The State of Ohio (Union County) ff.

David Chapman being duly sworn says that in his account of the estate of Henry Shown dec^d he charged himself with 75¢ the rent of the farm belonging to said Estate, and Credited himself with 75¢ labor done in repairing same farm by S. Tucker. The said credit is right and just. The farm was wholly out of repair and could not as he believes have been rented at all without being repaired. He accordingly when he put up said farm for rent for one year proposed that the rent should be paid in repairs. It was struck off to said Tucker the highest bidder at 75¢ payable in repairs and affair settled with Tucker for repairs made by him at 75¢ and in this consists the charge and the credit which the Master has adjusted by charging affiant with the 75¢ and rejected the credit and Tucker's receipt for 75¢. Affiant claims that the said account of rent balances itself. He further makes oath that the amount account for ~~rent~~ to ~~the~~ ~~estate~~ ~~of~~ ~~Henry~~ ~~Shown~~ ~~dec^d~~ ~~was~~ ~~paid~~ ~~by~~ ~~him~~ ~~Oct. 15 1846~~ for the support of a mare belonging ^{as was claimed} to said Estate and which was afterwards reclaimed by Simon Shown. The said mare was kept by affiant as part of the estate by the request and direction of a majority of the heirs and in good faith by affiant sworn to Oct 15 1846
