Lewis Washington }

This cause came on to be heard upon the Bill of Complts, the Answers of Defendants, and Testimony and was Argued by Counsel, on Consideration whereof the Court do find that the Equity of the Case is with the Complainants, and the Court do further find that the note Specified in Complts said Bill as signed by A. Hutchinson for the sum of One hundred and ten dollars exclusive of the endorsement was for the same consideration, for which the other note for the same sum and of the same date was given and without consideration and fraudulently obtained and the Court do further find that the note given by Complainants to the said Lewis Washington on the 12th day of October 1842, for One hundred and Forty seven dollars after deducting the Amount of the said note of 110$ with its interest to the Execution of said note was too great and for more than was due said Washington by the sum of $117 50/100 and that said note for $147. in equity & Justice ought to have been for Twenty nine dollars and fifty Cents that being the sum then honestly due, the said Washington and no more, It is therefore ordered that the Defendants L. Washington be perpetually enjoined from the Collection or transfer of said Note for more in Value than the said $29 50/100 and it is further ordered that Lewis Washington pay the balance of the Costs with its interest according to the tenor of said note, And it

Whereupon this Cause came on to be heard on the transcript of the Record from the Court of Common Pleas of Union County, and was argued by Counsel on Consideration whereof it is the Opinion of this Court that there is error in the Record and proceedings of the said Court of Common Pleas in this that it appears from said Record that said Court of Common Pleas did not render Judgement for the plaintiff for such amount of said payment made by said Plaintiffs to the said Defendants as would remain after allowing the said Defendants their Pro rata dividend as Creditors of said Wingets estate which said Court of Common Pleas ought to have done, It is therefore ordered and adjudged that the Judgement of the said Court of Common Pleas, be and the same is hereby reversed with costs and that the said Plaintiffs be restored to all things which they have lost by reason of said Judgement And that a Special Mandate be sent to the said Court of Common Pleas to carry this Judgement into execution, and that a writ of procedendo also be sent to the same

Therefore it is considered that the judgment aforesaid. for the errors aforesaid. be reversed. annulled and altogether held for nothing: and that the said James H Gill be restored to all things which he has lost by occasion of the said judgment. and
