Now comes Elizabeth Bishop and moves the Court that the former order made herein, approving the inventory and appraisal, filed by the administrators, be vacated and that said inventory and appraisal be set aside and declared void for the following reasons:

- (1) Because she, the said Elizabeth Bishop, is the surviving spouse of the decedent, Phillip Bishop, and that no notice was given to her prior to taking said inventory and appraisal, as is required by Section 10509-45 of the General Code of Ohio,
- (2) Because no property was set off to her, as such widow as exempt as provided by Section 10509-54 of the General Code of Ohio.

This day this cause came on to be heard upon the inventory and appraisement heretofore filed herein by John A. Rausch, Administrator of the Estate of George R. Rausch, deceased.

And the court, being fully advised in the premises, finds that notice was given to the next of kin, heirs at law, and all other persons interested in said estate, in compliance with a former order of this court, by advertisement in the Mansfield Tribune, a paper printed and of general circulation in Union County, Ohio, and the notice of said hearing is hereby approved and confirmed.

The court further finds that there have been no exceptions filed to said inventory and appraisement, and after careful examination of the same, and after being fully advised in the premises, the court finds that said inventory and appraisement is in all respects in conformity to law.

It is therefore ordered, adjudged and decreed that said inventory and appraisement be, and the same hereby is, approved and confirmed.
