In the Matter of the estate of John G. Bandtel, deceased. } Order Revoking Letters &c.

No 6443 This day this cause came on further to be heard pursuant to a former order of the Court. Thereupon came the parties hereto by their attorneys. On consideration whereof, the Court find from the evidence heretofore addduced herein that the allegations contained in the petition of said Catharine Bandtel are true. That immediately preceding the death of said John G Bandtel, the widow and heirs and legal representatives of said decedent entered into an agreement among themselves whereby the personal property of said decedent was turned over to said Catharine Bandtel, widow, and that in pursuance of said agreement said Catharine Bandtel reduced all the personal property to her possession, including all claims due said decedent, and paid all the debts and funeral expenses of said decedent and erected a monument at his grave.

That all the real estate of said decedent has been sold and said Anna Horch has received all her part of the proceeds thereof, but the other heirs have turned over a part of their portions of said proceeds to said Catharine Bandtel. The Court further find that at the time said Anna Horch filed her application for letters of administration herein and at the time said letters were issued herein to said Anna Horch, the estate of said John G. Bandtel, deceased, was not indebted in any amount whatever, and that there were no claims of any kinds due to said estate of said John G. Bandtel, deceased, and that said agreement of said widow and heirs had been fully executed for nearly three years and that there was no necessity for administration of said estate.

It is therefore considered, ordered and adjudged by the Court that the Letters of Administration heretofore, to wit: On the 14th day of March 1906, granted to the said Anna Horch, as administratrix of the estate of said John G. Bandtel deceased, be, and the same hereby are revoked and annulled, and said Anna Horch is divested of all power, authority and control over the estate of said deceased and she is hereby ordered to return said Letters into this Court forthwith.

It is further considered ordered and adjudged that the application of said Anna Horch for Letters of Administration herein filed on the 14th day of March 1906, be and the same hereby is dismissed. It is further considered, ordered and adjudged that said Anna Horch pay the costs herein taxed at $, within ten days, and in default thereof that an execution issue therefor.

To all of which findings, orders and judgments said Anna Horch, by her attorneys then and there excepts.

Said Anna Horch, by her attorneys, thereupon gave notice of her intention to appeal this case to the Court of Common Pleas, and the Court fix the bond herein in the sum of Two Hundred Dollars.

No. 6314 — In the Matter of the estate of Mary Snider, Deceased. } On exceptions to Inventory.

Ruling upon "Agreed Statement of Facts" in the above entitled action, submitted July 19, 1906.

The Court finds:- First: That Philip Snider died Dec. 17 1876, his widow Mary Snider died July 29, 1905, surviving him eight years, Seven months (and) twelve days. Second: That Charles Snider and Adam Snider were the agents of Mary Snider during her lifetime and that they have in their hands $7188 44 now due Mary Snider or her estate. The testimony as to the declarations (Mary Snider) statements I do not believe admissible and the gift could not be established by it and it is my opinion that the conditional gift is not good in Law.

Thereupon it is ordered by the Court that said Chas. Snider and Adam Snider account for said amount of $7188 44 in the estate of Mary Snider, deceased.

And it is further ordered that a record of these proceedings be made. And that Charles Snider and Adam Snider pay costs herein taxed at $,
