Lula F. Bride Plaintiff -vs- Pearl McIlroy, executor of the last will and testament of Jennie F. McElroy, deceased, Pearl McIlroy and Bernice F. Defrees defendants
This day this cause came on to be heard upon the petition of plaintiff, Lula F. Bride, the answer of Pearl McIlroy, executor of the last will and testament of Jennie F. McIlroy, deceased the answer of Pearl McIlroy and the answer of Bernice F. Defrees, and the evidence.
The court being fully advised in the premises finds that on or about the 16th day of December 1946, Jennie F. McIlroy a resident of Union County, Ohio, died, leaving her last will and testament, which was duly admitted to probate by this court on the 6th day of January, 1947, and on said date Pearl McIlroy was duly appointed and is now the qualified and acting executor of waid will.

The court further find that Item II of said will provides as follows:

"I give and devise my grape and orange fruit farm at Hildago County, Ohio, to my sister, Lula F. Bride, to have and to hold absolutely and in fee simple. I place thereon, however, a charge of One Thousand ($1,000.00) dollars which she shall pay to my sister, Bernice F. Defrees. My said Sister Bernice F. Defrees, upon receipt of the one thousand ($1,000.00) dollars, shall discharge the grape and orange fruit farm from the charge or lien there against. In addition thereto, I give to my said sister, Lula F. Bride, my diamond wrist watch and diamond dinner ring."

The court further find that testatrix did not own a grape or oragge fruit farm in the State of Ohio and there is no county called Hidalgo County in the State of Ohio; that testatrix was seized of a grape and oragge fruit farm in Hidalgo County, Texas, which is described by meets and bounds as follows:

Situated in the county of Hidalgo and in the State of Texas, and being the north one-half (1/2) of the south one-half (1/2) of Lot Number five (5), Block number eighty-seven (87), out of the Missouri-Texas Land & Irrigation company's subdivision of lands in Las Mestanes Grant, according to the plat of said subdivision of Record in Vol. I, on page 29, of the new map records of Hidalgo Co., to which plat, and the record thereof, reference is here specially made, containing (10) acres of land, more or less.

There is a reservation of (1/16th) of all mineral and mineral rights, in saidland, as such reservations are is as set forth in the deed from J. C. Englemen, Jr. to these grantors, dated January 26th 1928 and recorded in Volume 272, pages 515-518 Deed Records of Hidalgo County, Texas.

Said real estate stands on the records of Hidalgo County, Texas on the name of Jennie Fairbanks that being the name of testatrix prior to her marriage to defendant Pearl McIlroy and Jennie F. McIlroy and Jennie Fairbanks were one and the same person.

The court further find that it was the intention of testatrix to devise to the plaintiff, Lula F. Bride, subject to a charge of One thousand dollars ($1,000.00) as set forth in Item II of said will, the orange and grapefruit farm which she owned in Hidalgo County, Texas, as herein above described, and that reference to said farm and the description thereof as Hidalgo County Ohio was a mistake of the scrivener of said will and not the true intention of said testatrix. The court further find that the defendant, Pearl McIlroy is the surviving spouse of the said Jennie F. McIlroy, deceased, and the defendant, Bernice F. Defrees and plaintiff, Lula F. Bride are the only other devisees or legatees named in said will and they are the only other persons having any interest therein.

It is therefore ordered, adjudged and decreed that it was the intention of testatrix, Jennie F. McIlroy, deceased, to devise to Lula F. Bride the grape and orange fruit farm which she owned in Hidalgo County, Texas, subject to a charge of #1000.00 payable to Bernice F. Defrees and the said Lula F. Bride is entitled to receive said orange and grapefruit farm in Hidalgo County, Texas and as herein above described by meets and bounds as though said will read Hidalgo County, Texas. John W. Dailey, Probate Judge (Seal)

This day this cause came on to be heard upon the petition of plaintiff, the answer of Clifton L. Caryl, Trustee for the Suit of William Moffett, an insane person, and the answer of Clifton L. Caryl, trustee for the suit of Minnie Moffett, an incompetent, and the evidence, the court finds all the defendants herein have been duly and legally served with summons and process or have voluntarily entered their appearance herein and are properly before the court. The court further finds that the said William Moffett is seized in fee simple of the following described real estate, to-wit: Real estate situate in the State of Ohioo County of Union, and Village of Magnetic Springs, and bounded and described as follows: Beginning at the northeast corner of land owned by Robert Hutcheon; thence S. 56 deg. E. 7 rods and 10 feet to a stone; thence S. 9 deg. W. 11 rods and 10 feet to the land of Eli Yoder; thence W. 34 deg. W. 7 rods and 10 feet to the lands of Robert Hutcheon; thence N. 92 deg. E. ll rods and 10 feet to the place of beginning. Containing 90 rods, more or less.

The court further find that on the 24th day of December, 1945, one George Moffett, a son of William Moffett, died seized in fee simple of the following described real estate, to-wit: Situated in the County of Union, State of Ohio, and Township of Leesburg and bounded and described as follows: Being part of Survey number 3696 and being part of land conveyed by Millard Langstaff to Amanda Leeding and bounded as fo lows:

Beginning at a stone at the northeast corner of a certain lot recently sold to Eli Yoder by Robert Leeding and Amanda Leeding; thence S. 9 deg. 30' W. 11 rods and 10 feet to a ditch; thence in a westerly course up said ditch 12 rods and 5 feet to the land of Wilbur DeGood; thence N. 9 deg. 30' E. 6½ rods to a stone; thence E. 17 deg. S. 7 rods and 10 feet to a stone; thence N. 9 deg. 30' E. 11 rods and 10 feet to a stone; thence E. 17 deg. S. 5 rods and 4 feet to the place of beginning.

Containing one hundred and three (103) rods of land, more or less.

This day this cause came on to be heard on the Application of Charles H. Brown, as Guardian of John R. Jerew, an incompetent person for an order authorizing an increase of allowance for maintenance and support of his ward.

Whereupon the Court being fully advised in the premises finds that it is necessary and would be for the best interest of his said ward in increase the allowance for maintenance and support of his said ward for the sum of Seventy-five Dollars ($75.00) per month to the sum of One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) per month.

And the court being fully advised in the premises find that under the provissions of Item 5th of the will of said decedent said trustees were authorized and empowered to sell real estate and other assets of said decedent with or without an order of the court therefor, in whole or in part, at public or private sale, in such manner and upon such terms of credit as they might see fit and were further authorized and directed to deliver to purchasers good and sufficient deeds therefor; that said trustees have sold certain assets of said estate and invested a portion of the proceeds in the real estate above described for which they paid the sum of $12,000.00, that they have an offer to sell the same to Charles D. and Janet Louis Diesem for $15,500.00 and that Janie Fullington Fowler, the sole beneficiary of sai trust has consented to said sale. The court further find that it wouldbe for the best interests of said estate and the beneficiary thereof to sell said real estate to said purchasers for said price. The Court further finds that Minnie A. Moseley the surviving spouse of the said decedent is entitled to reside in the mansion house for one year from the date of the decedent's death, and that in addition thereto as a part and balance of her 20 per centum of the appraised value of the said decedent's estate she is entitled to the sum of $187.77. The Court further finds that the real estate described in the petition was appraised by the appraisers of the estate at $2400.00 and included in the inventory; and, therefore orders that a further appraisement be dispensed with. The Court further finds that the bond herefor given by the plaintiff as administratrix of the estate of Frank W. Moseley is sufficient and further bond is dispensed with. And it further appearing to the Court that a private sale of said real estate would be to the best interests of the estate; therefore, it is ordered that said Minnie A. Moseley as such Administratrix sell said real estate at private sale for not less than $2400.00, being the appraised value therof, and for cash in full on the confirmation of the sale. Louis P. Rausch and Edward P. Rausch Executors of the Last Will and Testament of George Casper Rausch, deceased, Plaintiffs, -vs-J. Frank Rausch, et al., Defendants. This day this cause came on to be heard upon the petition of the Plaintiffs, Louis P. Rausch and Edward P. Rausch, as Executors of the Last Will and Testament of Geroge Casper Rausch, deceased, and the ansers of the Defendants, Louis P. Rausch, Edward P. Rausch, J. Frank Rausch, Walter G. Rausch, Rosa Nicol, Laura Kleiber, Todd Hoopes as Trustee for the suit of the Defendant Daniel G. Rausch, an insane person, Todd Hoopes as Guardian Ad Litem for the minor Defendants, Nancy Ellen Ell and Shirley Ann Ell, and the anser and cross-petition of the Defendants, Alnet Moder, Lorna Beightler, Harold Mayer, the enhibits and the evidence. And on consideration thereof, the Court finds that all necessary and interested parties have been duly served with summons and process as provided by law or have entered their appearance herein, and all are properly before the court. The Court further finds that George Casper Rausch on the 29th day of March, 1930, made and executed his Last Will and Testament, and on June 4th, 1932, executed a codicil thereto and that he died on the 21st day of January, 1948, and on the 11th day of February, 1948, said Last Will and Testament and Codicil thereto were duly admitted to Porbate and Record, in this Court, being Case No. 15390; and that a true copy of said Will and Codicil is attached to the Plaintiff's petition. That the wife of said testator, namely Margaret Rausch, as mentioned in said Will, predeceased him; and, that the following named are the only heirs at law, next of kin, devisees and legatees named in his said Will, J. Frank Rausch, Daniel G. Rausch, Edward P. Rausch, Walter G. Rausch, Louis P. Rausch, Rosa Nicol, Laura Kleiber, Lillie K. Berger and Emma A. B. Mayer. That the said Lillie K. Berger, predeceased the testator, her father, leaving the defendants Horace Ell, Raymond Ell, Veleta Weiler and Alice Dillon her children and the Defendants Nancy Ellen Ell and Phirley Ann Ell, the children of her deceased son, Eugene Ell. That they are the only heirs at law and next of kin of the said Lillie K. Berger, deceased. That Emma A. B. Mayer as named in said Will and Codicil thereto, she being a daughter of the said testator, predeceased him leaving as her only heirs at law and next of kin the Defendants, Alnet Moder, Lorna Beightler and Harold Mayer, her children.. The Court further finds that the Defendants Shirley Ann Ell, is a minor of the age of 15 and that Nancy Ellen Ell is a minor of the age of 17 years and that the Defendant Daniel G. Rausch is confined in the Lims State Hospital for Criminal Insane at Lima Ohio. The Court further finds that the true intention and construction of said testators Will and Codicil thereto was to provide for the sale of the premises in petition described as Tract No.I to Louis P. Rausch, and Tract No.II as therein described to Edward P. Rausch upon each paying a purchase price therefor as may be determined by agreement of all the heirs at law of the said Geroge Casper Rausch, deceased; and in the event said heirs cannot agree upon a price; then, the said Louis P. Rausch and Edward P. Rausch shall pick one appraiser and the heirs of decedent shall pick one appraiser to appraise each of said tracts of real estate, and which appraisal so made and value fixed shall be binding on all parties. The Court further finds that the said Louis P. Rausch and Edward P. Rausch and the heirs of the said Geroge Casper Rausch, deceased, cannot agree as to a purchase price or the value of said real estate for which the said Louis P. Rausch and Edward P. Rausch shall pay for said respective farms. Therefore, it is ordered by the Court that both Tracts of real estate be appraised and the value fixed thereon by appraisers, one to be designated by the said Louis P. Rausch and Edward P. Rausch, and that one be designated by the other heirs of the said decedent, which shall include those heirs and next of kin that are under disability and who shall act for and their interest represented by Todd Hoopes as Trustee for the suit for Daniel G. Rausch, and as Guardian Ad Litem for the minor Defendants, Nancy Ellen Ell and Shirley Ann Ell. It is further ordered that the two appraisers so selected and designated by the parties select a third appraiser, and that the names of the three appraisers so selected be submitted to this Court, and that an order issue from this Court directing said appraisers to appraise and fix a value on each Tract of said real estate at its fair market value. And this cause coming on further to be heard the Court finds that the true intention and construction of Item II of the Codicil to said Last Will and Testament of said testator is to provide that one-half of the devise of bequest made to the Defendant J. Frank Rausch be paid to Emma A. B. Mayer and that by reason of her predeceasing said testator that by virtue of section No. 10504-73 of the General Code of Ohio the said bequest or devise to the said Emma A. B. Mayer does not lapse but shall be paid or turned over to, the Defendants Alnet Moder, Lorna Beightler and Harold Mayer upon distribution, they being the only children and only next of kin and heirs at law of the said Emma A. B. Mayer, deceased. John W. Dailey, Probate Judge (Seal). Approved By: Gwynn Sanders, Attorney for Plaintiffs, Milo L. Sarah Jane Kerns, Executrix of the Estate of Bernice E. Skidmore, deceased, Plaintiff -vs-

David Stanton Kerns, a minor, et al, Defendants.
This day this cause came on for hearing upon the petition to construe the Will of Bernice E.
Skidmore, deceased, the answer of the Guardian Ad Litem, the testimony and the evidence.
The Court being fully advised in the premises finds that all the necessary parties are before the Court and that the decedent Bermice E. Skidmore made and executed her last Will and Testament on the 5th day of May 1936. The Court further finds that on the 8th day of April 1936 the Ohio National Life Insurance Company of Cincinnati, Ohio issued its policy No. 245741, being a single premium life annuity to the said Bernice E. Skidmore, deceased and that thereafter on the same date, April 8th, 1936 the said Bernice E. Skidmore made and executed her special bequest for settlement in case of her death that all the remaining portions due on said contract of installment due on said contract of insurance be paid to Sarah Jane Kerns, which said request was attached to said policy and accepted by the Ohio National Life Insurance Company on said date. The Court finds that by reason of said contract made and entered into by and between the Ohio National Life Insurance Company and the decedent that said decedent was unable to change the mode of payment or the beneficiarys thereof and that upon the death of the said Bernice E. Skkdmore the remaining portions of installments due became vested as setaforth in said policy, that is said payments became vested in Sarah Jane Kerns until all of said payments had been made or until the death of Sarah Jane Kerns. That if the said Sarah Jane Kerns dies before said installments are completed that said installments shall be paid to David Stanton Kerns and Phyllis Jane Kerns, the contingent beneficiarys. The Court finds that under Item 3, of said last Will and Testament, all the property of the decedent is devised and bequeathed to Sarah Jane Kerns. The Court finds that the said Sarah Jane Kerns being alive at the death of the decedent that the said Sarah Jane Kerns is bequeathed and devised all of the estate of Bernice E. Skidmore in fee simple. The Court finds that no part of the estate of Bernice E. Skidmore is bequeathed, or devised, to David Stanton Kerns and Phyllis Jane Kerns that the provisions in said Will appointing V. B. Templeton fails and is void and that the request for the appointment of Myrtle Moor as Guardian of the person and the estate of David Stanton Kems and Phyllis Jane Kems is null and void. It is therefore ordered by the Court that said Executrix proceed with the settlement of said estate in accordance with the finding of the Court herein set forth. John W. Dailey, Probate Judge (Seal). Approved:
