SCHEDULE G—Year's Allowance. The said decedent leaving Jennie Southwick widow, and 210 children under the age of eighteen years, we do set off and allow to her sufficient provisions or other property to support her for twelve months from the decedent's death, to-wit:

N.B. If the widow or children, since the decedent's death and previous to the allowance, have consumed any part of the estate for their support, the appraisers shall take that into consideration in determining the amount of the allowance. No allowance is to be given minor children if the father survives and is able to support his children by means of property or earnings. A widower is not entitled to a year's support. Property listed under this Schedule should be appraised and listed under previous appropriate Schedules as part of the estate. When money is allowed for the support of such widow or children, the same shall be paid upon approval of the inventory or as soon thereafter as money is available for that purpose. Such allowance in money shall bear interest at the legal rate from the date of death of the decedent until paid, if demanded.

And there not being sufficient personal property, or property of a suitable kind, we certify that the sum of Four Hundred Dollars in money, is necessary for the support of such widow and children, distributed as follows:

SCHEDULE C—Year's Allowance. The said decedent leaving widow, and children under the age of eighteen years, we do set off and allow to sufficient provisions or other property to support for twelve months from the decedent's death, to-wit:

N. B. If the widow or children, since the decedent's death and previous to the allowance, have assumed any part of the estate for their support, the appraisers shall take that into consideration in determining the amount of the allowance. No allowance is to be given minor children if the father survives and is able to support his children by means of property or earnings. A widower is not entitled to a year's support. Property listed under this Schedule should be appraised and listed under previous appropriate Schedules as part of the estate. When money is allowed for the support of such widow or children, the same shall be paid upon approval of the inventory or as soon thereafter as money is available for that purpose. Such allowance in money shall bear interest at the legal rate from the date of death of the decedent until paid, if demanded.

And there not being sufficient personal property, or property of a suitable kind, we certify that the sum of Dollars in money, is necessary for the support of such widow and children, distributed as follows:

SCHEDULE G—Year's Allowance. The said decedent leaving Ella M. Chaudler widow, and us children under the age of eighteen years, we do set off and allow to sufficient provisions or other property to support for twelve months from the decedent's death, to-wit:

N.B. If the widow or children, since the decedent's death and previous to the allowance, have consumed any part of the estate for their support, the appraisers shall take that into consideration in determining the amount of the allowance. No allowance is to be given minor children if the father survives and is able to support his children by means of property or earnings. A widower is not entitled to a year's support. Property listed under this Schedule should be appraised and listed under previous appropriate Schedules as part of the estate. When money is allowed for the support of such widow or children, the same shall be paid upon approval of the inventory or as soon thereafter as money is available for that purpose. Such allowance in money shall bear interest at the legal rate from the date of death of the decedent until paid, if demanded.

And there not being 260 personal property, or property of a suitable kind, we certify that the sum of $240.00 Dollars in money, is necessary for the support of such widow and children, distributed as follows:

SCHEDULE G—Year's Allowance. The said decedent leaving 220 widow, and sufficient provisions or other property to support for children under the age of eighteen years, we do set off and allow to twelve months from the decedent's death, to-wit: N. B. If the widow or children, since the decedent's death and previous to the allowance, have consumed any part of the estate for their support, the appraisers shall take that into consideration in determining the amount of the allowance. No allowance is to be given minor children if the father survives and is able to support his children by means of property or earnings. A widower is not entitled to a year's support. Property listed under this Schedule should be appraised and listed under previous appropriate Schedules as part of the estate. When money is allowed for the support of such widow or children, the same shall be paid upon approval of the inventory or as soon thereafter as money is available for that purpose. Such allowance in money shall bear interest at the legal rate from the date of death of the decedent until paid, if demanded.

And there not being sufficient personal property, or property of a suitable kind, we certify that the sum of Dollars in money, is necessary for the support of such widow and children, distributed as follows:

SCHEDULE D—Accounts and Debts Receivable. The following is a statement of all other debts and accounts, rights and credits belonging to said decedent, which are known to said fiduciary. (Savings and Checking Accounts, etc.)

Table with 6 columns: No., NAME AND P. O. ADDRESS OF DEBTOR, Etc., KIND OF CLAIM, DATE, Balance or Thing Due, Value or Sum Collectible.

SCHEDULE E—Real Estate. We, the undersigned Appraisers, do on our oaths, and upon actual view, appraise the real estate of said decedent, hereinafter described as follows, to-wit:

A parcel of 50 acres located in Taylor Township, Union County, Ohio.

RECAPITULATION OF THE ASSETS BELONGING TO SAID ESTATE

Summary table of assets with columns for description and dollar amounts. Total Appraisal of Assets in Inventory is $3,000.00. Amount set off under Schedule F is $600.00. Net estate is $2,400.00.

SCHEDULE F—Property Exempted from Administration. Said decedent leaving a surviving spouse and a minor child, the following property previously listed in Schedule A is not deemed assets or to be administered as such: Household goods, live stock, tools, implements, utensils, wearing apparel, relics, heirlooms, ornaments pictures and books selected by the surviving spouse or guardian or next friend of the minor child.

N. B. This allowance must not exceed 20% of the total appraisement nor more than $2500.00 if a spouse survives, and not to exceed $1000.00 if there is no spouse, but minor child or children. In either case, the amount set off shall not be less than $500.00.

Calculation table for Schedule F exemption: 20% of Inventory (not less than $500.00) is $600.00. Total value of Property Selected is $600.00. And money (such property being of less value than the amount allowable) is $600.00. Total (not less than $500) is $600.00.

SCHEDULE G—Year's Allowance. The said decedent leaving widow, and children under the age of eighteen years, we do set off and allow to sufficient provisions or other property to support for twelve months from the decedent's death, to-wit:

N.B. If the widow or children, since the decedent's death and previous to the allowance, have consumed any part of the estate for their support, the appraisers shall take that into consideration in determining the amount of the allowance. No allowance is to be given minor children if the father survives and is able to support his children by means of property or earnings. A widower is not entitled to a year's support. Property listed under this Schedule should be appraised and listed under previous appropriate Schedules as part of the estate. When money is allowed for the support of such widow or children, the same shall be paid upon approval of the inventory or as soon thereafter as money is available for that purpose. Such allowance in money shall bear interest at the legal rate from the date of death of the decedent until paid, if demanded.

And there not being personal property, or property of a suitable kind, we certify that the sum of Dollars in money, is necessary for the support of such widow and children, distributed as follows:

SCHEDULE G—Year's Allowance. The said decedent leaving Sarah A. Robinson, his widow, and children under the age of eighteen years, we do set off and allow to her sufficient provisions or other property to support her for twelve months from the decedent's death, to-wit:

N.B. If the widow or children, since the decedent's death and previous to the allowance, have consumed any part of the estate for their support, the appraisers shall take that into consideration in determining the amount of the allowance. No allowance is to be given minor children if the father survives and is able to support his children by means of property or earnings. A widower is not entitled to a year's support. Property listed under this Schedule should be appraised and listed under previous appropriate Schedules as part of the estate.

When money is allowed for the support of such widow or children, the same shall be paid upon approval of the inventory or as soon thereafter as money is available for that purpose. Such allowance in money shall bear interest at the legal rate from the date of death of the decedent until paid, if demanded.

And there not being sufficient personal property, or property of a suitable kind, we certify that the sum of Five Hundred Dollars in money, is necessary for the support of such widow and children, distributed as follows:

SCHEDULE C—Year's Allowance. The said decedent leaving Anna Marie Ferris widow, and no children under the age of eighteen years, we do set off and allow to her sufficient provisions or other property to support her for twelve months from the decedent's death, to-wit:

N. B. If the widow or children, since the decedent's death and previous to the allowance, have consumed any part of the estate for their support, the appraisers shall take that into consideration in determining the amount of the allowance. No allowance is to be given minor children if the father survives and is able to support his children by means of property or earnings. A widower is not entitled to a year's support. Property listed under this Schedule should be appraised and listed under previous appropriate Schedules as part of the estate. When money is allowed for the support of such widow or children, the same shall be paid upon approval of the inventory or as soon thereafter as money is available for that purpose. Such allowance in money shall bear interest at the legal rate from the date of death of the decedent until paid, if demanded.

And there not being sufficient personal property, or property of a suitable kind, we certify that the sum of _____ Dollars in money, is necessary for the support of such widow and children, distributed as follows:

SCHEDULE C—Year's Allowance. The said decedent leaving widow, and children under the age of eighteen years, we do set off and allow to sufficient provisions or other property to support for twelve months from the decedent's death, to-wit:

N. B. If the widow or children, since the decedent's death and previous to the allowance, have consumed any part of the estate for their support, the appraisers shall take that into consideration in determining the amount of the allowance. No allowance is to be given minor children if the father survives and is able to support his children by means of property or earnings. A widower is not entitled to a year's support. Property listed under this Schedule should be appraised and listed under previous appropriate Schedules as part of the estate. When money is allowed for the support of such widow or children, the same shall be paid upon approval of the inventory or as soon thereafter as money is available for that purpose. Such allowance in money shall bear interest at the legal rate from the date of death of the decedent until paid, if demanded.

And there not being sufficient personal property, or property of a suitable kind, we certify that the sum of Dollars in money, is necessary for the support of such widow and children, distributed as follows:

SCHEDULE G—Year's Allowance. The said decedent leaving widow, and children under the age of eighteen years, we do set off and allow to sufficient provisions or other property to support for twelve months from the decedent's death, to-wit:

N.B. If the widow or children, since the decedent's death and previous to the allowance, have consumed any part of the estate for their support, the appraisers shall take that into consideration in determining the amount of the allowance. No allowance is to be given minor children if the father survives and is able to support his children by means of property or earnings. A widower is not entitled to a year's support. Property listed under this Schedule should be appraised and listed under previous appropriate Schedules as part of the estate.

When money is allowed for the support of such widow or children, the same shall be paid upon approval of the inventory or as soon thereafter as money is available for that purpose. Such allowance in money shall bear interest at the legal rate from the date of death of the decedent until paid, if demanded.

And there not being sufficient personal property, or property of a suitable kind, we certify that the sum of Dollars in money, is necessary for the support of such widow and children, distributed as follows:

SCHEDULE G—Year's Allowance. The said decedent leaving Margaret E. Reed widow, and children under the age of eighteen years, we do set off and allow to sufficient provisions or other property to support for twelve months from the decedent's death, to-wit:

N. B. If the widow or children, since the decedent's death and previous to the allowance, have consumed any part of the estate for their support, the appraisers shall take that into consideration in determining the amount of the allowance. No allowance is to be given minor children if the father survives and is able to support his children by means of property or earnings. A widower is not entitled to a year's support. Property listed under this Schedule should be appraised and listed under previous appropriate Schedules as part of the estate. When money is allowed for the support of such widow or children, the same shall be paid upon approval of the inventory or as soon thereafter as money is available for that purpose. Such allowance in money shall bear interest at the legal rate from the date of death of the decedent until paid, if demanded.

And there not being sufficient personal property, or property of a suitable kind, we certify that the sum of two hundred dollars in money, is necessary for the support of such widow and children, distributed as follows:

SCHEDULE C—Year's Allowance. The said decedent leaving Arthur Bonnette widow, and children under the age of eighteen years, we do set off and allow to him sufficient provisions or other property to support him for twelve months from the decedent's death, to-wit:

N. B. If the widow or children, since the decedent's death and previous to the allowance, have consumed any part of the estate for their support, the appraisers shall take that into consideration in determining the amount of the allowance. No allowance is to be given minor children if the father survives and is able to support his children by means of property or earnings. A widower is not entitled to a year's support. Property listed under this Schedule should be appraised and listed under previous appropriate Schedules as part of the estate. When money is allowed for the support of such widow or children, the same shall be paid upon approval of the inventory or as soon thereafter as money is available for that purpose. Such allowance in money shall bear interest at the legal rate from the date of death of the decedent until paid, if demanded.

And there not being sufficient personal property, or property of a suitable kind, we certify that the sum of $200.00 Dollars in money, is necessary for the support of such widow and children, distributed as follows:

SCHEDULE G—Year's Allowance. The said decedent leaving widow, and children under the age of eighteen years, we do set off and allow to sufficient provisions or other property to support for twelve months from the decedent's death, to-wit:

N.B. If the widow or children, since the decedent's death and previous to the allowance, have consumed any part of the estate for their support, the appraisers shall take that into consideration in determining the amount of the allowance. No allowance is to be given minor children if the father survives and is able to support his children by means of property or earnings. A widower is not entitled to a year's support. Property listed under this schedule should be appraised and listed under previous appropriate Schedules as part of the estate. When money is allowed for the support of such widow or children, the same shall be paid upon approval of the inventory or as soon thereafter as money is available for that purpose. Such allowance in money shall bear interest at the legal rate from the date of death of the decedent until paid, if demanded.

And there not being sufficient personal property, or property of a suitable kind, we certify that the sum of Dollars in money, is necessary for the support of such widow and children, distributed as follows:

SCHEDULE C—Year's Allowance. The said decedent leaving Lelah Dale McMahan widow, and children under the age of eighteen years, we do set off and allow to her sufficient provisions or other property to support herself for twelve months from the decedent's death, to-wit:

N. B. If the widow or children, since the decedent's death and previous to the allowance, have consumed any part of the estate for their support, the appraisers shall take that into consideration in determining the amount of the allowance. No allowance is to be given minor children if the father survives and is able to support his children by means of property or earnings. A widower is not entitled to a year's support. Property listed under this Schedule should be appraised and listed under previous appropriate Schedules as part of the estate. When money is allowed for the support of such widow or children, the same shall be paid upon approval of the inventory or as soon thereafter as money is available for that purpose. Such allowance in money shall bear interest at the legal rate from the date of death of the decedent until paid, if demanded.

In the Matter of the Estate of Maria C. Tway.

Case No. 13276.

Russell S. Banks, Administrator. Entry.

This day Russell S. Banks, Administrator of the Estate of Maria C. Tway, deceased, appeared in open court and filed his application for an order directing the omission of an appraisal of the assets of said decedent; and it appearing to the Court that said assets amount to less than $500.00 and are solely bank accounts and that there are no surviving spouse and children of said decedent.

It is therefore ordered that such appraisal be omitted and that said Administrator file instead an inventory showing in detail the assets of said estate.

In the Probate Court, Union County, Ohio, In the Matter of the Estate of Edward W. Southard, Deceased, U.S. 13805 - Separate Schedule Describing Interest in Real Estate located outside of Ohio.

Now comes Anabel E. Southard, Executrix of the Estate of Edward W. Southard, deceased, and files herein this separate schedule describing an interest in real estate standing in the name of the said Edward W. Southard, located outside of the State of Ohio.

Said Executrix finds that during his lifetime the said Edward W. Southard owned in fee a 85/100 interest in 400,000 acres of real estate, located in the Dominican Republic. That no income is being received from said property, and that this Executrix is unable to state whether or not said property has any value, and for that reason places no value on the same at this time.

Anabel E. Southard.

State of Ohio, Union County, ss;

Anabel E. Southard, being first duly sworn, says that she is Executrix of the Estate of Edward W. Southard, deceased, and that the facts stated and allegations made in the foregoing schedule are true as she verily believes.

In the Matter of the Estate of U.S. 13805. Edward W. Southard, Deceased. Exceptions to Inventory.

Now comes Frances Veer, daughter of Edward W. Southard, deceased, and a beneficiary under his Will, and excepts to the inventory of said decedent's estate herein filed by the executrix of said estate, on the 18th day of March, 1939, for the reason that said executor believes and therefore avers, that certain assets belonging to said estate are omitted from said inventory, the exact nature and amount thereof this executor is unable to determine at this time, and desires that the Court receive evidence with respect thereto in accordance with the statute in such cases made and provided, and according to law.

Wherefore, said Frances Neer, prays that a Hearing may be had on said inventory and that the Court may make such order as the facts and the law requires.
