,ss

To the Keeper of the Jail of Union County, Ohio, Greeting:

Whereas James Dean was arrested on the oath of Margaret Collinson on a complaint to keep the peace and hearing having been had on said complaint in the manner prescribed by law.

And whereas I, being of the opinion that there was just cause for the complaint, thereupon ordered the said James Dean to enter into recognizance with security, in the sum of fifty dollars as the law directs, which he has refused to do. Therefore the State of Ohio hereby commands you to receive the said James Dean into your custody in the jail of the county aforesaid, there to remain until discharged in due course of law.

Given under my hand this 17th. day of November, 1942.

I further agree that I will keep and preserve all coupon numbers calling for merchandise for the Royal Novelty Company, to be used in checking my sales; that I will be responsible for all merchandise when proper coupon numbers are missing; that I WILL NOT REMOVE ANY MERCHANDISE FROM PADS, only as purchased in the usual way. I further agree that I will not pay any money, or deliver any goods to any person excepting on a written order, properly signed by the Royal Novelty Company; that the ownership of said goods shall be and remain that of the Royal Novelty Company; that I will not sell, transfer or dispose of said goods, except in the regular retail way, or after paying in full, at 50 per cent. of the retail price, for said goods unsold, that I will be responsible for the safe-keeping and return, to the Royal Novelty Company, of all money collected and goods unsold; that I will deliver on demand, or return by express at any time so notified, any unsold portion of said goods to the Royal Novelty Company or their legal authorized agents, and at the same time remit for any goods sold which has not been previously paid for; that it is understood by me if I should make personal use of any money or merchandise, belonging to the Royal Novelty Company, the same would constitute embezzlement.

No money shall be paid to any representative of the Royal Novelty Company, excepting upon the delivery, by said representative, of a signed receipt and carbon copy thereof, for the full amount paid, together with a stamped printed envelope, bearing the name and address of the Royal Novelty Company. The dealer agrees to seal carbon copy of receipt in said envelope and mail at once.

I hereby reserve the privilege of returning to the Royal Novelty Company, at any time I may desire, any unsold goods, by paying 60 per cent. of the retail price for all goods sold.
