Sheriff's Office Investigating Domestic Incident

On Tuesday, April 2, 2019 at approximately 2:04 am, the Union County Sheriff's Office received a 9-1-1 call reporting a possible domestic argument at a residence in the 23000 block of Woodstock Road in Union Township. Deputies responded to the scene and found the residence ransacked with blood stains throughout the first floor. During the initial investigation, deputies identified a person of interest and a possible female victim. The person of interest was believed to be in the Columbus area and a search was initiated. Deputies from the Franklin County Sheriff's Office, officers from the Columbus Police Department, and troopers from the Ohio State Highway Patrol assisted with the search. The person of interest and a female victim were found in a vehicle near the intersection of Morse Road and Chesford Road in Columbus. The person of interest was taken into custody by Franklin County Deputies and transported to the Union County Sheriff's Office. The victim was transported to Riverside Methodist Hospital for treatment of significant injuries. This incident is an active investigation and detectives are preparing multiple search warrants. An updated media release will be sent as more information becomes available.
