vs. No. 7543

7543 Catherine M. McComb, widow of Benjamin

Abner McComb, Lizzie McWhirter, Robert F.
McWhorter, Airane McComb, Maggie McComb,
Anna Ayers, John Ayers, Nanette Ayers,
William Ayers, John McComb, Alice McComb,

Defendants.

This day this cause came on to be heard, as heretofore continued by the Court, and the defendants each and everyone of them having heretofore waived the issuance and service of summons or having been duly served with summons as required by law; the Court finds that all defendants to this action are now before the Court and are in default for answer or demurrer.

On proof submitted, the Court finds the allegations of said petition are true, and that it is necessary to sell the said real estate of deceased as in plaintiff's petition described, in order to pay the debts and claims against said estate. By the records the court finds that the real estate in plaintiffs petition described was appraised at the time of the appraisement of the personal estate, by three judicious, disinterested free-holders of the vicinity where said real estate is situated; and that said appraisers at said time assigned homestead of said widow bounded thus: the house, barn, out buildings and land on which the same is situated, the same enclosed by yard and barn yard fences.

And that said appraisers also assigned dower of said widow, bounded thus: The portion of the above described farm lying adjacent to the buildings and being all that part lying north of the east and west road, containing, by estimation, thirty (30) acres; also a strip off the east side of the timbered lot situated on the south side of said road, the same to contain six (6) acres; also an out lot or lane along the east line of said farm, 16 feet in width from said wood lot to said road.

And that said appraisers also did appraise said real estate, subject to said dowers and homestead, at $8540.00; and said appraisers also appraised said real estate fee of the dower and homestead of said widow at $1200.

On examination the Court finds said assignment of homestead and dower is just and equitable, and the same is here now approved and confirmed; and that said appraisement of said real estate as herein set forth is just and fair, and in accordance with law, and the same is hereby affirmed.

It being made to appear to the court that it will be less expensive and to the advantage of said estate to sell said real estate at private sale, it is ordered that authority be issued from this Court for said Administrator to sell said real estate at private sale; for not less than the appraised value, subject to homestead and dower of said widow, said widow having failed to file her award for sale free of homestead and dower; and that the report her proceedings to this court without unnecessary delay.

This day this cause coming on to be heard upon the petition, the answer of Orpha Hough, defendant, and the evidence, the Court, being fully advised in the premises, finds:

That the proof of publication of notice to Arthur Forrider of the pendency and prayer of the petition herein is in all respects regular and according to law; and the same is, therefore, approved. And the Court further finds that all other defendants have been duly and legally notified by summons in the premises; and that all defendants are now properly before the Court.

The Court further finds that, except as to the answering defendant, Orpha Hough, the defendants are in default for answer and demurrer to the petition; and that, therfore, the allegations of the petition are confessed by them to be true.
And the Court, being satisfied, from the evidence, that the real estate described in the petition aught to be sold as prayed for, also finds that an appraisement of said real estate, by three disinterested freeholders of the community, has been returned with the inventory of the personalty of said estate and that a further appraisement in the premises is unnecessary.
It is, therfore, considered and ordered by the Court that another appraisement of said real estate be dispensed with, and that the sale thereof be based upon said former appraisement. And this cause is adjourned for further orders in the premises.

find: That all the defendants herein have waived the issuing and service of process and entered their appearance herein, and having been duly notified of the pendency and prayer of the petition as required by law; that all the allegations of the petition are true, and that it is necessary to sell the real estate in the petition described to pay the debts of the deceased and costs of administration. That said Ara Cartwell as widow of said deceased, is entitled to have a homestead set apart in the premises described in the petition, but that by reason of the lien of the defendant, The Citizens Home and Savings Company she is precluded from having the same set off to her out of said real estate, it is therefore ordered that out of the residue of the proceeds of the sale of said premises she be paid in lieu of said homestead the sum of $500.00, should there be sufficient residue after paying the lien of said The Citizens Home and Savings Company and the costs of administration; also that the said Ara Cartwell as widow of deceased, is entitled to dower in said premises.

Wherefore it is considered and ordered by the court that A. C. Vosburg, N. E. Liggett and G. E. Whitney, three judicious disinterested men, free holders of the vicinity, set apart to said Ara Cartwell her dower rights in the premises in the petition described; and that they make return of such assignment, with a just valuation of said premises, subject to such dower, to this court for confirmation.
