This is a detailed historical land ownership map of Greenville, Tennessee. The map is oriented with North at the top. It is divided into two main sections by the Greenville Treaty Line, which runs diagonally from the top left towards the center. The left section is labeled 'RANGE 17 TWP 7' and the right section is labeled 'RANGE 16 TWP 7'. The map shows numerous property lots, each with a number and the name of the owner. Acreage is also indicated for many lots. Key geographical features include the Greenville Treaty Line, the Clinch River, and several creeks such as the Clinch Creek, Alum Creek, and Brown Creek. The map also shows the locations of various towns and settlements, including Greenville, Sevier, and Sevier Falls. The map is a valuable resource for understanding the land ownership and development of the Greenville area in the late 18th and early 19th centuries.
